Treasury Department Order No. 165-17, Amendment 5

Treasury Department Order No. 165-17, relating to reorganization of the Customs Field Service, amended

Treasury Department,
Washington, D.C., January 14, 1971.

In a notice published in the Federal Register on December 8, 1970 (35 F.R. 18599), the Department of the Treasury gave notice of a proposal to create in the Customs district of New York City, New York, three administrative areas, each under the jurisdiction of an area director of customs.

Written representations on behalf of interested parties were received and have been carefully considered. The Department is satisfied that the proposed plan can be implemented without adversely affecting vessel operators, shippers, importers or other parties who conduct business with Customs in the district of New York City, New York.

Accordingly, pursuant to Reorganization Plan No. 1 of 1965 (30 F.R. 7035), Reorganization Plan No. 26 of 1950 (3 CFR, Ch. III), section 1 of the Act of August 1, 1914, as amended, 38 Stat. 623 (19 U.S.C. 2), and Executive Order No. 10289, September 17, 1951 (3 CFR, Ch. II), Treasury Department Order No. 165-17 (T.D. 56464, 30 F.R. 10913) is hereby amended by creating in the Customs district of New York City, New York, which is coextensive with Customs Region II, New York City, New York, three administrative areas to be designated as Kennedy Airport Area, Newark Area, and New York Seaport Area, each under the jurisdicition of an area director of customs.

Beginning at a point in the Atlantic Ocean at the foot of Beach 95th Street, Rockaway Beach, and proceeding in a northerly direction along the center line of Cross Bay Boulevard and its continuation, Woodhaven Boulevard, to Atlantic Avenue; thence in an easterly direction along the center line of Atlantic Avenue to Van Wyck Expressway; thence in a northerly direction along the center line of Van Wyck Expressway to Hillside Avenue (Route 24); thence in an easterly direction along the center line of Hillside Avenue to 212th Street; thence in a southeasterly direction along the center line of Route 24 (212th Street, Jamaica Avenue, and Hempstead Avenue) to the New York City limits, the boundary line between Queens and Nassau Counties; thence along this boundary line to the Atlantic Ocean, and thence along the shore line to the point of beginning. In addition, La Guardia Airport and U.S. Naval Air Station New York (Floyd Bennett Field) are designated as parts of the Kennedy Airport Area.

The Newark Area shall consist of the counties of Sussex, Passaic, Hudson, Bergen, Essex, Union, Middlesex, and Monmouth in the State of New Jersey, and the county of Richmond in the State of New York.

The New York Seaport Area shall include all that part of the State of New York not expressly included in the Kennedy Airport Area and the Newark Area in the district of New York City and in the districts of Buffalo and Ogdensburg.

This amendment shall become effective on April 1, 1971.

[8a] No entry is required for a vessel of less than 5 net tons which arrives in the United States from a contiguous country otherwise than by sea. For the reporting requirements applicable with respect to such vessels, see § 5.1 of this chapter.

[9] Every undocumented vessel of 5 net tons or over owned by an alien, whether or not such alien is a resident of the United States, is a foreign vessel.

[10] "Whenever, under any provision or provisions of any statute of the United States, it is made the duty of the masters of vessels to make entry and clearance of same, it shall be lawful for such duties to be performed by any licensed deck officer or purser of such vessel; and when such duties are performed by a licensed deck officer or purser of such vessel, such acts shall have the same force and effect as if performed by masters of such vessels: Provided, That nothing herein contained shall relieve the master of any penalty or liability provided by any statute relating to the entry or clearance of vessels." (46 U.S.C. 91a)

"* * * Every master who presents a forged, altered, or false document or paper on making entry of a vessel as required by section 434 or 435 of this Act, knowing the same to be forged, altered or false and without revealing the fact, shall, in addition to any forfeiture to which in consequence the vessel may be subject, be liable to a fine of not more than $5,000 nor less than $50 or to imprisonment for not more than two years, or to both such fine and imprisonment." (Tariff Act of 1930, sec. 436, as amended; 19 U.S.C. 1436)

[11] See § 4.2(b).

[13] "If any vessel or vehicle from a foreign port or place arrives within the limits of any collection district and departs or attempts to depart, except from stress of weather or other necessity, without making a report or entry under the provisions of this chapter, or if any merchandise is unladen therefrom before such report or entry, the master of such vessel shall be liable to a penalty of $5,000, and the person in charge of such vehicle shall be liable to a penalty of $500, and any such vessel or vehicle shall be forfeited, and any officer of the customs may cause such vessel or vehicle to be arrested and brought back to the most convenient port of the United States." (Tariff Act of 1930, sec. 585, as amended, 19 U.S.C. 1585)

Any document which is not required may be omitted from the manifest provided the word "None" is inserted in item 17-22 of the General Declaration, as appropriate. If a vessel arrives in ballast and therefore the Cargo Declaration is omitted, the legend "No merchandise on board" shall be inserted in item 13 of the General Declaration. [TDs 37374(Q.35), 37837, 50683, 52040, 52412, 53425, 55278, 56439, 71-169, 71-205, 74-284, 77-255.]

(b) The original and one copy of the manifest shall be ready for production on demand.[15] The master shall deliver the original and one copy of the manifest to the boarding officer.[16] If the vessel is to proceed from the port of arrival to other United States ports with residue foreign cargo or passengers, an additional copy of the manifest shall be available for certification as a traveling manifest (see § 4.85). The district director may require an additional copy or additional copies of the manifest, but a reasonable time shall be allowed for the preparation of any copy which may be required in addition to the original and one copy. [TDs 52965, 53336, 53448, 53792, 53848, 54413, 55278, 69-266, 71-169.]

"Any master of any vessel and any person in charge of any vehicle bound to the United States who does not produce the manifest to the officer demanding the same shall be liable to a penalty of $500, * * *; Provided, That if the collector shall be satisfied that the manifest was lost or mislaid without intentional fraud, * * *, said penalties shall not be incurred. * * *" (Tariff Act of 1930, sec. 584, as amended; 19 U.S.C. 1584)

[16] "Immediately upon arrival and before entering his vessel, the master of a vessel from a foreign port or place required to make entry shall mail or deliver to such employee as the Secretary of the Treasury shall designate, a copy of the manifest, and shall on entering his vessel make affidavit that a true and correct copy was so mailed or delivered, and he shall also mail or deliver to such employee designated by the Secretary a true and correct copy of any correction of such manifest filed on entry of his vessel. § 4.7a Inward manifest; information required; alternative forms.

The forms designated by § 4.7(a) as comprising the inward manifest shall be completed as follows: [TD 71-169, 77-255.]

(a) Ship's Stores Declaration. Articles to be retained aboard as sea or ship's stores, required by section 432, Tariff Act of 1930,[17] to be separately specified shall be listed on the Ship's Stores Declaration, Customs Form 1303. Less than whole packages of sea or ship's stores may be described as "sundry small and broken stores."

(b) Crew's Effects Declaration. (Customs Form 1304). (1) The declaration number of the Crew Member's Declaration, Customs Form 5129, prepared and signed by any officer or crewmember who intends to land articles in the United States, or the word "None," shall be shown in item No. 7 on the Crew's Effects Declaration, Customs form 1304 opposite the respective crewmember's name. [TD 77-255.]

(2) In lieu of describing the articles on Customs Form 1304, the master may furnish a Crew List, Customs and Immigration Form I-418, endorsed as follows: [TD 77-255.]

> I certify that this list, with its supporting crewmembers' declarations, is a true and complete manifest of all articles on board the vessel acquired abroad by myself and the officers and crewmembers of this vessel, other than articles exclusively for use on the voyage or which have been duly cleared through Customs in the United States.

> (Master.)

The Crew List on Form I-418 shall show, opposite the crewmember's name, his shipping article number and, in column 5, the declaration number. If the crewmember has nothing to declare, the word "None" shall be placed opposite his name instead of a declaration number.

(3) For requirements concerning the preparation of Customs Form 5129, see Subpart G of Part 148 of this chapter. [TDs 73-27, 77-255.]

(4) Any articles which are required to be manifested and are not manifested shall be subject to forfeiture and the master shall be subjected to a penalty equal to the value thereof, as provided in section 584, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended. [TD 73-27.]

(c) Cargo Declaration. (1) The Cargo Declaration, Customs Form 1302, shall list all the inward foreign cargo on board regardless of the port of discharge. The block designated "Arrival" at the top of the form shall be checked. The cargo described in column Nos. 6 and 7, and either column No. 8 or 9, shall refer to the respective bills of lading. Either column No. 8 or column No. 9 shall be used, as appropriate. The gross weight in column No. 8 shall be expressed in either pounds or kilograms. The measurement in column No. 9 shall be expressed according to the unit of measure specified in the Tariff Schedules of the United States (19 U.S.C. 1202). [TDs 74-97, 77-255, 79-31.]

(2)(i) When inward foreign cargo is being shipped by container, each bill of lading shall be listed in the column headed "B/L Nr." in numerical sequence according to the bill of lading number. The number of the container which contains the cargo covered by that bill of lading and the number of the container seal shall be listed in column No. 6 opposite the bill of lading number. The number of any other bill of lading for cargo in that container also shall be listed in column No. 6 immediately under the container and seal numbers. A description of the cargo shall be set forth in column No. 7 only if the covering bill of lading is listed in the column headed "B/L Nr." [TDs 77-255, 79-31.]

(ii) As an alternative to the procedure described in subparagraph (i), a separate list of the bills of lading covering each container on the vessel may be submitted on Customs form 1302 or on a separate sheet. If this procedure is used—

(A) Each container number shall be listed in alphanumeric sequence by port of discharge in column No. 6 of Customs form 1302, or on the separate sheet; and

(B) The number of each bill of lading covering cargo in a particular container, identifying the port of lading, shall be listed opposite the number of the container with that cargo in the column headed "B/L Nr." if Customs form 1302 is used, or either opposite or under the number of the container if a separate sheet is used. [TD 79-31.]

(3) For shipment of containerized or palletized cargo, Customs officers shall accept a Cargo Declaration which indicates that it has been prepared on the basis of information furnished by the shipper. The use of words of qualification shall not limit the responsibility of a master to submit accurate Cargo Declarations or qualify the oath taken by the master as to the accuracy of his declaration.

(i) If Cargo Declaration covers only containerized or palletized cargo, the following statement may be placed on the declaration:

> The information appearing on the declaration relating to the quantity and description of the cargo is in each instance based on the shipper's load and count. I have no knowledge or information which would lead me to believe or to suspect that the information furnished by the shipper is incomplete, inaccurate, or false in any way.

(ii) If the Cargo Declaration covers conventional cargo and containerized or palletized cargo, or both, the use of the abbreviation "SLAC" for "shipper's load and count," or an appropriate abbreviation if similar words are used, is approved: Provided, That abbreviation is placed next to each containerized or palletized shipment on the declaration and the following statement is placed on the declaration:

> The information appearing on this declaration relating to the quantity and description of cargo preceded by the abbreviation "SLAC" is in each instance based on the shipper's load and count. I have no information which would lead me to believe or to suspect that the information furnished by the shipper is incomplete, inaccurate, or false in any way.

(iii) The statements specified in subparagraphs (3)(i) and (3)(ii) of this paragraph shall be placed on the last page of the Cargo Declaration. Words similar to "the shipper's load and count" may be substituted for those words in the statements. Vague expressions such as "said to contain" or "accepted as containing" are not acceptable. The use of an asterisk or other character instead of appropriate abbreviations, such as "SLAC", is not acceptable.

[17] "The manifest of any vessel arriving from a foreign port or place shall separately specify the articles to be retained on board of such vessel as sea stores, ship's stores, or bunker coal, or bunker oil, and if any other or greater quantity of sea stores, ship's stores, bunker coal, or bunker oil is found on board of any such vessel than is specified in the manifest, or if any such articles, whether shown on the manifest or not are landed without a permit therefor issued by the collector, all such articles omitted from the manifest or landed without a permit shall be subject to forfeiture, and the master shall be liable to a penalty equal to the value of the articles." (Tariff Act of 1930, sec. 432; 19 U.S.C. 1432)

(d) Crew List. The Crew List shall be completed in accordance with the requirements of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, United States Department of Justice (8 CFR Part 251).

(e) Passenger List. (1) The Passenger List shall be completed in accordance with § 4.50 and with the requirements of the Immigration and Naturalization Service, U.S. Department of Justice (8 CFR Part 231), and the following certification shall be placed on its last page: [TD 73-27.]

> I certify that Customs baggage declaration requirements have been made known to incoming passengers; that any required Customs baggage declarations have been or will simultaneously herewith be filed as required by law and regulation with the proper Customs officer; and that the responsibilities devolving upon this vessel in connection therewith, if any, have been or will be discharged as required by law or regulation before the proper Customs officer. I further certify that there are no steerage passengers on board this vessel (46 U.S.C. 151-163).

(2) If the vessel is carrying steerage passengers, the reference to steerage passengers shall be deleted from the certification, and the master shall comply with the requirements of § 4.50.

(3) If there are no steerage passengers aboard upon arrival, the listing of the passengers may be in the form of a vessel "souvenir passenger list," or similar list, in which the names of the passengers are listed alphabetically and to which the certificate referred to in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph is attached.

(4) All baggage on board a vessel not accompanying a passenger and the marks or addresses thereof shall be listed on the last sheet of the passenger list under the caption "Unaccompanied baggage." § 4.8 Preliminary entry.

If it is desired that any vessel having on board inward foreign cargo, passengers, or baggage shall discharge or take on cargo, passengers, or baggage before the vessel has been formally entered, preliminary entry shall be made by compliance with § 4.30 and execution by the master of the Master's Certificate on Preliminary Entry on Customs Form 1300.[18] (Sections 448, 486, 46 Stat. 714, 725, as amended; 19 U.S.C. 1448, 1486) [TDs 47813, 53336, 54232, 66-249, 71-169.]

The master shall deposit the vessel's document with the district director before or at the time of entry. The document may be returned upon request to the master of a vessel of less than 100 gross tons engaged in taking out fishing parties. [TDs 51107, 54267, 55504, 71-169.]

(c) The master of any foreign vessel shall exhibit the vessel's document to the district director on or before the entry of the vessel. After the net tonnage has been noted, the master may deliver it to the consul of the nation to which such vessel belongs, in which event he shall file with the district director the certificate required by section 435 of the Tariff Act. If not delivered to the consul, the document shall be deposited in the customhouse.[21] [TD 71-169.]

(d) The master of every vessel required to make entry shall present on entry the pratique required by the pertinent regulations of the United States Public Health Service and shall pay all required fees and penalties incurred. [TDs 51253, 71-169]

[19] "Except as otherwise provided by law, and under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, the master of a vessel of the United States arriving in the United States from a foreign port or place shall, within forty-eight hours after its arrival within the limits of any customs collection district, make formal entry of the vessel at the customhouse by producing and depositing with the collector the vessel's crew list, its register, or document in lieu thereof, the clearance and bills of health issued to the vessel at the foreign port or ports from which it arrived, together with the original and one copy of the manifest, and shall make oath that the ownership of the vessel is as indicated in the register, or document in lieu thereof, and that the manifest was made out in accordance with section 431 of this Act." (Tariff Act of 1930, sec. 434, as amended; 19 U.S.C. 1434)

[21] "It shall not be lawful for any foreign consul to deliver to the master of any foreign vessel the register, or document in lieu thereof, deposited with him in accordance with the provisions of section 435 of this Act until such master shall produce to him a clearance in due form from the collector of the port where such vessel has been entered. Any consul offending against the provisions of this section shall be liable to a fine of not more than $5,000." (Tariff Act of 1930, sec. 438; 19 U.S.C. 1438)

§ 4.10 Request for overtime services.

Request for overtime services in connection with the entry or clearance of a vessel, including the boarding of a vessel for the purpose of preliminary entry,[22] shall be made on Customs Form 3171. (See § 24.16 of this chapter regarding pleasure vessels.) Such request for overtime services must specify the nature of the services desired and the exact times when they will be needed, unless a term special license (unlimited or limited to the service requested) has been issued (see § 4.30(g)) and arrangements are made locally so that the proper Customs officer will be notified during official hours in advance of the rendering of the services as to the nature of the services desired and the exact times they will be needed. Such request shall not be approved (previously issued term special licenses shall be revoked) unless the carrier complies with the provisions of paragraphs (l) and (m) of § 4.30 regarding terminal facilities and employee lists, respectively, and the required cash deposit or bond, on Customs Form 7567 or 7569, has been received. Separate bonds shall be required if overtime services are requested by different principals. (Secs. 448, 451, 46 Stat. 714, 715, as amended; 19 U.S.C. 1448, 1451) [TDs 52442, 53461, 53626, 68-247, 72-189.]

§ 4.11 Sealing of stores.

Upon the arrival of a vessel from a foreign port, or a vessel engaged in the foreign trade from a domestic port, sea stores and ship's stores not required for immediate use or consumption on board while the vessel is in port and articles acquired abroad by officers and members of the crew, for which no permit to land has been issued, shall be placed under seal, unless the Customs officer is of the opinion that the circumstances do not require such action. Customs inspectors in charge of the vessel, from time to time, as in their judgment the necessity of the case requires, may issue stores from under seal for consumption on board the vessel by its passengers and crew. (See § 4.39.) [TDs 38218, 38248, 40852.]

§ 4.12 Explanation of manifest discrepancy.

(a)(1) Vessel masters or agents shall notify the district director on Customs Form 5931 of shortages (merchandise manifested, but not found) or overages (merchandise found, but not manifested) of merchandise. [TDs 51288, 52021, 52773, 53336, 53792, 55436, 71-22, 76-81.]

(2) Shortages shall be reported to the district director by the master or agent of the vessel by endorsement on the importer's claim for shortage on Customs Form 5931 as provided for in § 158.3 of this chapter, or within 60 days after the date of entry of the vessel, whichever is later. Satisfactory evidence to support the claim of nonimportation[23] or of proper disposition or other corrective action (see § 4.34) shall be obtained by the master or agent and shall be retained in the carrier's file for one year. [TDs 72-258, 76-81.]

(3) Overages shall be reported to the district director within 60 days after the date of entry of the vessel by completion of a post entry[24] or suitable explanation of corrective action (see § 4.34) on the Customs Form 5931. [TD 76-81.]

(4) The district director shall immediately advise the master or agent of those discrepancies which are not reported by the master or agent. Notification may be in any appropriate manner, including the furnishing of a copy of Customs Form 5931 to the master or agent. The master or agent shall satisfactorily resolve the matter within 30 days after the date of such notification, or within 60 days after entry of the vessel, whichever is later. [TD 76-81.]

(5)(a) Unless the required notification and explanation is made timely and the district director is satisfied that the discrepancies resulted from clerical error or other mistake and that there has been no loss of revenue (and in the case of a discrepancy not initially reported by the master or agent that there was a valid reason for failing to so report), applicable penalties under section 584, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1584), shall be assessed (see section 162.31 of this chapter). For purposes of this section, the term "clerical error" is defined as a nonnegligent, inadvertent, or typographical mistake in the preparation, assembly, or submission of the manifest. However, repeated similar manifest discrepancies by the same parties may be deemed the result of negligence and not clerical error or other mistake. For the purpose of assessing applicable penalties, the value of the merchandise shall be determined as prescribed in section 162.43 of this chapter. The fact that the master or owner had no knowledge of a discrepancy shall not relieve him from the penalty. [TDs 72-211, 75-299, 79-160.]

(b) Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section, a correction in the manifest shall not be required in the case of bulk merchandise if the district director is satisfied that the difference between the manifested quantity and the quantity unladen, whether the difference constitutes an overage or a shortage, is an ordinary and usual difference properly attributable to absorption of moisture, temperature, faulty weighing at the port of lading, or other similar reason. A correction in the manifest shall not be required because of discrepancies between marks or numbers on packages of merchandise and the marks or numbers for the same packages as shown on the manifest of the importing vessel when the quantity and description of the merchandise in such packages are correctly given. [TDs 53336, 55436.]

[22] Except as provided in section 441 of this Act (relating to vessels not required to enter), no merchandise, passengers, or baggage shall be unladen from any vessel or vehicle arriving from a foreign port or place until entry of such vessel or report of the arrival of such vehicle has been made and a permit for the unlading of the same issued by the collector: Provided, That the master may make a preliminary entry of a vessel by making oath or affirmation to the truth of the statements contained in the vessel's manifest and delivering the manifest to the customs officer who boards such vessel, but the making of such preliminary entry shall not excuse the master from making formal entry of his vessel at the customhouse, as provided by this Act. After the entry, preliminary or otherwise, of any vessel or report of the arrival of any vehicle, the collector may issue a permit to the master of the vessel, or to the person in charge of the vehicle, to unlade merchandise or baggage, but except as provided in subdivision (b) of this section merchandise or baggage so unladen shall be retained at the place of unlading until entry therefor is made and a permit for its delivery granted, and the owners of the vessel or vehicle from which any imported merchandise is unladen prior to entry of such merchandise shall be liable for the payment of the duties accruing on any part thereof that may be removed from the place of unlading without a permit therefor having been issued. * * *." (Tariff Act of 1930, section 448(a); 19 U.S.C. 1448(a))

[23] * * * "If any merchandise described in such manifest is not found on board the vessel or vehicle the master or other person in charge or the owner of such vessel or vehicle or any person directly or indirectly responsible for any discrepancy between the merchandise and said manifest shall be subject to a penalty of $500: Provided, That if the appropriate Customs officer shall be satisfied that the manifest * * * is incorrectly by reason of clerical error or other mistake and that no part of the merchandise not found on board was unshipped or discharged except as specified in the report of the master, said penalties shall not be incurred. * * * , the term 'clerical error' means a non-negligent, inadvertent, or typographical mistake in the preparation, assembly or submission of the manifest. * * * " (Tariff Act of 1930, sec. 584, as amended, 19 U.S.C. 1584). [TDs 79-160, 80-142.]

[24] "If there is any merchandise or baggage on board such vessel which is not included in or which does not agree with the manifest, the master of the vessel shall make a post entry thereof, and mail or deliver a copy to such employee as the Secretary of the Treasury shall designate and for failure so to do shall be liable to a penalty of $500." (Tariff Act of 1930, sec. 440, as amended; 19 U.S.C. 1440). [TD 80-142.]

(c) Manifest discrepancies (shortages and overages) of petroleum and petroleum products imported in bulk shall be reported on Customs Form 5931, if the discrepancy exceeds one percent. (Secs. 440, 584, 46 Stat. 712 as amended, 748, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1440, 1584) [TD 80-142, 45 FR 36383, May 30, 1980]

§ 4.13 Alcoholic liquors on vessels of not over 500 net tons.[25]

(a) When a vessel of not over 500 net tons which arrives from a foreign port or a hovering vessel, has on board any alcoholic liquors, a certificate respecting the importation of any spirits, wines, or other alcoholic liquors on board, other than sea stores, shall be delivered to the boarding officer with the inward foreign manifest. Each such certificate shall consist of a declaration of the master of the vessel, together with the certificate of a consular officer of the United States or other authorized person, and shall cover only one shipment from one consignor to one consignee or firm of consignees. The document shall be in substantially the following form: [TDs 47886, 48711, 49258, 49658, 53336, 67-201.]

Any spirits, wines, or other alcoholic liquors (sea stores excepted) found, or discovered to have been, upon any such vessel at any place in the United States, or within the customs waters, without said certificate on board, which are not shown to have a bona fide destination without the United States, shall be seized and forfeited and, in the case of any such merchandise so destined to a foreign port or place, a bond shall be required in double the amount of the duties to which such merchandise would be subject if imported into the United States, conditioned upon the delivery of said merchandise at such foreign port or place as may be certified by a consular officer of the United States or otherwise as provided in said regulations: Provided, That if the collector shall be satisfied that the certificate required for the importation of any spirits, wines, or other alcoholic liquors was issued and was lost or mislaid without fraud, or was defaced by accident, or is incorrect by reason of clerical error or other mistake, said penalties shall not be incurred nor shall such bond be required. * * *." (19 U.S.C. 1707)

§ 4.14 Foreign equipment purchases by, and repairs to, American vessels.

(a) Dutiability of foreign repairs and equipment purchases. (1) Items subject to duty. The equipments, or any part thereof, including boats, purchased for, or the repair parts or materials to be used, or the expenses for repairs made, including the cost of labor incurred, outside the United States, upon any vessel documented under the laws of the United States to engage in the foreign or coasting trade, or intended to be employed in such trade, are dutiable at the rate of 50 percent ad valorem on the actual cost in the country where the items are purchased or the repairs are made. Duty attaches at the time the repairs or purchases are made. Liability for declaration, entry, and payment of duties accrues at the time of the first arrival of the vessel in a port of the United States. For the purposes of this section, equipment, repair parts or materials purchased, or repairs made, in American Samoa, the Guantanamo Bay Naval Station, Guam, Puerto Rico, or the U.S. Virgin Islands are not considered to have been purchased or made outside the United States.

(2) Dutiable costs on specific types of vessels. (i) Fishing vessels. Vessels of the United States which are licensed or enrolled and licensed for the fisheries and have a permit to touch and trade (see section 4.15), vessels documented for the fisheries which lack of permit to touch and trade but which are intended to engage in trade, and registered vessels which are intended to engage in the fisheries, are subject to this section.

(ii) Government-owned or chartered vessels. Vessels owned or chartered by the United States Government, if documented for, or intended to engage in, the foreign or coasting trade, are subject to this section. See paragraph (b)(2)(i) of this section with respect to entry procedures for Government vessels.

(iii) Special purpose vessels. (A) Defined. A vessel which is documented for the foreign or coasting trade, but is designed and used primarily for purposes other than transporting passengers or merchandise, is considered to be a "special purpose vessel."

(B) Requirements for declaration and entry. The owner or master of a special purpose vessel shall declare and enter all items purchased, or repairs made, outside the United States unless Customs previously has ruled the vessel is a special purpose vessel and the vessel arrives in a port of the United States two years or more after its last departure from a port of the United States. Under these circumstances, only those items (with the exception of fish nets and netting) purchased, and repairs made, outside the United States during the first six months after the vessel's last departure from the United States shall be declared and entered. Fish nets and netting purchased or repaired outside the United States shall be declared and entered whether or not purchased or repaired during the first six months after departure. A copy of the applicable Customs ruling and a certification from the owner or master that the vessel was used during its last voyage primarily for purposes other than transporting passengers or merchandise shall be furnished with the declaration and entry.

(C) Dutiable items. If the special purpose vessel is operated in international or foreign waters two years or more after its last departure from the United States, the only dutiable items are fish nets and netting whenever purchased and any other items purchased or repairs made during the first six months after the vessel's last departure from the United States.

(iv) LASH Barges. Lighter-aboard-ship (LASH) barges (see sections 4.81 and 4.81a) and similar vessels documented for, or intended to engage in, the foreign or coasting trade are subject to this section.

(b) Declaration and repair entry. (1) Declaration. Upon first arrival of the vessel in the United States, the owner or master shall declare on Customs Form 226 all equipment, parts, or materials purchased, and all repairs made, outside the United States. Except as provided in § 4.14(a)(2)(iii)(B), the declaration is required regardless of the dutiable status of such items or expenses. The declaration shall be ready for production on demand and for inspection by the boarding officer and shall be presented as part of the original manifest when formal entry of the vessel is made. Estimated duties shall be deposited or a bond on Customs Form 7567 or 7569 shall be filed before the departure of the vessel, except as provided in subparagraph (2)(i) of this paragraph. The amount of the bond shall be determined by the district director as provided in § 113.14(m) of this chapter. See paragraph (g) of this section for applicable penalties.

(2) Entry. All equipment, parts, or materials purchased for, and all repairs made outside the United States to, any vessel subject to the provisions of this section shall be entered on Customs Form 226 by the master or owner of the vessel. The entry shall be filed with the appropriate Customs officer at the port of first arrival within five working days after arrival. The Customs officer with whom the entry is filed shall forward it to the appropriate vessel repair liquidation unit. The party filing the entry shall mark it to indicate whether it is a full and complete account or an incomplete account. See paragraph (g) of this section for applicable penalties.

(i) Entry procedures for vessels owned or chartered by the United States. Whenever the appropriate Customs officer determines that a Government-owned or chartered vessel subject to the provisions of this section (see paragraph (a)(2)(ii)) is being operated by an agency of the United States, or that a Government-owned or chartered vessel is being operated by a private party for an agency of the United States under an agreement that obligates the Government agency to pay any duty on the costs of repairs or purchases, the vessel shall be allowed to depart the port of first arrival without depositing estimated duties or furnishing a bond to cover estimated duties. In all other cases, the vessel shall be treated as though privately owned.

(ii) Time period for submitting evidence of cost. Whenever a repair entry is submitted as a full and complete account, the entry papers shall include evidence showing the cost of each item listed on the entry. If a repair entry is submitted as an incomplete account, the evidence must be submitted within 60 days from the date of the vessel's arrival. If before the end of the 60-day period, the party that is required to furnish the evidence of cost submits a written request for an extension of time beyond the 60-day period, together with a satisfactory explanation of the delay, to the appropriate vessel repair liquidation unit, that unit may grant an additional 30-day extension of time to submit cost evidence. Any request for a further extension of time to furnish evidence of cost shall be submitted to the appropriate vessel repair liquidation unit, which shall transmit the request to Headquarters, U.S. Customs Service, Attention: Carrier Rulings Branch, for approval. If the costs shown on the complete account differ from the costs declared on the entry, the appropriate Customs officer may permit amendment of the entry.

(A) Investigation to obtain evidence. If the required evidence is not furnished timely, or is of doubtful authenticity, the appropriate regional commissioner shall use all available means to obtain the necessary information and may refer the matter to the Office of Investigations. If an investigation is conducted, the Office of Investigations shall obtain all available evidence on the cost of the repairs and any evidence with respect to the reason for the party's failure to submit the evidence in a timely fashion.

(B) Concurrent time period for submission of costs and filing application for relief. The 60-day time period to submit evidence of cost on the entry is concurrent with the 60-day time period to submit an application for relief under paragraph (d)(1)(ii) of this section and will not operate to provide additional time to submit an application for relief. A request for additional time to submit evidence of cost may include a request for additional time to submit an application for relief.

(c) Remission or refund of duty. (1) Vessel repair liquidation units. Vessel repair liquidation units under the supervision of the Regional Commissioner of Customs are established at New York, N.Y. (Region II), New Orleans, Louisiana (Region V), and San Francisco, California (Region VIII). The Region II unit shall process and liquidate each vessel repair entry filed at ports in Regions I (Boston), II (New York), III (Baltimore), and IX (Chicago). The Region V unit shall process and liquidate each vessel repair entry filed at ports in Regions IV (Miami), V (New Orleans), and VI (Houston). The Region VIII unit shall process and liquidate each vessel repair entry filed at ports in Regions VII (Los Angeles) and VIII (San Francisco). After processing and liquidation of the entries, the bulletin notices of liquidation shall be returned to the respective ports of entry for posting.

(2) Authority. If clearly applicable precedent for a decision exists and any remission or refund of duty as a result of a decision will be less than $2,500, the Regional Commissioners of Regions II, V, and VIII may approve or deny any application for relief on vessel repair entries filed at the ports within their respective jurisdictions. If there is no clearly applicable precedent on which to base a decision, or if the decision may result in a remission or refund of $2,500 or more in duty, the respective Regional Commissioner shall refer the matter to Headquarters, U.S. Customs Service, Attention: Carrier Rulings Branch, for advice before acting on the application for relief.

(3) Basis for remission or refund. Remission or refund of duty is authorized if good and sufficient evidence is furnished which shows any of the following circumstances exist:

(i) Stress of weather or other casualty. The vessel, while in the regular course of its voyage, was compelled, by stress of weather or other casualty, while outside the United States, to purchase such equipment or make such repairs, to secure the safety and seaworthiness of the vessel to enable it to reach its port of destination in the United States. However, only the duty on the cost of the minimal repairs needed for the safety and seaworthiness of the vessel is subject to remission or refund. For the purposes of this section, the term "casualty" does not include any purchases or repairs necessitated by ordinary wear and tear, but does include a part's failure to function if satisfactory evidence shows that the specific part was repaired or serviced immediately before starting the voyage from the United States port and that the part failed to function within six months of such repair or servicing.

(ii) United States parts and equipment installed with American labor. The equipment, equipment parts, repair parts or materials used on the vessel were manufactured or produced in the United States and purchased by the owner of the vessel in the United States, and the labor necessary to install such equipment or to make such repairs was performed by residents of the United States or by members of the regular crew of the vessel.

(iii) Dunnage. The equipment, equipment parts, materials or labor were used as dunnage for cargo, or for the packing or shoring thereof, or in the erection of temporary bulkheads or other similar devices for the control of bulk cargo, or in the preparation (without permanent repair or alteration) of tanks for the carriage of liquid cargo.

(d) Procedure for remission or refund of duties. (1) Application for relief. (i) Form and contents. The application for relief need not be in any particular form. The application for relief should allege that an item or a repair expense covered by the entry is not subject to duty under paragraph (a) of this section, or that the articles purchased or the repair expenses are within the provisions of paragraph (c) of this section, or that both conditions are present. The application for relief also shall certify that all foreign equipment, parts or materials purchased for, and all foreign repairs made to, the vessel within one year immediately preceding the application have been declared as required by this section, or the application shall be deemed incomplete. The application for relief shall be signed by the master, owner, or operator of the vessel, or their authorized agent. If the application for relief is filed by a corporation it shall be signed by an authorized corporate officer.

(ii) Place and time of filing. The application for relief shall be filed with the appropriate Customs officer at the port where the vessel repair entry was made or with the appropriate vessel repair liquidation unit (see paragraph (c)(1) of this section). If filed at the port where the entry was made, the Customs officer who receives the application shall promptly forward it, together with his comments, if any, to the appropriate vessel repair liquidation unit. The application for relief, with supporting evidence, shall be filed within 60 days from the date of first arrival of the vessel. However, if good cause is shown, the appropriate vessel repair liquidation unit may authorize one 30-day extension of time to file beyond the 60-day filing period.

(iii) Supporting evidence. Unless such evidence is already filed with Customs, each application for relief shall include duplicate copies of the following evidence, in addition to any other documents the applicant wishes to submit in support of the application:

(A) All itemized bills, receipts, and invoices covering items specified in paragraph (a)(1) of this section, segregating the cost of those items for which relief is sought from all other items listed in the vessel repair entry.

(B) Full and complete photocopies of the relevant parts of the vessel's logs.

(C) Photocopies of any American Bureau of Shipping or other classification society report of the cause and type of damage and the nature of the remedial action taken, together with photocopies of any certifications of seaworthiness.

(D) A certification by the master or other responsible vessel officer with personal knowledge of the facts relating to the relief sought, including, but not limited to, details of the claimed stress of weather or other casualty, when and where it occurred, the damages due to such stress of weather or other casualty, and the place and date where the vessel was repaired or the equipment for the vessel was purchased.

(E) A certification by the master as to whether the repairs or equipment purchases were necessary for the safety and seaworthiness of the vessel to enable it to reach its port of destination in the United States.

(F) A written description of the circumstances involved by the master or other responsible vessel officer having knowledge of the facts when remission or refund is sought under the provisions of paragraph (c)(3)(ii) (relating to the use of American equipment and labor) or (c)(3)(iii) (relating to dunnage) of this section.

(iv) Documentary evidence. All documents submitted in support of an application must be certified by the master or owner of the vessel to be originals or copies of originals. If a vessel is owned or operated by a corporation, the master or an authorized corporate officer shall certify the documents. Documents in a foreign language shall be accompanied by an English translation that is certified for accuracy by the translator.

(v) Action. Within 60 days after receipt of an application for relief by a vessel repair liquidation unit, the appropriate regional commissioner shall either approve or deny the application for relief or forward it to Headquarters, U.S. Customs Service, Attention: Carrier Rulings Branch, for advice, as provided in paragraph (c)(2) of this section. The appropriate regional commissioner shall give prompt written notice of any final decision to the party who submitted the application. The notice shall advise the party of its right to petition for review of the decision under paragraph (d)(2) of this section. If the decision involves remission of duty under paragraph (c) of this section and the entry has been liquidated, reliquidation is not required. If any other relief is granted and the entry has been liquidated, reliquidation is required.

(vi) Suspension of liquidation. If an application for relief has been filed within the time period provided in paragraph (d)(1)(ii) of this section, liquidation of the vessel repair entry shall be suspended until 30 days after the date of the written notice provided for in paragraph (d)(1)(v) of this section.

(2) Petition for review on a denial of an application for relief.

(i) Form. If an applicant is dissatisfied with the decision on its application for relief, the applicant may file a petition for review of that decision. The petition for review need not be in any particular form. The petition for review must identify the decision on the application for relief and must detail the exceptions taken to that decision. The petition shall be signed by the master, owner, or operator of the vessel, or their authorized agent. If the petition for review is filed by a corporation, it must be signed by a duly authorized corporate officer.

(ii) Place and time of filing. The petition for review shall be addressed to the Commissioner of Customs and shall be filed with the appropriate vessel repair liquidation unit within 30 days after the date of the written notice to the party of the decision on the application for relief, as provided in paragraph (d)(1)(v) of this section. However, if good cause is shown, the appropriate vessel repair liquidation unit may authorize one additional 30-day extension of time.

(iii) Action. The appropriate regional commissioner promptly shall transmit a copy of the petition for review, any comments and recommendations he may have on the petition for review, and the entire file on the application for relief to Headquarters, U.S. Customs Service, Attention: Carrier Rulings Branch, for decision. After notification of the decision by Headquarters, the appropriate regional commissioner shall give written notification of that decision to the party who filed the petition for review. The notice will inform the party of his right to submit a supplemental petition for review and that no further suspension of liquidation will be permitted.

(iv) Suspension of liquidation. If an original petition for review is filed within the time provided for in paragraph (d)(2)(ii) of this section, liquidation of the vessel repair entry shall be suspended further until the regional commissioner notifies the party who filed the petition of the decision on the petition. Following notification of the Headquarters decision to the party who filed the petition, the vessel repair liquidation unit shall promptly initiate liquidation of the entry in accordance with that decision even if a supplemental petition for review is filed.

(e) Liquidation of vessel repair entries, time limits. If evidence of cost is available and the appropriate vessel repair liquidation unit receives written notification from the master, owner, or operator of the vessel, or their authorized agent, that an application for relief will not be filed, the vessel repair liquidation unit promptly shall initiate liquidation of the entry. In all other cases in which the evidence of cost is available, the entry may be liquidated 60 days after arrival of the vessel, or at the expiration of any extension of time granted under paragraph (b)(2)(ii) of this section to furnish evidence of cost, unless an application for relief is filed timely as provided in paragraph (d)(1)(ii) of this section. If an application for relief is filed timely, the vessel repair entry may be liquidated 30 days after the date of the written notice to the party who filed the application for relief, as provided in paragraph (d)(1)(v), unless a petition for review is filed timely under paragraph (d)(2)(ii) of this section. If a petition for review is filed timely, the vessel repair entry may be liquidated after the date of the notification of the decision on the petition to the party who filed the petition even though a supplemental petition for review is filed.

(f) Protests. Following liquidation of an entry, a protest under Part 174 of this chapter may be filed against the decision to treat an item or a repair as dutiable under paragraph (a) of this section.

(g) Penalties. (1) Failure to report, enter, or pay duty. If the owner or master of a vessel subject to the provisions of paragraph (a) of this section willfully or knowingly neglects or fails to report, make entry, and pay duties as required, or if he makes any false statement in respect of the purchases or repairs described in this section without reasonable cause to believe the truth of the statements, or aids or procures the making of any false statement as to any material matter without reasonable cause to believe the truth of the statement, the vessel, with its tackle, apparel, and furniture, or a monetary amount up to the value thereof as determined by the Secretary of the Treasury, to be recovered from the owner, shall be subject to seizure and forfeiture.

(2) False declaration. If any person required to file a declaration on Customs Form 226, by paragraph (b)(1) of this section, or to file an entry on Customs Form 226, by paragraph (b)(2) of this section, willfully and knowingly provides any false information, or willfully and knowingly omits any required information, that person shall be subject to the criminal penalties provided for in 18 U.S.C. 1001.

§ 4.15 Fishing vessels touching and trading at foreign places.

(a) Before any vessel enrolled and licensed or licensed to engage in the fisheries shall touch and trade at a foreign port or place, the master shall obtain from the district director a permit on Customs Form 1379 to touch and trade.

When a fishing vessel departs from the United States and there is an intent to stop at a foreign port (1) to lade vessel equipment which was preordered, (2) to purchase and lade vessel equipment, or (3) to purchase and lade vessel equipment to replace existing vessel equipment, the master of the vessel must either clear for that foreign port or obtain a permit to touch and trade, whether or not the vessel will engage in fishing on that voyage.[28] Purchases of such equipment, whether intended at the time of departure or not, are subject to declaration, entry, and payment of duty pursuant to section 466 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1466). The duty may be remitted if it is established that the purchases resulted from stress of weather or other casualty. [TDs 42018, 77-28.]

(b) Upon the arrival of a vessel enrolled and licensed or licensed for the fisheries which has put into a foreign port or place, the master shall report its arrival, make entry, and conform in all respects to the regulations applicable in the case of a vessel arriving from a foreign port.

(c) If a vessel which has been granted a permit to touch and trade arrives at a port in the United States, whether or not the vessel has touched at a foreign port or place, such permit shall forthwith be surrendered to the district director.

(d) No permit to touch and trade shall be issued to a vessel enrolled and licensed or licensed for the coasting trade and mackerel fishery which is departing on a foreign voyage to engage exclusively in a trade other than the fisheries. For such a voyage the vessel shall be registered and the master shall obtain clearance for the foreign port or place. (R.S. 4364, 4365; 46 U.S.C. 310, 311)

[28] "Whenever any vessel, licensed for carrying on the fisheries, is intended to touch and trade at any foreign port, it shall be the duty of the master or owner to obtain permission for that purpose from the collector of the district where such vessel may be, previous to her departure, and the master of every such vessel shall deliver like manifests, and make like entries, both of the vessel and of the merchandise on board, within the same time, and under the same penalty, as are by law provided for vessels of the United States arriving from a foreign port." (46 U.S.C. 310)

"Whenever a vessel, licensed for carrying on the fisheries, is found within three leagues of the coast, with merchandise of foreign growth or manufacture, exceeding the value of $500, without having such permission as is directed by section 310 of this title, such vessel together with the merchandise of foreign growth or manufacture imported therein, shall be subject to seizure and forfeiture." (46 U.S.C. 311; see also 46 U.S.C. 325)

If such a vessel puts into a foreign port or place and only obtains bunkers, stores, or supplies suitable for a fishing voyage, it is not considered to have touched and traded there. Fish nets and netting are considered vessel equipment and not vessel supplies. (R.S. 251, as amended, R.S. 4364, secs. 466, 624, 46 Stat. 718, as amended, 759 (19 U.S.C. 66, 1466, 1624, 46 U.S.C. 310))

§ 4.16 Entry and clearance on board vessels.

(a) A master, owner, or agent of a vessel described in the Act of June 16, 1937,[29] who desires that arrival may be reported, entry made, and clearance obtained on board the vessel shall file with the district director of Customs an application on Customs Form 3171 and a bond on Customs Form 7567 in such penal sum as the district director of Customs deems sufficient but not less than $1,000, or the usual term bond on Customs Form 7569. [TDs 49117, 51273, 68-247.]

(b) If the application is approved, the collector of Customs or such Customs officer as may be designated by him shall receive the report of arrival and the entry of the vessel and grant it clearance on board the vessel.

(c) For the purposes of the said act the term "at night" shall include the hours from 5 p.m. of one day to 8 a.m. of the following day, and the term "holiday" shall include only national holidays. (50 Stat. 303; 19 U.S.C. 1435b)

§ 4.17 Vessels from discriminating countries.

The prohibition against imports in, and the penalty of forfeiture of, certain vessels from countries which discriminate against American vessels provided for in subsections 2 and 3 of paragraph J, section IV, Tariff Act of 1913, as amended by the act of March 4, 1915 (19 U.S.C. 130, 131), shall be enforced only in pursuance of specific instructions issued and published from time to time by the Secretary of the Treasury or such other officer as the Secretary may designate. (See also § § 4.20(c) and 159.42 of this chapter.) [TDs 39057, 53336, 73-175.]

Tonnage Tax and Light Money

§ 4.20 Tonnage taxes.

(a) Except as specified in § 4.21, a regular tonnage tax or duty[36] of 2 cents per net ton, not to exceed in the aggregate 10 cents per net ton in any 1 year, shall be imposed at each entry on all vessels which shall be entered in any port of the United States from any foreign port or place in North America, Central America, the West Indies, the Bahama Islands, the Bermuda Islands, Newfoundland, or the coast of South America bordering on the Caribbean Sea (considered to include the mouth of the Orinoco River), and regular tonnage tax of 6 cents per net ton, not to exceed 30 cents per net ton per annum, shall be imposed at each entry on all vessels which shall be entered in any port of the United States from any other foreign port. In determining the port of origin of a voyage to the United States and the rate of tonnage tax, the following shall be used as a guide: [TDs 37618, 53336, 54364, 54819; BNGL 270, 4/7/25; 318, 10/12/32. BMIN/BM 373, 5/27/41. MCL 18, 9/11/42.]

(1) When the vessel has proceeded in ballast from a port to which the 6-cent rate is applicable to a port to which the 2-cent rate applies and there has laden cargo or taken passengers, tonnage tax upon entry in the United States shall be assessed at the 2-cent rate.

(2) The same rate shall be applied in a case in which the vessel has transported cargo or passengers from a 6-cent port to a 2-cent port when all such cargo or passengers have been unladen or discharged at the 2-cent port, without regard to whether the vessel thereafter has proceeded to the United States in ballast or with cargo or passengers laden or taken on board at the 2-cent port.

(3) The 6-cent rate shall be applied when the vessel proceeds from a 2-cent port to a 6-cent port en route to the United States under circumstances similar to subparagraph (1) or (2) of this paragraph.

(4) If the vessel arrives in the United States with cargo or passengers taken at two or more ports to which different rates are applicable, tonnage tax shall be collected at the higher rate.

(b) The tonnage year shall be computed from the date of the first entry of the vessel concerned, without regard to the rate of the payment made at that entry, and shall expire on the day preceding the corresponding date of the following year.[37] [TDs 6082, 51073.]

(c) A vessel shall also be subject on every entry from a foreign port or place, whether or not regular tonnage tax is payable on the particular entry, to the payment of a special tonnage tax[38] and to the payment of light money[39] at the rates and under the circumstances specified in the following table: [BN Gen. Ltr. 142, 5/5/17; TDs 22547, 53399, 75-110, 76-280.]

[29] "In order to expedite the dispatch of vessels carrying passengers operating on regular schedules and arriving at night or on a Sunday or a holiday at a port in the United States at which such vessel is required by law to report arrival and make entry and from which it is required to obtain a clearance, the collector of customs, or any deputy collector of customs designated by him, if the vessel departs during the same night, Sunday, or holiday on which it arrives may, under such regulations as may be prescribed by the Secretary of Treasury, receive the report of arrival and entry of such vessel from and give clearance for such vessel to the master or other proper officer thereof on board such vessel: Provided, That bond, as prescribed in section 1451 of this title, is given to secure reimbursement to the Government for the compensation of, and expenses incurred by, such customs officers in performing such services, who shall be entitled to rates of compensation fixed on the same basis and payable in the same manner and upon the same terms and conditions as in the case of customs officers and employees assigned to lading or unlading at night or on Sunday or a holiday." (19 U.S.C. 1435b. Sec. 102, Reorg. Plan No. 3 of 1946; 3 CFR, 1946 Supp., Ch. IV)

[36] Upon vessels which shall be entered in the United States from any foreign port or place there shall be paid duties as follows: On vessels built within the United States but belonging wholly or in part to subjects of foreign powers, at the rate of thirty cents per ton; on other vessels not of the United States, at the rate of fifty cents per ton, and any vessel any officer of which shall not be a citizen of the United States shall pay a tax of fifty cents per ton.

"A tonnage duty of 2 cents per ton, not to exceed in the aggregate 10 cents per ton in any one year, is imposed at each entry on all vessels which shall be entered in any port of the United States from any foreign port or place in North America, Central America, the West Indies Islands, the Bahama Islands, the Bermuda Islands, or the coast of South America bordering on the Caribbean Sea, or Newfoundland, and a duty of 6 cents per ton, not to exceed 30 cents per ton per annum, is imposed at each entry on all vessels which shall be entered in any port of the United States from any other foreign port, not, however, to include vessels in distress or not engaged in trade.

"Upon every vessel not of the United States, which shall be entered in one district from another district, having on board goods, wares, or merchandise taken in one district to be delivered in another district, duties shall be paid at the rate of 50 cents per ton: Provided, That no such duty shall be required where a vessel owned by citizens of the United States, but not a vessel of the United States, after entering an American port, shall, before leaving the same, be registered as a vessel of the United States. On all foreign vessels which shall be entered in the United States from any foreign port or place, to and with which vessels of the United States are not ordinarily permitted to enter and trade, there shall be paid a duty at the rate of $2 per ton; and none of the duties on tonnage above-mentioned shall be levied on the vessels of any foreign nation if the President of the United States shall be satisfied that the discriminating or countervailing duties of such foreign nations, so far as they operate to the disadvantage of the United States, have been abolished. Any rights or privileges acquired by any foreign nation under the laws and treaties of the United States relative to the duty of tonnage on vessels shall not be impaired; and any vessel any officer of which shall not be a citizen of the United States shall pay a tax of 50 cents per ton." (46 U.S.C. 121)

[37] There may be five payments at the maximum (6-cent) and five at the minimum (2-cent) rate during a tonnage year, so that the maximum assessment of tonnage duty may amount to 40 cents per net ton for the tonnage year of a vessel engaged in alternating trade.

[38] See footnote 36.

[39] "A duty of 50 cents per ton, to be denominated 'light money', shall be levied and collected on all vessels not of the United States which may enter the ports of the United States. Such light money shall be levied and collected in the same manner and under the same regulations as the tonnage duties: Provided, That no such duty shall be required where a vessel owned by citizens of the United States, but not a vessel of the United States, after entering an American port, shall, before leaving the same, be registered as a vessel of the United States." (46 U.S.C. 128)

1. Under provisional register, without regard to citizenship of officers	$0.02 or $0.06
2. All others:

(ii) If any officer is not a citizen	.02 or .06	[1] $0.50	[1] $0.50
Undocumented vessels which are owned by citizens[2]	.02 or .06	.50	[3] .50
Foreign vessels:
1. Of nations whose vessels are exempted from special tax or light money	.02 or .06
2. Entering from a foreign port of place where vessels of the United States are not ordinarily permitted to enter and trade	.02 or .06	[4] 2.00	[4] .50
3. All others:
(i) Built in the United States	.02 or .06	.30	.50
(ii) Not built in the United States	.02 or .06	.50	.50

[1] This does not apply on the first arrival of a vessel in a port of the United States from a foreign or intercoastal voyage if all the officers who are not citizens are below the grade of master and are filling vacancies which occurred on the voyage.

[2] This special tax and light money do not apply if the vessel is documented as a vessel of the United States before leaving the port.

[3] This does not apply if the vessel is under a certificate of protection and the owner or master files with the collector the oath required by 46 U.S.C. 129. An unrecorded bill of sale is not such a document as will exempt a vessel from the payment of light money under 46 U.S.C. 128, and the recording of such bill of sale after the arrival of the vessel is not sufficient to relieve it from the payment of the tax.

[4] This is to be collected on each entry of a vessel from such a port or place.

(d) Tonnage tax shall be imposed upon a vessel even though she enters a port of the United States only for orders. [TD 49523.]

(e) The fact that a vessel passes through the Panama Canal does not affect the rate of tonnage tax otherwise applicable to the vessel. [TD 79-276.]

(f) For the purpose of computing tonnage tax, the net tonnage of a vessel stated in the vessel's marine document shall be accepted unless (1) such statement is manifestly wrong, in which case the net tonnage shall be estimated, pending admeasurement of the vessel, or the tonnage reported for her by any recognized classification society may be accepted, or (2) an appendix is attached to the marine document showing a net tonnage ascertained under the so-called "British rules" or the rules of any foreign country which have been accepted as substantially in accord with the rules of the United States, in which case the tonnage so shown may be accepted and the date the appendix was issued shall be noted on the tonnage tax certificate, Customs Form 1002, and on the master's oath, Customs Form 1300. For the purpose of computing tonnage tax on a vessel with a tonnage mark and dual tonnages, the higher of the net tonnages stated in the vessel's marine document or tonnage certificate shall be used unless the Customs officer concerned is satisfied by report of the boarding officer, statement or certificate of the master, or otherwise that the tonnage mark was not submerged at the time of arrival. Whether the vessel has a tonnage mark, and if so, whether the mark was submerged on arrival, shall be noted on Customs Form 1300 by the boarding officer. [MCLs 8/7/42; 27, 12/15/42; TDs 68-216, 71-169.]

(g) The decision of the Commissioner of Customs is final on any question of interpretation relating to the collection of tonnage tax or to the refund of such when collected erroneously or illegally, and any question of doubt shall be referred to him for instructions. (R.S. 4153, as amended, secs. 2, 4, 28 Stat. 743, as amended, R.S. 4154, as amended, 4219, as amended, 4225, as amended, 4131, as amended; 46 U.S.C. 77, 78, 79, 81, 83–83k, 121, 128 221)

§ 4.21 Exemptions from tonnage taxes.

(a) Tonnage taxes and light money shall be suspended in whole or in part whenever the President by proclamation shall so direct. [BNGL 270/25; BMIN/BM 373/41; TD 49523.]

(b) A vessel shall not be liable to the payment of tonnage tax or light money merely because— [TDs 53187(1), 53399.]

(1) It comes into port for bunkers (including water), sea stores, or ship's stores; transacts no other business in the port; and departs within 24 hours after its arrival.

(2) It arrives in distress, even though required to enter.

(3) It is brought into port by orders of United States naval authorities and transacts no business while in port other than the taking on of bunkers, sea stores, or ship's stores.

(4) It is a vessel of war or other vessel which is owned by, or under the complete control and management of the United States or the government of a foreign country, and which is not carrying passengers or merchandise in trade or, if in ballast, which is not arriving from a foreign port during the usual course of its employment as a vessel engaged in trade. [TD 53399.]

(5) It is a yacht or other pleasure vessel not carrying passengers or merchandise in trade.

(6) It is engaged exclusively in scientific activities.

(7) It is engaged exclusively in laying or repairing cables.

(8) It is engaged in whaling or other fisheries, even though it may have entered a foreign port for fuel or supplies, if it did not carry passengers or merchandise in trade.

(9) It is a passenger vessel making three trips or more a week between a port of the United States and a foreign port.

(10) It is used exclusively as a ferry boat, including a car ferry.

(11) It is a tug under frontier enrollment and license, when towing vessels which are required to make entry.

(12) It is a vessel under frontier enrollment and license which has touched at an intermediate foreign port or ports during a coastwise voyage.

(13) It enters otherwise than by sea from a foreign port at which tonnage or lighthouse dues or equivalent taxes are not imposed on vessels of the United States.[44] [TD 51912.]

(14) [Reserved]

(15) It is a vessel entering directly from the Virgin Islands (U.S.), American Samoa, the islands of Guam, Wake, Midway, Canton, or Kingman Reef, or Guantanamo Bay Naval Station. [TDs 51547, 55406, 72-264, 79-276.]

(16) It is a vessel making regular daily trips between any port of the United States and any port in Canada wholly upon interior waters not navigable to the ocean, except that such a vessel shall pay tonnage taxes upon her first arrival in each calendar year.

(17) It is a vessel arriving at a port in the United States which, while proceeding between ports in the United States, touched at a foreign port under circumstances which would have exempted it from making entry under section 441(4), Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1441(4)), had it touched at a United States port. § 4.22 Exemptions from special tonnage taxes.

§ 4.23 Certificate of payment.

Upon each payment of tonnage tax or light money, the district director shall give to the master of the vessel a certificate on Customs Form 1002. This certificate shall constitute the official evidence of such payment and shall be presented upon each entry during the tonnage year in order to establish the date of commencement of the tonnage year and to insure against overpayment. In the absence of such certificate, evidence of payment of tonnage tax shall be obtained from the district director to whom the payment was made. [TD 53232.]

§ 4.24 Application for refund of tonnage tax.

(a) The authority to make refunds in accordance with section 26 of the Act of June 26, 1884 (46 U.S.C. 8) of regular tonnage taxes described in § 4.20(a) is delegated to the several Regional Commissioners of Customs. If any doubt exists, the case shall first be referred to Headquarters, U.S. Customs Service for advice. [BNGL 270/25; TDs 10284, 54232, 71-274.]

(b) Each application for refund of regular or special tonnage tax or light money prepared in accordance with this section shall be filed with the Customs officer to whom payment was made. After verification of the pertinent facts asserted in the claim, the application shall be forwarded with any necessary report or recommendation to the Regional Commissioner of Customs. Applications for refund of special tonnage tax and light money (see § 4.20(c)) with the reports and recommendations submitted therewith shall be forwarded by the Regional Commissioner to the Commissioner of Customs for decision. Any refund authorized by the Regional Commissioner of Customs under paragraph (a) of this section or any refund of special tonnage tax or light money authorized by the Commissioner of Customs shall be made by the appropriate Customs officer. The records of tonnage tax shall be clearly noted to show each refund authorized. [BMIN/CL 227/38; TDs 53399, 54232, 71-274.]

(c) The application shall be a direct request for the refund of a definite sum, showing concisely the reasons therefor, the nationality and name of the vessel, and the date, place, and amount of each payment for which refund is requested. The application shall be made within 1 year from date of the payment. A protest against a payment shall not be accepted as an application for its refund. [TD 71-274.]

(d) When the application is based upon a claim that more than five payments of regular tax at either the 2-cent or the 6-cent rate have been made during a tonnage year, the application shall be supported by a statement from the appropriate Customs officer at the port where the application is submitted and from the appropriate Customs officer at each port at which any claimed payment was made verifying the facts and showing in each case whether refunds have been authorized.

(e) The application shall include a certificate by the owner or by the owner's agent that payment of tonnage tax at the applicable rate has been or will be made for each entry of the vessel on a voyage on which that rate is applicable before the end of the current tonnage year, exclusive of any payment which has been refunded or which may be refunded as a result of such application. [TD 71-274.]

(f) The owner or operator of the vessel involved, or other party in interest, may file with the Regional Commissioner a petition addressed to the Commissioner of Customs for a review of the Regional Commissioner's decision on an application for refund of regular tonnage tax. Such petition shall be filed in duplicate within 30 days from the date of notice of the Regional Commissioner's decision, shall completely identify the case, and shall set forth in detail the exceptions to the Regional Commissioner's decision. When such a petition has been filed, the Regional Commissioner shall immediately transmit both copies thereof and the entire file to Headquarters, U.S. Customs Service, together with any comments he may desire to submit. (Section 26, 23 Stat. 59, as amended; 46 U.S.C. 8.) (80 Stat. 379, section 3, 5 U.S.C. 301) [TD 71-274.]

Landing and Delivery of Cargo

§ 4.30 Permits and special licenses for unlading and lading.

(a) Except as prescribed in paragraph (f), (g), or (k) of this section or in § 123.8 of this chapter and except in the case of a vessel exempt from entry or clearance under 19 U.S.C. 288[55] no passengers,[56] cargo,[57] baggage,[57] or other article[58] shall be unladen from a vessel which arrives directly or indirectly from any port or place outside the Customs territory of the United States or from a vessel which transits the Panama Canal and no cargo, baggage, or other article shall be laden[60] on a vessel destined to a port or place outside the Customs territory of the United States if Customs supervision of such lading is required,[61] until the district director shall have issued a permit or special license therefor on Customs Form 3171. [TDs 50881, 51049, 53399, 54232; 3 Comp. Gen. 12; See CAM sec. 98(b)(2). TDs 52205, 52255, 53538, 70-121, 72-189, 73-27.]

(b) Application for a permit or special license shall be made by the master, owner, or agent of the vessel on Customs Form 3171, and shall specifically indicate the type of service desired at that time, unless a term permit or term special license has been issued. Arrangements, in the case of a term permit or term special license, shall be made locally so that the proper Customs officer will be notified during official hours in advance of the rendering of the services as to the nature of the services desired and the exact times they will be needed. An agent of a vessel may limit his application to operations involved in the entry and unlading of the vessel or to operations involved in its lading and clearance. Such limitation shall be specifically noted on the application. [TDs 52491, 72-189.]

(c) The request for a permit or a special license shall not be approved (previously issued term permits or special licenses shall be revoked) unless the carrier complies with the provisions of paragraphs (l) and (m) of this section regarding terminal facilities and employee lists, and the required cash deposit or bond,[62] on Customs Form 7567 or 7569, has been received. When a carrier has on file a bond on Customs Form 3587, no further bond shall be required solely by reason of the unlading or lading at night or on a Sunday or holiday of merchandise or baggage covered by bonded transportation entries. Separate bonds shall be required if overtime services are requested by different principals. [TDs 52491, 53461, 53626, 68-247, 72-189.]

(d) Except as prescribed in paragraph (f) or (g) of this section, a separate application for a permit or special license shall be filed in the case of each arrival. The permit or special license shall not become effective until the master shall have made preliminary or formal entry or, in the case of vessels not required to enter, the master shall have reported the arrival of the vessel.

(e) Stevedoring companies and others concerned in lading or unlading merchandise, or in removing or otherwise securing it, shall ascertain that the applicable preliminary Customs requirements have been complied with before commencing such operation, since performance in the absence of such compliance render them severally liable to the penalties prescribed in section 453, Tariff Act of 1930,[59] even though they may not be responsible for taking the action necessary to secure compliance. [TD 52204.]

(f) The district director may issue a term permit on Customs Form 3171 for any period up to 1 year, but not longer than the period of the supporting bond, to unlade merchandise, passengers, or baggage, or to lade merchandise or baggage during official hours. [TDs 53538, 55386, 68-247, 72-189.]

[55] "Enrolled or licensed vessels engaged in the foreign and coasting trade on the northern, northeastern, and northwestern frontiers of the United States, departing from or arriving at a port in one district to or from a port in another district, and also touching at intermediate foreign ports, shall not thereby become liable to the payment of entry and clearance fees, as if from or to foreign ports; but such vessels shall, notwithstanding, be required to enter and clear; except that when such vessels are on such voyages on the Great Lakes and touch at foreign ports for the purpose of taking on bunker fuel only, they may be exempted from entering and clearing under such rules and regulations as the Commissioner of Customs may prescribe, notwithstanding any other provision of law: Provided, That this exception shall not apply to such vessels if, while at such foreign port, they land or take on board any passengers, or any merchandise other than bunker fuel, receive orders, discharge any seamen by mutual consent, or engage any seamen to replace those discharged by mutual consent, or transact any other business save that of taking on bunker fuel." (19 U.S.C. 288)

[56] "If any passenger is unladen from any vessel or vehicle without a special license or permit therefor issued by the collector, the master of such vessel or the person in charge of such vehicle and every other person who knowingly is concerned, or who aids therein, shall each be liable to a penalty of $500 for each such passenger so unladen." (Tariff Act of 1930, sec. 454; 19 U.S.C. 1454)

[57] "* * * After the entry, preliminary or otherwise, of any vessel or report of the arrival of any vehicle, the collector may issue a permit to the master of the vessel, or to the person in charge of the vehicle, to unlade merchandise or baggage, but except as provided in subdivision (b) of this section merchandise or baggage so unladen shall be retained at the place of unlading until entry therefor is made and a permit for its delivery granted, and the owners of the vessel or vehicle from which any imported merchandise is unladen prior to entry of such merchandise shall be liable for the payment of the duties accruing on any part thereof that may be removed from the place of unlading without a permit therefor having been issued. Any merchandise or baggage so unladen from any vessel or vehicle for which entry is not made within forty-eight hours exclusive of Sunday and holidays from the time of the entry of the vessel or report of the vehicle, unless a longer time is granted by the collector as provided in section 484, shall be sent to a bonded warehouse or the public stores and held as unclaimed at the risk and expense of the consignee in the case of merchandise and of the owner in the case of baggage, until entry thereof is made." (Tariff Act of 1930, sec. 448(a); 19 U.S.C. 1448(a))

[58] Vessels arriving in the United States from foreign ports may retain on board, without the payment of duty, all coal and other fuel, supplies, ships' stores, sea stores, and the legitimate equipment of such vessels. Any such supplies, ships' stores, sea stores, or equipment landed and delivered from such vessel shall be considered and treated as imported merchandise: Provided, That bunker coal, bunker oil, ships' stores, sea stores, or the legitimate equipment of vessels belonging to regular lines plying between foreign ports and the United States, which are delayed in port for any cause, may be transferred under a permit by the collector and under customs supervision from the vessel so delayed to another vessel of the same line and owner, and engaged in the foreign trade, without the payment of duty thereon." (Tariff Act of 1930, sec. 446; 19 U.S.C. 1446).

The provisions of section 446, Tariff Act of 1930, do not apply to vessels of less than 5 net tons. (T.D. 45431)

[60] "If any merchandise or baggage is laden on, or unladen from, any vessel or vehicle without a special license or permit therefor issued by the collector, the master of such vessel or the person in charge of such vehicle and every other person who knowingly is concerned, or who aids therein, or in removing or otherwise securing such merchandise or baggage, shall each be liable to a penalty equal to the value of the merchandise or baggage so laden or unladen, and such merchandise or baggage shall be subject to forfeiture, and if the value thereof is $500 or more, the vessel or vehicle on or from which the same shall be laden or unladen shall be subject to forefeiture." (Tariff Act of 1930, section 453; 19 U.S.C. 1453)

[61] "No merchandise or baggage entered for transportation under bond or for exportation with the benefit of drawback, or other merchandise or baggage required to be laden under customs supervision, shall be laden on any vessel or vehicle at night or on Sunday or a holiday, except under special license therefor to be issued by the collector under the same conditions and limitations as pertain to the unlading of imported merchandise or merchandise being transported in bond." (Tariff Act of 1930, sec. 452, 19 U.S.C. 1452)

[62] "Before any such special license to unlade shall be granted, the master, owner, or agent of such vessel or vehicle, or the person in charge of such vehicle, shall be required to deposit sufficient money to pay, or to give a bond in an amount to be fixed by the Secretary conditioned to pay, the compensation and expenses of the customs officers and employees assigned to duty in connection with such unlading at night or on Sunday or a holiday, in accordance with the provisions of section 5 of the act of February 13, 1911, as amended (U.S.C. 1952 edition, title 19 sec. 267). In lieu of such deposit or bond the owner or agent of any vessel or vehicle or line of vessels or vehicles may execute a bond in an amount to be fixed by the Secretary of the Treasury to cover and include the issuance of special licenses for the unlading of such vessels or vehicles for a period not to exceed one year. * * *" (Tariff Act of 1930, section 451, as amended, 19 U.S.C. 1451)

(g) The district director may issue a term special license on Customs Form 3171 for any period up to 1 year, but not longer than the period of the supporting bond, to unlade merchandise, passengers, or baggage, or to lade merchandise or baggage at night or on a Sunday or holiday when Customs supervision is required. (See § 24.16 of this chapter regarding pleasure vessels.) [TDs 68-247, 72-189.]

(h) A special license for the unlading or lading of a vessel at night or on a Sunday or holiday shall be refused by the district director if the character of the merchandise or the conditions or facilities at the place of unlading or lading render the issuance of such special license dangerous to the revenue. In no case shall a special license for unlading or lading at night or on a Sunday or holiday be granted except on the ground of commercial necessity. [TD 72-189.]

(i) The district director shall not issue a permit or special license to unlade cargo or equipment of vessels arriving directly or indirectly from any port or place outside the United States, except on compliance with one or more of the following conditions: [TD 72-189.]

(1) The merchandise shall have been duly entered and permits issued; or

(2) A vessel bond, on Customs Form 7567 or 7569, or cash deposit shall have been given; or [TDs 46106, 72-189.]

(3) The merchandise is to be discharged into the custody of the district director as provided for in section 490(b), Tariff Act of 1930.[63] [TD 72-189.]

(j) Bonds are not required under this section for vessels owned by the United States and operated for its account. [TDs 49258, 50750.]

(k) In the case of vessels of 5 net tons or over which are used exclusively as pleasure vessels and which arrive from any country, the district director in his discretion and under such conditions as he deems advisable may allow the required application for unlading passengers and baggage to be made orally, and may authorize his inspectors to grant oral permission for unlading at any time, and to grant requests on Customs Form 3171 for overtime services. [TDs 53538, 68-247.]

(l) A permit to unlade pursuant to this Part 4 or Part 6 of this chapter shall not be granted unless the district director determines that the applicant provides or the terminal at which the applicant will unlade the cargo provides (1) sufficient space, capable of being locked, sealed, or otherwise secured, for the storage immediately upon unlading of cargo whose weight-to-value ratio renders it susceptible to theft or pilferage and of packages which have been broken prior to or in the course of unlading; and (2) an adequate number of vehicles, capable of being locked, sealed, or otherwise secured, for the transportation of such cargo or packages between the point of unlading and the point of storage. A term permit to unlade shall be revoked if the district director determines subsequent to such issuance that the requirements of this paragraph have not been met. [TD 71-39.]

(m) A permit to unlade pursuant to this Part 4 or Part 6 of this chapter shall not be granted to an importing carrier, and a term permit to unlade previously granted to such a carrier shall be revoked, (1) if such carrier, within 30 days after the date of receipt of a written demand by the district director, does not furnish a written list of the names, addresses, social security numbers, and dates and places of birth of persons it employs in connection with the unlading, storage and delivery of imported merchandise; or (2) if, having furnished such a list, the carrier does not advise the district director in writing of the names, addresses, social security numbers, and dates and places of birth of any new personnel employed in connection with the unlading, storage and delivery of imported merchandise within 10 days after such employment. If the employment of any such person is terminated, the carrier shall promptly advise the district director. For the purposes of this part, a person shall not be deemed to be employed by a carrier if he is an officer or employee of an independent contractor engaged by a carrier to load, unload, transport or otherwise handle cargo. (R.S. 2793, as amended, secs. 446, 448, 450–454, 490, 46 Stat. 713, 714, 715, as amended, 716, 726; 19 U.S.C. 288, 1446, 1448, 1450–1454, 1490) [TD 71-39.]

§ 4.31 Unlading or transshipment due to casualty.

(a) When any cargo or stores of a vessel have been unladen or transshipped at any place in the United States or Customs waters other than a port of entry because of accident, stress of weather, or other necessity, no penalty shall be imposed under section 453[64] or 586(a),[65] Tariff Act of 1930, if due notice is given to the district director at the port at which the vessel thereafter first arrives and satisfactory proof is submitted to him as provided for in section 586(f), Tariff Act of 1930, as amended.[66] The district director may accept the certificates of the master and two or more officers or members of the crew of the vessel, of whom the person next to the master in command shall be one, as proof that the unlading or transshipment was necessary by reason of unavoidable cause. [TDs 6603, 53268.]

[63] "At the request of the consignee of any merchandise, or of the owner or master of the vessel, or the person in charge of the vehicle in which the same is imported, any merchandise may be taken possession of by the collector after the expiration of one day after the entry of the vessel or report of the vehicle and may be unladen and held at the risk and expense of the consignee until entry thereof is made." (Tariff Act of 1930, section 490(b); 19 U.S.C. 1490(b))

[64] "If any merchandise or baggage is laden on, or unladen from, any vessel or vehicle without a special license or permit therefor issued by the collector, the master of such vessel or the person in charge of such vehicle and every other person who knowingly is concerned or who aids therein, or in removing or otherwise securing such merchandise or baggage, shall each be liable to a penalty equal to the value of the merchandise or baggage so laden or unladen, and such merchandise or baggage shall be subject to forfeiture and if the value thereof is $500 or more, the vessel or vehicle on or from which the same shall be laden or unladen shall be subject to forfeiture." (Tariff Act of 1930, sec. 453; 19 U.S.C. 1453)

[65] "The master of any vessel from a foreign port or place who allows any merchandise (including sea stores) to be unladen from such vessel at any time after its arrival within the customs waters and before such vessel has come to the proper place for the discharge of such merchandise and before he has received a permit to unlade, shall be liable to a penalty equal to twice the value of the merchandise but not less than $1,000, and such vessel and its cargo and the merchandise so unladen shall be seized and forfeited." (Tariff Act of 1930, sec. 586(a), as amended; 19 U.S.C. 1586(a))

[66] "Whenever any part of the cargo or stores of a vessel has been unladen or transshipped because of accident, stress of weather, or other necessity, the master of such vessel and the master of any vessel to which such cargo or stores has been transshipped shall, as soon as possible thereafter, notify the collector of the district within which such unlading or transshipment has occurred, or the collector within the district at which such vessel shall first arrive thereafter, and shall furnish proof that such unlading or transshipment was made necessary by accident, stress of weather, or other unavoidable cause, and if the collector is satisfied that the unlading or transshipment was in fact due to accident, stress of weather, or other necessity, the penalties described in this section shall not be incurred." (Tariff Act of 1930, sec. 586(f), as amended, 19. U.S.C. 1586(f))

(b) The district director may then permit entry of the vessel and its cargo and permit the unlading of the cargo in such place in his district as he may deem proper. Unless its transportation has been in violation of the coastwise laws, the cargo may be cleared through Customs at the port where it is discharged or forwarded to the port of original destination under an entry for immediate transportation or for transportation and exportation, as the case may be. All regulations shall apply in such cases as if the unlading and delivery took place at the port of original destination. (Secs. 453, 586, 46 Stat. 716, 749, as amended; 19 U.S.C. 1453, 1586)

§ 4.32 Vessels in distress; landing of cargo.

(a) When a vessel from a foreign port arrives in distress at a port other than that to which it is destined, a permit to land merchandise or baggage may be issued if such action is necessary. Merchandise and baggage so unladen shall be taken into Customs custody and, if it has not been transported in violation of the coastwise laws, may be entered and disposed of in the same manner as any other imported merchandise or may be reladen without entry to be carried to its destination on the vessel from which it was unladen, subject only to charges for storage and safekeeping.

(b) A bond on Customs Form 7567 shall be given in an amount to be determined by the district director to insure the proper disposition of the cargo, whether such cargo be dutiable or free. (Sec. 449, 46 Stat. 714; 19 U.S.C. 1449) [TD 47959.]

§ 4.33 Diversion of cargo.

(a) Unlading at other than original port of destination. A vessel may unlade cargo or baggage at an alternative port of entry to the port of original destination if: [TD 77-255.]

(1) It is compelled by any cause to put into the alternative port and the district director to the port issues a permit for the unlading of cargo or baggage; or

(2) As a result of an emergency existing at the port of destination, the district director authorizes the vessel to proceed in accordance with the residue cargo bond procedure to the alternative port. The owner or agent of the vessel shall apply for such authorization in writing, stating the reasons and agreeing to hold the district director and the Government harmless for the diversion.

(b) Disposition of cargo or baggage at emergency port. Cargo and baggage unladen at the alternative port under the circumstances set forth in paragraph (a) of this section may be: [TD 77-255.]

(1) Entered in the same manner as other imported cargo or baggage;

(2) Treated as unclaimed and stored at the risk and expense of its owner; or

(3) Reladen upon the same vessel without entry, for transportation to its original destination.

(c) Substitution of ports of discharge on manifest. After entry, the Cargo Declaration, Customs Form 1302, of a vessel may be changed at any time to permit discharge of manifested cargo at any domestic port in lieu of any other port shown on the Cargo Declaration, if: [CIE 3244, 4/22/29 TDs 47959, 51610; 53101, 77-255.]

(1) A written application for the diversion is made on the amended Cargo Declaration by the master, owner, or agent of the vessel to the district director of the port where the vessel is located, after entry of the vessel at that port;

(2) An amended Cargo Declaration, under oath, covering the cargo, which it is desired to divert, is furnished in support of the application and is filed in such number of copies as the district director shall require for local Customs purposes; and

(3) The certified traveling manifest is not altered or added to in any way by the master, owner, or agent of the vessel. When an application under paragraph (c)(1) of this section is approved, the district director shall securely attach an approved copy of the amended manifest to the traveling manifest and shall send one copy of the amended Cargo Declaration to the district director at the port where the vessel's bond was filed.

(d) Retention of cargo on board for later return to the United States. If, as the result of a strike or other emergency at a United States port for which inward foreign cargo is manifested, it is desired to retain the cargo on board the vessel for discharge at a foreign port but with the purpose of having the cargo returned to the United States, an application may be made by the master, owner, or agent of the vessel to amend the vessel's Cargo Declaration, Customs Form 1302, under a procedure similar to that described in paragraph (c) of this section, except that a foreign port shall be substituted for the domestic port of discharge. If the application is approved, it shall be handled in the same manner as an application filed under paragraph (c) of this section. However, before approving the application, the district director is authorized to require such bond as he deems necessary to insure that export control laws and regulations are not circumvented. [TDs 53101, 77-255, TD 47959.]

§ 4.34 Prematurely discharged, overcarried, and undelivered cargo.

(a) Prematurely landed cargo. Upon receipt of a satisfactory written application from the owner or agent of a vessel establishing that cargo was prematurely landed and left behind by the importing vessel through error or emergency, the district director may permit inward foreign cargo remaining on the dock to be reladen on the next available vessel owned or chartered by the owner of the importing vessel for transportation to the destination shown on the Cargo Declaration, Customs Form 1302, of the first vessel, provided the importing vessel actually entered the port of destination of the prematurely landed cargo. Unless so forwarded within 30 days from the date of landing, the cargo shall be appropriately entered for Customs clearance or for forwarding in bond; otherwise, it shall be sent to general order as unclaimed. If the merchandise is so entered for Customs clearance at the port of unlading, or if it is so forwarded in bond, other than by the importing vessel or by another vessel owned or chartered by the owner of the importing vessel, representatives of the importing vessel shall file at the port of unlading a Cargo Declaration in duplicate listing the cargo. The district director shall retain the original and forward the duplicate to the district director at the orginally intended port of discharge. [TDs 52965, 53648, 77-255.]

(b) Overcarried cargo. Upon receipt of a satisfactory written application by the owner or agent of a vessel establishing that cargo was not landed at its destination and was overcarried to another domestic port through error or emergency, the district director may permit the cargo to be returned in the importing vessel, or in another vessel owned or chartered by the owner of the importing vessel, to the destination shown on the Cargo Declaration, Customs Form 1302, of the importing vessel, provided the importing vessel actually entered the port of destination.[67a] [TDs 73-175, 77-255.]

(c) Inaccessibly-stowed cargo. Cargo so stowed as to be inaccessible upon arrival at destination may be retained on board, carried forward to another domestic port or ports, and returned to the port of destination in the importing vessel or in another vessel owned or chartered by the owner of the importing vessel in the same manner as other overcarried cargo. [TD 77-255.]

(d) Application for forwarding cargo. When it is desired that prematurely landed cargo, overcarried cargo, or cargo so stowed as to be inaccessible, be forwarded to its destination by the importing vessel or by another vessel owned or chartered by the owner of the importing vessel in accordance with paragraph (a), (b), or (c) of this section, the required application shall be filed with the local district director at the port of premature landing or overcarriage by the owner or agent of the vessel. The application shall be supported by a Cargo Declaration, Customs Form 1302, in such number of copies as the district director may require. Whenever practicable, the application shall be made on the face of the Cargo Declaration below the description of the merchandise. The application shall specify the vessel on which the cargo was imported, even though the forwarding to destination is by another vessel owned or chartered by the owner of the importing vessel, and all ports of departure and dates of sailing of the importing vessel. The application shall be stamped and signed to show that it has been approved. [TDs 50683, 52040, 52965, 53648, 77-255.]

(e) Manifesting prematurely landed or overcarried cargo. One copy of the Cargo Declaration, Customs Form 1302, shall be certified by Customs for use as a substitute traveling manifest for the prematurely landed or overcarried cargo being forwarded as residue cargo, whether or not the forwarding vessel is also carrying other residue cargo. If the application for forwarding is made on the Cargo Declaration, the new substitute traveling manifest shall be stamped to show the approval of the application. If the application is on a separate document, a copy thereof, stamped to show its approval, shall be attached to the substitute traveling manifest. An appropriate cross-reference shall be placed on the original traveling manifest to show that the vessel has one or more substitute traveling manifests. A permit to proceed endorsed on a General Declaration, Customs Form 1301, issued to the vessel transporting the prematurely landed or overcarried cargo to its destination shall make reference to the nature of such cargo, identifying it with the importing vessel. [TDs 52965, 63648, 71-169, 77-255.]

(f) Residue cargo procedure. A vessel with prematurely landed or overcarried cargo on board shall comply upon arrival at all domestic ports of call with all the requirements of Part 4 relating to foreign residue cargo for domestic ports. The substitute traveling manifest, carried forward from port to port by the oncarrying vessel, shall be finally surrendered at the port where the last portion of the prematurely landed or overcarried cargo is discharged. [TDs 71-169, 77-255.]

(g) Cargo undelivered at foreign port and returned to the United States. Merchandise shipped from a domestic port, but undelivered at the foreign destination and returned, shall be manifested as "Undelivered—to be returned to original foreign destination," if such a return is intended. The district director may issue a permit to retain the merchandise on board, or he may, upon written application of the steamship company, issue a permit on a Delivery Ticket, Customs Form 6043, allowing the merchandise to be transferred to another vessel for return to the original foreign destination. No charge shall be made against the vessel bond. The items shall be remanifested outward and an explanatory reference of the attending circumstances and compliance with export requirements noted. [TDs 52965, 53648, 77-255.]

(h) Merchandise shipped from a domestic port, but undelivered at the foreign destination and brought back, shall be manifested as "Undelivered—To be returned to original foreign destination," if such return is intended. The director may issue a permit to retain such merchandise on board, or he may, upon written application of the steamship company issue a permit on Customs Form 6043 allowing such merchandise to be transferred to another vessel for return to the original foreign destination. No charge shall be made against the vessel bond. The items shall be remanifested outward and an explanatory reference of the attending circumstances and compliance with export requirements noted. [TD 68-141.]

§ 4.35 Unlading outside port of entry.

(a) Upon written application from the interested party, the district director concerned, if he considers it necessary, may permit any vessel laden with merchandise in bulk to proceed, after entry, to any place outside the port where the vessel entered which such district director may designate for the purpose of unlading such cargo.[68] [TD 52124.]

(b) In such case a deposit of a sum sufficient to reimburse the Government for the compensation, travel, and subsistence expenses of the officers detailed to supervise the unlading and delivery of the cargo may be required by the district director. (Sec. 447, 46 Stat. 714; 19 U.S.C. 1447) [TDs 37128, 50053.]

[67a] See § 141.69(c) of this chapter for the conditions under which such merchandise and goods removed from a port of intended entry under these or certain other circumstances may subsequently be cleared under a consumption entry which had been filed therefor before the merchandise was removed from the port of intended entry.

[68] "It shall be unlawful * * * to unlade the cargo or any part thereof of any vessel elsewhere than at a port of entry: Provided, * * * That any vessel laden with merchandise in bulk may proceed after entry of such vessel to any place designated by the Secretary of the Treasury for the purpose of unlading such cargo, under the supervision of customs officers if the collector shall consider the same necessary, and in such case the compensation and expenses of such officers shall be reimbursed to the Government by the party in interest." (Tariff Act of 1930, sec. 447; 19 U.S.C. 1447)

§ 4.36 Delayed discharge of cargo.

(a) When pursuant to section 457, Tariff Act of 1930,[69] customs officers are placed on a vessel which has retained merchandise on board more than 25 days after the date of the vessel's arrival, their compensation and subsistence expenses shall be reimbursed to the Government by the owner or master.

(b) The compensation of all Customs officers and employees assigned to supervise the discharge of a cargo within the purview of section 458, Tariff Act of 1930,[70] after the expiration of 25 days after the date of the vessel's entry shall be reimbursed to the Government by the owner or master of the vessel.

(c) When a cargo within the purview of the proviso to the first subdivision of section 431, Tariff Act of 1930[71] is manifested "for orders" upon the arrival of the vessel, no amendment of the manifest to show another port of discharge shall be permitted after 15 days after the date of the vessel's arrival, except as provided for in § 4.33.

(d) All reimbursements payable in accordance with this section shall be paid or secured to the district director before clearance is granted to the vessel. (R.S. 4206, secs. 431, 457, 458, 46 Stat. 710, as amended, 716, 717; 19 U.S.C. 1431, 1457, 1458, 46 U.S.C. 100)

§ 4.37 Lay order; general order.

(a) Any merchandise or baggage regularly landed but not covered by a permit for its release shall be allowed to remain on the wharf or pier until 5 p.m. on the fifth working day after the day the vessel was entered.[72] At the expiration of such period, any merchandise or baggage so remaining shall be deposited in the public stores or a general-order warehouse, except that, at the written request of the owner, agent, or master of the vessel, filed in duplicate on Customs Form 3189, and at the risk of the owner of the vessel, the district director may issue a lay order allowing such merchandise or baggage to remain on the wharf or pier properly protected for a further period, which shall be specified in the order. The application for an initial lay order to allow the merchandise to remain on the wharf or pier beyond the fifth working day may be included, if the district director approves, in the space provided therefor in the application made on Customs Form 3171 for a permit to lade or unlade. [TDs 40212, 53461.]

(b) All merchandise or baggage unladen from a vessel for which no permit has been received before expiration of the original 5-day period, or extension thereof, shall be sent to the public stores or a general-order warehouse and held as unclaimed at the risk and expense of the consignee or owner.[73] [TD 53461.]

(c) Merchandise unladen after the expiration of the 25-day period prescribed in section 457, Tariff Act of 1930, for which no Customs permit has been presented to the discharging inspector, shall be sent forthwith by the district director to the public stores or a general-order warehouse and stored at the expense and risk of the owner of such merchandise.[73]

(d) Merchandise taken into the custody of the district director pursuant to section 490(b), Tariff Act of 1930,[74] shall be sent to the public stores or a general-order warehouse after 1 day after the day the vessel was entered, to be held there at the risk and expense of the owner.

(e) Any merchandise which is apt to decrease in weight after importation shall be weighed before it is deposited in the public stores or a general-order warehouse.

(f) Whenever, pursuant to section 457 or 490, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1457, 1490), the district director shall take possession of a cargo which is unclaimed and not unladen, he shall require, as a condition for granting a permit to discharge, that the vessel be removed at the expense of the owner to the wharf, pier, or other place most convenient to the general order stores. (R.S. 251, as amended, secs. 448, 457, 490, 624, 46 Stat. 714, 716, 726, 759; (19 U.S.C. 66, 1448, 1457, 1490, 1624)) [TD 74-114.]

§ 4.38 Release of cargo.

(a) No imported merchandise shall be released from Customs custody until a permit to release such merchandise has been granted. Such permit shall be issued by the district director only after the merchandise has been entered and, except as provided for in § 141.102(d) or Part

The compensation and expenses of any such inspector or customs officer for subsistence while on board of such vessel or vehicle shall be reimbursed to the Government by the owner or master of such vessel or vehicle." [72] "* * * After the entry, preliminary or otherwise, of any vessel or report of the arrival of any vehicle, the collector may issue a permit to the master of the vessel, or to the person in charge of the vehicle, to unlade merchandise or baggage, but except as provided in subdivision (b) of this section merchandise or baggage so unladen shall be retained at the place of unlading until entry therefor is made and a permit for its delivery granted, and the owners of the vessel or vehicle from which any imported merchandise is unladen prior to entry of such merchandise shall be liable for the payment of the duties accruing on any part thereof that may be removed from the place of unlading without a permit therefor having been issued. Any merchandise or baggage so unladen from any vessel or vehicle for which entry is not made within forty-eight hours exclusive of Sunday and holidays from the time of the entry of the vessel or report of the vehicle, unless a longer time is granted by the collector, as provided in section 484, shall be sent to a bonded warehouse or the public stores and held as unclaimed at the risk and expense of the consignee in the case of merchandise and of the owner in the case of baggage until entry thereof is made." 142 of this chapter, the duties thereon, if any, have been estimated and paid. [TDs 52773, 73-175.]

(b) When packages of merchandise bear marks or numbers which differ from those appearing on the Cargo Declaration, Customs Form 1302, of the importing vessel for the same packages and the importer or a receiving bonded carrier, with the concurrence of the importing carrier, makes application for their release under such marks or numbers, either for consumption or for transportation in bond under an entry filed therefor at the port of discharge from the importing vessel, the district director may approve the application upon condition that (1) the contents of the packages be identified with an invoice or transportation entry as set forth below and (2) the applicant furnish at his own expense any bonded cartage or lighterage service which the granting of the application may require. The application shall be in writing in such number of copies as may be required for local Customs purposes. Before permitting delivery of packages under such an application, the district director shall cause such examination thereof to be made as will reasonably identify the contents with the invoice filed with the consumption entry. If the merchandise is entered for transportation in bond without the filing of an invoice, such examination shall be made as will reasonably identify the contents of the packages with the transportation entry. [TD 77-255.]

(c) If the district director determines that, in a port or portion of a port, the volume of cargo handled, the incidence of theft or pilferage, or any other factor related to the protection of merchandise in Customs custody requires such measures, he shall require as a condition to the granting of a permit to release imported merchandise that the importer or his agent present to the carrier or his agent a fully executed pickup order in substantially the following format, in triplicate, to obtain delivery of any imported merchandise: [TD 71-39.]

(d) When the provisions of paragraph (c) of this section are invoked by the district director and verification of delivered quantities by Customs is required, a permit to release merchandise shall be effective as a release from Customs custody at the time that the delivery of the merchandise covered by the pickup order into the physical possession of a subsequent carrier or an importer or the agent of either is completed under the supervision of a Customs officer, and only to the extent of the actual delivery of merchandise described in such pickup order as verified by such Customs officer. § 4.39 Stores and equipment of vessels and crews' effects; unlading or lading and retention on board.

(a) The provisions of § 4.30 relating to unlading under a permit on Customs Form 3171 are applicable to the unlading of articles, other than cargo or baggage, which have been laden on a vessel outside the Customs territory of the United States, regardless of the trade in which the vessel may be engaged at the time of unlading, except that such provisions do not apply to such articles which have already been entered. [TDs 21324, 22433, 24340, 24497, 26864, 28321, 28855, 35824, 39340, 40934, 45231, 45690 (5), 46062, 50263 (1), 50380 (5), 53336.]

(c) Bags or dunnage constituting equipment of a vessel may be landed temporarily and reladen on such vessel under Customs supervision without entry.

(e) Under section 446, Tariff Act of 1930, district directors may permit narcotic drugs, except smoking opium, in reasonable quantities and properly listed as medical stores to remain on board vessels if satisfied that such drugs are adequately safeguarded and used only as medical supplies.

Parts of the hull and fittings recovered from a vessel which arrived in the United States in the course of navigation and was wrecked in the waters of the United States or was dismantled in this country are free of duties and import taxes, but if such articles are recovered from vessels outside the waters of the United States and brought into a United States port, they shall be treated as imported merchandise. (a) Any cargo landed from a vessel wrecked in the waters of the United States or on the high seas shall be subject at the port of entry to the same entry requirements and privileges as the cargo of a vessel regularly arriving in the foreign trade. In lieu of a Cargo Declaration, Customs Form 1302, to cover such cargo, the owner, underwriter (if the merchandise has been abandoned to him), or the salvor of the merchandise shall make written application for permission to enter the wrecked cargo, and any such applicant shall be regarded as the consignee of the merchandise for Customs purposes.[76] [TDs 7554, 8028, 9598, 77-255.]

(b) All such merchandise shall be taken into possession by the district director of the port in which it shall first arrive and be retained in his custody pending entry. If it is not entered by the person entitled to make entry, or is not disposed of pursuant to court order, it shall be subject to sale as unclaimed merchandise. [TD 23155.]

(c) If such merchandise is from a vessel which has been sunk in waters of the United States for 2 years or more and has been abandoned by the owner, any person who has salvaged the cargo shall be permitted to enter the merchandise in the district in which the vessel was wrecked free of duty upon the facts being established to the satisfaction of the district director at the port of entry.[77] Any other such merchandise is subject to the same tariff classification as like merchandise regularly imported in the ordinary course of trade. [TD 11498.]

(d) If the merchandise is libeled for salvage,[78] the district director shall notify the United States attorney of the claim of the United States for duties, and request him to intervene for such duties.

§ 4.80a Passengers on foreign vessels taken on board and landed in the United States.

(a) A foreign vessel which takes a passenger on board at a port in the United States, its territories, or possessions embraced within the coastwise laws ("coastwise port") will be deemed to have landed that passenger in violation of the coastwise laws (46 U.S.C. 289) if: [TD 68-285.]

(1) The passenger goes ashore, even temporarily, at another coastwise port on a voyage solely to one or more coastwise ports, regardless of whether the passenger ultimately severs his connection with the voyage at the port at which he embarked;

(2) The passenger goes ashore, even temporarily, at another coastwise port on a voyage to one or more coastwise ports but touching at a nearby foreign port or ports (but at no other foreign port) if during the course of the voyage the vessel remains in the coastwise port (not including the port of embarkation) for more than 24 hours, without regard to whether the passenger ultimately severs his connection with the vessel at the port at which he embarked. This period may be extended by the district director of Customs concerned to 96 hours or by the Commissioner of Customs for a longer period if the district director or the Commissioner is satisfied that the vessel will be unable to depart within the permitted period for reasons connected with the loading or unloading of cargo or the safety or safe navigation of the vessel. [TDs 69-166, 70-28.]

(3) The passenger severs his connection with the voyage at another coastwise port on a voyage which touches no foreign port other than a nearby foreign port; or

(4) The passenger goes ashore at any port other than the port at which he embarked if coastwise transportation is the primary object of the voyage.

(b) In the absence of evidence that coastwise transportation is the primary object, a foreign vessel engaged on a voyage touching or originating at any foreign port other than a nearby foreign port shall not be deemed to be engaged in the coastwise trade and may, without penalty, disembark a passenger at any coastwise port: Provided, That that passenger has proceeded or will proceed with the vessel to a foreign port other than a nearby foreign port.

(c) For the purposes of this section a nearby foreign port is defined as any foreign port in North America, Central America, the West Indies (including the Bahama Islands), or the Bermuda Islands. A port in the Virgin Islands shall be treated as a nearby foreign port for the purposes of this section. (Sec. 8, 24 Stat. 81, as amended; 46 U.S.C. 289.)

(d) The owner or charterer of a foreign vessel or any other interested party may request from Headquarters, United States Customs Service, an advisory ruling as to whether or not the primary object of a contemplated voyage would be considered to be coastwise transportation in violation of 46 U.S.C. 289. Such a request shall be filed in accordance with the provisions of Part 177 of this chapter. [TDs 73-319, 75-186.]

§ 4.80b Coastwise transportation of merchandise.

(a) Effect of manufacturing or processing at intermediate port or place.—A coastwise transportation of merchandise takes place, within the meaning of the coastwise laws, when merchandise laden at a point embraced within the coastwise laws ("coastwise point") is unladen at another coastwise point, regardless of the origin or ultimate destination of the merchandise. However, merchandise is not transported coastwise if at an intermediate port or place other than a coastwise point (that is, at a foreign port or place, or at a port or place in a territory or possession of the United States not subject to the coastwise laws), it is manufactured or processed into a new and different product, and the new and different product thereafter is transported to a coastwise point.

(b) Request for ruling.—Interested parties may request an advisory ruling from Headquarters, United States Customs Service, Attention: Carriers, Drawback and Bonds Division, as to whether a specific action taken or to be taken with respect to merchandise at the intermediate port or place will result in its becoming a new and different product for purposes of this section. The request shall be filed in accordance with the provisions of Part 177 of this chapter. [TD 79-193.]

§ 4.81 Reports of arrivals and departures in coastwise trade.

(a) No vessel which is enrolled and licensed or licensed for the coastwise trade, registered, or owned by a citizen and exempt from documentation, and which is in ballast or laden only with domestic products or passengers being carried only between points in the United States shall be required to report arrival or to enter when coming into one port of the United States from any other such port, except as provided for in § § 4.83 and 4.84 of the regulations of this part, nor to obtain a clearance, permit to proceed, or permission to depart when going from one port in the United States to any other such port except when transporting merchandise to a port in noncontiguous territory.[111] [BMIN/CL 308/41; MCL 15/42. (e) Before any foreign vessel shall depart in ballast, or solely with articles to be transported in accordance with § 4.93, from any port in the United States for any other such port, the master shall apply to the district director for a permit to proceed by filing a General Declaration, Customs Form 1301, in duplicate. If a vessel is proceeding in ballast and therefore Cargo Declaration, Customs Form 1302, is omitted, the word "None" shall be inserted in item 17 of the General Declaration and the words "No merchandise on board" shall be inserted in item 13 of the General Declaration. However, articles to be transported in accordance with § 4.93 shall be manifested on Cargo Declaration, as required by § 4.93(c). Three copies of the Cargo Declaration shall be filed with the district director. The traveling Crew's Effects Declaration Customs Form 1304 and all unused crewmembers' declarations on Customs Form 5129 shall be placed in a sealed envelope addressed to the Customs boarding officer at the next intended domestic port and returned to the master for delivery. The master shall execute a receipt for all unused crewmembers' declarations which are returned to him. Within 24 hours after arrival at the next United States port the master shall report his arrival to the district director. An inward foreign manifest of the cargo in each barge, destined to the port of unlading shown on the permit to proceed, must be attached to each permit and a Customs Form 7512-C must be prepared for each permit. At the port of unlading of the barge, report of arrival and entry must be made within 24 hours to the appropriate Customs officer by presentation of the permit to proceed, manifests, Form 7512-C obtained at the preceding port, a new master's oath, and a new General Declaration (Customs Form 1301). If only part of the inward foreign cargo is unladen, a new permit to proceed must be obtained, the inward foreign manifests shall be attached to it, the master's oath shall be filed, a new Form 7512-C shall be prepared. [TD 75-315.]

(2) At the port where a LASH-type barge begins a coastwise movement with export cargo, a permit to proceed on Customs Form 1301 and a master's oath must be presented to the appropriate Customs officer. A single permit to proceed and master's oath may be presented for all the barges proceeding from the same port of lading in the same tow. Required shipper's export declarations for LASH-type barges must be filed at the port where the barges will be taken aboard a barge-carrying vessel. Where a complete manifest is not available at the port of lading, the permit to proceed must include a statement that a complete manifest and shipper's export declaration for each barge will be filed at the port where the barge will be taken aboard a barge-carrying vessel, and that port must be identified in the statement. At the next port, a report of arrival must be made within 24 hours and entry must be made within 48 hours by presentation of the permit to proceed received upon departure from the prior port, a newly executed General Declaration (Customs Form 1301), and a master's oath.

(3) When foreign LASH-type barges are proceeding between ports of the United States under paragraph (e) of this section, a single permit to proceed may be used for all the barges proceeding to the same port in the same tow.

(4) In lieu of the master of the towing vessel executing and delivering documents required under permit-to-proceed procedures (see § 4.81(f)) at the port where a LASH-type barge begins a coastwise movement, the master of the towing vessel may designate in writing the owner or operator of the barges as his representative with authority to execute and deliver such documents at the customhouse. The owner or operator of the barges may designate representatives to perform such functions at ports or places where permit-to-proceed documents must be delivered. Documents obtained from Customs officers at one place by such a representative may be forwarded by any suitable means to the representative who must present them to Customs officers at another place, the only requirement being that the forms are properly completed and are presented within the prescribed time periods. Moreover, instead of a written designation from each master of a towing vessel, a blanket designation in writing from the owner or operator of one or more towing vessels on behalf of masters of their towing vessels, designating the owner or operator of the barges to be the representative of the master for purposes of executing and delivering permit-to-proceed documents, is authorized.

(5) [Reserved]

(6) When a LASH-type barge is proceeding to a place in the United States that is not a port of entry, § 101.4(a) and (b) of this chapter are applicable. No merchandise shall be unladen from a LASH-type barge until a permit or special license therefor is obtained in accordance with § 4.30 except that a single permit to unlade may be used for all barges that arrived at the port of unlading in the same tow. (46 U.S.C. 251)

(ii) Which is undocumented and owned by a person other than a citizen of the United States; and

(4) The term "fishing" means the planting, cultivation, or taking of fish, shell fish, marine animals, pearls, shells, or marine vegetation, or the transportation of any of those marine products to the United States by the taking vessel or another vessel under the complete control and management of a common owner or bareboat charterer.

(b) Except as provided for in paragraph (d), (e), or (g) of this section, no vessel employed in fishing, other than a vessel of the United States or a vessel of less than 5 net tons owned in the United States, shall come into a port or place in the United States.[131b]

(c) A vessel of the United States to be employed in fishing may be enrolled and licensed, or licensed, depending upon its size, or registered. If registered, the vessel must be entitled to be licensed or enrolled and licensed for the fisheries. [TD 69-266.]

(d) A convention vessel may come into a port of entry on the Pacific coast of the United States, including Alaska, to land its catch of halibut and incidentally-caught sable fish, or to secure supplies, equipment, or repairs. Such a vessel may come into any other port of entry or, if properly authorized to do so under § 101.4(b) of this chapter, into any place other than a port of entry, for the purpose of securing supplies, equipment, or repairs only, but shall not land its catch. A convention vessel which comes into the United States as provided for in this paragraph shall comply with the usual requirements applicable to foreign vessels arriving at and departing from the United States. [TD 77-241.]

(e) A nonconvention fishing vessel may come into a port of entry in the United States or, if granted permission under § 101.4(b) of this chapter, into a place other than a port of entry for the purpose of securing supplies, equipment, or repairs, but shall not land its catch. A nonconvention fishing vessel which comes into the United States as provided for in this paragraph shall comply with the usual requirements applicable to foreign vessels arriving at and departing from ports of the United States. [TD 77-241.]

(f) A nonconvention cargo vessel, although not prohibited by law from coming into the United States, shall not be permitted to land in the United States its catch of fish taken on the high seas or any fish or fish products taken on board on the high seas from a vessel employed in fishing or in the processing of fish or fish products, but may land fish taken on board at any place other than the high seas upon compliance with the usual requirements. Before any such fish may be landed the master shall satisfy the district director that the fish were not taken on board on the high seas by presenting declarations of the master and two or more officers or members of the crew of the vessel, of whom the person next in authority to the master shall be one, or other evidence acceptable to the district director which establishes the place of lading to his satisfaction. [TD 53336.]

(g) A convention vessel, a nonconvention fishing vessel, or a nonconvention cargo vessel which arrives in the United States in distress shall be subject to the usual requirements applicable to foreign vessels arriving in distress. While in the United States, supplies, equipment, or repairs may be secured, but, except as specified in the next sentence, fish shall not be landed unless the vessel's master, or other authorized representative of the owner, shows to the satisfaction of the district director that it will not be possible, by the exercise of due diligence, for the vessel to transport its catch to a foreign port without spoilage, in which event the district director may allow the vessel upon compliance with all applicable requirements, to land, transship, or otherwise dispose of its catch. Nothing herein shall prevent a convention vessel arriving in distress from landing its catch of halibut and incidentally-caught sable fish at a port of entry on the Pacific coast, including Alaska, upon compliance with normal Customs procedures, nor prevent a foreign cargo vessel arriving in distress from landing, upon compliance with normal customs procedures, its cargo of fish taken on board at any place not on the high seas.

In the case of private aircraft passing through the zone referred to in paragraph (a) of § 6.14 and crossing into the United States within that zone, advance notice shall be furnished in accordance with the procedure prescribed in § 6.14. [TDs 52995, 53634, 54244, 75-201.]

(2) Furnishing advance notice. When, by reason such as departure from a remote place, dependable facilities for giving notice are not available, a landing shall be made at a place where the necessary facilities do exist before coming into any area from any place outside the United States. However, radio equipment of the plane may be used if this will result in the giving of adequate and timely notice. [TDs 53634, 75-201.]

(3) Exception for scheduled airline to the requirement of giving advance notice. Advance notice shall not be required in the case of aircraft of a scheduled airline arriving in accordance with a regular schedule filed with the district director for the district in which the place of first landing is situated. [TD 75-201.]

(iv) International airport of intended landing or other place at which landing has been authorized by Customs;

(v) Number of alien passengers;

(vi) Number of citizen passengers; and

(vii) Estimated time of arrival.

(5) Timeliness of advance notice. The advance notice must be received by Customs in sufficient time to enable the officers designated to inspect the aircraft to reach the international airport or such other place of first landing prior to the arrival of the aircraft, except as provided in § 6.14. [TD 75-201.]

(6) Responsibility of aircraft commander upon landing. (d) Permit to proceed; foreign aircraft. (1) Aircraft are subject to Customs entry when brought in for repairs or when otherwise treated as imported articles. Before an aircraft which is not treated as an imported article, which is registered in a foreign country, and which arrives in the United States carrying passengers for hire or merchandise is ferried (proceeds in ballast) from the airport of first arrival to one or more airports in the United States, its commander shall obtain from the district director at the airport of first arrival a permit to proceed on Customs Form 7507 allowing the aircraft to proceed from airport to airport in the United States, which shall be retained on board such aircraft while in the United States. At each airport visited, the Customs officer there, or, if there is none, the airport manager, shall make an endorsement on the back of such permit showing the name of the airport, date and time of arrival, date and time of departure, and purpose of the visit. The permit shall be surrendered to the district director at the port of final clearance for a foreign destination, who shall satisfy himself prior to the issuance of clearance that the aircraft received proper Customs treatment while in this country. The permit shall then be returned to the district director at the port of issue. [TDs 53065, 53634, 56288, 75-86.]

(2) A copy of the permit shall be retained by the district director at the port where issued. If within 60 days after the issuance of such permit the said district director does not receive a report of the outward clearance of the aircraft covered thereby, the matter shall be reported to the Customs agent in charge of the area involved for investigation. [TD 53634.]

(3) Civil aircraft of domestic origin registered in the United States and arriving from a foreign country with passengers carried for hire or merchandise, after proper Customs treatment of all such passengers and merchandise, may be allowed to proceed upon their identity being established. Civil aircraft of foreign origin registered in the United States and arriving from a foreign country in international traffic shall be subject to the following provisions: [TDs 53634, 55482]

(i) If such aircraft has been entered as an imported article and duty has been paid on a previous arrival, it may be permitted to proceed otherwise than as an imported article upon a declaration by the aircraft commander identifying the port, date, and number of the duty-paid entry filed upon such previous arrival.

(ii) If such aircraft has not been entered as an imported article subject to duty, in addition to any other documents required in connection with a flight in continuation of the international traffic, it shall proceed under a permit to proceed on Customs Form 7507 which shall specifically identify the aircraft number, country of manufacture, name of the manufacturer, flight number, port, and date of arrival for the flight on which it arrived in the United States, and action shall be taken thereon as specified in subparagraphs (1) and (2) of this paragraph. It shall proceed without being treated as an imported article only if it is in continuous use solely in international traffic or use incidental thereto and will depart from the United States to a destination outside thereof in international traffic or in ballast. If such aircraft which has not been entered as an imported article is withdrawn from international traffic or diverted in the United States to a use other than international traffic or use incidental thereto, it shall be subject to entry as an imported article and dutiable at the rate in effect at the time of withdrawal or diversion.[1] [TD 75-86]

(e) Permits to unlade and lade. A permit on Customs Form 3171 running for any period up to 1 year, but not longer than the period of the supporting bond, may be issued to any and all aircraft to unlade passengers or merchandise, including baggage, or to lade merchandise or baggage during official hours. Except when a term permit has been issued and arrangements are made locally so that the proper Customs officer will be notified during official hours in advance of the rendering of the services as to the specific nature of the services desired and the exact times they will be needed, a separate application for a permit shall be filed in the case of each arrival or departure. The permit shall not be issued (previously issued term permits shall be revoked) unless the carrier complies with the provisions of § 4.30 of this chapter regarding terminal facilities and employee lists, and the required cash deposit or bond, on Customs Form 7567 or 7569, has been received. [TDs 52054, 53634, 55386, 68-247, 72-189.]

(f) Special licenses to unlade and lade. A special license on Customs Form 3171 running for any period up to 1 year, but not longer than the period of the supporting bond, may be similarly issued to any and all aircraft to unlade passengers or merchandise, including baggage, or to lade merchandise or baggage from such aircraft at night or on a Sunday or holiday when Customs supervision is required. A previously issued term special license shall be revoked unless the carrier complies with the provisions of § 4.30 of this chapter regarding terminal facilities and employee lists, and the required cash deposit or bond, on Customs Form 7567 or 7569, has been received. (See § 24.16(c) of this chapter as to private aircraft.) Separate bonds shall be required if overtime services are requested by different principals. [TDs 52054, 53634, 68-247, 72-189.]

(g) Waiver of bond requirement. The furnishing of a bond on Customs Form 7567 or 7569, or a cash deposit in lieu of the bond, required by paragraphs (e) and (f), may be waived by the district director to ensure the prompt and orderly clearance of the aircraft, passengers, or merchandise, including baggage, if he is convinced that the revenue is protected and that all Customs requirements are satisfied. [TDs 78-109.]

(h) Emergency or forced landing. Should an emergency or forced landing be made by an aircraft coming into the United States from any place outside thereof, or into an area from a place outside the areas defined in § 6.1(c) of the regulations of this part, or while traveling from airport to airport in the areas of the United States under a permit to proceed (see § 6.9(b) of the regulations of this part), the aircraft commander shall not allow any merchandise, baggage, passengers, or crew members not previously cleared by Customs or other applicable Government agency to be removed, or to depart from the landing place without permission of a Customs officer, unless such removal or departure is necessary for purposes of safety, communication with Customs authorities, or the preservation of life, health, or property. As soon as practicable, the aircraft commander, or a member of the crew in charge, or the owner of the aircraft, shall communicate with the Customs officer at the intended place of first landing or at the nearest international airport or other Customs port of entry in that area and make a full report of the circumstances of the flight and of the emergency or forced landing. When an aircraft carrying precleared crew, passengers and baggage or merchandise lands for any reason at an airport in the United States other than the scheduled or intended port of arrival, written notice must be received from the airline representative or aircraft commander both at the Customs office at the place of preclearance and at or for the place of intended landing within seven days, unless notice is otherwise given in accordance with a procedure previously agreed to with the carrier by the district director involved. Mail carried as such may be removed from such aircraft upon making an emergency or forced landing, but if so removed shall be delivered at once to a responsible officer or employee of the Postal Service. [1] The Bureau of Customs made the following ruling on the status of foreign aircraft wrecked while engaged in international traffic: "If the accident results in substantial demolition of the aircraft, no entry is required and no duty accrues with respect to any portion of the wreckage. If the accident does not result in substantial demolition of the aircraft, and all salvageable portions and parts of the wrecked aircraft are exported, the aircraft is not considered to have been withdrawn from international traffic so as to subject the aircraft as a whole or any portion or part thereof to regular customs entry and duty as imported merchandise. However, if the accident does not result in substantial demolition of the aircraft and the wrecked aircraft or any salvageable portion or part thereof is not exported, an entry is required for the retained damaged aircraft, or salvageable portion or part, as the case may be, and duties will be assessed thereon in accordance with its condition immediately after the casualty." T.D. 55063(1), March 4, 1960.

§ 6.3 Entry and clearance.

(a) Aircraft coming into any area from any place outside the United States shall be entered in such area if landing is made therein and if carrying passengers for hire or commercial cargo (see § 6.7). Aircraft utilized by members of air travel clubs, whether such aircraft be owned or chartered by the air travel clubs, shall be treated as carrying passengers for hire. Aircraft proceeding from one area into another shall be entered in the latter area if landing is made therein and if carrying residue cargo. Aircraft not required to enter under this paragraph are subject to other customs requirements (see § 6.2). [TDs 45824, 50464, 52054, 53634, 76–41.]

(b) Entry shall be made by the aircraft commander, or by any other authorized agent of the owner or operator of the aircraft (hereinafter referred to as an authorized person),[1a] at the international airport at which the first landing is made in the area. If, pursuant to § 6.2(a), the first landing occurs at a place not an international airport, entry shall be made at the nearest international airport or Customs port of entry, unless some other place is designated for that purpose. [TDs 53634, 54653, 55487.]

(c) Aircraft departing for foreign territory: (1) Carrying, for hire, either passengers or merchandise; (2) Taking aboard or discharging, for hire, either passengers or merchandise anywhere outside the United States; or (3) Carrying residue cargo from one area to another, shall be cleared in the area from which departing. Clearance may be obtained from the Customs officer in charge by telephone if the aircraft is departing for foreign territory empty, or if it is carrying only passengers for hire or noncommercial cargo for which shipper's export declarations are not required. The request for telephone clearance must be received by the Customs officer in charge with sufficient time remaining before departure to ensure that Customs may undertake any necessary examination of the aircraft and cargo. Aircraft utilized by members of air travel clubs, whether such aircraft be owned or chartered by the air travel clubs, shall be treated as carrying passengers for hire. In accordance with provisions of regulations of the Bureau of the Census (15 CFR Part 30), any aircraft not otherwise required to clear which is carrying merchandise from one to another area, or from an area to any possessions of the United States, must obtain permission to depart (see § 6.8 of the regulations of this part). If an aircraft is departing on a flight from the United States and is not required to clear under the preceding provisions of this paragraph, it must, nevertheless, obtain Customs clearance if by reason of the foreign destination of the aircraft a validated license from the International Trade Administration is required by Part 372, International Trade Administration Regulations (15 CFR 372). Aircraft not under the export licensing authority of the Department of Commerce are subject to the export licensing authority of the Department of State and are specified in Category VIII in the United States Munitions List (22 CFR Part 121). Such aircraft may depart from the United States only under appropriate Department of State license whether or not subject to clearance under this section.[2] [TDs 53634, 55354, 55876, 76–41, 82–92.]

(d) The clearance or permission to depart shall be obtained by the aircraft commander or an authorized agent at the Customs port of entry (whether or not an international airport) at or nearest the place of last take-off from the area, unless some other place is designated for that purpose by the district director of Customs. [TDs 53634, 55876.]

(e) This section shall not apply to the entry of aircraft of scheduled airlines complying with the terms of § 6.4 nor to the clearance or departure of such aircraft complying with the terms of § 6.5, nor to the clearance of any aircraft holding a permit issued by the Secretary of Commerce authorizing departure without clearance. [TDs 53634, 55876.]

§ 6.3a. Entry and Clearance; Cuba.

[1a] Section 431, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1431): "(b) Whenever a manifest of articles or persons on board an aircraft is required for customs purposes to be signed, or produced or delivered to a customs officer, the manifest may be signed, produced, or delivered by the pilot or person in charge of the aircraft, or by any other authorized agent of the owner or operator of the aircraft, subject to such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe. If any irregularity of omission or commission occurs in any way in respect of any such manifest, the owner or operator of the aircraft shall be liable for any fine or penalty prescribed by law in respect of such irregularity."

(2) Carrying from that area merchandise which must be listed in its general clearance declaration (§ 6.8).

(b) Aircraft operated by scheduled airlines departing from one to another area shall clear in the area from which departing if carrying residue foreign cargo, and, when clearance is not required, if transporting merchandise from one to another area or from an area to possessions of the United States shall obtain permission to depart from the district director when required for the purposes of regulations of the Bureau of the Census (15 CFR Part 30). [TDs 50503, 52902, 53634, 55876.]

(c) Clearance required by this section or permission to depart may be obtained by the aircraft commander or an authorized person at the Customs port of entry (whether or not an international airport) at or nearest each place at which merchandise or passengers, or both, are taken aboard for discharge beyond the area. In such case, the clearance, or permission to depart, shall be limited to the passengers and merchandise taken aboard at such place. Otherwise clearance, or permission to depart, shall be obtained at the Customs port of entry (whether or not an international airport) at or nearest the place of last take-off in the area unless some other place is designated by the district director. [TDs 53634, 55876.]

§ 6.7 Documents for entry.

(a) At the time any aircraft arriving from outside the areas of the United States lands in an area in which entry is required by § 6.3 or 6.4, the aircraft commander or an authorized person shall deliver an inward general declaration on Customs Form 7507, or on a form conforming thereto, and shall show thereon all of the information called for by the official form, unless any of such information is otherwise furnished as provided in this section, and shall deliver any other applicable documents as specified in this section. If an aircraft proceeds from one to another area of the United States or from one to another port in the same area carrying residue cargo or uncleared passengers, the aircraft commander or an authorized person shall deliver the documents specified in § 6.9 (c) or (d). [TDs 51595, 52967, 53634, 53991, 55348, 55413, 55579, 55978, 56066.]

(2) Crew purchases: A crew purchase list shall be furnished with the general declaration. Articles entered by crewmembers not required to file crew declarations by section 148.62 of this chapter shall be listed opposite the name of the crewmember on the general declaration or on an attached separate crew purchase list. Any articles required by section 148.62 of this chapter to be declared on Customs Form 5129, need not be listed if such crew declarations are securely attached to the general declaration or attached list, and the following statement appears thereon:

Crew purchases as per attached Crew Member's Declarations.

In the case of an aircraft arriving direct from Canada on a flight which originated in that country, no crew purchase list shall be required, but any crew declarations shall be attached to the general declaration and the total number thereof shall be shown on the face of the general declaration with the figure for the total number of crew. [TD 78-99.]

(i) When Form 7509 is used, the full information called for by the official form shall be shown thereon except that the detailed information about the cargo shipped under air waybills may be furnished by securely attaching to the cargo manifest a copy of each air waybill, by listing the numbers thereof on the manifest, and by noting the statement "Cargo as per Air Waybills Attached" on the manifest.

(ii) Customs Form 5119-A may be used as the cargo manifest if there is on board only cargo not exceeding $250 in value which is to be entered on such form. [TD 78-99.]

(iii) Customs Form 7523 may be used as the cargo manifest if there is on board only cargo which may be entered on that form.

(iv) No cargo manifest is required for merchandise, including baggage and stores, arriving from and departing for a foreign country on the same through flight, although any such document on board may be inspected, except that any arms, ammunition, or implements of war on board which require a license issued by the Secretary of State shall be manifested on every arrival.

(v) On the cargo manifest or on a separate list attached thereto in which case the manifest shall bear the notation "Stores list attached," there shall be shown all alcoholic beverages, tobacco products, narcotic drugs, and bonded or foreign merchandise arriving as stores as well as all equipment of a type requiring a license as specified in subdivision (iv) of this subparagraph.

(vi) In the case of aircraft of scheduled airlines, domestic supplies and equipment not subject to license (unless subject to a duty equal to any internal-revenue tax from which such articles were previously excepted) and any fuel need not be included in the stores list if the statement "Domestic supplies and equipment and fuel for immediate flight only, except as noted" is noted on the cargo manifest or separate stores list attached thereto.

(vii) Unaccompanied baggage arriving in the United States under a check number from any foreign country by air shall be shown on the cargo manifest in columns under the following headings:

Check No.	Description of package	Where from	Destination

On the right of the foregoing columns two blank columns, one headed "Name of examining officer" and on the right thereof another headed "Disposition," shall be provided on the cargo manifest for use of Customs officers. Unaccompanied unchecked baggage arriving as air express or freight shall be manifested as other air express or freight.

(c) One copy of the general declaration and one copy of each attached manifest shall be delivered by the aircraft commander or an authorized person immediately to the Customs officer in charge at the airport or other place of arrival. [TDs 53634, 53743, 53991.]

(d) The provisions of section 466, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1466), are applicable to any aircraft of United States registry engaged in trade and arriving in the United States, as defined in section 401(h), Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1401(h)), whether from a contiguous or noncontiguous foreign country, and a notation as to any equipment installed on, or repairs made to, any such aircraft in a foreign country shall be made in the aircraft journey log book, which shall set forth a general description of the equipment or repairs and a statement of any necessity therefor. The aircraft commander or an authorized person, on the first subsequent arrival of the aircraft in the United States, shall exhibit the journey log book to the Customs officer at the place of arrival. A declaration on Customs Form 3415, to the effect that no equipment was purchased, or repairs made, in a foreign country, shall not be required in any case for any such aircraft. Except as specified hereafter in this paragraph, any such equipment purchased or repairs made shall be subject to entry and deposit of duty as prescribed by § 4.14 of this chapter, but the following may be added to the entry in lieu of the filing of Customs Form 3415: [TDs 52316, 53634, 53991, 78-99.]

This entry contains a complete account of the equipment purchased for and the repairs made to the within-mentioned aircraft during the flight covered hereby, together with the cost of such equipment and the expenses of such repairs (including the cost of installation of equipment and the cost of repair parts and material used). Application is hereby made for the ascertainment of the amount of duty due under section 466, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended.

(e) A scheduled airline or an air carrier generally authorized to operate contract passenger or cargo flights and operating between the United States and foreign territory shall not be required to file a declaration on Customs Form 3415 or an entry on Customs Form 7535 or deposit duty or give a bond therefor for equipment purchased for or repairs made to the aircraft when: [TDs 53634, 53991, 54871, 74-204.]

(1) Such equipment or repairs were made necessary by reason of stress of weather or other casualty occurring since the aircraft's last departure from the United States; or

(2) Such equipment or repairs were necessary to secure the safety and airworthiness of the aircraft, provided the necessity of such equipment or repairs was unforeseen prior to the time of the aircraft's last departure from the United States; or

(3) Such equipment or repairs were necessary to comply with regulations of the Federal Aviation Administration or other Agency of the United States or of a foreign government, provided the necessity for such equipment or repairs was unforeseen prior to the time of the aircraft's last departure from the United States; or

(4) Such equipment installed and materials used in making the repairs were manufactured or produced in the United States and the work incident to such installation or repairs was performed by the regular crew of the aircraft or by residents of the United States.

Whenever entry is not required in any of the foregoing circumstances, the following statement shall be included on the general declaration or attached air cargo manifest:

> Entry for equipment purchased or repairs made to this aircraft while in a foreign country not required under § 6.7(e) of the Customs Regulations.

In all cases where entry is not required the district director shall be satisfied from an inspection of the journey log book and such further investigation as he may deem necessary that the facts with respect to the installation of the equipment and making of repairs were as set forth in paragraphs (e)(1), (2), (3), or (4) of this section.

(f) The provisions of section 446, Tariff Act of 1930 (19 U.S.C. 1446), relating to supplies and stores retained on board, shall be applicable to aircraft arriving in the United States from any foreign port or place. [TDs 52054, 53634, 53991.]

[Reserved]

(h)(1) Aircraft commanders or agents shall notify the district director of shortages (merchandise and unaccompanied baggage manifested, but not found) or overages (merchandise and unaccompanied baggage found, but not manifested) of merchandise and unaccompanied baggage. [TDs 53991, 54482, 55436, 71-22, 76-81.]

(2) Shortages shall be reported to the district director in the following manner:

(i) By submission, within 30 days after the date of entry of the aircraft, of a separate copy of the cargo manifest form marked or stamped "Shortage Declaration," provided the copy lists the merchandise involved, states the reasons for the discrepancy, and bears a signed declaration of the aircraft commander or an authorized agent reading, "I declare to the best of my knowledge and belief that the discrepancy described herein occurred for the reasons stated. I also certify that evidence to support the explanation of the discrepancy will be retained in the carrier's files for a period of at least one year and will be made available to Customs on demand;"

(ii) By endorsement on the importer's claim for shortage on Customs Form 5931, as provided for in § 158.3 of this chapter; or

(iii) By submission of Customs Form 5931 within 30 days after the date of entry of the aircraft.

(iv) Whichever of the three alternatives is followed, satisfactory evidence to support the explanation of the shortage shall be retained in the carrier's files for one year.

(3) Overages shall be reported to the district director within 30 days after the date of entry of the aircraft by completion of a post entry (section 440, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended) on a separate copy of the cargo manifest form marked or stamped "Post Entry," provided the copy lists the merchandise involved, states the reasons for the discrepancy, and bears the signed declaration described in paragraph (h)(2)(i) of this section, or by submission of Customs Form 5931.

(4) The district director shall immediately advise the aircraft commander or agent of those discrepancies which are not reported by the aircraft commander or agent. Notification may be in any appropriate manner, including the furnishing of a copy of Customs Form 5931 to the aircraft commander or agent. The aircraft commander or agent shall satisfactorily resolve the matter within 30 days after the date of such notification.

(5) Unless the required notification and explanation are made timely and the district director is satisfied that the discrepancies resulted from clerical error or other mistake and that there has been no loss of revenue (and in the case of a discrepancy not initially reported by the aircraft commander or agent, that there was a valid reason for the failure to so report); applicable penalties under section 584, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, shall be assessed, except that any penalty involving a manifest discrepancy resulting in an overage shall be $500 (see § 162.31 of this chapter). For purposes of this section, the term "clerical error" is defined as a nonnegligent, inadvertent, or typographical mistake in the preparation, assembly, or submission of the manifest. However, repeated similar manifest discrepancies by the same parties may be deemed the result of negligence and not clerical error or other mistake. The fact that the aircraft commander or owner had no knowledge of a discrepancy shall not relieve him from the penalty. [TD 79-160.]

(6) A correction in the manifest shall not be required in the case of bulk merchandise if the district director is satisfied that the difference between the manifested quantity and the quantity unladden, whether the difference constitutes an overage or a shortage, is an ordinary and usual difference properly attributable to absorption of moisture, temperature, faulty weighing at the airport, or other similar reason. A correction in the manifest shall not be required because of discrepancies between marks or numbers on packages of merchandise and the marks or numbers for the same packages as shown on the manifest of the importing aircraft when the quantity and description of the merchandise in such packages are correctly given. (Sec. 644, 46 Stat. 761 Sec. 1109, 72 Stat. 799; 19 U.S.C. 1644, 49 U.S.C. 1509)

§ 6.8 Documents for clearance, or for certain departures.

(a) At the time of departure or, with Customs approval, if the cargo is available for inspection, at any time before departure, of any aircraft from any area from which clearance is required by § § 6.3 or 6.5, the aircraft commander or an authorized person shall deliver to Customs an outward general declaration, a cargo manifest and any required shipper's export declarations for all cargo on the aircraft (and for aircraft itself, if it is being exported from the United States for foreign account). If cargo is on board the aircraft, an outward general declaration shall not be required if the following statement, signed by the aircraft commander or an authorized person, is on the cargo manifest:

I declare that to the best of my knowledge and belief this manifest contains an exact and true account of all cargo on board this aircraft.

Signed ______________________________

(Aircraft Commander or Authorized Person)

If no cargo is on board, an outward general declaration shall not be required if the following statement, signed by the aircraft commander or an authorized person, is on the cargo manifest:

I declare that there is no cargo on board this aircraft.

Signed ______________________________

(Aircraft Commander or Authorized Person)

The aircraft commander or authorized person also shall deliver a proper export inspection certificate issued by the Veterinary Services, Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service, Department of Agriculture (9 CFR pt. 91), to the Customs officer in charge at the time of departure of any aircraft carrying horses, mules, asses, cattle, sheep, swine, or goats. If required, any shipper's export declarations and cargo manifest may be filed pro forma if the aircraft is departing from the United States and prior to departure a proper bond is given, in which case completed shipper's export declarations and the completed cargo manifest are to be delivered pursuant to the bond not later than the fourth day after departure: Provided, That, during any period covered by a proclamation of the President that a state of war exists between foreign nations, no aircraft shall be cleared for a foreign destination until the completed cargo manifest and all required shipper's export declarations shall have been filed with the Customs officer in charge: And provided further, That no aircraft shall be cleared until the completed cargo manifest and all required shipper's export declarations have been filed with the Customs officer in charge if the aircraft is departing on a flight from the United States directly or indirectly to a country or other destination in country groups designated W, Y, or Z of the Export Regulations (15 CFR Part 370, Supplement No. 1). At the time of departure of an aircraft not required to clear which is transporting merchandise from one to another area or from an area to possessions of the United States, the documents prescribed in the regulations of the Bureau of the Census (15 CFR Part 30) must be filed before departure or a bond to produce the required documents timely and pro forma documents, when required by the district director, as prescribed in 15 CFR 30.24 must be filed. Clearance of the aircraft on such a flight is not required unless foreign residue cargo is being carried (see § 6.9), or unless the aircraft is of foreign registry and is not departing under the procedure provided for in § 6.2(d) or unless the aircraft is to proceed to a foreign destination thereafter. [TDs 51595, 53634, 53354, 55396, 55413, 55876, 70-6, 76-241, 79-32, 82-92.]

(b) The outward general declaration shall be on Customs Form 7507. Any cargo manifest required with such declaration shall be on Customs Form 7509. The full information required by the official forms shall be shown thereon except as otherwise provided in this paragraph. [TDs 51760, 52018, 52143, 52484, 52967, 53634, 55413.]

(1) In the case of shipments on an air waybill, a copy of each such document may be attached to the cargo manifest, the numbers of such air waybills listed in the body of the manifest, and the statement "Cargo as per Air Waybills Attached" noted on the manifest.

(2) On direct departures only, for shipments requiring a shipper's export declaration a copy of each export declaration may be attached to the cargo manifest. In such case the numbers of such declarations shall be listed on the cargo manifest in the column for air waybill numbers, and the statement "Cargo as per Export Declarations Attached" noted on the manifest.

(c) When the aircraft is departing directly from the United States, the general declaration required by this section shall be prepared in duplicate, with a single copy of each cargo manifest. In the case of clearance of a scheduled aircraft at an interior port two copies of each cargo manifest for cargo there laden are required if the aircraft is proceeding to another port before departure from the United States for a place outside thereof. For each shipment to be exported under an entry or withdrawal for exportation or for transportation and exportation, the outward manifest or the air waybill or consignment note attached to the manifest and made a part thereof shall clearly show for such shipment the number, date, and class of such customs entry or withdrawal (i.e. T. & E., Wd. T. & E., I.E., Wd. Ex., or Wd. T., as applicable) and the name of the port where the entry or withdrawal was filed if other than the port where the merchandise is laden for exportation. One copy of the general declaration and each air cargo manifest shall be delivered by the aircraft commander or an authorized person to the customs officer in charge to be retained by him as a record of outward clearance. However, if a cargo manifest is delivered in duplicate, with the appropriate statement as provided for in paragraph (a) of this section, the general declaration shall not be required. [TDs 51760, 52018, 52967, 53634, 53893, 55354, 82-92.]

(d) One copy of the general declaration for departure from the United States or one copy of the cargo manifest with the appropriate statement as provided for in paragraph (a) of this section, shall constitute a clearance certificate when endorsed by the Customs officer in charge to show that clearance is granted. When a scheduled aircraft obtains clearance at a port other than the port at or nearest the place of last takeoff, a copy of the cargo manifest shall be attached to and accompany the general declaration endorsed at such port for any necessary use at subsequent United States ports. In such a situation, if the cargo manifest contains the appropriate statement as provided for in paragraph (a) of this section, the general declaration shall not be required. [TDs 51760, 53634, 55354, 82-92.]

(e) In any case that merchandise (other than residue cargo which requires documentation in every instance as specified in § 6.9 of the regulations of this part) destined from one to another area of the United States is transported by aircraft on a direct flight between the areas, a cargo manifest shall be required only for any merchandise transported as cargo which is excepted from the filing of shipper's export declarations or for which shipper's export declarations cannot be timely filed. Any required cargo manifest and all required shipper's export declarations shall be filed with the district director at the place of departure. For cargo requiring shipper's export declarations, a declaration shall be made on the cargo manifest, or if none is hereinbefore required by this section, then either on the form for a cargo manifest or the form for making a general declaration. This declaration shall state either "Attached Shipper's Export Declarations represent a full and complete enumeration and description of the cargo carried on this flight except that listed on the cargo manifests" or "All required cargo documents will be filed within the 4-day bond period." If the latter declaration is used, when the shipper's export declarations and any required cargo manifest are in fact filed they shall be accompanied by the following declaration: [TDs 51760, 52018, 52484, 52902, 53634, 55354, 55421, 55876.]

Attached Shipper's Export Declarations represent a full and complete enumeration and description of the cargo carried on

§ 6.9 Residue cargo.[4]

(a) Aircraft arriving in the United States with cargo on board shown by the manifest to be destined to other ports in the same or in some other areas of the United States or outside the United States may be permitted to proceed with such cargo from port to port in the United States or to a foreign country for the unlading thereof under the procedure prescribed in paragraph (b) of this section, upon the giving of a bond on Customs Form 7567 or 7569. When an aircraft arriving from outside the United States has on board no cargo and immediate clearance is requested, it may be permitted to proceed if a bond on Customs Form 7567 or 7569 is on file covering such aircraft. [CIE 632/59; TDs 52054, 53634.]

(b) When applying for clearance from the airport or place of first entry in an area of the United States, the aircraft commander or an authorized person shall present to the district director a traveling general declaration and manifest and an abstract general declaration and manifest. The traveling general declaration and manifest shall be one certified copy of the original inward general declaration and of each manifest or list required to be attached thereto at the time of entry (see § 6.7) of the aircraft. The abstract general declaration and manifest[5] shall be one copy of a general declaration and one copy of each manifest[6] forming a part thereof covering all foreign residue cargo not yet cleared by Customs or other interested government agency and manifested or destined for discharge at other domestic or foreign ports. When crew purchases are not itemized on the crew purchase list because reference is made to "Crew declarations and entries attached," such declaration on Customs Form 5129 of crewmembers who have not left the aircraft with their purchases at the port of first entry shall not be retained there but shall be attached to the traveling general declaration and manifest. Any such crew declaration shall be detached at the port where the articles covered thereby receive Customs clearance. When all documents are in order a permit to proceed from one airport to another, which may be stamped, mimeographed, or printed on the abstract general declaration or on a separate sheet of paper attached thereto, shall be dated and signed by the appropriate Customs officer at the airport of clearance. The documents presented by the aircraft commander or authorized person when applying for clearance shall be delivered to the aircraft commander, together with the permit to proceed, for deposit at the next international airport. The permit to proceed and a related declaration of the aircraft commander or an authorized person, to be executed on entry at the next airport, shall be substantially as follows: [TDs 52054, 53634, 53991, 54482, 54722, 55413, 78-99]

Date____

I, ————————, commander or authorized representative of the aircraft identified in this document, declare and guarantee that there were not, when such aircraft departed from the airport of ——————————, nor have been since, nor now are, any more or other goods, wares, or merchandise on board than was stated in the manifests attached hereto.

(c) Upon arrival of the aircraft at the next airport (except when such airport is the last domestic port of discharge), the aircraft commander or an authorized person shall make entry by presenting the abstract general declaration and manifest and the traveling general declaration and manifest, together with the permit to proceed, to the Customs officer after the declaration at the bottom of the permit to proceed has been properly executed. [4] "* * * Any vessel arriving from a foreign port or place having on board merchandise shown by the manifest to be destined to a port or ports in the United States other than the port of entry at which such vessel first arrived and made entry may proceed with such merchandise from port to port or from district to district for the unlading thereof." (19 U.S.C. 1442.)

Merchandise arriving in any vessel for delivery in different districts or ports of entry shall be described in the manifest in the order of the districts or ports at or in which the same is to be unladen. Before any vessel arriving in the United States with any such merchandise shall depart from the port of first arrival, the master shall obtain from the collector a permit therefor with a certified copy of the vessel's manifest showing the quantities and particulars of the merchandise entered at such port of entry and of that remaining on board." (19 U.S.C. 1443.)

"Within twenty-four hours after the arrival of such vessel at another port of entry, the master shall report the arrival of his vessel to the collector at such port and shall produce the permit issued by the collector at the port of first arrival together with the certified copy of his manifest." (19 U.S.C. 1444.)

[5] Other copies of abstract manifests may be required by other interested governmental agencies.

[6] Includes air waybills when part of the manifest.

(d) The same procedure as above set forth shall be followed at any subsequent airport (except the last domestic port of discharge) to which the aircraft may proceed with foreign residue cargo, passengers, or crew members and their purchases not yet cleared by Customs or other interested governmental agency. At the last domestic port of discharge no abstract manifest shall be required, and the traveling general declaration with one copy of each cargo manifest forming a part thereof shall be used for entering the aircraft, and shall be retained at such port. [TDs 53634, 54722.]

(e) The provisions of this section shall be applicable to aircraft arriving in the United States from either contiguous or noncontiguous foreign territory. Except as specified in this section, the Customs requirements applicable to residue vessel cargo (see § 4.85 of this chapter) shall apply to residue aircraft cargo. [TDs 52054, 53634.]

§ 6.10 General provisions.

Except as otherwise provided for in this part, and insofar as such laws and regulations are applicable, aircraft arriving or having arrived from any foreign port or place and the persons and merchandise, including baggage, carried thereon, shall be subject to the laws and regulations applicable to vessels arriving or having arrived from any foreign port or place, to the extent that such laws and regulations are administered by the Customs Service. [TD's 49949, 53634, 80-287.]

§ 6.11 Penalties and forfeitures.

Any person violating any Customs requirement prescribed in this part, or any provision of the Customs laws or regulations made applicable to aircraft by § 6.10, shall be subject to a civil penalty of $500, and any aircraft used in connection with any such violation shall be subject to seizure and forfeiture, as provided for in the customs laws. As an alternative to seizure and forfeiture of the aircraft, the owner of any aircraft in violation of section 466, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (see § 6.7(d)), shall be liable for seizure and forfeiture of a monetary amount up to the value of the aircraft in addition to the civil penalty of $500. The penalty and forfeitures may be remitted or mitigated in accordance with the provisions of Part 171 of this chapter. [TD 79-160.]

§ 6.12 International airports; regulations.

(a) International airports will be designated after due investigation to establish the fact that a sufficient need exists in any particular district or area to justify such designation and to determine the airport best suited for such purpose. [TDs 50658, 52706, 53634.]

(b) A specific airport will be designated in each case, rather than a general area or district which may include several airports. [TD 53634.]

(c) The designation as an international airport may be withdrawn if it is found that the volume of business clearing through the port does not justify maintenance of inspection equipment and personnel, if proper facilities are not provided and maintained by the airport if the rules and regulations of the Federal Government are not complied with, or if it is found that some other location would be more advantageous. [TD 53634.]

(d) International airports shall be municipal airports, unless particular conditions which prevail warrant a departure from this requirement. [TDs 52437, 53634.]

(e) Each international airport shall provide without cost to the Government suitable office and other space for the exclusive use of Federal officials connected with the port. A suitable surfaced loading area shall be provided by each airport at a convenient location with respect to such office space. Such loading area shall be reserved for the use of aircraft entering or clearing through the airport. [TD 53634.]

(f) International airports shall be open to all aircraft for entry and clearance purposes and no charge shall be made for the use of said airports for such purposes. However, in any case where an international airport authorizes any such aircraft to use such airport for the taking on or discharging of passengers or cargo, or as a base for other commercial operations or for private operations, this paragraph shall not be interpreted to mean that charges may not be made for such commercial or private use of such airport. [TD 53634.]

(g) All aircraft entering or clearing through an international airport shall receive the required servicing by airport personnel promptly and in the order of arrival of preparation for departure without discrimination. The charges made for such servicing shall in no case exceed the schedule of charges prevailing at the airport in question. A copy of said schedule of charges shall be posted in a conspicuous place at the office space provided for the use of Federal officials connected with the port. [TD 53634.]

(h) International airports shall adopt and enforce observance of such requirements for the operation of airports, including airport rules, as may be prescribed or recommended by the Federal Aviation Agency. [TDs 53634, 54871.]

(i) Requirements in addition to all the foregoing may be imposed at a particular airport as the needs of the district or area to be served by the airport may demand. [TD 53634.]

§ 6.13 List of international airports.[8]

The following is a list of international airports of entry designated by the Secretary of the Treasury without time limit: [TDs 52081, 52706, 52805, 52808, 52818, 52819, 53076, 53077, 53297, 53406, 53489, 53602, 53634, 53736, 53907, 53945, 54350, 54374, 54448, 54489, 54735, 54871, 54918, 55604, 55677, 55678, 55709, 55745, 55754, 55842, 55348, 55882, 55987, 56142, 56376, 67-63, 72-30, 73-46, 76-260, 78-222.]

(a) Advance report of penetration of United States airspace via United States/Mexican border. All private aircraft arriving in the United States via the United States/Mexican border from a foreign place in the Western Hemisphere south of 33 degrees north latitude and between 97 degrees and 120 degrees west longitude shall furnish a notice of intended arrival to the Customs Service at the nearest designated airport listed in paragraph (g) of this section for first landing in the United States at least 15 minutes prior to crossing the United States/Mexican border. The notice may be furnished directly to Customs by telephone, radio, or other means, or may be furnished through the Federal Aviation Administration to Customs.

Such notice to Customs may occur anytime while aircraft is within the Gulf of Mexico Coastal or Atlantic Coastal ADIZ (Air Defense Identification Zones), but must occur at least 15 minutes prior to crossing the United States coastline. The notice may be furnished directly to Customs by telephone, radio, or other means, or may be furnished through the Federal Aviation Administration to Customs.

(c) Notice to Customs. The notice to Customs required by paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section shall include the following:

(8) Estimated time of arrival.

(d) Landing requirement. Private aircraft required to furnish a notice of intended arrival in compliance with paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this section shall land for Customs processing at the nearest designated airport to point of crossing as listed in paragraph (g) of this section, unless exempted from this requirement in accordance with paragraph (f) of this section. In addition to the requirements of this paragraph, private aircraft commanders must comply with all other landing and notice of arrival requirements.

(e) Private aircraft defined. For the purpose of this section, "private aircraft" means any aircraft other than an aircraft engaged in the transportation of passengers or cargo, or both, for hire.

(f) Exemption from the landing requirement. The owner or aircraft commander of a private aircraft required to furnish a notice of intended arrival in compliance with paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this section may request an exemption from the landing requirement specified in paragraph (d) of this section. The request shall be submitted to the Customs officer in charge of the airport of first landing at which Customs processing is required and shall be submitted at least 30 days prior to the anticipated first arrival if the request is for an exemption covering a number of flights over a period of 1 year, or at least 15 days prior to the anticipated arrival if the request is for a single flight. The request shall include the following information:

(1) Aircraft registration number;

(2) Identity of aircraft (make and model number);

(3) Names and addresses of owners of the aircraft;

(4) Names and addresses of all crewmembers;

§ 6.15 Transportation in bond and merchandise in transit.

(a) Transportation by aircraft. The regulations in this section apply only to the transportation in bond of merchandise arriving in United States customs territory by aircraft and entered for immediate transportation without appraisement or for transportation and exportation by aircraft. Except as provided for herein, the regulations[9] applicable to transportation in bond and merchandise in transit shall apply to transportation of merchandise in bond by aircraft. [TD 53991.]

(b) Procedure at port of origin. (1) Customs Form 7512 shall be used as a combined entry and manifest. These forms shall be filed in quintuple and all copies shall be signed by the agent of the carrier.

(2) When merchandise is entered for immediate transportation without appraisement, two copies of the combined entry and manifest shall be delivered to the carrier to accompany the merchandise to the port of destination. When merchandise is entered for transportation and exportation, one copy of the combined entry and manifest shall be delivered to the carrier to accompany the merchandise to the port of destination.

(3) All such merchandise delivered to a bonded air carrier for transportation in bond shall be receipted for by an agent of the carrier and no supervision of the lading of the merchandise on the transporting aircraft shall be required.

(4) Merchandise covered by a single combined entry and manifest may be forwarded to destination on one aircraft or on more than one aircraft, and a separate manifest for each aircraft shall not be required if the entire shipment is forwarded within a single 24-hour period. When a portion of a shipment is forwarded on an aircraft departing more than 24 hours after the first portion of the shipment was forwarded, the original combined entry and manifest copy or copies accompanying the first portion of the shipment shall be endorsed to indicate that the remainder of the shipment will follow by separate aircraft, and a single manifest shall be prepared for each portion of the shipment which follows by separate aircraft and used as a notice of arrival at the port of destination.

(5) Merchandise forwarded in bond under the regulations in this part may be transshipped at an intermediate port to one or more aircraft of the same line without Customs supervision and notice of such transshipment shall not be required. When merchandise covered by a single combined entry and manifest is transshipped to more than one aircraft the procedure specified in subparagraph (4) of this paragraph, shall be followed.

(6) The sealing of aircraft or compartments of aircraft carrying in-bond merchandise, or the cording and sealing of in-bond packages carried by aircraft, shall not be required. However, the carrier shall furnish and attach to each in-bond package the warning label prescribed by § 18.4(e) of this chapter.

(c) Procedure at the port of destination. On arrival of an in-bond shipment at the port of destination, the aircraft commander, or an authorized person, shall deliver one copy of the combined entry and manifest which accompanied the shipment, or the copy of the manifest prepared for each portion of a shipment forwarded by separate aircraft which departed more than 24 hours after the first portion of the shipment, to the district director at that port as a notice of arrival. One copy of the entry and manifest which accompanied merchandise forwarded under an entry for immediate transportation without appraisement shall be delivered by the carrier to the consignee to be used in making entry. This copy may be endorsed as provided for by § 141.11(a)(4) of this chapter and used as a carrier's certificate. [TD 73–175.]

[9] See Part 18 of this chapter.

§ 6.16 Certificate of lading for exportation.

The certificate of lading for exportation on customs Form 7512 or customs Form 7520 shall be executed at the place where the aircraft clearance covering such merchandise is obtained. In any case where the aircraft clearance is obtained at a place other than the place of last take-off from United States customs territory, as provided for by § 6.5(c), the aircraft commander or an authorized person shall at each place of subsequent landing in United States customs territory prior to foreign departure (a) immediately report arrival with merchandise on board destined to be exported from bond to the customs officer at that place and (b) surrender the clearance certificate received at the place where such merchandise was taken on board to the Customs officer to be retained until departure.[10] [TD 53991.]

§ 6.17 Alternate transportation procedures for air cargo subject to Customs control.

Cargo (including manifested baggage) arriving by aircraft and to be transported subject to Customs control in, through, or from the United States by aircraft must, if not transported in accordance with other provisions of the regulations of this part, be transported in bond in accordance with the applicable provisions of §§ 6.18 through 6.24. Such cargo so transported shall be referred to as "transit air cargo." For the purposes of these sections, the term "port of arrival" means the port in the United on board to the Customs officer to be retained until departure.[10] [TD 53991.]

[10] "If any merchandise entered or withdrawn for exportation without payment of duties thereon, * * * is relanded at any place in the United States without entry having been made, such merchandise shall be considered as having been imported in the United States contrary to law, and each person concerned shall be fined not more than $5,000 or imprisoned not more than 2 years, or both; and such merchandise shall be forfeited." (18 U.S.C. 544.)

States at which the imported cargo must be documented for onward air transportation otherwise than as residue cargo, and the terms "transfer" or "transferred" mean the change to documentation of cargo as transit air cargo for transportation from the port of arrival; this may or may not involve a change of aircraft or airlines but when it does, such terms shall also include the physical movement of the cargo from one to another aircraft. (Secs. 551, 552, 553, 46 Stat. 742, as amended; 19 U.S.C. 1551, 1552, 1553) [TD 55561.]

§ 6.18 Documentation for transit air cargo.

(a) The Air Cargo Manifest, Customs form 7509, printed, stamped, or labeled "Transportation Entry and Transit Air Cargo Manifest", shall be used as the transportation entry and the manifest for transit air cargo. The cargo manifest sheet in the inward cargo manifest of the importing aircraft and each copy of that sheet required for a transit air cargo movement shall be printed, stamped, or labeled "Transportation Entry and Transit Air Cargo Manifest". Each transportation entry and transit air cargo manifest sheet ("transit air cargo manifest sheet") shall be a duplicate, insofar as identification of the cargo and other data are concerned, of the corresponding manifest sheet in the inward cargo manifest presented for the aircraft on which the cargo arrives in the United States. [TDs 55561, 73-1, 79-73.]

(b) Only air cargo shipments from one country of exportation, the name of which must be shown in the heading, may be listed on any one transit air cargo manifest sheet, or in lieu of such limitation the name of the country of exportation of each shipment must be shown in the "Nature of Goods" column. In addition thereto, only such shipments which are manifested by way of the port of arrival (1) to the same United States Customs port of destination, or (2) to the same United States Customs port for exportation therefrom, or (3) for direct exportation from the port of arrival may be listed on one transit air cargo manifest sheet.

(c) If manifest sheets are not prepared in accordance with paragraph (b) of this section, each cargo shipment manifested thereon, when required to be transported subject to Customs control, must be transported beyond the port of arrival in accordance with other provisions of these regulations requiring individual documentation for the inward transportation or exportation of each shipment (see § 5 and Parts 18 and 123 of this chapter).

(d) When presented, each transit air cargo manifest sheet must show also (1) the foreign port of lading, (2) the date of arrival of the aircraft at the port of arrival, (3) the final country of destination of each shipment, or final port of destination in the United States of each shipment so destined, and (4) each United States port at which a Customs function will be necessary by reason of these transit air cargo procedures. The destination outside the United States must be shown as the actual, ultimate country of destination indicated by available airline shipping documents even though the air transportation may be scheduled to terminate in a country prior to such ultimate destination.

(e) All transit air cargo other than that exported directly from the port of arrival must have affixed thereto before departure from the port of arrival the red warning label prescribed by § 18.4(e) of this chapter.

(f) The transportation entry and transit aircargo manifest must be furnished in the number of copies indicated below for the respective transportation movement: [TD 73-1.]

(1) Three copies are required for transit air cargo destined for export directly from the port of arrival;

(2) Four copies are required for transit air cargo moving to a port of destination in the United States from the port of arrival;

(3) Seven copies are required for transit air cargo moving from the port of arrival to another United States port for exportation therefrom. (Secs. 552, 553, 46 Stat. 742, 19 U.S.C. 1552, 1553)

§ 6.19 Identification of transit air cargo manifest sheets.

Upon presentation of the inward cargo manifest of the aircraft on which the cargo arrives at the port of arrival, a manifest number must be assigned by Customs to the aircraft entry documents presented by the aircraft commander or authorized agent. That number must be used by the importing airline to identify all copies of transit air cargo manifests. The number must be given as a prefix an identification of the airport of arrival with the use of the 3-letter city or airport designator (the Air Traffic Service Location Identifier, as referred to by the Federal Aviation Agency); for example, "Idl-3758," or "Bos-296" as the case may be. [TD 55561.]

§ 6.20 Conditions for transportation of transit air cargo.

(a) As a condition for Customs release for transportation of air cargo beyond the port of arrival as transit air cargo all required copies of a transit air cargo manifest sheet must be identified as prescribed in § 6.19 prior to presentation to Customs. [TD 55561.]

(b) To proceed from the port of arrival as transit air cargo, air cargo must be receipted for in the manner prescribed in paragraph (d) of this section, within the lay order period or any authorized extension (see § 4.37 of this chapter), by the airline which will be responsible for transporting or exporting such cargo.

(c) Transit air cargo may be transported to another port only when receipted for by an airline designated as a common carrier for the transportation of bonded merchandise having on file an appropriate Customs bond for such transportation. Transit air cargo may be exported from the port of arrival only when covered by an exportation bond on Customs Form 7557 or 7559 as specified in section 18.25 of this chapter, or other appropriate bond. The importing airline, whether registered in the United States or a foreign country, if it has been designated a carrier of bonded merchandise as set forth above, may receipt for the air cargo, obligate its appropriate bond, and deliver the air cargo to an authorized domestic carrier for inbond transportation beyond the port of arrival under th importing airline's bond which covers that movement. The responsibility of the receiving airline for transit air cargo otherwise than for direct exportation from the port of arrival begins when a receipt executed as prescribed in paragraph (d) of this section is presented to Customs. If any carting for delivery to a receiving airline is necessary prior to such time, the importing airline remains solely responsible for such cargo under its bond unless such carting is performed under the provisions of Part 21 of this chapter and at the expense of the parties in interest. [TD 73-1.]

(d) Each copy of the transportation entry and transit aircargo manifest must bear the following statement legibly signed and dated, if required, when presented to Customs: [TD 73-1.]

Received the cargo listed herein for delivery to Customs at the port of destination or exportation shown above, or for direct exportation.

(e) All cargo shipments listed on a transit air cargo manifest sheet must be receipted for by one airline and must be transported from the port of arrival on one aircraft except where the use of more than one aircraft would be permitted by § 6.15(b)(4) in the case of a single combined entry and manifest on Customs Form 7512, or where the use of more than one aircraft is permitted as specified in § 6.24(f). Otherwise, all shipments on the transit air cargo manifest must be individually documented and transported under the regular procedures for transportation of merchandise in bond. (Secs. 552, 553, 46 Stat. 742, 72 Stat. 799; 19 U.S.C. 1552, 1553)

§ 6.21 Timely delivery and exportation.

(a) Transit air cargo destined to a final port of destination in the United States must be delivered to Customs at destination within 15 days from the date of receipt by the forwarding airline at the port of arrival. [TD 55561.]

(b) Transit air cargo destined for exportation at a port other than the port of arrival must be delivered to Customs at the port of exportation within 15 days from the date of receipt by the forwarding airline at the port of arrival. If all of the cargo shipments are not exported within the succeeding 15-day periods, the individual cargo shipments must be made the subject of individual entries, as appropriate, at the port of exportation.

(c) In the case of transit air cargo to be exported from the port of arrival, exportation as transit air cargo must be required within 10 days from the date of receipt of the cargo by the exporting airline. After such 10-day period, the individual cargo shipments must be made the subject of individual entries, as appropriate.

(a) Air cargo shipments may be transferred for transportation as transit air cargo from the port of arrival, under such Customs supervision as the district director deems necessary, to another port in the United States with the use of the following number of copies of transit air cargo manifest sheets: [TD 55561.]

(1) A "carrier manifest" copy to accompany the cargo shipments listed thereon and be delivered to Customs at destination;

(2) Three copies for presentation to Customs at the port of arrival at the time of entry of the arriving aircraft or at a subsequent time before expiration of the lay order period. One copy will be used as a "permit" copy by Customs at the port of arrival, one "mail manifest" copy will be mailed by Customs to the port of destination, and one "control" copy will be mailed to the headquarters port for the port of destination. These copies must be presented by or on behalf of the carrier receipting for the transportation of the cargo shipments to destination.

(b) At the port of destination Customs must use the carrier manifest copy for control by noting thereon the disposition of each cargo shipment listed.

(c) Transit air cargo is to be delivered to Customs at destination within 15 days of the date of receipt for it by the forwarding carrier at the port of arrival. When all or part of the cargo covered by the mail manifest copy received at destination from Customs at the port of arrival is not closed out after 30 days from its receipt by a posted carrier manifest copy, the district director must inquire of the receipting carrier as to the whereabouts of the shipment or shipments not accounted for. He must in each case of failure to deliver or irregular delivery of all or part of the transit air cargo make a report to the port of arrival. The report must be made no later than 40 days from the date of receipt of the mail manifest copy. The report must be made to, and action promptly taken thereon by, Customs at the port of arrival in the manner specified in §§ 18.6 and 18.8 of this chapter, except that the report on Customs Form 3861 must not indicate the amount of duty or tax due when the amount is in doubt. In such case, Customs at the port of arrival must make the determination of tax and duty due on information in the report, in the permit copy retained there, and any necessary information obtained from the carriers.

(d) Upon receipt of a written notice of failure to deliver, the airline which receipted for the transit cargo must be responsible for furnishing within 90 days to the district director any data or documents available to it or to the importing airline concerning the description and value of the cargo shipments in question.

(e) Penalties imposed as liquidated damages under the common carrier's bond for shortage, failure to deliver, etc., must be the same as prescribed in § 18.8 of this chapter. The penalty set forth in § 18.8 for failure to deliver merchandise shall apply to the failure to deliver merchandise within the time period set forth in paragraph (c) of this section. Under that section the basis for the assessment of liquidated damages is the value of the merchandise. The transit air cargo manifest does not reflect value. Therefore, when it is necessary to determine the value of merchandise shipped as transit air cargo, the value must be determined by the district director on the basis of the data or documents specified in paragraph (d) of this section and such other information available to him relating to merchandise of the same or similar description or origin. However, when the data or documents required to be furnished by paragraph (d) of this section are not received within the 90-day period prescribed, the district director will make his determination of value on the basis of such other information available to him. [82-14.]

(a) Air cargo shipments may be transferred for transportation as transit air cargo from the port of arrival, under such Customs supervision as the district director deems necessary, to another port for exportation therefrom with the use of the following number of copies of transit air cargo manifest sheets: [TD 55561.]

(1) A "carrier manifest" copy to accompany the cargo shipments listed thereon and be delivered to Customs upon arrival of the shipments at the port of exportation;

(2) A copy which is stamped, labeled, or printed "diversion copy" in outline letters at least 1 inch in height to be attached to and accompany the carrier manifest copy and be delivered to Customs at the port of exportation;

(3) Three copies, called "permit", "mail manifest", and "control" copy, for presentation to Customs at the port of arrival either at the time of entry of the arriving aircraft or at a subsequent time before expiration of the lay order period. These copies must be presented by or on behalf of the airline receipting for the transportation of the cargo shipments from the port of arrival to the port of exportation for lading for export at such place;

(4) Two copies, called "Exportation" and "Clearance" copies, to be presented by the exporting airline to Customs at the port of exportation in connection with the exportation.

(b) Upon arrival of the transit air cargo shipments at the port of exportation, the transit air cargo may be delivered direct to the exporting carrier with the exportation and clearance copies after the name of such carrier is legibly noted on the carrier manifest and diversion copies and such copies are delivered to Customs.

(c) The exporting carrier will retain all cargo listed on a transit air cargo manifest in one place which must be separate from the specially designated area for storage of shipments coming within the provisions of paragraph (e) of this section. When the goods are ready for lading on the exporting aircraft, Customs will be notified sufficiently in advance so as to be able to make any required supervision of the lading of the cargo and any further checks for Federal Government purposes.

(d) When presented to Customs, the exportation and clearance copies must each show the exporting aircraft's number and flight number and date. The exporting airline must file these documents (including the clearance copies of transit air cargo manifests) for the departing aircraft. The clearance copies of air transit cargo manifests shall be grouped together in the outward manifest separately and not intermingled with other outward manifest pages. The exportation copies shall be grouped together separately from the outward clearance documents.

(e) The customs officer receiving the carrier manifest and diversion copies of the transit air cargo manifest must review them for export licensing requirements of the Secretary of State covering arms, ammunitions, and implements of war, and of the Bureau of International Programs, Department of Commerce. A shipment for which the manifest information is not adequate to enable the officer to determine that no licensing or other requirements are applicable to the particular transit air cargo must be checked either by examination or by inspecting the air waybill or accompanying invoice. In this case, in order not to delay the onward movement of other goods, this shipment may be struck from the transit air cargo manifest and the remaining shipments may proceed. If a licensing or other requirement is found applicable, the exporting airline must be immediately notified that the particular shipment cannot be exported until an appropriate license or approval is obtained. This shipment must be placed under constructive Customs custody in a specially designated area of the exporting airline's cargo terminal for such shipments until the necessary Customs or other approval for shipment is obtained.

(f) The diversion copy of each transit air cargo manifest sheet must be sent by the port of diversion, with an endorsement of exportation showing the port, date, and exporting carrier, to the port of indicated exportation when all cargo shipments listed thereon have been exported at the port of diversion. It shall normally be sent as soon as the exportation copy or copies are presented at the port of exportation and are attached to the carrier manifest, and it is verified that all shipments listed thereon are exported. If exceptions are found by Customs at the port of exportation, they must be noted on the diversion copy before it is sent. However, if the carrier's manifest copy is not fully closed out at the port of diversion within 30 days from the date of the carrier's receipt on the carrier manifest and diversion copies, the diversion copy must be immediately sent to the port of indicated exportation. The diversion copy must be noted before to forestall a report to the port of arrival (see paragraph (g) of this section), sending, "Exportation copy not yet received—further report will follow if necessary."

(g) When the mail manifest copy is received, Customs will file it according to identification number (see § 6.19); that is, numerically by port of arrival. When all or part of the cargo covered by a mail manifest copy is not closed out by an exportation copy, or a diversion copy endorsed by Customs at another port, within 40 days from the date of receipt of the mail manifest copy, the district director must, without making inquiry of any carrier, make an appropriate report to the port of arrival and this report must be processed and action taken in accordance with § 6.22(c), (d), and (e) of these regulations. [TD 56032.]

(h) If all of the cargo listed on one transit air cargo manifest sheet is not laden for exportation from the same port in the United States by the same airline, individual entries on Customs Form 7512 for transportation and exportation in accordance with § 6.15 or for direct exportation in accordance with § 18.25 of this chapter must be required for each cargo shipment listed on such transit air cargo manifest sheet. Until all cargo shipments covered by one transit air cargo manifest are received at a port for exportation, none may be exported except under individual entries. If it is necessary to export on more than one aircraft of the same airline the cargo shipments listed on one transit air cargo manifest sheet, the procedure in § 6.24(f) shall be applicable. When individual entries are required or the cargo is exported at the same port on more than one aircraft, the carrier manifest copy will be posted and used by Customs as in the case of the carrier manifest for cargo destined to a port of destination in the United States (see § 6.22(b)).

(a) Transit air cargo may be transferred for exportation at the port of arrival in the United States with the use of three copies of the transit air cargo manifest; a "review" copy, an "exportation" copy, and a "clearance" copy. [TD 55561.]

(b) At the port of arrival, transit air cargo may be transferred for exportation immediately: Provided, (1) That, as soon as it is known to which airline cargo shipments will be transferred for exportation, the importing airline files with Customs a copy of each transit air cargo manifest sheet covering such cargo shipments, which copy need not be receipted by the airline to which the cargo will be transferred, but the name of the exporting airline must be inserted on such review copy by the importing airline; and (2) that the transfer is subject to supervision, examination of cargo, manifest review, etc., as may be required for compliance with regulations of other Federal agencies.

(c) The exportation copy and the clearance copy must be filed with Customs by or on behalf of the exporting airline which receipts for the shipments. The clearance copy must be presented with and retained in the departing aircraft's clearance documents. The exportation copy must be presented at the time the clearance documents are presented to Customs. Both copies must, in addition to bearing the receipt of the exporting airline, show the exporting aircraft's number, flight number, and date.

(d) Upon receipt of the review copy of the transit air cargo manifest sheets, Customs must make the review prescribed in the case of the carrier manifest copy in § 6.23(e). The reviewing officer must take appropriate action if a license is found to be applicable for any cargo. The exporting airline will be notified to place under constructive Customs custody any transit air cargo shipment subject to special license. The exporting airline must then place any transit air cargo shipment subject to special license in a specially designated area of its cargo terminal until the necessary license is obtained.

(e) When exportation copies are filed, Customs must use them to close out the transit air cargo manifest sheets in the inward manifest of the aircraft on which the transit air cargo arrived at the port.

(f) If all transit air cargo shipments listed on any one transit air cargo manifest sheet are not exported directly on the same aircraft, an additional exportation and clearance copy must be required for each shipment or group of shipments listed thereon departing on any other aircraft of the exporting airline. In this event, each copy of the transit air cargo manifest sheet must be clearly marked to show which shipment or shipments listed thereon are covered thereby.

(g) Separate export entries on customs Form 7512 in accordance with § 18.25 of this chapter must be required for all shipments listed on any one transit air cargo manifest sheet if not all such shipments are exported from the same port by the same aircarrier. When separate export entries are required, the copy of the transit air cargo manifest sheet in the inward manifest of the importing aircarrier must be posted as in the case of the carrier manifest for cargo destined to a port of destination in the United States (see § 6.22(b)).

(a) Flights between the Virgin Islands and a place other than a State, the District of Columbia, or Puerto Rico. Aircraft arriving in the Virgin Islands from a place other than a State, the District of Columbia, or Puerto Rico are subject to the provisions of this part which are applicable to aircraft arriving in a State from a place other than a State, the District of Columbia, or Puerto Rico are subject to the provisions of this part which are applicable to aircraft departing from a State for a place other than a State, the District of Columbia, or Puerto Rico. [TD 75-86.]

(c) Flights from the Virgin Islands to a State, the District of Columbia, or Puerto Rico. (1) Aircraft which are not inspected by Customs officers in the Virgin Islands are subject upon departure from the Virgin Islands for a State, the District of Columbia, or Puerto Rico to the provisions of this part which are applicable to aircraft departing from a State for a place outside the United States.

(2) Upon arrival in a State, the District of Columbia, or Puerto Rico from the Virgin Islands, aircraft which were not inspected by Customs officers in the Virgin Islands are subject to the provisions of this part which are applicable to aircraft arriving in a State from a place outside the United States.

(3) Aircraft on a flight from the Virgin Islands to a State, the District of Columbia, or Puerto Rico which were inspected by Customs officers in the Virgin Islands are subject upon departure from the Virgin Islands and upon arrival in the State, the District of Columbia, or Puerto Rico only to the provisions of this part which are applicable respectively to aircraft departing for or arriving in a State from another State.

(4) For the purpose of this section, the term "inspected by Customs officers in the Virgin Islands" means whatever supervision of the aircraft is deemed necessary by the district director of Customs to protect the revenue and enforce the laws administered by the United States Customs Service, including the collection of duty and taxes on articles purchased in the Virgin Islands.

(5) In the case of aircraft arriving in a State, the District of Columbia, or Puerto Rico from the Virgin Islands which

(Shipper)

Such certificate and declaration shall not be required for shipments valued at $25 or less, or in any case where the district director is satisfied by reason of the nature of the articles or otherwise that they were shipped directly to the insular possession and were returned therefrom by direct shipment, and that no drawback of duties or refund or remission of taxes was allowed when the articles were shipped from the United States.

(c) When merchandise, excluding any shipments valued at $25 or less, arrives unaccompanied by a certificate of origin or a declaration of the shipper, or when any other document necessary to complete entry is lacking, a bond for the production thereof may be taken on Customs Forms 7551, 7553, or other appropriate form, except that a bond for production of a bill of lading shall be taken on Customs Form 7581.

(d) In determining whether an article produced or manufactured in any such insular possession contains foreign materials to the value of more than 50 per centum, a comparison shall be made between the actual purchase price of the foreign materials (excluding any material which at the time such article is entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption in the United States, may be imported into the United States from a foreign country, other than Cuba or the Philippine Republic, free of duty), plus the cost of transportation to such insular possession (but excluding duties and taxes, if any, assessed by the insular possession and any charges which may accrue after landing), and the final appraised value in the United States determined in accordance with section 402, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, of the article brought into the United States.

(e) A special Customs invoice shall be required in connection with each shipment of dutiable merchandise valued over $500 unless the shipment would have been exempt from the requirement of a special Customs invoice under § 141.83 of this chapter if it had been imported from a foreign country, or when the shipment is covered by a certificate of origin provided for in paragraph (a) of this section. [TA 1930, sec. 482 (f); TDs 53336, 53869, 73-175.]

(f) Merchandise may be withdrawn from bonded warehouse under section 557, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, for shipment to the Virgin Islands, American Samoa, Wake Island, Midway Islands, Kingman Reef, Johnston Island, or the Island of Guam, without payment of duty, or with refund of duty if the duties have been paid thereon, in like manner as for exportation to foreign countries. No drawback may be allowed under section 313, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, on articles manufactured or produced in the United States and shipped to any insular possession. No drawback of internal-revenue tax is allowable under section 313 of the Tariff Act on articles manufactured or produced in the United States with the use of domestic tax-paid alcohol and shipped to Wake Island, Midway Islands, Kingman Reef, or Johnston Island. (See § 22.22 of this chapter.) (Secs. 309, 313, 482(f), 557, 46 Stat. 690, as amended, 693, as amended, 720, as amended, 744, as amended, 77A Stat. 11; 19 U.S.C. 1202 (Gen. Hdnte. 3(a)), 1309, 1313, 1482(f), 1557.) [TD 50501, 53933, 73-220.]

I, ———————————, declare that to the best of my knowledge and belief the articles herein specified are products of the United States; that they were exported from the United States, from the port of ——————— on or about ———————, 19——; that they are returned without having been advanced in value or improved in condition by any process of manufacture or other means.

(2) A declaration for free entry by the owner, importer, consignee, or agent on the top portion of Customs Form 3311. [TDs 39663, 49703 (1), 53268, 72-119.]

(3) A Certificate of Exportation on the bottom portion of Customs Form 3311 executed by the district director at the port from which the merchandise was exported. Such certificate shall show whether drawback was claimed or paid on the merchandise covered by the certificate and, if any was paid, the amount thereof. This certificate shall be issued on application of the importer, or of the district director at the importer's request, and shall be mailed by the issuing officer directly to the port at which it is to be used. If the merchandise has been exported from the port at which entry is made and the fact of exportation appears on the records of the customhouse, the fact of reimportation shall be noted on such export record. In such case the filing of the certificate on Customs Form 3311 shall not be required. [TDs 37983, 38226, 45588 (1), 53336, 72-119.]

(b) If, in any case where the appraising officer's report does not show definitely that merchandise the value of which exceeds $1,000 is of domestic origin, Customs Form 3311 has not been executed by the owner or ultimate consignee, the district director may require the execution of such form by the owner or ultimate consignee. In such a case Customs Form 3311 shall be filed within 3 months after the date of the demand therefor upon the person in whose name the entry was filed. If the owner or ultimate consignee is a corporation, such form may be signed by the president, vice president, secretary, or treasurer of the corporation, or may be signed by any employee or agent of the corporation who holds a power of attorney executed under the conditions outlined in Subpart C, Part 141 of this chapter and a certification by the corporation that such employee or other agent has or will have knowledge of the pertinent facts. In the case of articles which are unquestionably the products of the United States and which have not been advanced in value or improved in condition, if the district director is satisfied from the character thereof or otherwise that they are free of duty under Schedule 8, Part 1, Tariff Schedules of the United States, and if the total value of the articles of American origin contained in the shipment does not exceed $250, the execution of Customs Form 3311 shall not be required therefor, except when used as an entry under paragraph (g), (h), or (i) of this section. [TDs 32388, 51008, 53268, 53336, 53527, 53638, 54462, 55978, 72-119, 78-99.]

(c) A certificate from the master of a vessel stating that products of the United States are returned without having been unladen from the exporting vessel may be accepted in lieu of the declaration of the foreign shipper required by paragraph (a)(1) of this section. [TDs 37009, 49658, 53336, 55978, 72-119.]

(d) If the district director is reasonably satisfied, because of the nature of the articles, or production of other evidence, that the articles are imported in circumstances meeting the requirements of item 800.00 or 805.00, Tariff Schedules of the United States, and the related headnotes, he may waive the requirements for producing the documents specified in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section except when Customs form 3311 is used as an entry summary (as defined in section 141.0a(b) of this chapter) under paragraphs (g) or (h), or as an informal entry under paragraph (i). [TDs 52157, 55978, 72-119, 79-221.]

(e) No evidence relative to the conditions of item 800.00 shall be required in the case of articles the product of the United States in use at the time of importation as the usual coverings or containers of merchandise not subject to an ad valorem rate of duty unless such articles would be dutiable if not products of the United States under General Headnote 6, Tariff Schedules of the United States. [TDs 53557, 54056, 54462, 55978, 72-119.]

(f) In the case of photographic films and dry plates manufactured in the United States (except motion picture films to be used for commercial purposes) exposed abroad and entered under item 805.00, the requirements of paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this section are applicable except that the declaration on Customs Form 3311 to the effect that the articles "are returned without having been advanced in value or improved in condition by any process of manufacture or other means" shall be crossed out, and the entrant shall show on the form that the subject articles when exported were of U.S. manufacture and are returned after having been exposed, or exposed and developed, and, in the case of motion picture films, that they will not be used for commercial purposes. This modification shall also be made in the declaration by the foreign shipper provided for in paragraph (a)(1) of this section. [TDs 53557, 55978, 72-119.]

(g) Aircraft and aircraft parts and equipment.—(1) In the case of aircraft and aircraft parts and equipment returned to the United States under item 800.00, Tariff Schedules of the United States, by or for the account of an aircraft owner or operator and intended for use in his own aircraft operations, within or outside the United States, the entry summary may be made on Customs form 3311. The entry summary on Customs form 3311 shall be executed by the entrant and supported by the entry documentation required by section 142.3 of this chapter. If the Customs officer is satisfied that the articles are products of the United States, that they have not been improved in condition or advanced in value while abroad, and that no drawback has been or will be paid, the other documents described in this section shall not be required, and no bond need be filed for their production.

(2) The entrant shall show on Customs form 3311:

(i) The name and address of the aircraft owner or operator by whom or for whose account the articles are returned to the United States, in the block headed "Articles returned to (name and address)",

(ii) The name of the importing vessel or conveyance,

(iii) The date of its arrival,

(iv) A description of the articles,

(v) The value of the articles, and

(vi) That the articles are intended for use by the aircraft owner or operator in his own aircraft operations.

(3) If Customs form 3311 is filed at time of entry, it shall serve as both the entry and the entry summary. [TDs 68-26, 72-119, 78-99, 79-221.]

(h) Nonconsumable vessel stores and equipment.—(1) In the case of nonconsumable vessel stores and equipment returned to the United States under item 800.00, Tariff Schedules of the United States, the entry summary may be made on Customs form 3311. The entry summary on Customs form 3311 shall be executed in duplicate by the entrant and supported by the entry documentation required by section 142.3 of this chapter. Before an entry summary on Customs form 3311 may be accepted for nonconsumable vessel stores and equipment, the Customs officer shall be satisfied that:

(i) The articles are products of the United States,

(ii) The articles have not been improved in condition or advanced in value while abroad,

(iii) No drawback has been or will be paid, and

(iv) No duty equal to an internal revenue tax is payable under item 804.20, Tariff Schedules of the United States.

(2) The declaration of the foreign shipper described in paragraph (a)(1) of this section and the certificate of exportation described in paragraph (a)(3) of this section shall not be required in connection with an entry for nonconsumable vessel stores and equipment on Customs form 3311.

(3) To satisfy the Customs officer that no drawback has been or will be paid on the article in connection with their removal from the United States, the master of the vessel or other person having knowledge of the facts shall furnish a written declaration which may be made on the reverse side of Customs form 3311 showing that the articles were:

(i) Exported as stores or equipment on a U.S. vessel or a vessel operated by the U.S. Government,

(ii) Not landed in a foreign country, except for any needed repairs, adjustments, or refilling and return to the vessel from which landed, or,

(iii) For transshipment as stores or equipment to another vessel.

(4) The entrant also shall show:

(i) The name of the importing vessel,

(ii) The date of its arrival,

(iii) A description of the articles, and

(iv) The value of the articles.

(5) If Customs form 3311 is filed at time of entry, it shall serve as both the entry and the entry summary. [TDs 72-119, 78-99, 79-221.]

(i) When the total value of articles of claimed American origin contained in any shipment does not exceed $250 and such articles are found to be unquestionably products of the United States and do not appear to have been advanced in value or improved in condition while abroad and no quota is involved, free entry thereof may be made under item 800.00 on Customs Form 3311, executed by the owner, importer, consignee, or agent and filed in duplicate, without regard to the requirement of a certificate of exportation or evidence of similar purport, unless the Customs officer has reason to believe that Customs drawback or exemption from internal revenue tax, or both, were probably allowed on exportation of the articles or that they are otherwise subject to duty. The entrant shall show on Customs Form 3311 the name of the importing conveyance, the date of its arrival, the name of the country from which the articles were returned to the United States, and the value of the articles. The entrant shall also produce evidence of his right to make entry (except as provided in § 142.11(b) of this chapter). If the Customs officer is not entirely certain that the articles to be entered under this paragraph by a nominal consignee are products of the United States, the actual owner or ultimate consignee thereof may be required to execute a Customs Form 3311. (46 Stat. 759; 19 U.S.C. 1202) [TD 72-119, 78-99.]

§ 10.3 Drawback; internal-revenue tax.

(a) Except as prescribed in § 10.1(f) or in paragraphs (c) and (f) of this section, no free entry shall be allowed under schedule 8, part 1, Tariff Schedules of the United States, in the final liquidation of an entry unless the district director of Customs is satisfied by the certificate of exportation or other evidence or information that no drawback was allowed in connection with the exportation from the United States, and unless no internal-revenue tax is imposed on the importation of like articles not previously exported from the United States or, if such tax is being imposed at the time of entry for consumption or withdrawal from warehouse for consumption, the district director of Customs is satisfied that an internal-revenue tax on production or importation was paid in respect of the imported article before it was exported from the United States and was not refunded.[2] Except as provided for in § 10.1(f), when it is impracticable, because of the destruction of Customs records or other circumstances, to determine whether drawback was allowed, or the amount of drawback allowed, with respect to an article established to be a returned product of the United States which has not been advanced in value or improved in condition while abroad, there shall be assessed on the returned article an amount of duty determined as follows: (1) If there is any likelihood that drawback was allowable on the exportation of like articles at any time when the imported article may have been exported from the United States, the estimated amount of any drawback which would have been allowable if duty had been paid on any foreign merchandise likely to have been used in the manufacture of the returned article at the rate or rates applicable to such foreign merchandise on the date of importation of the returned article (see paragraph (b) of this section) and (2) if there is any likelihood that a refund or remission of tax was allowed on the exportation of the returned article, the amount of any internal-revenue tax which would be payable at the time of importation if the returned article were wholly of foreign origin, but in no such case shall there be assessed more than an amount equal to the duty and tax that would apply if the returned article were wholly of foreign origin and originally imported. (See § 10.7(a).) Except as provided for in § 10.1(f), if the imported article is of a kind which would be subject to an internal-revenue tax if of foreign origin and payment of an internal-revenue tax before exportation without refund thereof is not established, duty shall be assessed on the imported article in an amount equal to the internal-revenue tax imposed at the time of entry for consumption or withdrawal from warehouse for consumption on like articles of foreign origin, plus the amount of any drawback allowed on the exportation of the article from the United States; but if no drawback was allowed, the duty equal to internal-revenue tax shall be the total duty to be assessed. If an allowance of drawback on the exportation from the United States of the imported article is established, duty shall be assessed in an amount equal to such drawback, plus an amount equal to any internal-revenue tax which may be assessable in accordance with this paragraph; but in no case shall duty equal to drawback, or to drawback and internal-revenue tax, be assessed in an amount in excess of the ordinary Customs duty and internal-revenue tax applicable to like articles of foreign origin. In any case, where payment of internal-revenue tax before exportation without refund thereof is established, no duty equal to an internal-revenue tax currently in force shall be assessed. [TDs 44599, 49658, 53336, 53557, 53687, 55978, 68-104.]

(b) In the absence of satisfactory evidence as to the nonallowance of drawback or the amount thereof allowed on the following articles of American manufacture or production, duty shall be assessed thereon in the amounts respectively indicated, the amount shown in each case being considered the fair average amount of drawback allowed on such articles: [TDs 53687, 53909.]

[2] "Articles previously exported from the United States which are excepted from free entry under any of the foregoing items by headnote 1 of this subpart and are not otherwise free of duty [are subject to] a duty (in lieu of any other duty or tax) equal to the sum of any duty and internal-revenue tax imposed upon the importation of like articles not previously exported, but in no case in excess of the sum of any customs drawback proved to have been allowed upon such exportation of the article and any internal-revenue tax imposed, at the time such article is entered, upon the importation of like articles not previously exported." (Item 804.00, Tariff Schedules of the United States.)

"For the purposes of item 804.00—

"(a) when because of the destruction of customs records or for other cause it is impracticable to establish whether drawback was allowed, or the amount allowed, on a returned article, there shall be assessed thereon an amount of duty equal to the estimated drawback and internal-revenue tax which would be allowable or refundable if the imported merchandise used in the manufacture or production of the returned article were dutiable or taxable at the rate applicable to such merchandise on the date of entry, but in no case more than the duty and tax that would apply if the article were wholly of foreign origin;

"(b) Tobacco products and cigarette papers and tubes classifiable under such item may be released from customs custody, without payment of that part of the duty attributable to the internal-revenue tax, for return to internal-revenue bond as provided by section 5704(d) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1954; and

"(c) in order to facilitate the ascertainment and collection of the duty provided for, the Secretary of the Treasury is authorized to ascertain and specify the amounts of duty equal to drawback or internal-revenue tax which shall be applied to articles or classes or kinds of articles, and to exempt from the assessment of duty articles or classes or kinds of articles with respect to which the collection of such duty involves expense and inconvenience to the Government which is disproportionate to the probable amount of such duty." (Schedule 8, part 1A headnote 2 Tariff Schedules of the United States.)

The district director may also, in his discretion, waive the registration requirements of this section, prior to exportation of the articles, upon application in writing by an exporter-importer located within his district when it is indicated that the duty on merchandise would be less than $25 if not within the purview of item 806.20 and it is indicated that the shipment on its return to the United States will be covered by a mail or other informal entry. Each quantity entered shall be accounted for in such a manner as to identify the specific entry (entry number), and port of entry with the total quantity of the exported articles on the reverse side of the Certificate of Registration (Customs Form 4455) until the total quantity has been entered. [TDs 72-119, 79-159.]

(i) If the district director concerned is satisfied, because of the nature of the articles or production of other evidence, that the articles are imported in circumstances meeting the requirements of item 806.30 and related headnotes, he may waive the declaration provided for in paragraphs (e) and (f) of this section. [TD 72-119.]

(j) In the event there has been compliance with the registration requirements (Customs Form 4455) set forth in paragraph (a) of this section and such form (Customs Form 4455) is not available at the time of entry, the district director may waive the production of Customs Form 4455 provided the merchandise is entered at one time at one port of entry, and he is satisfied that the returned merchandise meets the requirements of item 806.30, Tariff Schedules of the United States, and the related headnotes. [TD 72-119.]

(k) In any case where an imported article was exported for processing without compliance with the registration requirements of this section, the district director may waive the Customs Form 4455 if he is satisfied that the returned merchandise is entitled to entry under item 806.30, and that the failure to comply with the registration requirements was due to inadvertence, mistake, or inexperience, and not to negligence or bad faith. The district director may also, in his discretion, waive the registration requirements of this section, prior to exportation of the articles, upon application in writing by an exporter-importer located within his district when it is indicated that the duty on the merchandise would be less than $25 if not within the purview of item 806.30, it is indicated that the shipment on its return to the United States will be covered by a mial or other informal entry. Customs Form 4455, appropriately modified, may be used by the district director in issuing the waiver. [TD 72-119.]

(l) The district director shall require at the time of entry a deposit of estimated duties based upon the full cost or fair market value, as the case may be, of the processing. The cost or fair market value, as the case may be, of the processing outside the United States which is set forth in the invoice and entry papers as the basis for the assessment of duty under item 806.30, shall be limited to the cost or value of the processing actually performed abroad (including all domestic and foreign articles used in the processing, but does not include the exported United States metal article) and shall not include any of the expenses incurred in this country, whether by way of engineering costs, preparation of plans or specifications, and the furnishing of tools or equipment for doing the processing abroad, or otherwise. (R.S. 251, as amended, 77A Stat. 14, sec. 624, 46 Stat. 759; 19 U.S.C. 66, 1202 (Gen. Hdnte. 11), 1624) [TD 72-119.]

§ 10.10 Newsreel films.

Where free entry is claimed for newsreel films under the provisions of item 724.05, Tariff Schedules of the United States,[8] there shall be furnished in connection with the entry a statement of the cameraman, shipper, or other person having knowledge of the facts, identifying the films with the invoice and stating that the basic films have to the best of his knowledge and belief been exposed abroad and that they are shipped for use as newsreel of current events abroad. The invoice shall state the footage and title of each subject. [TDs 44703, 44938, 53268, 55978.]

Articles Assembled Abroad With United States Components

§ 10.11 General.

(a) Section 10.12 through 10.23 set forth definitions and interpretative regulations adopted by the Commissioner of Customs pertaining to the construction of item 807.00, Tariff Schedules of the United States (19 U.S.C. 1202) and related provisions of law. These provisions concern claims for the exemption from duty provided by item 807.00, Tariff Schedules of the United States (19 U.S.C. 1202), for American-made fabricated components which are returned to the United States as parts of articles assembled abroad. The examples included in these sections described specific situations in which the exemption may or may not be applicable. The definitions and regulations that follow are promulgated to inform the public of the constructions and interpretations that the United States Customs Service shall give to relevant statutory terms and to assure the impartial and uniform assessment of duties upon merchandise claimed to be partially exempt from duty under item 807.00, Tariff Schedules of the United States (19 U.S.C. 1202), at the various ports of entry. Nothing in these regulations purports or is intended to restrict the legal right of importers or others to a judicial review of the matters contained therein. [TDs 73-27, 75-230.]

(b) Section 10.24 sets forth the documentary requirements applicable to the entry of assembled articles claimed to be subject to the exemption provided under item 807.00, Tariff Schedules of the United States (19 U.S.C. 1202). Allowance of an importer's claim is dependent upon meeting the statutory requirements for the exemption under item 807.00 and his complying with the documentary requirements set forth in § 10.24.

[8] "Newsreels, not developed, of current events abroad * * *." (Item 724.05, Tariff Schedules of the United States.)

§ 10.12 Definitions.

As used in § § 10.11 through 10.24, the following terms shall have the meanings indicated: [TDs 73-27, 75-230.]

(a) American-made. The term "American-made" is used to refer to a product of the United States as defined in paragraph (e) of this section.

(b) Assembly. "Assembly" means the fitting or joining together of fabricated components.

(c) Exemption. "Exemption" means the deduction of the cost or value of products of the United States which were assembled abroad in accordance with the requirements of item 807.00, Tariff Schedules of the United States (19 U.S.C. 1202), from the full value of the assembled article.

(d) Fabricated component. "Fabricated component" means a manufactured article ready for assembly in the condition as exported except for operations incidental to the assembly.

(e) Product of the United States. A "product of the United States" is an article manufactured within the Customs territory of the United States and may consist wholly of United States components or materials, of United States and foreign components or materials, or wholly of foreign components or materials. If the article consists wholly or partially of foreign components or materials, the manufacturing process must be such that the foreign components or materials have been substantially transformed into a new and different article, or have been merged into a new and different article.

§ 10.13 Statutory provision: Item 807.00, Tariff Schedules of the United States (19 U.S.C. 1202).

Item 807.000, Tariff Schedules of the United States (19 U.S.C. 1202), provides that articles assembled abroad in whole or in part of fabricated components, the product of the United States, which (a) were exported in condition ready for assembly without further fabrication, (b) have not lost their physical identity in such articles by change in form, shape, or otherwise, and (c) have not been advanced in value or improved in condition abroad except by being assembled and except by operations incidental to the assembly process such as cleaning, lubricating, and painting, are subject to a duty upon the full value of the imported article, less the cost or, if no charge is made, the value of such products of the United States. The rate of duty which is assessed upon the dutiable portion of the imported article is that which is applicable to the imported article as a whole under the appropriate provision of the Tariff Schedules of the United States (19 U.S.C. 1202) for such article. If that provision requires a specific or compound rate of duty, the total duties assessed on the imported article are reduced in such proportion as the cost or value of the returned United States components which qualify for the exemption bears to the full value of the assembled article. [TD 75-230.]

Example 1. A transistor radio is assembled abroad from foreign-made components and American-made transistors. Upon importation, the transistor radio is subject to the ad valorem rate of duty applicable to transistor radios upon the value of the radio less the cost or value of the American-made transistors assembled therein.

Example 2. A solid-state watch movement is assembled abroad from foreign-made components and an American-made integrated circuit. If the movement in question is subject to the specific rate of duty of 75 cents if the value of the assembled movement is $30, and if the value of the American-made integrated circuit is $10, then the value of the integrated circuit represents one third of the total value of the assembled article and the duty on the assembled article will be reduced by one third ($.25). Therefore, the duty on the assembled movement is 50 cents.

§ 10.14 Fabricated components subject to the exemption.

(a) Fabricated components, the product of the United States. Except as provided in § 10.15, the exemption provided under item 807.00, Tariff Schedules of the United States (19 U.S.C. 1202), applies to fabricated components, the product of the United States. The components must be in condition ready for assembly without further fabrication at the time of their exportation from the United States to qualify for the exemption. Components will not lose their entitlement to the exemption by being subjected to operations incidental to the assembly either before, during, or after their assembly with other components. Materials undefined in final dimensions and shapes, which are cut into specific shapes or patterns abroad are not considered fabricated components. [TDs 73-27, 75-230.]

Example 1. Articles identifiable in their exported condition as components or parts of the article into which they will be assembled, such as transistors, diodes, integrated circuits, machinery parts, or precut parts of wearing apparel, are regarded as fabricated components.

Example 2. Prestamped metal lead frames for semiconductor devices exported in multiple unit strips in which the individual frame units are connected to each other, or integrated circuit wafers containing individual integrated circuit dice which have been scribed or scored in the United States, are regarded as fabricated components. The separation of the individual frames by cutting, or the segmentation of the wafer into individual dice by flexing and breaking along scribed or scored lines, is regarded as an operation incidental to the assembly process.

Example 3. Wires of various type, electrical conductors, metal foils, insulating tapes, ribbons, findings used in dressmaking, and similar products, which are in a finished state when exported from the United States, and are ready for use in the assembly of the imported article, are regarded as fabricated components if they are only cut to length or subjected to operations incidental to the assembly process while abroad.

Example 4. Uncut textile fabrics exported in bolts from which wearing apparel components will be cut according to a pattern are not regarded as fabricated components. Similarly, other materials, such as lumber, leather, sheet metal, plastic sheeting, exported in basic shapes and forms to be fabricated into components for assembly, are not eligible for treatment as fabricated components.

(b) Substantial transformation of foreign-made articles or materials. Foreign-made articles or materials may become products of the United States if they undergo a process of manufacture in the United States which results in their substantial transformation. Substantial transformation occurs when, as a result of manufacturing processes, a new and different article emerges, having a distinctive name, character, or use, which is different from that originally possessed by the article or material before being subject to the manufacturing process. The mere finishing or modification of a partially or nearly complete foreign product in the United States will not result in the substantial transformation of such product and it remains the product of a foreign country.

Example 1. A cast metal housing for a valve is made in the United States from imported copper ingots, the product of a foreign country. The housing is a product of the United States because the manufacturing operations performed in the United States to produce the housing resulted in a substantial transformation of the foreign copper ingots.

Example 2. An integrated circuit device is assembled in a foreign country and imported into the United States where its leads are formed by bending them to a specified angle. It is then tested and marked. The imported article does not become a product of the United States because the operations performed in the United States do not result in a substantial transformation of the foreign integrated circuit device.

Example 3. A circuit board assembly for a computer is assembled in the United States by soldering American-made and foreign-made components onto an American-made printed circuit board. The finished circuit board assembly has a distinct electronic function and is ready for incorporation into the computer. The foreign-made components have undergone a substantial transformation by becoming permanent parts of the circuit board assembly. The circuit board assembly, including all of its parts is regarded as a fabricated component, the product of the United States, for purposes of item 807.00, Tariff Schedules of the United States (19 U.S.C. 1202).

§ 10.15 Fabricated components not subject to the exemption.

Fabricated components which are not products of the United States are excluded from the exemption. In addition, the exemption is not applicable to any component exported from the Customs territory of the United States: [TDs 73-27, 75-230.]

(a) From continuous Customs custody with remission, abatement, or refund of duty;

(b) With benefit of drawback;

(c) To comply with any law of the United States or regulation of any Federal agency requiring exportation; or

(d) After manufacture or production in the United States under item 864.05, Tariff Schedules of the United States (19 U.S.C. 1202).

Example. Partially completed components of an electric motor are imported in several separate shipments and are entered under a temporary importation bond to be manufactured into finished motors under the provisions of item 864.05, Tariff Schedules of the United States (19 U.S.C. 1202). The components are completed and assembled into finished electric motors. The finished motors are exported and are assembled abroad into electric fans which are subsequently imported into the United States. Irrespective of the fact that the assembly of the motors might involve such a substantial change that the motor could be considered a product of the United States, no exemption may be given for the value of the electric motors, since they were exported after manufacture or production in the United States under the provision of item 864.05, Tariff Schedules of the United States (19 U.S.C. 1202).

§ 10.16 Assembly abroad.

(a) Assembly operations. The assembly operations performed abroad may consist of any method used to join or fit together solid components, such as welding, soldering, riveting, force fitting, gluing, laminating, sewing, or the use of fasteners, and may be preceded, accompanied, or followed by operations incidental to the assembly as illustrated in paragraph (b) of this section. The mixing or combining of liquids, gases, chemicals, food ingredients, and amorphous solids with each other or with solid components is not regarded as an assembly. [TDs 73-27, 75-230.]

Example 1. A television yoke is assembled abroad from American-made magnet wire. In the foreign assembly plant the wire is despooled and wound into a coil, the wire cut from the spool, and the coil united with other components, including a terminal panel and housing which are also American-made. The completed article upon importation would be subject to the ad valorem rate of duty applicable to television parts upon the value of the yoke less the cost or value of the American-made wire, terminal panel and housing, assembled therein. The winding and cutting of the wire are either assembly steps or steps incidental to assembly.

Example 2. An aluminum electrolytic capacitor is assembled abroad from American-made aluminum foil, paper, tape, and Mylar film. In the foreign assembly plant the aluminum foil is trimmed to the desired width, cut to the desired length, interleaved with paper, which may or may not be cut to length or despooled from a continuous length, and rolled into a cylinder wherein the foil and paper are cut and a section of sealing tape fastened to the surface to prevent these components from unwinding. Wire or other electric connectors are bonded at appropriate intervals to the aluminum foil of the cylinder which is then inserted into a metal can, and the ends closed with a protective washer. As imported, the capacitor is subject to the ad valorem rate of duty applicable to capacitors upon the value less the cost or value of the American-made foil, paper, tape, and Mylar film. The operations performed on these components are all either assembly steps or steps incidental to assembly.

Example 3. The manufacture abroad of cloth on a loom using thread or yarn exported from the United States on spools, cops, or pirns is not considered an assembly but a weaving operation, and the thread or yarn does not qualify for the exemption. However, American-made thread used to sew buttons or garment components is qualified for the exemption because it is used in an operation involving the assembly of solid components.

(b) Operations incidental to the assembly process. Operations incidental to the assembly process whether performed before, during, or after assembly, do not constitute further fabrication, and shall not preclude the application of the exemption. The following are examples of operations which are incidental to the assembly process:

(1) Cleaning;

(2) Removal of rust, grease, paint, or other preservative coating;

(3) Application of preservative paint or coating, including preservative metallic coating, lubricants, or protective encapsulation;

(4) Trimming, filing, or cutting off of small amounts of excess materials;

(5) Adjustments in the shape or form of a component to the extent required by the assembly being performed abroad;

(6) Cutting to length of wire, thread, tape, foil, and similar products exported in continuous length; separation by cutting of finished components, such as prestamped integrated circuit lead frames exported in multiple unit strips; and

(7) Final calibration, testing, marking, sorting, pressing, and folding of assembled articles.

(c) Operations not incidental to the assembly process. Any significant process, operation, or treatment other than assembly whose primary purpose is the fabrication, completion, physical or chemical improvement of a component, or which is not related to the assembly process, whether or not it effects a substantial transformation of the article, shall not be regarded as incidental to the assembly and shall preclude the application of the exemption to such article. The following are examples of operations not considered incidental to the assembly as provided under item 807.00, Tariff Schedules of the United States (19 U.S.C. 1202):

(1) Melting of exported ingots and pouring of the metal into molds to produce cast metal parts;

(2) Cutting of garment parts according to pattern from exported material;

(3) Painting primarily intended to enhance the appearance of an article or to impart distinctive features or characteristics;

(4) Chemical treatment of components or assembled articles to impart new characteristics, such as showerproofing, permapressing, sanforizing, dying or bleaching of textiles;

(5) Machining, polishing, burnishing, peening, plating (other than plating incidental to the assembly), embossing, pressing, stamping, extruding, drawing, annealing, tempering, case hardening, and any other operation, treatment or process which imparts significant new characteristics or qualities to the article affected.

(d) Joining of American-made and foreign-made components. An assembly operation may involve the use of American-made components and foreign-made components. The various requirements for establishing entitlement to the exemption apply only to the American-made components of the assembly.

Example. Diodes are assembled abroad from American-made components. The process includes the encapsulation of the assembled components in a plastic shell. The plastic used for the encapsulation is in the form of a pellet, and is of foreign origin. After the prefabricated diode components are assembled, the assembled unit is placed in a transfer molding machine, where, by use of the pellet, molten epoxy is caused to flow around the perimeters of the assembled components, forming upon solidification a plastic body for the diode. Upon importation, exemption may be granted for the value of the American-made components, but not for the value of the plastic pellet. If the plastic pellet used for encapsulation was of United States origin, its value would still be a part of the dutiable value of the diode, because the plastic pellet is not a fabricated component of a type designed to be fitted together by assembly, but merely a premeasured quantity of material which was applied to the assembled unit by a process not constituting an assembly.

(e) Subassembly. An assembly operation may involve the joining or fitting of American-made components into a part or subassembly of an article, followed by the installation of the part or subassembly into the complete article.

Example. Rolls of foil and rolls of paper are exported and cut to specific length abroad and interleaved and rolled to form the electrodes and dielectric of a capacitor. Following this procedure, the rolls are assembled with cans and other parts to form a complete capacitor. The foil and paper are entitled to the exemption.

(f) Packing. The packing abroad of merchandise into containers does not in itself qualify either the containers or their contents for the exemption. However, assembled articles which otherwise qualify for the exemption and which are packaged abroad following their assembly will not be disqualified from the exemption by reason of their having been so packaged, whether for retail sale or for bulk shipment. The tariff status of the packing materials or containers will be determined in accordance with General Headnote 6, Tariff Schedules of the United States (19 U.S.C. 1202).

§ 10.17 Valuation of exempted components.

The value of fabricated components to be subtracted from the full value of the assembled article is the cost of the components when last purchased, f.o.b. United States port of exportation or point of border crossing as set out in the invoice and entry papers, or, if no purchase was made, the value of the components at the time of their shipment for exportation, f.o.b. United States port of exportation or point of border crossing, as set out in the invoice and entry papers. However, if the appraising officer concludes that the cost or value of the fabricated components so ascertained does not represent a reasonable cost or value, then the value of the components shall be determined in accordance with section 402 or section 402a, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1401a, 1402). [TDs 73-27, 75-230.]

§ 10.18 Valuation of assembled articles.

(a) Statutory basis used in valuation. As in the case of the appraisement of any other imported merchandise (see subpart C of Part 152 of this chapter), the full value of assembled articles imported under item 807.00, Tariff Schedules of the United States (19 U.S.C. 1202), is determined in accordance with the appropriate statutory basis. [TDs 73-27, 75-230.]

(b) Use of constructed value or cost of production as basis for valuation. A preponderance of the merchandise entitled to the item 807.00, Tariff Schedules of the United States (19 U.S.C. 1202), exemption, is appraised on the basis of constructed value or cost of production.

(1) Constructed value. Constructed value is the statutory basis of appraisement authorized by section 402(d), Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1401a(d)), and is applicable to imported articles which are not on a list compiled by the Department of the Treasury, known as the "final list" (T.D. 54521).

(2) Cost of production. Cost of production is the statutory basis of appraisement authorized by section 402a(f), Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1402(f)), and is applicable to imported articles which are on the "final list" (T.D. 54521).

§ 10.19 Elements involved in determining constructed value or cost of production.

Both constructed value and cost of production of assembled articles are determined from the following cost data: [TDs 73-27, 75-230.]

(a) Cost of materials. The cost of materials to be reported in connection with a claim for an item 807.00, Tariff Schedules of the United States (19 U.S.C. 1202), exemption, where constructed value or cost of production is the basis of appraisement includes, but is not limited to:

(1) The cost or value of all American-made components and other American-made materials f.o.b. the United States port of exportation or point of border crossing. If these items were purchased, there should be included, in addition to the purchase price, all costs incurred up to the time of the items' arrival at the port of exportation, such as packing, freight, insurance, warehousing, sorting, and repacking. If the items were not purchased, the estimated market value f.o.b. port of exportation or point of border crossing shall be used, based on the normal selling price to independent purchasers or other available market information. If market value information is not available, the value of the items shall be the sum of all costs incurred in producing the items, including general expenses, an amount for profit, and all costs incurred from the time the items are completed to the time they arrive at the port of exportation or point of border crossing. [TD 77-297.]

(2) Freight, insurance, lading and unlading, and other costs incurred in transporting the American-made components and materials from the port of exportation or point of border crossing to the assembler's plant;

(3) The cost or value of all other components and materials added in the country of assembly as well as the costs incurred in transporting these components and materials to the assembler's plant, including packing, freight, insurance, and lading and unlading;

(4) The value of waste or spoilage, including scrap, such as trimmings, cuttings, and turnings from a lathe, and United States components delivered to the assembler and found to be unusable. The value of waste or spoilage shall be determined from the actual cost of the materials less the market value of recovered scrap or rejected components. Where the assembler returns rejected components to its supplier and receives credit for the rejected components so returned, the credit received by the assembler may be applied as an offset against the assembler's cost of materials; and

(5) Taxes on materials assessed by the country of assembly, but remitted or refunded upon exportation of the finished articles from the country of assembly, such as sales taxes and value added taxes. Such taxes are included under the cost of materials when cost of production is the basis of valuation, but are excluded when constructed value is the basis of valuation.

(b) Cost of fabrication. The cost of fabrication of an assembled article includes, but is not limited to:

(1) All actual labor costs involved in the assembly operations, including fringe benefits such as paid holidays, vacations, social security, school taxes, seventh-day pay, on-the-job training, housing allowance, and idle time. Deviation from normal production efficiency to adjust for actual production should be reflected, if necessary, to insure that the total actual labor costs incurred in the assembly are shown in the cost data sheets. For instance, if the efficiency of the production workers does not meet projected expectations, with a consequent increase in unit labor costs, the increased costs should be reflected in the cost data furnished Customs. The costs of engineering, supervisory functions, quality control, and similar personnel expenses shall be included;

(2) Cost of dies, molds, tooling, special machinery, and similar equipment costs which are allocable to the particular merchandise under consideration (as opposed to general costs for plant equipment or machinery, which are included under general expenses);

(3) Costs of research, development, design, engineering, and blueprints, except where they are directly allocable to American-made components. Where they are directly allocable to American-made components they are to be included in the value of those components, and are not to be included in the cost of fabrication.

(4) Costs of inspecting and testing by the assembler; and

(5) Costs of subcontract work, including the general expenses and profit involved in such work, when a foreign assembler has a portion of the assembly work accomplished by a subcontractor. These costs are considered to be part of the cost of fabrication to the foreign assembler.

(c) General expenses. General expenses, which are all of the assembler's expenses other than the cost of components, materials, fabrication, and packaging, include, but are not limited to:

(1) Building rent or depreciation;

(2) Costs for utilities, including heat, light, power, and water;

(3) Telephone, telegraph, and cable costs;

(4) Depreciation of machinery and equipment other than dies, molds, tooling, special machinery, and similar equipment allocable to the particular merchandise under consideration;

(5) Expenses for maintenance, repairs, and renewals;

(6) Fire and liability insurance costs;

(7) Taxes on buildings;

(8) Factory storage costs;

(9) Expenses for office and factory supplies;

(10) Administration salaries and expenses (executives', managers', and office workers' salaries), and salesmen's salaries, commissions, and expenses;

(11) Travel expenses;

(12) Advertising expenses;

(13) Licensing fees paid to a foreign government;

(14) Legal expenses;

(15) Nonrefundable expenses relating to the importation of articles into a foreign country, such as foreign brokerage fees;

(16) Auditing expenses of the foreign assembly operation;

(17) Start up costs (other than on-the-job training costs). These include legal fees for the consultant or entrepreneur, a fee for setting up the assembler corporation, costs for construction of buildings and installation of manufacturing machinery, engineering fees and material costs to acquire electricity or other power for the plant, fees for the issuance of any permits required, the cost of a bond given to show good faith, charges for telephone service, roads and rail spurs, charges for securing a labor force as well as for their pre-training, costs of trusts established to satisfy foreign ownership, the cost of a plant bond to insure exportation of all materials imported into a foreign country for assembly and to insure return of all imported machinery, and expenses of relocating plant management and production supervisors and their families. Start up costs may be amortized over the period of time for which such expenditures are ordinarily amortized by assemblers of the same general class or kind of merchandise in the country of exportation, in keeping with generally accepted accounting practices; and

(18) All other general administrative and overhead expenses including janitorial services, security services, and the services of a foreign warehouse officer.

(d) Profit. The assembler's actual profit or loss and the basis upon which it was calculated must be reported. Appraisement by Customs shall be based on the amount of profit which is found to be usual or ordinary in the trade, subject to limitations and requirements more particularly described in the applicable statutory provisions.

(e) Packing expenses. All costs of packing or otherwise preparing assembled articles for shipment to the United States must be reported. These costs include, but are not limited to, the cost of containers, the cost of packing materials such as excelsior, straw, and string, the cost of spraying and fumigating packing materials, and the cost of labor for packing. Packing materials of United States origin may be separately exempt from duty under the exemption provided in item 800.00, Tariff Schedules of the United States (19 U.S.C. 1202), for American goods returned without advancement in value or improvement in condition while abroad.

§ 10.20 Cost data required if other statutory basis applicable.

Where it is determined that appraisement is to be made on a value base other than constructed value or cost of production, the importer shall be required to submit cost data of a different nature than required in this part. [TDs 73-27, 75-230.]

Example. If United States value is determined to be the proper basis of valuation, the importer may be required to furnish information on his resale price at the wholesale level in the United States, his general expenses and profit on the resale, and other data which is needed to determine United States value, rather than the cost data required to establish constructed value or cost of production.

§ 10.21 Updating cost data and other information.

When a claim for the exemption is predicated on estimated cost data furnished either in advance of or at the time of entry, this fact should be clearly stated in writing at the time of entry, and suspension of liquidation may be requested by the importer or his agent pending the furnishing of actual cost data. Actual cost data must be submitted as soon as accounting procedures permit. To insure that information used for Customs purposes is reasonably current, the importer shall ordinarily be required to furnish updated cost and assembly data at least every six months, regardless of whether he considers that significant changes have occurred. The 6-month period for the submission of updated cost or other data may be extended by the district director if such extension is appropriate for the type of merchandise involved, or because of the accounting period normally used in the trade, or because of other relevant circumstances. [TDs 73-27, 75-230.]

§ 10.22 Marking.

Assembled articles entitled to the exemption are considered products of the country of assembly for the purposes of the country of origin marking requirements of section 304, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1304). If an imported assembled article is made entirely of American-made materials, the United States origin of the material may be disclosed by using a legend such as "Assembled in ——— from material of U.S. origin," or a similar phrase. (Sec. 304, 46 Stat. 687, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1304)) [TDs 73-27, 75-230.]

§ 10.23 Standards, quotas, and visas.

All requirements and restrictions applicable to imported merchandise, such as labeling, radiation standards, flame-retarding properties, quotas, and visas, apply to assembled articles eligible for the exemption in the same manner as they would apply to all other imported merchandise. [TDs 73-27, 75-230.]

§ 10.24 Documentation.

(a) Documents required. The following documents shall be filed in connection with the entry of assembled articles claimed to be subject to the exemption under item 807.00, Tariff Schedules of the United States (19 U.S.C. 1202). [TDs 73-27, 75-230.]

(1) Declaration by the assembler. A declaration by the person who performed the assembly operations abroad shall be filed in substantially the following form:

I, ——————, declare that to the best of my knowledge and belief the —————— were assembled in whole or in part from fabricated components listed and described below, which are products of the United States:

Marks of identification, numbers	Description of component	Quantity	Unit value at time and place of export from United States[1]	Port and date of export from United States	Name and address of manufacturer

[1] In accordance with Headnote 3, part 1B, schedule 8, Tariff Schedules of the United States (19 U.S.C. 1202).

Description of the operations performed abroad on the exported components (in sufficient detail to enable Customs officers to determine whether the operations performed are within the preview of item 807.00, Tariff Schedules of the United States (19 U.S.C. 1202) (attach supplemental sheet if more space is required)):

Address Capacity

(2) Endorsement by the importer. An endorsement, in substantially the following form, shall be signed by the importer:

> I declare that to the best of my knowledge and belief the (above), (attached) declaration, and any other information submitted herewith, or otherwise supplied or referred to, is correct in every respect and there has been compliance with all pertinent headnotes of the Tariff Schedules of the United States (19 U.S.C. 1202).

Date Signature

Address Capacity

(b) Revision of format. In specific cases, the district director may revise the format of either of the documents specified in paragraph (a) of this section and may make such changes as conditions warrant, provided the data and information required to be supplied in these documents are presented. For example, if the components were furnished by the importer, the information on components may be supplied as part of the importer's endorsement, rather than as part of the assembler's declaration.

(c) Reference to previously filed documents. In lieu of filing duplicate lists of components and descriptions of assembly operations with each entry, the documents specified in paragraph (a) of this section may refer to assembly descriptions and lists of components previously filed with and approved by the district director, or to records showing costs, names of manufacturers, and other necessary data on components, provided the importer has arranged with the district director to maintain such records and keep them available for examination by authorized Customs officers.

(d) Waiver of specific details for each entry. There are cases where large quantities of United States components are purchased from various sources or exported at various ports and dates on a continuing basis, so that it is impractical to identify the exact source, port and date of export for each particular component included in an entry of merchandise claimed to be subject to the exemption under item 807.00, Tariff Schedules of the United States (19 U.S.C. 1202). In these cases, specific details such as the port and date of export and the name of the manufacturer of the United States components may be waived if the district director is satisfied that the importer and assembler have established reliable controls to insure that all components for which the exemption is claimed are in fact products of the United States. These controls shall include strict physical segregation of United States and foreign components, as well as records of United States components showing quantities, sources, costs, dates shipped abroad, and other necessary information. These records shall be maintained by the importer and assembler for 5 years from the date of the related entry in a manner so that they are readily available for audit, inspection, copying, reproduction, or other official use by authorized Customs officers. [TD 79-154.]

(e) Waiver of documents. When the district director is satisfied that unusual circumstances make the production of either or both of the documents specified in paragraph (a) of this section, or of any of the information set forth therein, impractical and is further satisfied that the requirements of item 807.00, Tariff Schedules of the United States (19 U.S.C. 1202), and related headnotes have been met, he may waive the production of such document(s) or information.

(f) Unavailability of documents at time of entry. If either or both of the documents specified in paragraph (a) of this section are not available at the time of entry, an appropriate bond for the production of the document(s) may be given pursuant to § § 113.41-113.46 and 141.66 of this chapter.

(g) Responsibility of correctness. Subject to the civil and criminal sanctions provided by law for false or fraudulent entries, the importer has the ultimate responsibility for supplying all information needed by the Customs Service to process an entry, and for the completeness and truthfulness of such information. If certain information cannot be supplied by the assembler, it must be provided by the importer.

[1] 30 FR 11318, Sept. 3, 1965.

[34] "1. (a) The articles described in the provisions of this subpart, when not imported for sale or for sale on approval, may be admitted into the United States without the payment of duty, under bond for their exportation within 1 year from the date of importation, which period, in the discretion of the Secretary of the Treasury, may be extended, upon application, for one or more further periods which, when added to the initial 1 year, shall not exceed a total of 3 years, except that (1) articles imported under item 864.75 shall be admitted under bond for their importation within 6 months from the date of importation and such 6-month period shall not be extended, and (2) in the case of professional equipment and tools of trade admitted into the United States under item 864.50 which have been seized (other than by seizure made at the suit of private persons), the requirement of reexportation shall be suspended for the duration of the seizure. For purposes of this headnote, an aircraft engine or propeller, or any part or accessory of either, imported under item 864.50, which is removed physically from the United States as part of an aircraft departing from the United States in international traffic shall be treated as exported.

"(b) For articles admitted into the United States under item 864.50, entry shall be made by the nonresident importing the articles or by an organization represented by the nonresident which is established under the laws of a foreign country or has its principal place of business in a foreign country.

"2. Merchandise may be admitted into the United States under item 864.05 only on conditions that—

"(a) such merchandise will not be processed into an article manufactured or produced in the United States if such article is—in part 114 of this chapter, shall be made on Customs form 3461 or 7533, supported by the documentation required by section 142.3 of this chapter. However, when section 10.36 or section 10.36a is applicable, or the aggregate value of the article is not over $250, the form prescribed for the informal entry of importations by mail in baggage, or by other means, may be used. When entry is made on Customs form 3461 or 7533, an entry summary, Customs form 7501, shall be filed within 10 days after time of entry, in accordance with subpart B, part 142 of this chapter.

(i) alcohol, distilled spirits, wine, beer, or any dilution or mixture of any or all of the foregoing;

(2) If Customs form 7501 is filed at time of entry, it shall serve as both the entry and entry summary, and Customs form 3461 or 7533 shall not be required. Customs form 7501 shall be in original only, except for entries under item 864.05, TSUS, which required a duplicate copy for statistical purposes. When articles are entered under an A.T.A. carnet, the importation voucher of the carnet shall serve as the entry.

(3) In addition to the data usually shown on a regular consumption entry summary, each temporary importation bond entry summary shall include:

(i) The TSUS item number under which entry is claimed,

(ii) A statement of the use to be made of the articles in sufficient detail to enable the district director to determine whether they are entitled to entry as claimed, and

(iii) A declaration that the articles are not to be put to any other use and that they are not imported for sale or sale on approval. [CDs 107, 245. (b) The district director of Customs, if he is satisfied as to the importer's identity and good faith, may admit a vehicle or craft brought in by a nonresident to take part in a race or other specific contest for which no money purse is awarded, under the provisions of item 864.35, Tariff Schedules of the United States, without formal entry or security for exportation. If at the time of arrival it appears that the article is likely to remain in the United States beyond 90 days, formal entry and bond shall be taken. [TD 53610, 55978, 70-89.]

(c) When any article has been admitted without formal entry or security for exportation and the importer thereafter desires to prolong his stay beyond 90 days, an entry covering the article and security for its exportation shall be accepted at any port where the article may be presented for entry. The time during which the imported article may remain in the United States under the entry shall be computed from the date of its original arrival in the United States. The estimated duties for the purpose of fixing the amount of any bond required by paragraph (f) of this section shall be the estimated duties which would have been required to be deposited had the article been entered under an ordinary consumption entry on the date of the original arrival. [TDs 53610, 55915, 70-89.]

(d) [Reserved]

(e) The entry or invoice shall: (1) Describe each article in detail; (2) set forth the value of each article; and (3) set forth any marks or numbers thereon or other distinguishing features thereof. In the case of a vehicle, aircraft, or pleasure boat entered under item 864.05 of the Tariff Schedules of the United States and § 10.36a, the registration number, and engine or motor number, and the body number (if available) shall also be shown on the entry. (i) a complete accounting will be made to the Customs Service for all articles, wastes, and irrecoverable losses resulting from such processing, and

(ii) all articles and valuable wastes resulting from such processing will be exported or destroyed under customs supervision within the bonded period.

"3. Upon satisfactory proof that any article admitted under item 864.30 has been destroyed because of its use for any purpose provided for therein, the obligation under the bond to export such article shall be treated as satisfied.

"4. Collectors of customs may defer the exaction of a bond for not to exceed 90 days after the date of importation for vehicles and craft entered under item 864.35 to take part in races or other specific contests for other than money purses, but unless any such vehicle or craft is exported or the bond is given within the period of such deferment, such vehicle or craft shall be subject to forfeiture.

"5. Articles may be admitted under item 864.75 only on condition that the Secretary of the Treasury shall have found that the foreign country from which the articles were imported allows, or will allow, substantially reciprocal privileges in respect of similar imports to such country from the United States; and if the Secretary finds that a foreign country has discontinued, or will discontinue, the allowance of such privileges, the privileges of item 864.75 shall not apply thereafter in respect of imports from such foreign country.

(f) With the exceptions stated herein, a bond shall be given on Customs Form 7563 in an amount equal to double the duties which it is estimated would accrue (or such larger amount as the district director shall state in writing to the entrant is necessary to protect the revenue) had all the articles covered by the entry been entered under an ordinary consumption entry. In the case of samples solely for use in taking orders entered under item 864.20, Tariff Schedules of the United States, motion-picture advertising films entered under item 864.25, and professional equipment, tools of trade and repair components for such equipment or tools entered under item 864.50, the bond required to be given shall be in an amount equal to 110 percent of the estimated duties determined at the time of entry. A term bond on Customs Form 7563-A, a general term bond on Customs Form 7595, or, in appropriate cases, a carnet under Part 114 of this chapter, may be given in lieu of the bond on Customs Form 7563. Cash deposits in the amount of the bond may be accepted in lieu of sureties. When the articles are entered under item 864.05, 864.20, or 864.50, Tariff Schedules of the United States, without formal entry, as provided for in §§ 10.36 and 10.36a, or the amount of the bond taken under any item of schedule 8, part 5C, Tariff Schedules of the United States, is less than $25, the bond shall be without surety or cash deposit, and the bond shall be modified to so indicate.

(g) Claim for free entry under schedule 8, part 5C, Tariff Schedules of the United States may be made for articles of any character described therein which have been previously entered under any other provision of law and the entry amended accordingly upon compliance with the requirements of this section, provided the articles have not been released from Customs custody, or even though released from Customs custody if it is established that the original entry was made on the basis of a clerical error, mistake of fact, or other inadvertence within the meaning of section 520(c)(1), Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, and was brought to the attention of the Customs Service within the time limits of that section. If an entry is so amended, the bond period shall be computed from the date of importation. In the case of articles covered by an informal mail entry, such a claim may be made within a reasonable time either before or after the articles have been released from Customs custody.

(h) After the entry and bond have been accepted, the articles may be released to the importer. The entry shall not be liquidated as the transaction does not involve liquidated duties.

§ 10.33 Theatrical effects.[36]

(a) In connection with the entry under bond of theatrical scenery, property, and apparel, a declaration of the manager or proprietor shall be required on Customs Form 3325 in addition to the requirements of § 10.31.

(b) Animals imported for use or exhibition in theaters or menageries may be classified as theatrical properties.

(c) The term "theatrical scenery, properties, and apparel" shall not be construed to include motion-picture films.

§ 10.34 Articles brought by professional artists, lecturers, or scientists.

In connection with the entry of works of art and other articles provided for in item 864.70, Tariff Schedules of the United States, brought in by professional artists, lecturers, or scientists, a declaration on Customs Form 3325 shall be required in addition to the requirements of § 10.31.

§ 10.35 Models of women's wearing apparel.

(a) Models of women's wearing apparel admitted under item 864.10, Tariff Schedules of the United States, shall not be removed from the importer's establishment for reproducing, copying, painting, sketching, or any other use by others, nor be used in the importer's establishment for such purposes except by the importer or his employees.

(b) The importer shall file in connection with the entry a declaration stating, in addition to his name and business address, that he is a manufacturer; that the articles are imported solely as models for use in his own establishment and will be so used; that they are not imported for sale or for sale on approval; and that they will not be removed from such establishment for reproducing, copying, painting, or sketching by others, nor used in his establishment for such purposes except by him or his employees.

(c) Invoices covering models of women's wearing apparel entered under item 864.10 or 864.25 shall state the kind and color of the principal material from which the apparel is made, and shall contain a description of the lining and the trimming, stating whether composed of fur, lace, embroidery, or other material. Invoices shall also contain a statement as to how the trimming is applied, that is, whether on the cuffs, collar, sleeves, or elsewhere, and the total value of each completed garment or article.

(d) Models of women's wearing apparel entered under item 864.10 or 864.25 shall be marked for identification by means of a cord and lead or tin seal, the cord to be run through the article and all trimming thereon, where necessary, in such manner as to prevent the removal of the cord and seal without cutting the cord or injuring the article. A tag shall be attached to the cord, upon which shall be stated the name of the port at which the article was imported, the entry number, name of importer, and the number of the bond.

§ 10.36 Commercial travelers' samples; professional equipment and tools of trade; theatrical effects and other articles.

(a) Samples accompanying a commercial traveler who presents an adequate descriptive list or a special Customs invoice, and professional equipment, tools of trade, and repair components for such equipment or tools imported in his baggage for his own use by a nonresident sojourning temporarily in the United States may be entered on the importer's baggage declaration in lieu of formal entry and examination and may be passed under item 864.20 or item 864.50, Tariff Schedules of the United States, at the place of arrival in the same manner as other passengers' baggage. The examination may be made by an inspector who is qualified, in the opinion of the district director, to determine the amount of the bond required by § 10.31(c) to be filed in support of the entry. If the articles are a commercial traveler's samples and exceed $500 in value, a special Customs invoice or a descriptive list shall be furnished.

[36] For regulations relating to return without formal entry of theatrical effects taken from the United States, see § 10.68.

(b) When the proprietor or manager of a theatrical exhibition arriving from abroad who has entered his scenery, properties, and apparel under item 864.65, Tariff Schedules of the United States, contemplates side trips to a contiguous country with the exhibition within the period of the bond, including any lawful extension, a copy of the entry covering the effects and a copy of a descriptive list of such effects or invoice furnished by him may be certified by the examining officer and returned to the proprietor or manager for use in registering the effects with the Customs officers at the port of exit, and in clearing them through Customs on his return. Cancellation of the bonds shall be effected by exportation in accordance with the provisions of § 10.38 at the time the theatrical effects are finally taken out of the United States before the expiration of the bond period, including any lawful extension. Similar treatment may be accorded articles entered under other items in schedule 8, part 5C, Tariff Schedules of the United States, upon approval by Headquarters, U.S. Customs Service.

(c) When a commercial traveler contemplates side trips to a contiguous country within the period of the bond, including any lawful extension, a copy of his baggage declaration and a copy of the descriptive list or special Customs invoice furnished by him may be certified by the examining officer and returned to the traveler for use in registering the samples with Customs officers at the port of exit, and in clearing them through Customs upon his return. Cancellation of the bond shall be effected by exportation in accordance with the provisions of § 10.38 at the time the samples are finally taken out of the United States before the expiration of the bond period, including any lawful extension.

(d) The privilege of clearance of commercial travelers' samples or professional equipment, tools of trade, and repair components for such equipment or tools imported for his own use by a nonresident sojourning temporarily in the United States on a baggage declaration under bond without surety or cash deposit shall not be accorded to a commercial traveler or such nonresident who, through fraud or culpable negligence, has failed to comply with the provisions of such a bond in connection with a prior arrival.

Such a commercial traveler or nonresident shall be required to file a formal entry under item 864.20 or item 864.50, Tariff Schedules of the United States with a bond supported by a surety or cash deposit in lieu of surety. (Sec. 498, 46 Stat. 728, as amended, sec. 101, 76 Stat. 72; 19 U.S.C. 1498; Sch. 8, pt. 5C, Tariff Schedules of the United States)

§ 10.36a Vehicles, pleasure boats and aircraft brought in for repair or alteration.

(a) A vehicle (such as an automobile, truck, bus, motorcycle, tractor, trailer), pleasure boat, or aircraft brought into the United States by an operator of such vehicle, pleasure boat, or aircraft [36a] for repair or alteration (as defined in paragraph (a) of § 10.8[36b]) may be entered on the operator's baggage declaration, in lieu of formal entry and examination and may be passed under item 864.05, Tariff Schedules of the United States, at the place of arrival in the same manner as passengers' baggage. The temporary importation bond, as prescribed in § 10.31 (f), given to support such entry shall be without surety or cash deposit. The examination may be made by an inspector who is qualified to determine the amount of such bond to be filed in support of the entry. The privilege accorded by this paragraph shall not apply when two or more vehicles, pleasure boats, or aircraft are to be entered by the same importer under item 864.05 at the same time. In that event, the importer must file a formal entry supported by bond with surety or cash deposit in lieu of surety. [TD 66-39.]

(b) Each vehicle, pleasure boat, or aircraft to which paragraph (a) of this section is applicable shall be identified on the operator's baggage declaration, which must include the data prescribed in paragraphs (a) and (e) of § 10.31.

(c) Exportation shall be effected in accordance with the provisions of § 10.38.

(d) The privilege of clearance of a vehicle, pleasure boat, or aircraft brought in by the operator of such vehicle, pleasure boat, or aircraft, for repair or alteration on his baggage declaration under bond without surety or cash deposit shall not be granted to an individual who has failed to comply with the provisions of such a bond in connection with any prior arrival. Such individual shall be required to file a formal entry under item 864.05, Tariff Schedules of the United States, with a bond supported by a surety or cash deposit in lieu of surety. (77A Stat. 13, 14, 422; 19 U.S.C. 1202 (Gen. head-notes 10, 11, Sch. 8, Pt. 5C, head-note 1))

§ 10.37 Extension of bonds.

A bond given to assure the exportation of a temporary importation entered under schedule 8, part 5C, Tariff Schedules of the United States, may be extended for not more than two further periods of 1 year each, or such shorter period as may be appropriate, by the district director of Customs at the port where the entry was filed, upon written application to such district director on Customs Form 3173, provided the articles have not been exported or duly destroyed before the receipt of the application by the district director, and provided liquidated damages have not been assessed under the bond before such receipt. No extension of the period for which a carnet is valid shall be granted. [TDs 51868, 53336, 55978, 69-146.]

[36a] When the vehicle, aircraft, or pleasure boat to be entered is being towed by or transported on another vehicle, the operator of the towing or transporting vehicle may make the entry for the vehicle, aircraft, or pleasure boat to be repaired or altered.

[36b] The term "repairs or alterations" is defined in paragraph (a), § 10.8, as meaning "restoration, change, addition, renovation, cleaning, or other treatment which does not destroy the identity of the article exported or create a new or different article."

§ 10.38 Exportation.

(a) Articles entered under a temporary importation bond may be exported at the port of entry or at another port. An application on Customs Form 3495 shall be filed in duplicate with the district director of Customs a sufficient length of time in advance of exportation to permit the examination and identification of the articles if circumstances warrant such action and, in such event, the applicant shall be notified on a copy of Customs Form 3495 where the articles are to be sent for identification. If a carnet was used for entry purposes, the reexportation voucher of the carnet shall be filed, in addition to Customs Form 3495, and the carnet shall be presented for certification. [TDs 39073, 41884, 42052, 43751, 45559, 53336, 55915, 69–146.]

(b) All expenses in connection with the delivery of the articles for examination, the cording and sealing of such articles, and their transfer for exportation shall be paid by the parties in interest.

(c) If exportation is to be made at a port other than the one at which the merchandise was entered, the application on Customs Form 3495 shall be filed in triplicate. There shall also be filed with the application a certified copy of the import entry or a certified copy of the invoice used on entry. [TDs 51868, 69–146.]

(d) If the goods are examined at one port and are to be exported from another port, they shall be forwarded to the port of exportation under a transportation and exportation entry. In such cases Customs Form 3495 shall be filed in triplicate. Articles entered under a carnet shall not be examined elsewhere than at the port from which they are to be exported. [TD 69–146.]

(e) If the articles are to be exported by mail or parcel post, the package containing the articles must be mailed under Customs supervision after examination. Waiver of the right to withdraw the package from the mails shall be endorsed on each package to be so exported and signed by the exporter. [TDs 54038, 55915.]

(f) Whenever the circumstances warrant, and occasionally in any event, district directors shall cause the fact of exportation to be verified by the Office of Investigations in harmony with the procedures provided for in § § 18.7 and 22.43 of this chapter. [TD 55915.]

(g) Upon the presentation of satisfactory evidence to the district director at the port at which samples were entered under item 864.20, Tariff Schedules of the United States, or professional equipment or tools of trade were entered under item 864.50, that such articles cannot be exported for the reason that they have been seized (other than by seizure at the suit of private persons), the requirement of exportation shall be suspended for the duration of the seizure. The articles shall be exported promptly after release from seizure. [TD 69–146.]

§ 10.39 Cancellation of bonds.

(a) Bonds taken pursuant to schedule 8, part 5C, Tariff Schedules of the United States, may be canceled in the manner prescribed in § 113.55 of this chapter. A completed reexportation counterfoil on a carnet establishes that the articles covered by the carnet have been exported, and no claim shall be brought against the guaranteeing association under the carnet for failure to export, except under the provisions of § 114.26 of this chapter. In the case of articles entered under item 864.30, Tariff Schedules of the United States, which are destroyed because of their use for the purposes of importation, the bond shall not be canceled unless there is submitted to the district director a certificate of the importer that the articles were destroyed during the course of a specifically described use, and the district director is satisfied that the articles were so destroyed as articles of commerce within the bond period (including any lawful extension). Bonds covering articles entered under other provisions of law shall not be canceled upon proof of destruction, except as provided for in paragraph (c) of this section, unless the articles are destroyed under Customs supervision in accordance with section 557, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, and § 158.43 of this chapter. [TDs 40155, 40953, 43642, 45559, 48508, 53268, 53336, 53399, 55978, 69–146, 74–227.]

(b) Where exportation has been made at a port other than the port of entry, the bond may be canceled upon the certificate of lading received from the port of exportation, showing that such exportation was made within the bond period. In addition, the district director may require the production of a landing certificate signed by a revenue officer of the country to which the merchandise is exported. [TD 40155.]

(c) When articles entered temporarily, free of duty under bond are destroyed within the bond period by death, accidental fire, or other casualty, petition for relief from liability under the bond shall be made to the United States Customs Service. The petition shall be accompanied by a statement of the importer, or other person having knowledge of the facts, setting forth the circumstances of the destruction of the articles. [TDs 33049, 33202, 49658, 53268, 75–36.]

(d) (1) If any article entered under schedule 8, part 5C, Tariff Schedules of the United States, except those entered under a carnet, has not been exported or destroyed in accordance with the regulations in this part within the bond period (including any lawful extension), the district director shall make a demand in writing under the bond for the payment of liquidated damages equal to the entire amount of the bond. If the entry covering the articles is charged against a term bond, the demand shall be limited to an amount equal to double the estimated duties applicable to such entry, unless a lower amount is prescribed by § 10.31(f). The demand shall include a statement that a written petition for relief from the payment of the full liquidated damages may be filed with the district director within 60 days after the date of the demand. [CIE 608/58. TDs 51868, 52033, 53336, 55915, 55978, 69–146, 75–36.]

(2) If articles entered under a carnet have not been exported or destroyed in accordance with the regulations in this part within the carnet period, the district director shall promptly after expiration of that period make demand in writing upon the importer and guaranteeing association for the payment of liquidated damages in the amount of 110 percent of the estimated duties on the articles not exported or destroyed. The guaranteeing association shall have a period of 6 months from the date of claim in which to furnish proof of the exportation or destruction of the articles under conditions set forth in the Convention under which the carnet is issued. If such proof is not furnished within the 6–month period, the guaranteeing association shall forthwith pay the liquidated damages provided for above. The payment shall be refunded if the guaranteeing association within 3 months from the date of payment furnishes the proof referred to above. No claim for payment under a carnet covering a temporary importation may be made against the guaranteeing association more than 1 year after the expiration of the period for which the carnet was valid.

(3) Demand for return to Customs custody. When the demand for return to Customs custody is made in the case of merchandise entered under schedule 8, part 5C, Tariff Schedules of the United States (19 U.S.C. 1202), liquidated damages in an amount equal to double the estimated duties on the merchandise not returned shall be demanded, except that in the case of samples solely for use in taking orders, motion-picture advertising films, professional equipment, tools of trade, and repair components for professional equipment and tools of trade, the liquidated damages demanded shall be in an amount equal to 110 percent of the estimated duties. [TD 74-227.]

(e) If there has been default with respect to all the articles covered by the bond and a written petition for relief is timely filed as provided in part 172 of this chapter, it shall be transmitted to Headquarters, U.S. Customs Service with a full report of the facts, unless it is allowed by the district director in whole or in part in accordance with this regulation. If the full amount of liquidated damages demanded does not exceed $50,000 and the district director is satisfied that the importation was properly entered under schedule 8, part 5C, and that there was no intent to defraud the revenue or delay the payment of duty, the district director may cancel the liability for the payment of liquidated damages as follows: [TDs 52033, 52454, 53336, 53919, 55978, 70-249, 73-308, 75-36.]

(1) If evidence is furnished which satisfies the district director that the article would have been entitled to free entry as domestic products exported and returned had the evidence been furnished at the time of entry, without the collection of liquidated damages. [TD 70-249.]

(2) If the article has been exported or destroyed under Customs supervision but not within the bond period, upon the payment of such lesser amount as the district director may deem appropriate under the law and in view of the circumstances, or without the collection of liquidated damages if the district director is satisfied that the delay in exportation or destruction was for the benefit of the United States or was occasioned wholly by circumstances reasonably beyond the control of the parties concerned and which could not have been anticipated by a reasonably prudent person. [TDs 52454, 70-249.]

(3) If the article was exported or destroyed within the bond period but not under Customs supervision and satisfactory documentary evidence of actual exportation, such as a foreign landing certificate, or of death or other complete destruction, such as a veterinarian's certificate or certificates of two disinterested witnesses, are furnished together with a complete explanation by the applicant of the failure to obtain Customs supervision, upon the payment of such lesser amount as the district director may deem appropriate under the law and in view of the circumstances, or without the collection of liquidated damages if the district director is satisfied that the merchandise was destroyed under circumstances which precluded any arrangement to obtain Customs supervision. Satisfactory documentary evidence of exportation, in the case of carnets, would include the particulars regarding importation or reimportation entered in the carnet by Customs authorities of another contracting party, or a certificate with respect to importation or reimportation issued by those authorities, based on the particulars shown on a voucher which was detached from the carnet on importation or reimportation into their territory, provided it is shown that the importation or reimportation took place after the exportation which it is intended to establish. [TDs 52454, 53268, 69-146, 70-249.]

(4) Upon the payment of an amount equal to double the duty which would have accrued on the articles had they been entered under an ordinary consumption entry, or equal to 110 percent of such duties where that percentage is prescribed in § 10.31(f), if such amount is determined to be less than the full amount of the bond. [TDs 52454, 53336, 55915, 71-70.]

(f) If there has been compliance with the terms of the bond with respect to part of but not all the articles covered thereby and a written petition for relief is filed as provided in Part 172 of this chapter, and if that part of the liability for liquidated damages which represents double the duty or 110 percent of the duty, as required under § 10.31(f), on the articles in respect of which there has been a default does not exceed $50,000, the district director may cancel the total liability for payment of liquidated damages in any amount upon the payment of an amount equal to double the duty or 110 percent of the duty, as appropriate, on the articles in respect of which the default occurred, or, under the circumstances enumerated in subparagraph (1), (2), or (3) of paragraph (e) of this section, upon payment of such lesser amount as the district director may deem appropriate, provided the district director is satisfied that the importation was properly entered under schedule 8, part 5C, and that there was no intent to defraud the revenue or delay the payment of duty. [TDs 52454, 52721, 53336, 53919, 55915, 55978, 70-249, 71-70, 73-308, 75-36.]

(g) If the petitioner is not satisfied with the district director's action under this section and submits a supplemental petition, both the original and the supplemental petitions shall be transmitted to the regional commissioner of Customs with a full report on the case. [TDs 52033, 52454, 52721, 75-36.]

§ 10.40 Refund of cash deposits.

(a) When a cash deposit is made in lieu of surety, it shall be refunded to the person in whose name the entry is made upon exportation in compliance with § 10.38. [TDs 49658, 53336, 53399.]

(b) If any article entered under schedule 8, part 5C, Tariff Schedules of the United States, is not exported or destroyed within the bond period (including any lawful extension), the district director shall notify the importer in writing that the entire cash deposit will be transferred to the regular account as liquidated damages unless a written application for relief from the payment of the full liquidated damages is filed with the district director within 60 days after the date of the notice. If such an application is timely filed, the transfer of the cash deposit to the regular account as liquidated damages shall be deferred pending the decision of the Headquarters, U.S. Customs Service or, in appropriate cases, the district director on the application. [CIE 747/38. (b) [Reserved]

(c) Foreign-owned aircraft arriving in the United States shall be subject to the treatment provided for in Part 6 of this chapter, unless entered under the provisions of § 10.31 or of paragraph (d) of this section.

(d) Any foreign-owned vehicle, aircraft, or undocumented boat brought into the United States for the purpose of carrying merchandise or passengers between points in the United States for hire or as an element of a commercial transaction, except as stated in the parenthetical matter in paragraph (b) of this section, is subject to treatment as an importation of merchandise from a foreign country and a regular entry therefor shall be made. The use of any such vehicle, aircraft, or boat without a proper entry having been made may result in liabilities being incurred under section 592, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1592). [TDs 49658, 51868, 52259, 79-160.]

(e) [Reserved]

(f) Material for the maintenance or repair of international cables under the high seas, if requiring storage in special tanks for preservation, may be placed in tanks specially bonded for the purpose and withdrawn therefrom for high-seas installation without the payment of duty and without limitation of the storage period to the usual 3-year warehousing period. International cables laid under the territorial waters of the United States but not brought on shore in the United States shall be admitted without entry or the payment of duty. With respect to international cables laid under the territorial waters of the United States but brought on shore in the United States, only that part of the cable in the United States between the point of entry into the territorial waters of the United States and the first point of support on land in the United States shall be admitted without the payment of duty. (Sec. 14, 67 Stat. 516; 19 U.S.C. 1322)

§ 10.41a Lift vans, cargo vans, shipping tanks, skids, pallets, and similar instruments of international traffic; repair components.

(a)(1) Lift vans, cargo vans, shipping tanks, skids, pallets, caul boards, and cores for textile fabrics, arriving (whether loaded or empty) in use or to be used in the shipment of merchandise in international traffic are hereby designated as "instruments of international traffic" within the meaning of section 322(a), Tariff Act of 1930, as amended. The Commissioner of Customs is authorized to designate as instruments of international traffic, in decisions to be published in the weekly Customs Bulletin, such additional articles or classes of articles as he shall find should be so designated. Such instruments may be released without entry or the payment of duty, subject to the provisions of this section. [TDs 55078, 55981, 55978, 69-146, 72-149, 72-335, 73-48.]

(2) Repair components for a particular container of foreign production which is an instrument of international traffic may be entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption without the deposit of duty if the person making the entry or withdrawal from warehouse files therewith his declaration that the repair component was imported to be used in the repair of a particular container of foreign production which is an instrument of international traffic, and the district director of Customs is satisfied that the importer of the repair component had the declared intention at the time of imation. Liquidation of the entry covering the repair component shall be suspended until proof of use is furnished or the time allowed for the production thereof has expired. Upon satisfactory proof of the use of the repair component, the entry shall be liquidated free of duty. When such proof is not filed within 3 years from the date of entry, the entry shall be liquidated dutiable under the appropriate item of the Tariff Schedules of the United States.[38] [TD 71-139.]

(3) As used in this section, "instruments of international traffic" includes the normal accessories and equipment imported with any such instrument which is a "container" as defined in Article 1 of the Customs Convention on Containers.[38a]

(b) The reexportation of a container, as defined in Article 1 of the Customs Convention on Containers, which has become badly damaged, shall not be required in the case of a duly authenticated accident if the container (1) is subjected to applicable import duties and import taxes, or (2) is abandoned free of all expense to the Government or destroyed under Customs supervision at the expense of the parties concerned, following the procedure outlined in § 158.43(c) of this chapter. Any salvaged parts and materials shall be subjected to applicable import duties and import taxes. Replaced parts which are not reexported shall be subjected to import duties and import taxes except where abandoned free of expense to the Government or destroyed under Customs supervision at the expense of the parties concerned. [TD 69-146.]

[37] "(a) Vehicles and other instruments of international traffic, of any class specified by the Secretary of the Treasury, shall be granted the customary exceptions from the application of the customs laws to such extent and subject to such terms and conditions as may be prescribed in regulations or instructions of the Secretary of the Treasury." (Sec. 322, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended; 19 U.S.C. 1322)

[38] "Substantial containers and holders, if products of the United States (including shooks and staves of United States production when returned as boxes or barrels containing merchandise), or if of foreign production and previously imported and duty (if any) thereon paid, or if of a class specified by the Secretary of the Treasury as instruments of international traffic, and repair components for a particular container of foreign production which is an instrument of international traffic * * * Free" (Item 808.00, Tariff Schedules of the United States.)

[38a] "* * * The term 'container' shall mean an article of transport equipment (lift-van, movable tank or other similar structure):

"(i) Of a permanent character and accordingly strong enough to be suitable for repeated use;

"(ii) Specially designed to facilitate the carriage of goods, by one or more modes of transport, without intermediate reloading;

"(iii) Fitted with devices permitting its ready handling, particularly its transfer from one mode of transport to another;

"(iv) So designed to be easy to fill and empty; and

"(v) Having an internal volume of one cubic metre or more and shall include the normal accessories and equipment of the container, when imported with the container; the term 'container' includes neither vehicles nor conventional packing; * * *." (Article 1, Customs Convention on Containers.)

(c) The instruments of international traffic designated in paragraph (a) of this section may be released in accordance with the provisions of that paragraph only after the applicant for such release has filed a bond on Customs Form 7587. The required application may be filed at the port of arrival or at a subsequent port to which an instrument shall have been transported in bond or to which a container shall have been moved under cover of a TIR carnet (see Part 114 of this chapter) showing the characteristics and value of the container on the Goods Manifest of the carnet. If the container is listed on the Goods Manifest of the carnet, the application may be filed at the port of arrival or at the subsequent port. If the container is not listed on the Goods Manifest, the application shall be filed at the port of arrival. The fact of approval and discontinuance of bonds on Customs Form 7587 will be published in the weekly Customs Bulletin, as provided for in § 113.14(p) of this chapter. When the application is filed at a port other than the port at which the bond, Customs Form 7587, is on file, the following procedure applies: [TDs 66-29, 71-70, 74-227.]

(1) When the application is filed before the fact of approval of the applicant's bond has been published in the weekly Customs Bulletin, the applicant must submit with the application, or the Customs officer to whom the application is made must obtain, evidence that a current bond is on file at another port. That evidence may consist of a certrified copy of the bond, or any other evidence which will satisfy the Customs officer to whom the application is made that a current bond is on file at another port.

(2) If the application is filed after the fact of approval of the applicant's bond has been published in the weekly Customs Bulletin, a certified copy of that bond need not be filed at the port of release. Upon determination by the appropriate Customs officer that the fact of approval of the applicant's bond has been published in the weekly Customs Bulletin, and the bond has not been subsequently discontinued, the instruments of international traffic will be released as provided for in paragraph (a) of this section.

(3) Upon the request of the applicant, the appropriate Customs officer at the port at which the instruments of international traffic are to be released will determine whether or not the fact of approval of the applicant's bond has been published. If the approval has not been published, the Customs officer with whom the application has been filed will advise the applicant of the nature of the evidence required to establish the fact that a current bond is on file at another port.

(d) If an instrument of foreign origin, or of United States origin which has been increased in value or improved in condition by a process of manufacture or other means while abroad, is released under this section and is subsequently diverted to point-to-point local traffic within the United States, or is otherwise withdrawn in the United States from its use as an instrument of international traffic, it becomes subject to entry and the payment of any applicable duties. An instrument of United States origin which has not been increased in value or improved in condition by a process of manufacture or other means while abroad and which is released under this section shall not be subject to entry or the payment of duty if it is so diverted or otherwise withdrawn. [TD 69-144.]

(e) The person who filed the application for release under paragraph (a)(1) of this section shall promptly notify a district director at a port of entry in the United States as defined in section 401(k), Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, (1) that the container is to be abandoned or destroyed, as described in paragraph (b) of this section, or (2) that the instrument is the subject of a diversion or withdrawal as described in paragraph (d) of this section, in which event he shall file with the district director a consumption entry for the instrument and pay all import duties and import taxes due on the container or instrument at the rate or rates in effect and in its condition on the date of such diversion or withdrawal. [TD 69-146.]

(f) Except as provided in paragraph (i) of this section, no part of this section precludes (1) the use of an instrument in picking up and delivering loads at intervening points in the United States while en route between the port of arrival and the point of destination of its imported cargo, (2) such use of the instrument while en route from such point of destination of imported cargo to a point where export cargo is to be loaded or to an exterior port of departure by a reasonably direct route to, or nearer to, the place of such loading or departure, or (3) such use of a "container", as defined in Article 1 of the Customs Convention on Containers (see paragraph (a)(3) of this section), which arrived empty while en route between the port of arrival and a point where export cargo is to be loaded or from that point to an exterior port of departure by a reasonably direct route to, or nearer to, the place of such loading or departure, provided such point-to-point traffic is incidental to the efficient and economical utilization of the instrument in the course of its use in international traffic. Such use does not constitute a diversion to unpermitted point-to-point local traffic within the United States or a withdrawal of an instrument in the United States from its use as an instrument of international traffic under this section. [TDs 69-216, 72-2.]

(g) For failure promptly to report the diversion or withdrawal or promptly to make the required entry and pay the duties due, the applicant shall be liable for the payment of liquidated damages equal to the domestic value of the instrument established in accordance with section 606, Tariff Act of 1930.

(h) When an instrument of international traffic, as provided in paragraph (a) of this section, is returned to the United States and released in accordance with the provisions of that paragraph, any repairs which may have been made to the instrument while it was abroad are not subject to entry or the payment of duty whether the instrument is of foreign or domestic manufacture, whether it left the United States empty or loaded, and whether or not the repairs made abroad were in contemplation when the instrument left the United States. [TD 69-146.]

(i) Containers and other articles designated as instruments of international traffic in accordance with this section are nevertheless subject to the application of the coastwise laws of the United States, with particular reference to section 883, title 46, United States Code (see § 4.93 of this chapter). (Sec. 14, 67 Stat. 516, Sec. 623, 46 Stat. 759, as amended; 19 U.S.C. 1202, 1322, 1623) [TD 69-146.]

§ 10.41b Clearance of serially numbered substantial holders or outer containers.

(a) The holders and containers described in this section may be released without entry or the payment of duty, subject to the provisions of this section. [TD 56542.]

(b) In the case of serially numbered holders or containers of United States manufacture for which free clearance under item 800.00, Tariff Schedules of the United States, is claimed, the owner shall place thereon the following markings: (1) 800.00, unless the holder or container has permanently attached thereto the manufacturer's metal tag or plate showing, among other things, the name and address of the manufacturer who is located in the United States. (2) The name of the owner, either positioned as indicated in the example below, or elsewhere conspicuously shown on the holder or container. (3) The serial number assigned by the owner, which shall be one of consecutive numbers and not to be duplicated. For example: 800.00 * * * Zenda * * * 2468.

(c) In the case of serially numbered holders or containers of foreign manufacture for which free clearance under the second provision in item 808.00, Tariff Schedules of the United States, is claimed, the owner shall place thereon the following markings: (1) 808.00. (2) The district and port code numbers of the port of entry, the entry number, and the last two digits of the fiscal year of entry covering the importation of the holders and containers on which duty was paid. (3) The name of the owner, either positioned as indicated in the example below, or elsewhere conspicuously shown on the holder or container. (4) The serial number assigned by the owner, which shall be one of consecutive numbers and not to be duplicated. For example: 808.000 * * * 10-1-366-63 * * * Zenda * * * 2468.

(d) The prescribed markings shall be clear and conspicuous, that is, they shall appear on an exposed side of the holder or container in letters and figures of such size as to be readily discernible. The markings will be stricken out or removed when the holders or containers are taken out of service or when ownership is transferred, except that appropriate changes may be made if a new owner wishes to use the holders and containers under this procedure.

(e) The owner shall keep adequate records open to inspection by Customs officers, which shall show the current status of the serially numbered holders and containers in service and the disposition made of such holders and containers taken out of service.

(f) Nothing in this procedure shall be deemed to affect:

(1) The requirements for outward or inward manifesting of such holders or containers. The manifests will show for each holder or container its markings as provided for herein.

(2) The requirements of the Department of Commerce on exportation with respect to the filing of "Shipper's Export Declaration," Form 7525-V.

(3) The treatment of articles covered herein under the coastwise laws of the United States, with particular reference to section 883, Title 46, United States Code.

(g) If the holder or container and its contents are to move in bond or under cover of a TIR carnet (see Part 114 of this chapter) from the port of arrival intact, the holder or container shall appear on the inward foreign manifest so as to be related to the cargo contained therein and will be released under this procedure at a subsequent port. If the holder or container is to move in bond or under cover of a TIR carnet from the port of arrival not intact with its contents, the holder or container may appear on the inward foreign manifest separate from and not related to the cargo contained therein and will be released under this procedure at the port of arrival before it moves forward and will not appear on the in-bond document. [TD 71-70.]

(h) A bond in the form set forth below will be filed with the district director in the amount of $10,000. The bond will remain in force for a continuous period. The bond will be conditioned that upon a violation of the requirements of item 800.00 or 808.00, Tariff Schedules of the United States, or of these regulations, the owner will be liable for the payment of liquidated damages equal to the domestic value of the holder or container established in accordance with section 606, Tariff Act of 1930.

A written declaration of the owner or agent of the vessel may be required in connection with the withdrawal, certifying to the vessel's suitableness and substantial readiness with necessary fittings, outfit, and equipment already installed on its departure in ballast for service in a class of trade specified in section 309 and agreeing to notify the district director if it is laid up or diverted from such class of trade prior to the carriage of cargo or passengers in such trade. [CD 199; CADs 174, 569; TDs 50130, 53336, 53983.]

(e) Vessels of the United States documented to engage in the fisheries and foreign fishing vessels of 5 net tons or over may be allowed to withdraw distilled spirits (including alcohol), wines, and beer conditionally free under section 309 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, if the district director is satisfied from the quantity requested, in the light of (1) whether the vessel is employed in substantially continuous fishing activities, and (2) the vessel's complement, that none of the withdrawn articles is intended to be removed from the vessel in, or otherwise returned to, the United States without the payment of duty or tax. Such withdrawal shall be permitted only after the approval by the district director of a special written application, in triplicate, on Customs Form 5125, of the withdrawer, supported by a bond on Customs Form 7603 executed by the withdrawer. Such application shall be filed with Customs Form 7506 or 7512,[57] as the case may be. The original and the triplicate copy of the application, after approval, shall be stamped with the withdrawal number and date thereof and shall be returned to the withdrawer for use as prescribed below. Advises received from the Secretary of Commerce under this statute are published in Internal Revenue Bulletins. § 10.60 Forms of withdrawals; bonds.

(a) Withdrawals from warehouse shall be made on Customs Form 7506 (Warehouse Withdrawal Conditionally Free of Duty). Each withdrawal shall contain the statement prescribed for withdrawals in § 144.32 of this chapter and all of the statistical information as provided in § 141.61(e) of this chapter. Withdrawals from continuous Customs custody elsewhere than in a bonded warehouse shall be made on Customs From 7512, except as provided for by paragraph (h) of this section. When a withdrawal of supplies or other articles is made which may be used on a vessel while it is proceeding in ballast to another port as provided for by § 10.59(a)(3), a notation of this fact shall be made on the withdrawal and the name of the other port given if known. [CIEs 412/48, 369/58, 471/58. (b) If the withdrawal is made by other than the principal on the warehouse or rewarehouse entry, as the case may be, the assent of such principal shall be endorsed on the withdrawal, unless the principal has otherwise authorized such withdrawal in writing.

(c) A bond on Customs Form 7561 or other appropriate form shall be taken when the withdrawal from warehouse is made by a person other than the principal on the warehouse or rewarehouse entry, as provided for in paragraph (b) of this section. [TD 53336.]

(d) When the supplies are to be laden at a port other than the port of withdrawal from warehouse, they shall be withdrawn for transportation in bond to the port of lading. Three copies of the manifest on Customs Form 7512, in addition to six copies of the withdrawal on Customs Form 7506, shall be required. The procedure shall be the same as that prescribed in § 144.37 of this chapter (the six copies of Customs Form 7506 taking the place of the entry copies of Customs Form 7512). [CCL 23/56. TDs 18922, 48495, 53983, 73-175.]

(e) No bond shall be required in the case of war vessels.

(f) Unless transfer is permitted under the provisions of paragraph (h) of this section, when articles are withdrawn from continuous Customs custody elsewhere than in a bonded warehouse for lading at the port of withdrawal, the procedure provided for in § 18.25 of this chapter shall be followed, except that the bond required shall be on Customs Form 7557, 7559, or 7595. Unless transfer is permitted under the provisions of paragraph (h) of this section, when articles are withdrawn from continuous Customs custody elsewhere than in a bonded warehouse for lading at another port, the procedure set forth in § 18.26 of this chapter shall be followed, except that the withdrawal when filed shall be supported by a bond on Customs Form 7557, 7559, or 7595. There shall be such examination of the articles as may be necessary to satisfy the district director that they are subject to the privileges of section 309, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, and that the value and quantity declared for them are correct. [CCL 23/56. (g) A withdrawal under § 10.59(e) shall be supported by a bond on Customs Form 7603 in lieu of any other bond. [TDs 53935, 54101.]

(h) If a request is made for permission to transfer supplies or stores from one vessel to another which would be entitled to withdraw them free of duty and tax under section 309 or 317, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, the district director in his discretion may permit the articles to be so transferred under Customs supervision under a permit on Customs Form 3171 in lieu of a formal withdrawal under the pertinent statute. In such a case, the pertinent statute shall be indicated by an endorsement made on the permit by the district director. § 10.62 Bunker fuel oil.

(a) When all the bunker fuel oil in a Customs bonded tank is intended only for lading duty free as supplies on vessels under section 309 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, delivery of the oil, either by pipeline or by Customs bonded carrier, under withdrawals on Customs Form 7506, either single or monthly (blanket), may be effected without the presence of a Customs officer upon the condition that Customs Form 7505-B, Order to Release Merchandise on Order of the Warehouse Proprietor, is executed by the withdrawer for each delivery of oil from the tank. Customs Form 7505-B shall be filed by him with the district director of Customs at the time of withdrawal or at such other time as the district director may specify and shall include the following additional data: [CIEs 369/58, 471/58. TDs 53448, 53982, 55653, 67-25, 69-99.]

(1) Type of oil withdrawn.

(2) Number of other identification of sales order therefor.

(3) Name of bonded carrier, date it received oil.

(4) Receipt signed by master or other person in charge of delivering conveyance identified by number or name and, if a Customs bonded lighterman or cartman, by the carrier's license number.

(5) Name and location of vessel obtaining oil.

(6) Quantity and identification of each type of oil received with date, and signature and title of receiving officer. If all the oil is laden on the receiving vessel at the port of withdrawal via pipeline from the bonded storage tank, subparagraphs (3) and (4) of this paragraph shall be deemed to be inapplicable.

(b) If a blanket free withdrawal of bunker fuel oil is filed, to comply with Bureau of the Census requirements the withdrawal on Customs Form 7506 shall be endorsed "Estimated Withdrawals" and limited to the aggregate quantity and value of fuel oil which it is estimated will be physically removed from Customs bond during the calendar month in which the withdrawal is filed for lading on vessels entitled to duty-free vessel supplies under section 309 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended. [TD 69-99.]

(c) (1) As an incident of the delivery of fuel oils classifiable at different rates of duty to a vessel or vessels under section 309 of the tariff act, the district director of Customs may, when necessary to enable a supplier to meet fuel specifications, permit the blending of the oils in the delivering conveyance or in other suitable facilities after withdrawal from the bonded tanks, upon the condition that, to the extent of the amount of oil withdrawn classifiable at the higher rate, duty at the higher rate will be paid on any portion of the blended fuel oil not delivered within a reasonable time to a qualified vessel. The withdrawer shall be required to file a withdrawal for consumption for the excess quantity withdrawn. For example, if the quantity withdrawn consists of 1,500 barrels of bunker C fuel oil classifiable at the rate of one-eighth cent per gallon and 500 barrels of diesel oil classifiable at the rate of one-fourth cent per gallon but only 1,400 barrels of the blended oil are actually laden as fuel supplies on qualified vessels, withdrawals for consumption are required for 500 barrels of diesel oil at the higher rate and for 100 barrels of bunker C fuel oil at the lower rate. [TDs 53982(1), 69-99.]

(2) The receipt of the delivering carrier on Customs Form 7505-B for fuel oil which has been blended in accordance with subparagraph (1) of this paragraph with components classifiable at different rates of duty shall show for each warehouse entry number and withdrawal number involved the type and quantity of oil received.

(d) Fuel oil withdrawn as vessel supplies at one port may be laden at another port on a vessel or vessels entitled to the free withdrawal privileges of section 309 of the tariff act, under procedures prescribed in this section, provided the movement to the receiving vessel or vessels is under the bond of a qualified carrier as described in § 18.1(a) of this chapter. In such cases, the provisions of § 10.60(d) of this chapter shall be deemed inapplicable. [TD 69-99.]

(e) If a vessel not entitled to duty-free withdrawal of supplies from Customs bonded warehouses under section 309 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended should be supplied with fuel oil from a Customs bonded tank described in paragraph (a) of this section because of an emergency, a duty paid withdrawal therefor shall be filed on the first day that the customhouse is open for the general transaction of business after the day on which the oil is laden on the using vessel. If there should be willful or repeated instances of late filing of a duty-paid withdrawal in such cases, the district director of Customs shall require a duty-paid withdrawal to be filed prior to the removal of fuel oil from the bonded tank. Immediate Customs supervision over the removal of oil under this paragraph is not required. [TD 69-99.]

(f) When the procedures prescribed in this section are followed, representatives of the regional commissioner of Customs will from time to time verify various withdrawals against all pertinent records, including financial records, of the withdrawers, deliverers, and receivers of the oil. The withdrawer shall maintain all pertinent records relating to the withdrawal, delivery, or receipt of the fuel oil for 5 years from the date of liquidation of the related fuel oil entry. (Sec. 309, 46 Stat. 690, as amended; 19 U.S.C. 1309) [TDs 69-99, 79-159.]

§ 10.62a Blanket withdrawals for certain merchandise.

(a) Under this section, a blanket withdrawal on Customs Form 7506 may be filed for all or part of any merchandise, except fuel oil covered by a warehouse entry intended for withdrawal under section 309 or 317 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, for use on qualified vessels. The withdrawal form shall bear in the top margin the wording Master Withdrawal for Vessel Supplies conspicuously stamped or printed but without the summary statement described in § 144.32 of this chapter. [TDs 69-177, 73-175.]

(b) The blanket withdrawal shall be executed in quadruplicate or in quintuplicate if an additional copy is required for control purposes in local administration. The original shall be forwarded to the Customs warehouse officer to serve as a permit to withdraw the merchandise covered thereby upon the filing of supplemental withdrawals as provided in paragraph (c) of this section. One copy shall be kept with the related entry. One copy shall be returned to the withdrawer for use in preparing the supplemental withdrawals. One copy (statistical) shall be forwarded to the Bureau of the Census.

(c) A supplemental withdrawal on Customs Form 7506, in duplicate or in triplicate if an extra copy is needed for local control, shall be filed directly with the Customs warehouse officer as merchandise covered by the blanket withdrawal is needed for delivery to a using vessel. The supplemental withdrawals shall be consecutively numbered by the withdrawer immediately after the serial number of the master withdrawal. Each supplemental withdrawal shall bear the summary statement described in § 144.32 of this chapter. The original of the supplemental withdrawal shall accompany the merchandise for delivery to the Customs officers who will supervise the lading. (Secs. 309, 317, 46 Stat. 690, as amended, 696, as amended; 19 U.S.C. 1309, 1317) [TD 73-175.]

§ 10.63 Landing of supplies and stores from receiving vessel in the United States.

Supplies or stores laden on a vessel duty and tax free under section 309, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, may be landed under Customs supervision under proper permit, the same as if they had been laden in a foreign country. See § § 4.39 and 23.4 of this chapter. Except when transfer to another vessel entitled to the free withdrawal privilege is permitted under the original withdrawal under section 309, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, the landed articles shall be treated as an importation from a foreign country.[58] (Sec. 309(a), 46 Stat. 690, as amended; 19 U.S.C. 1309(a)) [CD 199; TDs 48399, 48788, 51567, 54485, 55653.]

§ 10.64 Crediting or cancellation of bonds.

(a) Except as stated below, the warehouse or rewarehouse entry bond or the bond identified in § 10.60 (c) or (f) for articles withdrawn under section 309, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, for use as supplies, equipment, or for repair of a vessel may be credited or canceled in respect of such articles upon the vessel's departure from the port of lading in a class of trade or business entitling the articles to exemption from duty and tax under the statute. If the vessel is not operated by the United States and proceeds in ballast from the port where the articles are laden to another port to lade passengers or cargo for carriage in a class of trade specified in section 309, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, the bond may be credited or canceled upon the filing with the district director at the port of withdrawal within 3 months after the date of withdrawal of a proper declaration as prescribed below. The declaration shall be executed by one of the following who has knowledge of the facts: [CCL 47/57; TDs 51567, 53268, 53983, 54485, 54688, 55374, 55653.]

(1) The operations manager or port captain for the vessel on which the articles are laden but not a representative of the supplier.

(2) The master or other officer of the vessel on which the articles are laden. The declaration shall be in substantially the following form:

The withdrawer shall use a copy of Customs Form 7309 for this purpose, noting over his signature the region-district-port code number, the warehouse or rewarehouse entry number, and the extension requested. The withdrawer shall file the original completed form with the district director at the port of withdrawal.

If the port of departure is not a U.S. Customs port, the executed Flight Verification Card, Customs Form 7309-A, shall be delivered to the district director at the Customs port nearest the final U.S. port of departure.

(d) In the case of an aircraft of U.S. registry arriving in the United States from a foreign country or from a possession of the United States and fueling with bonded fuel for use on the remaining leg(s) of a qualified flight to a U.S. destination for which a permit to proceed is not required, an authorized representative of the carrier shall file an executed Flight Verification Card, Customs Form 7309-A, in duplicate, with the district director at the U.S. port of destination (termination) of the flight within 48 hours after the arrival of the aircraft at that port. If the port of destination is not a U.S. Customs port of entry, the executed flight verification card, in duplicate, shall be filed within 48 hours with the district director at the Customs port of entry nearest the U.S. port of destination.

(f) Within 60 days after the date of mailing or personal delivery to a withdrawer of two copies of the consolidated report of all withdrawals under a given warehouse entry, the withdrawer shall sign the Certificate of Use on one copy of the report, return it to the district director together with a satisfactory documented reconciliation of all discrepancies, and file a duty-paid withdrawal for any of the fuel not properly accounted for. The other copy of the consolidated report shall be retained by the withdrawer. A Customs Form 7309 is not required with a duty-paid withdrawal, Customs Form 7505, filed in connection with the reconciliation. Oil import licenses shall be charged when appropriate.

(g) The certificate of use shall read as follows:

(a) In connection with the entry of purebred animals for breeding purposes under item 100.01, Tariff Schedules of the United States,[64] a declaration shall be filed showing that the importer is a citizen of the United States and that the animals are imported specially for breeding purposes.[65] If the declaration can be executed by the importer at the time of entry, the declaration shall be included and subscribed to on the face of the entry document in the following form: [Abs. 40845, CD 245. TDs 31147, 32776, 44754, 53336, 55978, 68-154.]

I ——————————— declare that I am a citizen of the United States; that the animals described on entry No. ——— entered at the port of ——————— on ————————are imported by me specially for breeding purposes; and that they are the same animals described on the certificate or certificates of pedigree presented to cover this importation.

Dated ——————————

Signed ——————————

(b) No claim for free entry shall be allowed in liquidation of the entry until the district director has received from the Department of Agriculture a certificate that the animal is purebred of a recognized breed and duly registered in a book of record recognized by the Secretary of Agriculture for that breed. Importers are required by regulation of the Department of Agriculture to make application for a certificate of pure breeding to the U.S. Department of Agriculture, Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service, Veterinary Services, on ANH Form 17-338 before the animal will be examined as required by 9 CFR 151.7. Application for the certificate must be executed by the owner agent, or importer and filed at a port of entry designated in the regulations of the Department of Agriculture for the importation of animals (9 CFR 92.3). However, applications for certificates for dogs (other than dogs for handling livestock regulated under 9 CFR 92.18) and cats may be filed either at a designated port of entry or at any other port where Customs entry is made. The regulations of the Department of Agriculture prescribing the requirements for the issuance of certificates of pure breeding provide that all animals imported under such regulations must be accompanied to the port at which examination is to be made by certificates of pedigree and transfer of ownership in order that identification may be accomplished, and that, if such animals are moved from such port prior to the presentation of such certificates and transfers, such action shall constitute a waiver of any further claim to certification under such regulations. [TDs 53336, 55681, 78-99.]

(c) In the cases of cats and dogs arriving at Canadian border ports, Customs officers and employees are hereby authorized and directed to make the examination required by such regulations of the Department of Agriculture. Customs officers and employees are also authorized and directed to make such examinations at the ports of New York and Boston, provided the dog or cat is brought into the United States by a passenger. At all airports, Customs officers shall make the examination of dogs and cats, whether or not accompanied by the owners, if there is no inspector of the Department of Agriculture stationed there or on duty at the time of arrival. (Sec. 486, 46 Stat. 725, as amended, sec. 101, 76 Stat. 72; 19 U.S.C. 1486; item 100.01, Tariff Schedules of the United States) [TDs 54120, 55681.]

(a) The animal may be released from Customs custody upon the furnishing by the importer of a bond on Customs Form 7551 or 7553 for the production within 6 months of (1) a certificate of pure breeding issued by the Department of Agriculture, and (2) the declaration required by § 10.70(a) submitted in letter form if such declaration was not filed at the time of entry. The release of the animal from customs custody requires the presentation of the pedigree certificate and evidence of transfer of ownership in accordance with the regulations of the Department of Agriculture mentioned in § 10.70(b). [TDs 31147, 31518, 36468, 38011, 44754, 49882, 52111, 53336, 68-154.]

(b) Such bond shall be canceled only upon the production of the required evidence or on payment of duties.

(c) In cases where the pedigree certificate and evidence of transfer of ownership have been presented in accordance with the regulations of the Department of Agriculture, the importer, if he so elects, may, in lieu of giving a bond, deposit estimated duties and file a stipulation with the district director within 10 days after the date of entry to produce the declaration and certificate of pure breeding within 6 months from the date of entry, whereupon the liquidation of the entry shall be suspended. (See § 113.42 of this chapter.) [TDs 53336, 74-227.]

(d) If the pedigree certificate and evidence of transfer of ownership were not presented in accordance with such regulations of the Department of Agriculture, a deposit of estimated duties, in addition to the regular entry bond, shall be required.

[64] "Animals (except black, silver, or platinum foxes, and any fox which is a mutation, or type developed therefrom), certified to the collector of customs by the Department of Agriculture as being purebred of a recognized breed and duly registered in a book of record recognized by the Secretary of Agriculture for that breed, imported by a citizen or agency of the United States specially for breeding purposes, whether intended to be used by the importer himself or for sale for such purposes * * *." (Item 100.01, Tariff Schedules of the United States.)

[65] The fact that such animals may be used incidentally for driving or working purposes will not exclude them from free entry if they are imported primarily for breeding purposes.

(e) When a passenger arriving in the United States with one or more dogs or cats and with the required certificates of pedigree and transfers of ownership in his possession furnishes a properly executed declaration as required by § 10.70(a) along with an application to the Department of Agriculture on ANH Form 17-338 for a certificate of pure breeding, the entry of the animal(s) as duty-free under item 100.01, Tariff Schedules of the United States, may be made on the passenger's baggage declaration if the value of the animals does not exceed $500. In such case the entry shall be supported by a bond on Customs Form 7551 or 7553 for the production within 6 months of a certificate of pure breeding. The bond shall be without surety or cash deposit unless the district director of Customs on the basis of information before him finds that a bond with surety or a cash deposit is necessary to protect the revenue. [TD 68-79, 68-154, 78-99.]

(f) Under conditions corresponding to those set forth in paragraph (e) of this section, dogs and cats having a value or not to exceed $250 that arrive unaccompanied by the importer may be entered on an informal entry (Customs Form 5119-A) under item 100.01, Tariff Schedules of the United States, without a deposit of estimated duty when supported by a bond on Customs Form 7551 or 7553 which may be without surety or cash deposit to the same extent and under the same conditions as provided in paragraph (e) of this section. The declaration required by § 10.70(a) shall be submitted in letter form. (Sec. 486, 46 Stat. 725, as amended, sec. 101, 76 Stat. 72; 19 U.S.C. 1486; item 100.01, Tariff Schedules of the United States) [TD 68-79, 68-154, 78-99.]

§ 10.72 Horses and mules for immediate slaughter.

Horses or mules claimed to be entitled to free entry under item 100.70, Tariff Schedules of the United States,[66] shall be admitted free of duty upon the submission of a declaration in connection with the entry stating that the animals are being imported solely for slaughter, provided the district director is satisfied from an examination of the animals and such other investigation as he deems necessary that no other use is intended. [TDs 53268, 55978.]

§ 10.73 Cows for dairy purposes.

Claim for the reduced rate of duty on cows for dairy purposes under item 100.50, Tariff Schedules of the United States,[67] shall be made at the time of entry. There shall be filed in connection with the entry a certificate of the ultimate consignee that the animals were imported in good faith for dairy purposes and that they have actually been delivered to a dairy, farm, or other place suitable for dairy operations, the address of which shall be stated. Salt For Curing Fish

§ 10.80 Remission of duty; withdrawal; bond.

Pursuant to section 313(e), Tariff Act of 1930[74] imported salt entered for warehouse may be withdrawn under bond for use in curing fish. Upon proof that the salt has been so used, the duties thereon shall be remitted. In no case shall the quantity of salt withdrawn exceed the reasonable requirements of the case. Withdrawal shall be made on Customs Form 7506. Each withdrawal shall contain the statement prescribed for withdrawals in § 144.32 of this chapter. When the withdrawal is made by a person other than the importer of record, a bond on Customs Form 7561 or other appropriate form for the production of proof of proper use shall be filed. Upon acceptance of the bond, a withdrawal permit shall be issued on Customs Form 7506. [TDs 39304, 53399, 53792, 73-175.]

§ 10.81 Use in any district.

(a) Salt withdrawn under bond for use in curing fish on the shores of navigable waters may be used for such purpose in any district, but the evidence of use in such cases shall be submitted through the district director for the district where the salt was used. [TD 53268.]

(b) If desired, salt to be used in curing fish on shore in another district than that in which it is warehoused in bond may be withdrawn under a transportation entry and shipped in bond to a port in the district in which it is to be used, at which port it may be entered on Customs Form 7519 with Customs Form 7506 attached to show withdrawal of the salt for use in curing fish. Thereupon, and upon the filing of a bond on Customs Form 7561 or other appropriate form when necessary, such salt may be used without being sent to a bonded warehouse or public store. In such a case the proof of use shall be filed at the latter port. (Sec. 313 (e), (1), 46 Stat. 694, as amended; 19 U.S.C. 1313 (e), (i))

§ 10.82 Proof of use.

(a) Proof that the salt withdrawn for use in curing fish has been so used shall be as follows: [TD 53268.]

(1) A certificate of the person making the withdrawal that the salt has been actually used in curing fish taken by vessels of the United States licensed to engage in the fisheries or in curing fish on the shores of navigable waters of the United States, giving the names of the vessels, tonnage, names of masters, the approximate quantity of fish cured thereby, and the locality in the district where cured if cured on shore; [TD 66-93.]

(2) A certificate of the master and of at least one other person employed on board any vessel during any voyage on which it is claimed that any part of the salt so withdrawn for curing fish was used, that the salt delivered to the vessel by the person making the withdrawal was actually used in curing fish taken by such vessel; and [TD 66-93.]

(3) The certificates of at least two persons actually employed in curing fish on shore (if two or more were so employed) if any part of such salt was so used, stating the quantity of salt used in curing fish on shore and where cured, that it was used in curing fish taken by American fishermen, and the approximate quantity of fish cured. [TD 66-93.]

---

[74] "Imported salt in bond may be used in curing fish taken by vessels licensed to engage in the fisheries, and in curing fish on the shores of the navigable waters of the United States, whether such fish are taken by licensed or unlicensed vessels, and upon proof that the salt has been used for either of such purposes, the duties on the same shall be remitted." (b) If the person making the withdrawal is actually employed in curing the fish on shore, a certificate of one other person so employed will be sufficient. (Sec. 313, 46 Stat. 694; 19 U.S.C. 1313) [TD 66-93.]

§ 10.83 Bond; cancellation; extension.

(a) The proofs required by § 10.82 shall be presented to the district director holding the bond before the first day of January next after the date of withdrawal, and if it shall appear to his satisfaction that the entire quantity of salt covered by the bond has been duly accounted for, either by having been used in curing fish or by the payment of duty, the district director may cancel the bond, but in his discretion he may first require additional evidence in corroboration of the proof produced.

(b) On application of the person making the withdrawal, the period of the bond may be extended 1 year so as to allow the salt to be used during the time of extension in curing fish with the same privileges as if used during the original period. (Sec. 313 (e), (i), 46 Stat. 694, as amended; 19 U.S.C. 1313 (e), (i))

Automotive Products

§ 10.84 Automotive vehicles and articles for use as original equipment in the manufacture of automotive vehicles.

(a) When total exemption from duty on automotive products is claimed on the ground that an importation consists of "Canadian articles" as defined in General Headnote 3 (d), Tariff Schedules of the United States, this fact must be established to the satisfaction of the chief Customs officer at the port of entry. Such Customs officer may accept as satisfactory evidence that an article is a "Canadian article" a certificate executed by the exporter in the approximate form specified in paragraph (b) of this section, subject to any verification he may deem necessary, or he may satisfy himself of such fact by other means if, taking into consideration the kind and value of the goods and the circumstances of importation, he deems a certificate unnecessary. [TD 56529.]

(b)(1) When no material which is not the growth, product, or manufacture of Canada or of the United States was used at any stage in the production of the imported article, a certificate in the following form may be accepted as evidence that the commodity is a "Canadian article":

> The product covered by the ————————(Describe the invoice, bill of lading, or other document or statement identifying the shipment) annexed or appended to this certificate of Canadian origin at the time it was subscribed is the growth, product, or manufacture of Canada. No foreign materials (other than those which are the growth, product, or manufacture of the United States) were used at any stage in the production of this product, i.e., either in its immediate production or in the production of any intermediate product used at any stage in the chain of production in Canada which resulted in this product.

(2) When any material which is not the growth, product, or manufacture of Canada or of the United States was used at any stage in the manufacture of the imported article, a certificate in the following form may be accepted as evidence that the commodity is nevertheless a "Canadian article":

The product covered by the ———————(Describe the invoice, bill of lading, or other document or statement identifying the shipment) annexed or appended to this certificate of Canadian origin at the time it was subscribed is the product of Canada. There were used in its production in Canada

(Number of units and description) of foreign materials (other than those which are the growth, product, or manufacture of the United States) having an actual purchase price (or, if not purchased, an export value) of —— ———————————— per unit of quantity plus, if not included in such unit values, ——————————, the cost per unit of bringing such foreign materials to Canada.

(3) If such Customs officer is satisfied that the revenue will be protected adequately thereby, he may accept in lieu of the certificate specified in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph a certificate in the following form when the merchandise covered thereby does not contain foreign materials (other than those which are the growth, product, and manufacture of the United States) in excess of 50 percent of the final appraised value in the United States:

> The product covered by the ———— (Describe above the invoice, bill of lading, or other document or statement identifying the shipment) annexed or appended to this certificate of Canadian origin at the time it was subscribed is the product of Canada. There were or may have been used in its production in Canada foreign materials (other than those which are of the growth, product, and manufacture of the United States).
> It is impracticable to ascertain the exact number of units of foreign material, if any, used in its production or the purchase price and cost of transportation to Canada of such material, but to the best of (my) (our) (its) knowledge and belief the purchase price and cost of transportation to Canada of such foreign materials as were or may have been used would not exceed 50 per centum of the final appraised value in the United States determined in accordance with section 402 or 402a, Tariff Act of 1930, as applicable, of the product brought into the United States covered by this certificate.

(4) The certificates described in subparagraphs (2) and (3) of this paragraph shall not, of course, be accepted if the statements therein contained on their face make it evident that the importation is not a "Canadian article" within the meaning of General Headnote 3(d), Tariff Schedules of the United States.

(5) If more than one kind of article is covered by a certificate provided for in subparagraph (1), (2), or (3) of this paragraph, the information required by the certificate shall be shown with respect to each kind. When more than one kind of material of other than Canadian or United States origin is used in the production of an article covered by such a certificate, the certificate shall state the number of units, description, and purchase price plus, if not included therein, cost of transportation to Canada, per unit of each such kind of material.

(6) A certificate conforming to subparagraph (1), (2), or (3) of this paragraph shall be accepted as evidence of the facts alleged therein only if (i) there is annexed thereto a copy of the commercial invoice or bill of lading covering the articles or other documentary matter which identifies the articles to which the certificate pertains, (ii) the certificate is signed by the manufacturer or producer of the articles to which it pertains, or by the person who exported the articles from Canada, and (iii) it clearly appears that such copy or other documentary matter was annexed to the certificate when it was signed.

(c) When an importer makes an entry, or withdrawal from warehouse, for consumption of articles for use as "original motor-vehicle equipment" as that term is defined in Schedule 6, Part 6, Subpart B, Headnote 2(a), Tariff Schedules of the United States, he shall file in connection therewith his declaration that the articles are being imported for use as original equipment in the manufacture in the United States of the kinds of motor vehicles specified in the head and furnish the name and address of the motor vehicle manufacturer. A copy of the written order, contract, or letter of intent shall be attached to the importer's declaration except that if the district director of Customs is satisfied that a copy of the written order, contract, or letter of intent will be made available by the importer or ultimate consignee for inspection by Customs officials upon request during a period of 3 years from the date of such entry or withdrawal from warehouse, the production of such documents will not be required. Proof of use need not be furnished. [TDs 67-83, 76-211.]

(d) If, after a Canadian article has been accorded the status of original motor-vehicle equipment, it is decided to divert the article from its intended use in the manufacture in the United States of motor vehicles, the importer or other person deciding to divert the article from such intended use shall give notice in writing of that decision to the district director of Customs of the district where entry was made or where the offices of the importer are located and either make arrangements for its destruction or exportation under Customs supervision or pay duties in accordance with Schedule 6, Part 6, Subpart B, Headnote 2(d)(ii). If such article is not destroyed or exported under Customs supervision or the duties paid, the article, or its value, shall be subject to forfeiture. (77A Stat. 11, as amended, 325, as amended; 19 U.S.C. 1202 (Gen. Hdnte. 3(d), Sch. 6, Pt. 6B, Hdnte. 2)) [TD 67-83.]

The importer (and the manufacturer, if the two are not identical) shall maintain plant and accounting records relating to the master records and metal matrices for 5 years from the date of the related entry of the merchandise. [TDs 53268, 79-159.]

(c) Consumption entries covering importations under item 724.30, Tariff Schedules of the United States, shall be filed at a port in the Customs district in which the factory where the articles will be used is located. [TD 55978.]

(d) There shall be filed in connection with each such entry a declaration of the importer setting forth his name and business address; that he is an exporter of sound records; that the master records or metal matrices are imported for use in the manufacture by or for him of sound records for export purposes; and that sound records produced therefrom will not be used or sold for use in the United States. [TD 53268.]

(Sec. 101, 76 Stat. 72; Sch. 3, pt. 1C, hdnote. 6, Tariff Schedules of the United States) [TDs 53268, 53399, 55565.]

§ 10.95 Records and reports of enumerated articles of wool or hair delivered; transfer certificates.

(a) Each manufacturer, processor, or dealer shall keep records showing the quantity, description, and wool or hair content of all wool or hair (including samples) and enumerated articles delivered from his premises pursuant to transfer under bond, purchase, consignment, or otherwise. Such records shall also show the date of delivery from the premises and the name and address of the transferee, purchaser, consignee, or other person to whom delivery is made. The records shall show also the exact designation under which any wool or hair was transferred, sold, consigned, or otherwise delivered and the price paid or agreed to be paid, or if there has been no sale or contract of sale, the price that the manufacturer, processor, or dealer would have received or was willing to receive for the wool or hair if sold in the ordinary course of trade. The total amounts of the deliveries within the purview of this paragraph, except of enumerated articles, shall be included in the totals shown on the abstract prescribed in § 10.94(c). [TDs 49658, 55565.]

(b) Within 30 days after the delivery of wool or hair from the premises, otherwise than under a transfer certificate provided for in paragraph (d) of this section, the manufacturer, processor, or dealer making such delivery shall file a declaration with the district director in whose district his original bond is filed, showing the quantity and description of merchandise delivered, the date of delivery, and the name and address of the person to whom delivered.

[86] This applies only to materials carried over from a previous period and does not require the keeping of records of materials which are put back into process in the same period in which they resulted.

The declaration shall show the particulars as to price specified in paragraph (a) of this section, whether representative samples have been retained, whether the merchandise resulted in the usual course of manufacture of enumerated articles, and whether such merchandise could have been used (with or without further preparation) in the manufacture of enumerated articles. [TDs 53268, 55565.]

(c) The manufacturer, processor, or dealer shall retain for Customs inspection a representative sample of not less than one pound of each kind of merchandise for which a report is required by § 10.96 (a) or (b). Such sample shall be properly identified in his records with the report covering such merchandise and shall be available for inspection by proper officers of the Government at all reasonable times for a period of 3 months after its delivery. [TD 55565.]

(d) When the ownership of wool or hair is transferred by one bonded manufacturer, processor, or dealer to another manufacturer, processor, or dealer the transfer shall be covered by a transfer certificate on Customs Form 7531-A, revised. When a transferor transfers custody (not ownership) of wool or hair, no transfer certificate is required unless the transferor in writing specifically requests the district director to be relieved of his liability under his bond.[86a] When the transfer is made by a dealer, Customs Form 7531-A shall be supported by copies of processors' invoices or reports (showing processing losses and net returns) for any wool or hair processed outside the custody of the dealer. Such transfer certificates shall be filed by the dealer within 30 days after the date of the transfer. When the transfer is made by a manufacturer or processor, it shall be filed within the quarterly period allowed for the filing of the abstract on which the transfer is required to be reported. When the original bonds of both the transferor and the transferee are on file in the office of one district director, the transfer certificate shall be filed with that officer in duplicate. When the original bond of the transferee is on file in another Customs district, the transfer certificate shall be filed in triplicate. The transferor shall not be relieved from liability under his bond until the transferred wool or hair has been charged against the bond of the transferee. [TDs 50000, 55565.]

(e) The establishments of bonded manufacturers, processors, and dealers, and the originals of all books and records kept by such manufacturers, processors, and dealers relating to bonded wool or hair shall be available at all reasonable times for inspection by proper officers of the Government. [TD 55565.]

(f) All records required to be kept by manufacturers, processors, and dealers relating to bonded wool or hair shall be retained for a period of 3 years after the imported wool or hair has been used in the manufacture of the articles enumerated in item 306.00, Tariff Schedules of the United States. Where the wool or hair has been charged against the bond of a transferee, the records of the transferor shall be retained for a period of 3 years from the date of transfer. (Sec. 101, 76 Stat. 72 Sch. 3, pt. 1C, hdnote. 6, Tariff Schedules of the United States) [TDs 54442, 55565, 55978.]

§ 10.96 Reports of use or transfer for use in violation of bond.

(a) When a bonded manufacturer or processor uses any bonded wool or hair otherwise than in the manufacture of the articles enumerated in item 306.00, Tariff Schedules of the United States, or in preparation for such manufacture, he shall, within 30 days after such use, make a report thereof to the district director in whose district his original bond is filed, showing the quantity and description of the wool or hair so used, the use to which it has been put, the date of such use, whether such wool or hair resulted in the usual course of manufacture of the enumerated articles, and whether it could have been used in the usual course of manufacture of such articles.[87] [TDs 49658, 55978.]

(b) A manufacturer, processor, or dealer shall likewise report to such district director within 30 days any transfer of bonded wool or hair for use otherwise than in the manufacture of the enumerated articles. The report shall show the quantity and description of the wool or hair, the date of transfer, the name and address of the transferee, and, if known, the specific use to which the wool or hair is to be put. Such a report of a manufacturer or processor shall state whether the wool or hair resulted in the usual course of manufacture of the enumerated articles and whether it could have been used in the manufacture of such articles.

(c) Whether merchandise has resulted in the usual course of manufacture shall be determined with respect to the bona fide and normal operations of the plant at which the merchandise resulted. Merchandise resulting in the usual course of manufacturing which cannot be used (with or without further preparation) in the usual course of the manufacture of enumerated articles shall be the quantity of the merchandise resulting in the usual course of manufacture in excess of the quantity thereof which is used in the bona fide and normal operations at the plant at which it resulted. In determining, for the above-mentioned purposes, whether operations are bona fide and normal, consideration may be given to the conditions at the plant and in the industry as a whole. [TD 53268.]

(d) The report required by this section shall be in the following form and shall be filed in triplicate: [TD 56157.]

[87] "* * * every dealer, manufacturer, or processor who has given a bond pursuant to the provisions of item 306.00 shall report any transfer or use of merchandise contrary to the terms of his bond, within 30 days after such transfer or use, to the district director in whose district the bond is filed, and for failure to so report such dealer, manufacturer, or processor shall be liable to a penalty (in addition to the duties provided for) equal to the value of the merchandise so transferred or used at the time and place of such transfer or use; * * *." Visual or Auditory Materials

(a) Where photographic film and other articles described in item 870.30, Tariff Schedules of the United States, are claimed to be free of duty under item 870.30, there shall be filed in connection with the entry covering such articles a document issued by the U.S. Information Agency certifying that it has determined that the articles are visual or auditory materials of an educational, scientific, or cultural character within the meaning of the Agreement for Facilitating the International Circulation of Visual and Auditory Materials of an Educational, Scientific, and Cultural Character as required by headnote 1, part 6, schedule 8, Tariff Schedules of the United States. [TD 67-185.]

(b) Articles entered under item 870.30, Tariff Schedules of the United States, shall be released from Customs custody prior to submission of the document required in paragraph (a) of this section only upon the deposit of estimated duties with the district director of Customs. Liquidation of an entry covering merchandise which has been released under this procedure shall be suspended for a period of 90 days from the date of entry or until the required document is submitted, whichever occurs first. In the event that the district director of Customs at the port of entry does not receive the required document within the 90-day period, the merchandise shall be immediately classified and liquidated in the ordinary course, without regard to item 870.30. (19 U.S.C. 1202 (Gen. Hdnte 11, sch. 8, pt. 6, hdnte 1))

§ 10.131 Circumstances in which applicable.

The provisions of § § 10.131 through 10.139 are applicable in those circumstances in which the rate of duty applicable to merchandise is dependent upon actual use, unless there is a specific provision in this part or Part 54 of this chapter which governs the treatment of the merchandise. However, specific marking or certification requirements, such as those for bolting cloths in section 10.58, may be applicable to merchandise subject to the provisions of sections 10.131-10.139. [TD 71-139.]

Examples of actual use provisions found in the Tariff Schedules of the United States (19 U.S.C. 1202) which will be subject to the provisions of § § 10.131 through 10.139 are:

(a) Rice * * * Patna, cleaned, for use in the manufacture of canned soups (Item 131.37, Tariff Schedules of the United States);

(b) Woven bolting cloths, wholly of silk, imported to be used for milling purposes, and marked so as to be fit for such purposes (Item 357.25, Tariff Schedules of the United States); and

(c) Limestone, crude, broken, or crushed, when imported to be used in the manufacture of fertilizer (Item 480.05, Tariff Schedules of the United States).

§ 10.133 Conditions required to be met.

When the tariff classification of any article is controlled by its actual use in the United States, three conditions must be met in order to qualify for free entry or a lower rate of duty unless the language of the particular item of the Tariff Schedules of the United States applicable to the merchandise specifies other conditions. The conditions are that:

[1] T.D. 71-139, 36 FR 10726, June 2, 1971.

(b) The article is so used.

(c) Proof of use is furnished within 3 years after the date the article is entered or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption. (77A Stat. 14; 19 U.S.C. 1202 (Gen. Hdnte. 10(e)(ii))

§ 10.134 Declaration of intent.

A showing of intent by the importer as to the actual use of imported merchandise shall be made by filing with the entry for consumption or for warehouse a declaration as to the intended use of the merchandise, or by entering the proper item number of an actual use provision of the Tariff Schedules of the United States and the reduced or free rate of duty on the entry form. Entry made under an actual use provision of the Tariff Schedules of the United States may be construed as a declaration that the merchandise is entered to be used for the purpose stated in the schedules, provided the district director is satisfied the merchandise will be so used. However, the district director shall require a written declaration to be filed if he is not satisfied that merchandise entered under an actual use provision will be used for the purposes stated in the schedules.

§ 10.135 Deposit of duties.

When the requirement of § 10.134 has been met the merchandise may be entered or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption without deposit of duty when proof of use will result in free entry, or with deposit of duty at the lower rate when proof of use will result in a lower rate of duty. For bond requirements, see section 8.28 of this chapter.

§ 10.136 Suspension of liquidation.

Liquidation of an entry covering merchandise for which a declaration of intent has been made pursuant to § 10.134 and any required deposit of duties made, shall be suspended until proof of use is furnished or the 3-year period allowed for production thereof has expired.

§ 10.137 Records of use.

(a) Maintenance by importer. The importer shall maintain accurate detailed records showing the use or other disposition of the imported merchandise. The burden shall be on the importer to keep records so that the claim of actual use can be readily established.

(b) Retention of records. The importer shall retain records of use or disposition for a period of 3 years from the date of liquidation of the entry.

(c) Examination of records. The records required to be kept by paragraph (a) shall be available at all times for examination and inspection by an authorized Customs officer.

§ 10.138 Proof of use.

Within 3 years from the date of entry or withdrawal from warehouse for consumption, the importer shall submit in duplicate in support of his claim for free entry or for a reduced rate of duty a certificate executed by (1) the superintendent or manager of the manufacturing plant, or (2) the individual end-user or other person having knowledge of the actual use of the imported article. The certificate shall include a description of the processing in sufficient detail to show that the use contemplated by the law has actually taken place. A blanket certificate covering all purchases of a given type of merchandise from a particular importer during a given period, or all such purchases with specified exceptions, may be accepted for this purpose, provided the importer shall furnish a statement showing in detail, in such manner as to be readily identified with each entry, the merchandise which he sold to such manufacturer or end-user during such period.

§ 10.139 Liquidation.

(a) In general. Upon satisfactory proof of timely use of the merchandise for the purpose specified by law, the entry shall be liquidated free of duty or at the lower rate of duty specified by law. When such proof is not filed within 3 years from the date of entry or withdrawal from warehouse for consumption, the entry shall be liquidated dutiable under the appropriate item of the Tariff Schedules of the United States.

(b) Exception for blackstrap molasses. An entry covering blackstrap molasses, as hereinafter defined, may be accepted and liquidated with duty at the lower rate after the filing of the declaration of intent required by § 10.134 and the deposit of estimated duties required by § 10.135 without compliance with §§ 10.136, 10.137, and 10.128. Blackstrap molasses is "final" molasses practically free from sugar crystals, containing not over 58 percent total sugars and having a ratio of not in excess of 71. In the event of doubt, an ash determination may be made. An ash content of not less than 7 percent indicates a blackstrap molasses within the meaning of this paragraph.

Importations Not Over $5 and Bona Fide Gifts

§ 10.151 Importations not over $5.

Pursuant to section 321(a)(2)(C), Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1321(a)(2)(C)), the district director shall pass free of duty and tax, and without the preparation of an entry, any importation having a fair retail value in the country of shipment not exceeding $5, unless he has reason to believe that the shipment is one of several lots covered by a single order or contract and that it was sent separately for the express purpose of securing free entry therefor or of avoiding compliance with any pertinent law or regulation. (Sec. 7, 52 Stat. 1081, as amended, sec. 498, 46 Stat. 728, as amended; 19 U.S.C. 1321, 1498) [TDs 73-175, 75-185, 78-394]

§ 10.152 Bona fide gifts.

Pursuant to section 321(a)(2)(A), Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1321(a)(2)(A)), the district director shall pass free of duty and tax, and without the preparation of an entry, any article sent as a bona-fide gift from a person in a foreign country to a person in the United States, provided the aggregate fair retail value in the country of shipment of such articles received by one person on 1 day does not exceed $25 or, in the case of articles sent from a person in the Virgin Islands, Guam, and American Samoa, $40. An article is "sent" for purposes of this paragraph if it is conveyed in any manner other than on the person or in the accompanied or unaccompanied baggage of the donor or donee. (Sec. 7, 52 Stat. 1081, as amended, sec. 498, 46 Stat. 728, as amended; 19 U.S.C. 1321, 1498) [TDs 73-175, 75-185, 78-394]

§ 10.153 Conditions for exemption.

Customs officers shall be further guided as follows in determining whether an article or parcel shall be exempted from duty and tax under § 10.151 or § 10.152: [TD 73-175.]

(a) A "bona fide gift" for purposes of § 10.152 is an article formerly owned by a donor (may be a commercial firm) who gave it outright in its entirety to a donee without compensation or promise of compensation. It does not include articles acquired by purchase, barter, promissory exchange, or similar transaction, nor does it include articles said to be "given" in conjunction with a purchase, barter, promissory exchange, or similar transaction, such as a so-called bonus article.

(b) A parcel addressed to a person in the United States from an individual in a foreign country which contains a gift should be clearly marked on the outside to indicate that it contains a gift. Such marking is not conclusive evidence of a gift nor is the absence of such marking conclusive evidence that an article is not a gift. Ordinarily an article not exceeding $25 in fair retail value in the country of shipment sent from a person in a foreign country to a person in the United States ($40, in the case of an article sent from a person in the Virgin Islands, Guam, and American Samoa) will be recognizable as a gift from the nature of the article and obvious facts surrounding the shipment. [TD 75-185, 78-394]

(c) A parcel addressed to a person in the United States from a business firm in a foreign country would ordinarily not contain a gift from a donor in the foreign country. When such a parcel in fact contains an article entitled to free entry under section 10.152, the parcel should be clearly marked to indicate that it contains such a gift and a statement to this effect should be enclosed in the parcel.

(d) Consolidated shipments addressed to one consignee shall be treated for purposes of §§ 10.151 and 10.152 as one importation. The foregoing shall not apply to shipments of bona fide gifts consolidated abroad for shipment to the United States when:

(1) The consolidation for shipment to the United States is in a cargo van or similar containerization which is consigned to a common carrier, freight forwarder, freight handler, or other public service agency for distribution of the gift packages;

(2) The separate gifts not exceeding $25 in fair retail value in the country of shipment ($40, in the case of articles sent from persons in the Virgin Islands, Guam, and American Samoa) included in the consolidated shipment are before shipment individually wrapped and addressed to the donee in the United States; [TD 75-185, 78-394]

(3) Each gift package is marked on the outside to indicate that it contains a gift not exceeding $25 in fair retail value in the country of shipment ($40, in the case of packages sent from persons in the Virgin Islands, Guam, and American Samoa); and [TD 75-185, 78-394]

(4) Each gift package is separately listed in the name of the addressee-donee on a packing list, manifest, bill of lading, or other shipping document.

(e) No alcoholic beverage, perfume containing alcohol (except where the aggregate fair retail value in the country of shipment of all merchandise contained in the shipment does not exceed $5), cigars, or cigarettes shall be exempted from the payment of duty and tax under § 10.151 or § 10.152. [TD 78-394]

(f) The exemptions provided for in § 10.151 or § 10.152 are not to be allowed in respect of any shipment containing one or more gifts having an aggregate fair retail value in the country of shipment in excess of $25 ($40, in the case of articles sent from persons in the Virgin Islands, Guam, and American Samoa), except as indicated in paragraph (d) of this section. For example, an article ordinarily subject to an ad valorem rate of duty but sent as a gift, if the fair retail value exceeds the $25 (or $40) exemption, would be subject to a duty based upon its value under the provisions of section 402 or 402(a), Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1401a or 1402), even though the dutiable value is less than the $25 (or $40) exemption. [TD 78-394]

(g) The exemption referred to in § 10.151 is not to be allowed in the case of any merchandise of a class or kind provided for in any absolute or tariff-rate quota, whether the quota is open or closed. In the case of merchandise of a class or kind provided for in a tariff-rate quota, the merchandise is subject to the rate of duty in effect on the date of entry. (R.S. 251, as amended, secs. 498, 624, 46 Stat. 728, as amended, 759, sec. 7, 52 Stat. 1081, as amended (19 U.S.C. 66, 1321, 1498, 1624))

Generalized System of Preferences

(a) Statutory authority. Title V of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended (19 U.S.C. 2461-2465) authorizes the President to establish a Generalized System of Preferences (GSP) to provide duty-free treatment for eligible articles imported directly from designated beneficiary developing countries. Beneficiary developing countries and articles eligible for duty-free treatment are designated by the President by Executive order in accordance with sections 502(a)(1) and 503(a) of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended (19 U.S.C. 2462(a)(1), 2463(a)). [TD 76-2, 80-271.]

(b) Country defined. For purposes of §§ 10.171 through 10.178, except as otherwise provided in § 10.176(a), the term "country" means any foreign country, any overseas dependent territory or possession of a foreign country, or the Trust Territory of the Pacific Islands. In the case of an association of countries which is a free trade area or customs union, or which is contributing to comprehensive regional economic integration among its members through appropriate means, including but not limited to, the reduction of duties the President may by Executive order provide that all members of such association other than members which are barred from designation under section 502(b) of the Trade Act of 1974 (19 U.S.C. 2462(b)) shall be treated as one country for purposes of §§ 10.171 through 10.178. (R.S. 251, as amended, sec. 624, 46 Stat. 759, sec. 503(b), 88 Stat. 2069 (19 U.S.C. 66, 1624, 2463(b))) [TD 80-271.]

A claim for an exemption from duty on the ground that the Generalized System of Preferences applies shall be allowed by the appropriate district director only if he is satisfied that the requirements set forth in this section and sections 10.173 through 10.178 have been met. If duty-free treatment is claimed at the time of entry, a written claim shall be filed on the entry document by placing the symbol "A" as a prefix to the Tariff Schedules of the United States Annotated item number for each article for which such treatment is claimed. If duty-free treatment is claimed subsequent to the time of entry in accordance with § 10.112, the filing of the Certificate of Origin, or a duplicate thereof as described in § 10.173(a)(2), shall constitute the written claim. (R.S. 251, as amended, sec. 624, 46 Stat. 759, sec. 503(b), 88 Stat. 2069 (19 U.S.C. 66, 1624, 2463(b))) [TDs 76-2, 77-36.]

(a) Shipments valued in excess of $250—(1) Certificate of Origin. Except as provided in paragraph (a)(5) of this section, the importer or consignee of a shipment of eligible merchandise valued in excess of $250 shall file with the district director in connection with the entry the Generalized System of Preferences Certificate of Origin Form A, as evidence of the country of origin. Form A shall be signed by the exporter of the merchandise in the country from which it is directly imported, certified by the designated governmental authority in that country, and properly completed. [TDs 76-2, 77-36.]

(2) Duplicate Certificate of Origin. In the event of the loss, theft, or destruction of a Certificate of Origin, the district director will accept in connection with the entry a duplicate Certificate of Origin issued by the appropriate governmental body in the country of origin and endorsed with the word "duplicate" in box 4. The duplicate shall bear the date of issue of the original Certificate of Origin and will be effective from that date. [TD 77-36.]

(3) Release under bond. If the required Certificate of Origin properly completed, or a duplicate thereof as described in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, is not produced at the time of entry, the entry shall be accepted, subject to compliance with the requirements set forth in § 10.172 and §§ 10.174 through 10.178, only if the importer or consignee gives a bond on Customs Form 7551, 7553, or 7595 for the production of the Certificate of Origin. The bond shall be in the amount required under § 113.14 of this chapter. Within 60 days after such entry, or such additional period as the district director may allow for good cause shown, the importer or consignee shall deliver to the district director the Certificate of Origin. If the Certificate of Origin is not delivered to the district director within 60 days of the date of entry or such additional period as the district director, for good cause, may allow, the district director shall treat the entry as dutiable and may cancel the bond or the charge against the bond, as appropriate, in accordance with § 172.22(c) of this chapter. [TD 77-27.]

(4) Verification of evidence. Evidence of the country of origin required under this paragraph shall be subject to such verification as the district director deems necessary.

(5) Waiver of Certificate of Origin. (i) The district director may waive production of a Certificate of Origin only in the case of articles for personal or household use which are not intended for resale or brought in for the account of others, when he is otherwise satisfied that the merchandise qualifies for duty-free entry under the Generalized System of Preferences.

(ii) Until March 31, 1976, the district director may waive production of a Certificate of Origin when he is otherwise satisfied that the merchandise qualifies for duty-free entry under the Generalized System of Preferences.

(b) Shipments valued at $250 or less. Although the filing of a Certificate of Origin, is not required for shipments valued at $250 or less, the district director may require such other evidence of the country of origin as he deems necessary. (R.S. 251, as amended, sec. 624, 46 Stat. 759, sec. 503(b), 88 Stat. 2069 (19 U.S.C. 66, 1624, 2463(b)))

§ 10.174 Evidence of direct shipment.

(a) Documents constituting evidence of direct shipment. The district director may require that appropriate shipping papers, invoices, or other documents be submitted within 60 days of the date of entry as evidence that the articles were "imported directly", as that term is defined in section 10.175. Any evidence of direct shipment required by the district director shall be subject to such verification as he deems necessary. [TD 76-2.]

(b) Waiver of evidence of direct shipment. The district director may waive the submission of evidence of direct shipment when he is otherwise satisfied, taking into consideration the kind and value of the merchandise, that the merchandise clearly qualifies for treatment under the Generalized System of Preferences. (R.S. 251, as amended, sec. 624, 46 Stat. 759, sec. 503(b), 88 Stat. 2069 (19 U.S.C. 66, 1624, 2463(b)))

§ 10.175 Imported directly defined.

Eligible articles shall be imported directly from a beneficiary developing country to qualify for treatment under the Generalized System of Preferences. For purposes of §§ 10.171 through 10.178 the words "imported directly" mean: [TD 76-2.]

(a) Direct shipment from the beneficiary country to the United States without passing through the territory of any other country; or

(b) Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section, if shipped from a beneficiary developing country to the United States through the territory of any other country, the merchandise shall not have entered into the commerce of any other country while en route to the United States, and the invoices, bills of landing and other documents connected with the shipment shall show the United States as the final destination; or

(c) If shipped from the beneficiary developing country to the United States through a free trade zone in a beneficiary developing country, the merchandise shall not enter into the commerce of the country maintaining the free trade zone, and

(1) The eligible articles must not undergo operation other than:

(i) Sorting, grading, or testing,

(ii) Packing, unpacking, changes of packing, decanting or repacking into other containers,

(iii) Affixing marks, labels, or other like distinguishing signs on articles or their packing, if incidental to operations allowed under this section, or

(iv) Operations necessary to ensure the preservation of merchandise in its condition as introduced into the free trade zone.

(2) Merchandise may be purchased and resold, other than at retail, for export within the free trade zone.

(3) The Certificate of Origin issued by the designated beneficiary developing country of origin shall state in column 12, that the eligible articles comply with the origin requirements for goods exported to the United States under the Generalized System of Preferences. Column 2 of the Certificate of Origin shall include the name of the consignee in the United States or in the free trade zone.

(4) The certifying authority in the designated beneficiary developing country maintaining the free trade zone shall issue a Certificate of Origin Form A, declaring what operations were performed within the free trade zone. The original Certificate of Origin issued in the beneficiary developing country of origin shall be retained by the designated authority in the country maintaining the free trade zone and a copy thereof shall be furnished to the United States importer.

(5) For the purposes of this section, a free trade zone is a predetermined area or region declared and secured by or under governmental authority, where certain operations may be performed with respect to articles, without such articles having entered into the commerce of the country maintaining the free trade zone. (R.S. 251, as amended, sec. 624, 46 Stat. 759, sec. 503(b), 88 Stat. 2069 (19 U.S.C. 66, 1624, 2463(b)))

§ 10.176 Country of origin criteria.

(a) Merchandise produced in a beneficiary developing country or any two or more countries which are members of the same association of countries. Merchandise which is (1) the growth, product, manufacture, or assembly of (i) a beneficiary developing country or (ii) any two or more countries which are members of the same association of countries and (2) imported directly from such beneficiary developing country or member countries, may qualify for duty-free entry under the Generalized System of Preferences ("GSP"). However, duty free entry under GSP may be accorded only if (i) the sum of the cost or value of the materials produced in the beneficiary developing country or any two or more countries which are members of the same association of countries which is treated as one country under section 502(a)(3), Trade Act of 1974, as amended (19 U.S.C. 2462(a)(3)), plus (ii) the direct costs of processing operations performed in such beneficiary developing country or member countries, is not less than 35 percent of the appraised value of the article at the time of its entry into the customs territory of the United States. [TD 76-2, 80-271.]

(b) [Reserved]

(c) Merchandise grown, produced, or manufactured in a beneficiary developing country. Merchandise which is wholly the growth, product, or manufacture of a beneficiary developing country, or an association of countries treated as one country under section 502(a)(3) of the Trade Act of 1974, as amended (19 U.S.C. 2462(a)(3)) and § 10.171(b), and manufactured products consisting of materials produced only in such country or countries, shall normally be presumed to meet the requirements set forth in this section. (R.S. 251, as amended, sec. 624, 46 Stat. 759, sec. 503(b), 88 Stat. 2069 (19 U.S.C. 66, 1624, 2463(b))) [TD 80-271.]

§ 10.177 Cost or value of materials produced in the beneficiary developing country.

(a) "Produced in the beneficiary developing country" defined. For purposes of § § 10.171 through 10.178, the words produced in the beneficiary developing "country" refer to the constituent materials of which the eligible article is composed which are either: [TDs 76-2, 76-100.]

(1) Wholly the growth, product, or manufacture of the beneficiary developing country; or

(2) Substantially transformed in the beneficiary developing country into a new and different article of commerce.

(b) Questionable origin. When the origin of an article either is not ascertainable or not satisfactorily demonstrated to the appropriate district director, the article shall not be considered to have been produced in the beneficiary developing country.

(c) Determination of cost or value of materials produced in the beneficiary developing country.

(1) The cost or value of materials produced in the beneficiary developing country includes:

(i) The manufacturer's actual cost for the materials;

(ii) When not included in the manufacturer's actual cost for the materials, the freight, insurance, packing, and all other costs incurred in transporting the materials to the manufacturer's plant;

(iii) The actual cost of waste or spoilage (material list), less the value of recoverable scrap; and

(iv) Taxes and/or duties imposed on the materials by the beneficiary developing country, or an association of countries treated as one country, provided they are not remitted upon exportation.

(2) Where the material is provided to the manufacturer without charge, or at less than fair market value, its cost or value shall be determined by computing the sum of:

(i) All expenses incurred in the growth, production, manufacture or assembly of the material, including general expenses;

(ii) An amount for profit; and

(iii) Freight, insurance, packing, and all other costs incurred in transporting the materials to the manufacturer's plant.

If the pertinent information needed to compute the cost or value of the materials is not available, the appraising officer may ascertain or estimate the value thereof using all reasonable ways and means at his disposal. (R.S. 251, as amended, sec. 624, 46 Stat. 759, sec. 503(b), 88 Stat. 2069 (19 U.S.C. 66, 1624, 2463(b)))

§ 10.178 Direct costs of processing operations performed in the beneficiary developing country.

(a) Items included in the direct costs of processing operations. As used in § 10.176, the words "direct costs of processing operations" means those costs either directly incurred in, or which can be reasonably allocated to, the growth, production, manufacture, or assembly of the specific merchandise under consideration. Such costs include, but are not limited to: [TD 76-2.]

(2) Dies, molds, tooling, and depreciation on machinery and equipment which are allocable to the specific merchandise;

(3) Research, development, design, engineering, and blueprint costs insofar as they are allocable to the specific merchandise; and

(4) Costs of inspecting and testing the specific merchandise.

(b) Items not included in the direct costs of processing operations. Those items which are not included within the meaning of the words "direct costs of processing operations" are those which are not directly attributable to the merchandise under consideration or are not "costs" of manufacturing the product. These include, but are not limited to:

(1) Profit; and

(2) General expenses of doing business which are either not allocable to the specific merchandise or are not related to the growth, production, manufacture, or assembly of the merchandise, such as administrative salaries, casualty and liability insurance, advertising, and salesmen's salaries, commissions, or expenses. Canadian Crude Petroleum

§ 10.179 Canadian crude petroleum subject to a commercial exchange agreement between United States and Canadian refiners.

(a) Crude petroleum (as defined in Schedule 4, Part 10, Headnote 4(a), Tariff Schedules of the United States (19 U.S.C. 1202)) produced in Canada may be admitted free of duty if the entry is accompanied by a certificate from the importer establishing that:

(2) The petroleum is imported pursuant to an import license issued by the Secretary of Energy;

(3) An equivalent amount of domestic or duty-paid foreign crude petroleum on which the importer has executed a written waiver of drawback, has been exported to Canada pursuant to the export license and previously has not been used to effect the duty-free entry of like Canadian products; and,

(2) Articles entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption, pursuant to commercial exchange agreement.

(c) Verification of the quantities of crude petroleum exported to or imported from Canada under such a commercial exchange agreement shall be made in accordance with import verfication provided in Part 151, Subpart C, Customs Regulations (19 CFR Part 151, Subpart C). [TD 81-292.]

If any such prohibited specimen is imported, or if any specie or subspecie of other live or dead fish or wildlife, including any parts, products, or eggs thereof, appearing on the Endangered Species List published by the Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife, is imported, Customs release of the prohibited specimen or endangered fish or wildlife shall be refused unless there has been issued and presented in connection with entry a proper Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife permit authorizing the import transaction. In the absence of such permit, injurious specimens prohibited entry shall be required to be immediately exported or destroyed. Changes in injurious species and endangered species or subspecies which are prohibited or restricted importation may be published from time to time in 50 CFR Part 13—Importation of Wildlife or Eggs Thereof or in Part 17—Conservation of Endangered Species and Other Fish or Wildlife. Unreleased species or subspecies of live or dead endangered fish or wildlife, including parts, products, or eggs thereof, shall remain under detention subject to seizure and delivery to an appropriate regional director or other agent of the Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife for disposition as appropriate pursuant to 50 CFR Part 17. [TDs 46255, 48173, 52469, 53102, 53866, 66-68, 68-173, 70-15, 70-242.]

(i) Salmon landed in North America and brought into the United States for processing or sale;

(ii) Any salmonid caught in the wild in North America under a sport or a commercial fishing license; and [11] See Appendix XII, Customs Regulations of 1943, and BAI orders published from time to time in the weekly Treasury Decisions.

(3) Regulations (50 CFR Part 17) require the importer or his agent to file a Declaration for the Importation of Fish or Wildlife, unless it is an import transaction exempted from the requirement by 50 CFR Part 13 or Part 17. Such declaration on Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife Form 3-177, available to importers through Customs ports of entry, shall be filed with the appropriate Customs officer at the port of entry conducting the actual Customs clearance and release of the declared fish, wild mammal, or bird, amphibian, reptile, mollusk, crustacean, or dead body or egg thereof. The declaration on Form 3-177 shall show the common and scientific names, number, and country of origin of all species or subspecies declared, designate and identify any species listed on the U.S. List of Endangered Foreign Fish and Wildlife, 50 CFR Part 17, Appendix A, and indicate whether any species is subject to laws and regulations in any foreign country regarding its taking, transportation, or sale. See paragraph (g) of this section for special documentation requirements. [TDs 66-68, 68-173, 70-242, 72-129.]

(4) Federal agencies, subject to requirements in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, may import solely for their own use live wildlife except migratory birds, or their eggs, without a permit from the Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife, upon filing the declaration on Form 3-177. Importation of bald or golden eagles, or their eggs is prohibited. [TD 68-173.]

(5) Customs entry for consumption or bonded warehousing of fish and wildlife, as defined in 50 CFR 17.2 (e) and (f), intended for importation into the United States, or admission into a foreign trade zone, shall be filed at a port of entry among those designated for Customs entry in 50 CFR Part 17, Appendix B. However, Customs entry for consumption or bonded warehousing of shipments subject to emergency diversion or otherwise authorized under regulations or by permit issued by the Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife pursuant to 50 CFR Part 17, Appendices B and C, may be filed for examination and release at the ports of entry so named or permitted, but no consumption or bonded warehouse entry shall be filed or accepted at an undesignated port for any endangered specie or subspecie permitted importation pursuant to 50 CFR 17.12 except in the case of an emergency diversion of live endangered fish or wildlife accepted for such entry in accordance with item 2(b) of 50 CFR Part 17, Appendix B. Importations of fish and wildlife subject to regulations of the Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife which arrive from abroad at any place in the United States not designated as an authorized port for Customs entry, unless occurring under conditions or circumstances in which Customs entry for consumption or bonded warehousing and final clearance has been authorized by Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife regulations or permit, may be entered only for immediate transportation without appraisement for movement under Customs bond to one of the designated ports of entry. Customs entry, release, and delivery of any shipment of shellfish and fishery products defined in 50 CFR 17.2(j) imported for commercial purposes is authorized at any port of entry, except insofar as such items include any species or subspecies which appears on the Endangered Species List in 50 CFR Part 17, Appendix A. [TD 70-242.]

(b) Permits are required for the importation of wild animals and birds as follows: [TD 66-68.]

(1) Wild birds protected by the Migratory Bird Treaty Act (16 U.S.C. 703-711) and the regulations promulgated thereunder (50 CFR Part 10), may be imported from foreign countries for scientific, propagating, or other limited purposes only under permits issued by the Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife, Fish and Wildlife Service, United States Department of the Interior, Washington, D.C., 20240. State game departments, municipal game farms or parks, and public museums, zoological parks or societies, and scientific or educational institutions may import migratory birds without a permit. Such migratory birds, when imported from Mexico, must be accompanied by Mexican export permits (50 CFR 16.3 and 16.5). [TDs 53102, 66-68.]

(2) Game mammals (antelopes, mountain sheep, deer, bears, peccaries, squirrels, rabbits, and hares), protected by the Migratory Bird Treaty Act (16 U.S.C. 703-711), dead or alive, or their parts or products, must be accompanied by Mexican export permits (50 CFR 15.3) when imported from Mexico. [TD 66-68.]

(3) Wild ruminants (all animals which chew the cud, such as cattle, buffaloes, sheep, goats, deer, antelopes, camels, llamas, and giraffes) and swine (various varieties of wild hogs), except from Canada and certain northern States of Mexico may be imported only under a permit from the Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service, Veterinary Services, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. 20250. Such permits must be obtained before the animals are shipped from the country of exportation.[13] All wild ruminants and swine must be inspected at designated ports of entry by veterinarians of the Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service, Veterinary Services, United States Department of Agriculture. [TDs 53102, 53866, 78-99]

(4) Psittacine birds, which include all birds commonly known as parrots, Amazons, African grays, cockatoos, macaws, parrotlets, beebees, parakeets, lovebirds, lories, lorikeets, and all other birds of the order Psittaciformes, when destined for a zoological park or medical research institution without having had prior confinement and treatment abroad at an approved treatment center, and psittacine birds taken out of the United States but inadmissible under paragraph (c) of this section, may be imported when accompanied by a permit issued by the Surgeon General. Application for such a permit may be made to the Chief, Foreign Quarantine Program, National Communicable Disease Center, U.S. Public Health Service, Atlanta, Ga. 30333, or to a Public Health Service quarantine station established at a port of entry in the United States. [TDs 53251, 53336, 53399, 68-165.]

(5) Ducks, geese, swans, turkeys, pigeons, doves, pheasants, grouse, partridges, quail, guinea fowl, and pea fowl, except from Canada, may be imported only under a permit from the Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service, Veterinary Services, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D.C. 20250.[13a] Such permits must be obtained before the birds are shipped from the country of origin. Such birds from Canada must be accompanied by a certificate issued by a Canadian Government veterinarian. All such birds must be inspected at designated ports of entry by veterinarians of the Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service, Veterinary Services, United States Department of Agriculture. [TDs 53102, 63866, 78-99]

(c) Psittacine birds as defined in paragraph (b)(4) of this section, not to exceed two such birds by members of a family comprising a single household in any 12-month period, may be imported under prescribed conditions (see 42 CFR 71.164(e)) without permit and without prior confinement and treatment, to be kept as pets by the owner, who will be required to comply with the Foreign Quarantine Regulations of the U.S. Public Health Service. Birds taken out of the United States and being returned may be admitted, without permit, upon full compliance with prescribed conditions of those regulations for admission of birds imported as pets. No such birds shall be released until the importer has complied with applicable requirements of the Public Health regulations. [TDs 53251, 53336, 68-165.]

(d) Cats, dogs, and monkeys are subject to the Foreign Quarantine Regulations of the United States Public Health Service, Department of Health, Education, and Welfare Washington, D.C.[13b] Such animals shall not be released until the Public Health regulations are complied with by the importer. [TD 53336.]

(e) If a shipment contains migratory birds for which a permit is required by the Fish and Wildlife Service of the Department of the Interior, and such permit is not at hand when the birds arrive, an examination thereof shall be made at once by the examiner and any duties estimated to be due shall be collected. A stipulation shall be filed with the collector within 24 hours of the entry to produce the necessary permit within 30 days from the date of entry, whereupon final liquidation shall be suspended until the permit is produced or the 30-day period expires. Meanwhile, the property may be released to the importer, consignee, or agent for proper care upon the giving of a bond conditioned upon the return of the birds to Customs custody upon demand of the district director at any time. Such bond shall be on Customs Form 7551, 7553, or other appropriate form in an amount equal to the sum of the entered value plus any estimated duties and shall be filed with the collector of customs who, in the case of default, shall take appropirate action to effect the collection of liquidated damages equal to the entered value of the merchandise not returned plus any estimated duty thereon; or if the importer, consignee, or agent shall so elect, the property may be retained in Customs custody at the expense of the importer pending the issuance of the permit.

(f) If the permit referred to in paragraph (e) of this section is refused by the Fish and Wildlife Service, or if the permit is not produced within the said 30 days, the district director shall promptly recall the property, if delivered under bond, and shall require its immediate exportation at the expense of the importer or consignee.

(g) All import shipments of fish and wildlife subject to the regulations or permit requirements of the Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife, published pursuant to the Endangered Species Conservation Act of 1969, 16 U.S.C. 688cc, or other statutory authority, shall be subject to examination or inspection by that agency's officer serving the port of entry, for determination as to permissible release or such other disposition as he may direct. Customs officers performing examinations of such fish and wildlife in accordance with regulations of the Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife in 50 CFR Part 10 and Parts 13-17, shall release shipments only upon submission by the importer of evidence sufficient to establish compliance with those regulations, any applicable permit requirements, and compliance with applicable identification and package or container marking requirements as specified by 50 CFR 17.6(a) and 17.9. In case of doubt as to whether fish, birds, or other wildlife belong to prohibited or endangered species or subspecies or whether an entry permit is required, or in case of suspicion on the part of officers of the Customs that the species sought to be entered are prohibited or endangered species or subspecies imported under other names or descriptions, the importation shall be refused Customs release, and the importer shall be responsible for concluding arrangements acceptable to the regional director or other agent of the Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife for proper handling, custody, and care, at the importer's expense and risk, of the unreleased fish, birds, or other wildlife. No Customs disposition of the importation shall be concluded pending the determination by the Bureau of Sports Fisheries and Wildlife of the true nature of the species or subspecies. In case of refusal or neglect of the importer or consignee, or agent of either, to have the identity so established, final disposition of the importation shall be required as determined by the Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife. In addition to Bureau of Sport Fisheries and Wildlife Form 3-177, required to be filed as prescribed in 50 CFR 17.4 upon entry of importations of fish and wildlife, entrants shall present appropriate foreign export permits, other acceptable foreign documentary evidence of lawful taking, transportation, or sale, or appropriate American consular certificates upon importation of fish and wildlife species or subspecies subject to such documentation requirements of 50 CFR 17.4 (c) and (d). [TD 70-242.]

(h) All invoices of animals and birds shall specify the species covered thereby and the number of each species. In the event of the return to the district director of any importation under the bond given under paragraph (e) of this section, if the number and species of birds does not correspond with the description stated in the invoice and if no satisfactory explanation of any discrepancy is furnished, the bond shall be forfeited.

(i) The privilege of entry for immediate transportation granted by section 552, Tariff Act of 1930, shall not be allowed for importations of fish, birds, or other wildlife which are confirmed at the port of first arrival or discharge to be injurious prohibited species, or which require permits issued prior to importation, or which are subject to quarantine regulations or inspection at the ports of first arrival or discharge or other specified place of veterinary inspection. However, entry for immediate transportation properly is allowed for any importation of fish, birds, or other wildlife which at the place of first arrival or discharge is not confirmed to be an injurious prohibited specie and which, following compliance with any applicable quarantine regulations or required veterinary inspection, is being transported by means of an in-bond movement to a port of entry designated in 50 CFR Part 17, Appendix B, for Customs entry (see paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section). Ports of designated entry, inspection, quarantine, and related enforcement procedures covering certain animals and poultry and certain animal and poultry products imported into the United States are regulated by requirements and standards prescribed in regulations of the Secretary of Agriculture, Department of Agriculture (see 9 CFR Parts 92–96; 19 CFR 12.8 and 12.24). [TD 70-242.]

(j) Wild animals and birds shall be imported under humane and healthful conditions, due regard being given to the accommodations and facilities necessary for the species transported.

(k) When any Customs officer has good reason to believe that wild animals or birds have been imported under inhumane or unhealthful conditions in violation of 18 U.S.C. 42, an immediate investigation shall be made to ascertain whether they have in fact been transported under such conditions. The investigation shall determine the provisions made on the vessel or other conveyance for the accommodation of the animals or birds, the suitability of the boxes, cages, stalls, etc., the space, ventilation, and protection from the elements accorded the animals or birds, the facilities for cleaning, feeding, watering, bedding, and such other services as may be required for the species imported. The investigation shall also determine, the physical condition of such animals or birds and the ratio of dead, crippled, diseased, or starving animals or birds. If necessary, officers of the Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service, Veterinary Services, or Fish and Wildlife Service, or other officers or experts, may be called upon to assist customs officers in the matter. [TD 78-99]

(l) Unless the district director is satisfied that the provisions of 18 U.S.C. 42 have not been violated, he shall report the matter to the United States attorney for appropriate action. (Sec. 1, 62 Stat. 687, as amended; 18 U.S.C. 42)

Certain statutory provisions prohibit or restrict the importation or exportation of wild animals or birds, or the dead bodies thereof, or the eggs of such birds, killed, captured, taken, transported, etc., contrary to law.[14] Customs officers shall perform all duties required of them under such laws. [CIE 3745/31. (ix) The vehicle is an "incomplete vehicle" as defined in 49 CFR part 568.

(2) A vehicle imported solely for the purpose of test or experiment which is the subject of a declaration filed under paragraph (b) (1) (vii) of this section may be licensed for use on the public roads for a period not to exceed 1 year from the date of importation if use on the public roads is an integral part of the test or experiment. The vehicle may be licensed for use on the public roads for one or more further periods which, when added to the initial 1-year period, shall not exceed a total of 3 years, upon application to and approval by the Administrator, NHTSA.

A condition of the bond shall be the production of an approval (bond release) letter from the Administrator, NHTSA, stating that the vehicle or equipment item described in the declaration has been brought into conformity with all applicable safety standards. The bond release letter shall be issued upon approval by the Administrator, NHTSA, of the conformity statement submitted by the importer or consignee as provided for in paragraph (b)(1)(iii) of this section. The bond release letter shall be forwarded by the Administrator, NHTSA, to the district director with a copy to the importer or consignee.

If the vehicle or equipment item is not redelivered to Customs custody or exported under Customs supervision within the period allowed by the district director in the notice of redelivery, liquidated damages shall be assessed in the full amount of a bond given on Customs form 7551. (g) Vehicle or equipment item introduced by means of a fraudulent or false declaration.—Any person who enters, introduces, attempts to enter or introduce, or aids or abets the entry, introduction, or attempted entry or introduction, of a vehicle or equipment item into the Customs territory of the United States by means of a fraudulent entry declaration, or by means of a false entry declaration made without reasonable cause to believe the truth of the declaration, may incur liabilities under section 592, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1592).

(h) Vehicle or equipment item denied entry.—If a vehicle or equipment item is denied entry under the provisions of paragraph (b) of this section, the district director shall refuse to release the vehicle or equipment item for entry into the Customs territory of the United States and shall issue a notice of that refusal to the importer or consignee.

Safety Standards for Boats and Associated Equipment

§ 12.85 Coast Guard boat and associated equipment safety standards.

(a) Applicability of standards or regulations prescribed by the Commandant, U.S. Coast Guard. Boats and associated equipment (as hereinafter defined) are subject to U.S. Coast Guard safety regulations or standards when imported or, under certain conditions, brought into the United States after November 1, 1972. Those regulations or standards are prescribed by the Commandant, U.S. Coast Guard, pursuant to sections 5, 7, and 39, Federal Boat Safety Act of 1971 (46 U.S.C. 1454, 1456, 1488), as set forth in 33 CFR Parts 181, 183. [TD 76-166.]

(1) The term "boats" includes:

(i) All vessels manufactured or used primarily for noncommercial use.

(ii) All vessels leased, rented, or chartered to another for the latter's noncommercial use.

(iii) All vessels engaged in the carrying of six or fewer passengers (see section 4.80 of this chapter on prohibitions against foreign vessels transporting passengers in the coastwise trade).

(2) For purposes of § 12.85 the term "boat" does not include:

(i) Foreign vessels temporarily using waters subject to U.S. jurisdiction.

(ii) Military or public vessels of the United States, except recreational type public vessels.

(iii) A vessel whose owner is a State or subdivision thereof, which is principally used for governmental purposes, and which is clearly identifiable as such.

(iv) Ships' lifeboats.

(3) The term "associated equipment" means:

(i) Any system, part, or component of a boat as originally manufactured, or a similar part or component manufactured or sold for replacement, repair, or improvement of such system, part, or component (excluding radio equipment).

(ii) Any accessory or equipment for, or appurtenance to, a boat (excluding radio equipment).

(iii) Any marine safety article, accessory, or equipment intended for use by a person on board a boat (excluding radio equipment).

(4) The term "product" as used in this section, includes the terms "boats" and "associated equipment" as defined in paragraphs (a) (1), (2), and (3) of this section.

(b) Evidence of compliance with boating standards or regulations as condition of entry. A product for which entry is sought into the Customs territory of the United States will, subject to the exceptions specified in paragraph (c) of this section, be denied entry unless accompanied by evidence of compliance with standards or regulations as follows:

(1) A product subject to standards prescribed in 33 CFR Part 183 will have affixed to it a compliance certification label in accordance with the requirements of Subpart B, 33 CFR Part 181.

(2) A boat hull subject to Subpart C, 33 CFR Part 181 will have affixed to it a hull identification number affixed by the importer or the original manufacturer. The number

(c) Products not in compliance with standards or regulations: Alternative evidence required as condition of entry and release. Certain products shall be permitted entry and release without a compliance certification label or hull identification number affixed, as is required by Subparts B and C, 33 CFR Part 181, if they fall within one of the following categories, and if the conditions for entry and release specified for each category of product are met:

(1) Products manufactured before standards or regulations in effect. For certain products manufactured before an applicable standard or regulation was in effect, a declaration will be filed in accordance with the requirements of paragraph (d) of this section. The declaration will state that the product was manufactured before the applicable standard or regulation was in effect. If the district director believes that it is necessary in a particular case, he may communicate with the nearest Coast Guard district commander by the most expedient means to request that the Coast Guard determine that alteration of the product is not required. A verbal declaration is acceptable at the option of the district director for products entering from Canada or Mexico otherwise than by sea.

(2) Products exempted from standards or regulations by Coast Guard Grant of Exemption. For certain products specifically exempted from applicable standards or regulations by a Coast Guard Grant of Exemption, a declaration will be filed in accordance with paragraph (d) of this section. The declaration will state that the product has been specifically exempted from applicable standards or regulations by a U.S. Coast Guard Grant of Exemption, issued under the authority of section 9 of the Federal Boat Safety Act of 1971 (46 U.S.C. 1458), and in effect on the date the product was manufactured. The declaration will also state that the product complies with all the terms and conditions of the exemption. A copy of the exemption, certified by the importer or consignee to be a true copy, shall be attached to each declaration.

(3) Products to be brought into conformity. In the case of products that are not in conformity at the time of entry but will be brought into conformity, a declaration will be filed in accordance with paragraph (d) of this section. The declaration will state that the product does not conform with applicable safety standards or regulations, but that the importer or consignee will bring the product into conformity with safety standards or regulations, and will also state that the product will not be sold or offered for sale, or used on waters subject to the jurisdiction of the United States and on the high seas beyond the territorial seas for a vessel owned in the United States except for the purpose of bringing it into conformity, until the bond has been satisfied with respect to this obligation. To secure entry under this provision, bond must be given in accordance with paragraph (e)(1) of this section.

(4) Certain products entering the United States for repair or alteration. In the case of a nonresident of the United States who wishes to enter a product for the purpose of making repairs or alterations to it for a period not exceeding 60 days from the date of entry, a declaration will be filed in accordance with paragraph (d) of this section. The declaration shall state that the importer or consignee is a nonresident of the United States, that the product is being brought in for the purpose of making repairs or alterations to it, that it will not remain in the Customs territory of the United States for more than 60 days following the date of the entry, and that it will not be offered for sale, sold, or used for pleasure in waters subject to the jurisdiction of the United States during that time. However, the declaration required by the subparagraph shall be waived for persons regularly entering the United States from Canada or Mexico otherwise than by sea who obtain, by application to the district director, an appropriate means of identification that has been affixed to the boat to serve in place of the declaration.

(5) Products owned by certain foreign government or international organization personnel. In the case of an importer or consignee employed in one of the capacities set forth in this subparagraph, a declaration will be filed in accordance with paragraph (d) of this section. The declaration shall state that the importer or consignee is either a member of the armed forces of a foreign country on assignment in the United States, or is a member of the Secretariat of a public international organization so designated pursuant to section 1 of the International Organizations Immunities Act of December 29, 1945 (22 U.S.C. 288), on assignment in the United States, or is a member of the personnel of a foreign government on assignment in the United States who comes within the class of persons for whom free entry of boats has been authorized by the Department of State, and that he is importing the product for purposes other than resale.

(6) Certain products entered for tests or experimentation. In the case of an importer or consignee seeking to enter a product, for tests or experimentation for a period not to exceed 1 year, that will not be sold in the United States, a declaration will be filed in accordance with the requirements of paragraph (d) of this section. The declaration will state that the importer or consignee is importing the product solely for the purpose of tests or experiments and it will not be sold or operated in the United States, except where such operation is an integral part of the tests and experiments for which the product was imported. The importer will attach to the declaration a description of the tests and experiments for which the product is being imported, the time period estimated to complete the tests, and the disposition to be made of the product after the tests and experiments are completed. Entry under this subparagraph may be authorized for a period not to exceed 1 year.

(d) Declaration requirements. All declarations submitted under paragraph (c) of this section, except verbal declarations submitted pursuant to paragraph (c)(1) of this section, must:

(1) Be filed with the entry, in duplicate.

(2) Be signed by the importer or consignee.

(3) State the name and U.S. address of the importer or consignee.

(4) State the entry number and date.

(5) Provide the make, model, and hull identification number, if affixed, of any boat, and a description of any equipment or component.

(6) Identify, if known the city or State in which the product will be principally located.

The district director shall immediately forward the original of a declaration to the Commandant (G-BBC/62), U.S. Coast Guard, Washington, D.C. 20590.

(e) Release under bond—(1) When bond required. A bond in the amount prescribed by § 113.14 of this chapter will be required of the importer or consignee on Customs Form 7551, 7553, or 7595 when a declaration is made that a product is to be brought into conformity. When the importer or consignee of a product declares that it will be brought into conformity before being sold or offered for sale, or before being used on waters subject to the jurisdiction of the United States and on the high seas beyond the territorial seas for a vessel owned in the United States and seeks entry of the product under paragraph (c)(3) of this section, the entry shall be accepted only if bond is given for the production of a statement by either the importer or the consignee that the product described in the declaration is in conformity with applicable safety standards or regulations. The statement shall identify the person or firm who has brought the product into conformity with the standards or regulations and shall describe the nature and extent of the work performed.

(2) Time limitation to produce statement for which bond is obligated. Within 90 days after entry, or any additional period as the district director may allow for good cause shown, the importer or consignee shall deliver to both the district director and the Commandant, U.S. Coast Guard, a copy of the statement for production of which the bond was obligated. If the statement is not delivered to the district director for the port of entry of the product within 90 days after the date of entry or within an additional period allowed by the district director for good cause shown, the importer or consignee shall deliver or cause to be delivered to the district director those products which were released in accordance with this paragraph.

(3) Damages to be assessed against bond. In the event that any product is not redelivered within 5 days following the date required by subparagraph (2) of this paragraph, liquidated damages shall be assessed in the full amount of the bond given on Customs Form 7551. When the transaction has been charged against a bond given on Customs Form 7553 or 7595, liquidated damages shall be assessed in the amount that would be demanded under the preceding sentence if the product had been released under a bond given on Customs Form 7551.

(f) Products refused entry. If a product is denied entry under the provisions of this section, the district director shall refuse to release the product for entry into the United States and shall issue a notice of the refusal to the importer or consignee.

(g) Disposition of products refused entry into the United States; redelivered products. Products which are denied entry under paragraph (b) of this section, or which are redelivered in accordance with paragraph (e)(2) of this section, and which are not exported under Customs supervision within 90 days from the date of notice of refusal of admission or date of redelivery, shall be disposed of under Customs laws and regulations. However, no such disposition shall result in an introduction into the United States of a product in violation of the Federal Boat Safety Act of 1971 (46 U.S.C. 1451-1489). (Sec. 623, 46 Stat. 759, as amended, secs. 5, 6, 7, 11, 15, 85 Stat. 215, 216, 217, 219 (19 U.S.C. 1623, 46 U.S.C. 1454, 1455, 1456, 1460, 1464) R.S. 251, as amended, secs. 624, 46 Stat. 759 (5 U.S.C. 301, 19 U.S.C. 66, 1624).)

The duplicate copy of the declaration filed under this paragraph shall be forwarded by the district director of Customs directly to the Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare or his designee.

Within 90 days after such entry, or such additional period as the district director of Customs may allow for good cause shown, the importer or consignee shall take any action necessary to insure delivery to the district director of the notification described in this paragraph. If the notification described in this paragraph is not delivered to the district director of Customs for the port of entry of such electronic products within 90 days of the date of entry or such additional period as may be allowed by the district director, for good cause shown, the importer or consignee shall deliver or cause to be delivered to the district director of Customs those electronic products which were released in accordance with this paragraph. § 18.1 Carriers; application to bond.

(a)(1) Merchandise to be transported from one port to another in the United States in bond, except as provided for in paragraph (b) of this section, shall be delivered to a common carrier, contract carrier, freight forwarder, or private carrier bonded for that purpose, but such merchandise delivered to a common carrier, contract carrier, or freight forwarder may be transported with the use of facilities of other bonded or nonbonded carriers.[1] For the purposes of this section, the term "common carrier" means a common carrier of merchandise owning or operating a railroad, steamship, or other transportation line or route. Only vessels entitled to engage in the coastwise trade (see § 4.80 of this chapter) shall be entitled to transport merchandise under this section. [CCL 32/56; TDs 40578, 40631, 41760, 42783, 45303, 45690(6), 47505(1)(2), 48418, 48505, 49258, 51590, 52123, 53385, 53399, 55466, 55734, 55801, 56107, 69-14, 69-19, 70-121, 71-70, 73-140.]

(2) Merchandise to be transported from one port to another in the United States under cover of a TIR carnet (see Part 114 of this chapter), except merchandise not otherwise subject to Customs control, as provided in §§ 18.41 through 18.45, shall be delivered to a common carrier or contract carrier bonded for that purpose, but the merchandise thereafter may be transported with the use of other bonded or nonbonded common or contract carriers. The TIR carnet shall be responsible for liability incurred in the carriage of merchandise under the carnet, and the carrier's bond shall be responsible as provided in § 114.22(c)(3) of this chapter. [TDs 71-70, 71-263.]

(3) Merchandise to be transported from one port to another in the United States under cover of an A.T.A. carnet (see Part 114 of this chapter) shall be delivered to a common carrier or contract carrier bonded for that purpose, but the merchandise thereafter may be transported with the use of other bonded or nonbonded common or contract carriers. The A.T.A. carnet shall be responsible for liability incurred in the carriage of merchandise under the carnet, and the carrier's bond shall be responsible as provided in § 114.22(d) of this chapter. [TD 82-116.]

(b) Pursuant to Public Resolution 108, of June 19, 1936,[2] and subject to compliance with all other applicable provisions of this part, the district director at New York, upon the request of the party in interest, may permit merchandise entered and examined for Customs purposes to be transported in bond between the ports named in the resolution by bonded cartmen or lightermen duly qualified in accordance with the provisions of Part 112 of this chapter, if the district director is satisfied that the transportation of such merchandise in this manner will not endanger the revenue. [TD 78–99.]

[1] Under such regulations and subject to such terms and conditions as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe— [TD 69-19.]

(1) Any common carrier of merchandise owning or operating a railroad, steamship, or other transportation line or route for the transportation of merchandise in the United States.

(2) Any contract carrier authorized to operate as such by any agency of the United States, and

(3) Any freight forwarder authorized to operate as such by any agency of the United States, upon application, may, in the discretion of the Secretary, be designated as a carrier of bonded merchandise for the final release of which from customs custody a permit has not been issued. A private carrier, upon application, may, in the discretion of the Secretary, be designated under the preceding sentence as a carrier of bonded merchandise, subject to such regulations and, in the case of each applicant, to such special terms and conditions as the Secretary may prescribe to safeguard the revenues of the United States with respect to the transportation of bonded merchandise by such applicant. (19 U.S.C. 1551.)

[2] "The Secretary of the Treasury be, and he is hereby, authorized, when it appears to him to be in the interest of commerce and notwithstanding any provision of law or regulation requiring that the transportation of imported merchandise be by a bonded common carrier, to permit such merchandise which has been entered and examined for customs purposes to be transported by bonded cartmen or bonded lightermen between the ports of New York, Newark, and Perth Amboy, which are all included in Customs Collection District Numbered 10 (New York): Provided, That this resolution shall not be construed to deprive any of the ports affected of its rights and privileges as a port of entry." § 18.2 Receipt by carrier; manifest.

(a) When merchandise is delivered to a bonded carrier for transportation in bond, the merchandise shall be laden on the conveyance under the supervision of a Customs officer unless the transporting conveyance is not to be sealed with Customs seals or the lading inspector accepts the check of the carrier as to the merchandise laden thereon. The carrier's receipt shall be given immediately to the lading inspector on the Customs in-bond document (the appropriate Customs Forms 7512 or 7520, or the TIR or A.T.A. carnet) covering the merchandise. In the case of a carnet, the receipt shall be given on the appropriate vouchers in the following form: [TDs 37341, 41283, 41284, 41332, 48505, 53893, 53989, 71–70, 82–116.]

——— Attorney or Agent of Carrier (or Exporter) ————
— (Date)

(b) A Customs in-bond document containing a description of the merchandise shall be prepared by the carrier or shipper and signed by the agent of the carrier whenever merchandise is being transported in bond. All copies of the in-bond document shall be signed by the importing carrier or his agent and the in-bond carrier or his agent to indicate the quantity delivered for transportation in bond. When there is no discrepancy between the quantity manifested by the importing carrier and the quantity delivered to the in-bond carrier, the district director of Customs may authorize waiving the signature of the parties in interest as to delivered quantities. Except as prescribed in Subpart D of Part 123 of this chapter, relating to merchandise in transit through the United States between ports in contiguous foreign territory, a separate set shall be prepared for each entry and, if the consignment is contained in more than one conveyance, a separate set shall be prepared for each conveyance. [TDs 45804, 70–121, 71–22, 71–70.]

(c) After the merchandise has been laden and the in-bond carrier or his agent has receipted the in-bond document, either Customs Form 7512 or Customs Form 7520, in duplicate, or the carnet, together with the related Customs Form 7512–C (duplicate), shall be delivered as a manifest to the conductor, master, or person in charge to accompany the merchandise to destination. If more than one conveyance is used to transport merchandise, the Customs Form 7512–C (duplicate) shall accompany the first conveyance, and two copies of Customs Form 7512 shall accompany each conveyance as a manifest of the merchandise transported by that conveyance. A TIR carnet (see § 18.3(b)) shall not be used if more than one conveyance is required. [TDs 37341, 53336, 53531, 53792, 54429, 71–70, 82–116.]

(d) Upon arrival of the merchandise at the port of destination, the delivering carrier shall promptly surrender the in-bond manifest and related Customs Form 7512–C (duplicate) to the district director as a notice of arrival of the merchandise. If the in-bond manifest is lost in transit, the in-bond carrier will be responsible for obtaining copies of the original. [TDs 69–19, 71–70.]

§ 18.3 Transshipment;[3] transfer by bonded cartmen.

(a) When bonded merchandise in one conveyance is to be transshipped under Customs supervision to another single conveyance while en route to the port of destination or exportation, the in-bond document which accompanied the merchandise shall be presented to the district director of Customs at the place of transshipment for execution of a certificate of transfer thereon. The in-bond document shall be returned to the carrier to accompany the merchandise to the port of destination or exportation. Except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section, merchandise covered by a TIR carnet shall not be transshipped if the transshipment involves the unlading of the merchandise from a container or road vehicle. [TDs 41283, 47505(1), 48505, 51035, 51215, 54880, 71–70.]

(b) When bonded merchandise, other than merchandise covered by a TIR carnet, is to be transshipped into more than one conveyance, the carrier, agent of the shipper, or forwarder shall prepare, for each such conveyance, two additional copies of the Customs Form 7512 which accompanied the merchandise to the place of transshipment. The Form 7512 and Customs Form 7512–C (duplicate) which accompanied the shipment to the place of transshipment shall be presented to the district director there. The Customs officer supervising the transshipment shall execute a certificate of transfer on all copies of the Form 7512. The original copies of the Form 7512 and related Form 7512–C (duplicate) shall be delivered to the conductor, master, or person in charge of the first conveyance. Two additional copies of the Form 7512 shall be similarly delivered to the person in charge of each additional conveyance in which the merchandise is forwarded for delivery to the district director at the port of destination or exportation. [TDs 46188, 54880, 71–70.]

(c) Merchandise covered by a TIR carnet may be transshipped in a case involving the unlading of the merchandise from a container or road vehicle only if the transshipment is necessitated by casualty en route. In the event of transshipment, a TIR approved container or road vehicle shall be used if available. If the transshipment takes place under Customs supervision, the Customs officer shall excute a certificate of transfer on the appropriate TIR carnet voucher. [TDs 32086, 43576, 47639(6), 71–70.]

(d) If it becomes necessary at any point in transit to remove the Customs seals from a conveyance or container containing bonded merchandise for the purpose of transferring its contents to another conveyance or container, or to gain access to the shipment because of casualty or for other good reason, and it cannot be done under Customs supervision because of the element of time involved or because there is no Customs officer stationed at such point, a responsible agent of the carrier may remove the seals, supervise the transfer or handling of the merchandise, seal the conveyance or container in which the shipment goes forward, and make appropriate notation of his action on the conductor's or master's copy of the manifest, or the outside back cover of the TIR carnet, including the date, serial numbers of the new seals applied, and the reason therefor. This authorization shall not apply in any case not involving a real emergency. [TDs 47505(2), 51035, 71-70.]

[3] For provisions for transshipment or unlading due to accident or other casualty, see § 4.31 of this chapter.

(e) All transfers to or from the conveyance or warehouse of merchandise undergoing transportation in bond shall be made under the provisions of Part 21 of this chapter and at the expense of the parties in interest, unless the Carrier's Bond or a TIR carnet is liable for the safekeeping and delivery of the merchandise while it is being transferred. (Secs. 551, 565, 46 Stat. 742, as amended, 747; 19 U.S.C. 1551, 1565) [TD 71-70.]

§ 18.4 Sealing conveyances and compartments; labeling packages; warning cards.

(a)(1) Except as provided in section 123.33 of this chapter, conveyances or compartments in which carload lots of bonded merchandise are transported shall be sealed under Customs supervision with high security red in-bond Customs seals, or if incapable of being so sealed, with red in-bond Customs seals. When the compartment or conveyance cannot be effectively sealed, as in the case of merchandise shipped in open cars or barges, or on the decks of vessels, or when it is known that any seals would necessarily be removed outside the jurisdiction of the United States for the purpose of discharging or taking on cargo, or when it is known that the breaking of the seals will be necessary to ventilate the hatches, or in other similar circumstances, such sealings may be waived with the consent of the carrier and an appropriate notation of such waiver shall be made on the manifest. The Commissioner of Customs may authorize the waiver of sealing of conveyances or compartments in which bonded merchandise is transported in other cases when in his opinion the sealing thereof is unnecessary to protect the revenue or to prevent violations of the Customs laws and regulations. [TDs 40852, 47071(10), 48505, 52039, 53057, 70-121, 71-70, 77-30, 77-160.]

(2) The district director of Customs shall cause a Customs seal to be affixed to a container or road vehicle which is being used to transport merchandise under cover of a TIR carnet unless the container or road vehicle bears a valid customs seal (domestic or foreign). The district director shall likewise cause a Customs seal or label to be affixed to heavy or bulky goods being so transported. If, however, he has reason to believe that there is a discrepancy between the merchandise listed on the Goods Manifest of the carnet and the merchandise which is to be transported, he shall cause a Customs seal or label to be affixed only when the listing of the merchandise in the carnet and a physical inventory agree. [TD 71-70.]

(b) Ports at which the facilities are insufficient to maintain continuous customs supervision over vessels arriving with bonded cargo while the bonded merchandise is not under Customs seals shall permit the vessels to proceed to destination without further sealing and notation to this effect shall be made on the manifest. [C.I.E. 1440/58; TD 47071(10).]

(c)(1) Merchandise not under bond may be transported in sealed conveyances or compartments containing bonded goods when destined for the same place or places beyond, but not when intended for intermediate places. [TD 71-70.]

(2) Merchandise moving under cover of a carnet may not be consolidated with other merchandise. [TD 71-70, 82-116.]

(d) The seals to be used in sealing conveyances, compartments, or packages are prescribed by the Department and may be obtained in accordance with § 24.13 of this chapter. [TD 48235.]

A carrier at its option may omit the last three lines of the above legend from the warning label but if not omitted the information called for must be filled in. If the size of the package renders the use of a 5 × 8 inch warning label impracticable because of lack of space, a 3 × 5 inch label may be used. A high visibility, pressure-sensitive warning label, whether as a continuous series in tape form or otherwise, but not less than 1 1/2 by 3 inches in size, may be used on any size package. Such cording and sealing or labeling of the packages so shipped is not required either when the packages are transported in a conveyance or compartment sealed with Customs seals, or when the sealing of the conveyance or compartment in which the packages are transported is waived under paragraph (a) or (b) of this section. When the packages are shipped in a railroad car the sealing of which is practicable but which is not sealed because merchandise not being transported in bond is or may be carried in the same car, the packages being transported in bond shall be corded and sealed or labeled.

(f) The warning label, when used, shall be pasted securely on the package under Customs supervision as close as practicable to the mark or number on the pack-

§ 18.5 Diversion.

(a) Merchandise forwarded under any class of transportation entry may be diverted to any port other than the port named in the entry at the option of the consignee or agent. Except as provided for in paragraphs (c), (d), and (e), of this section, prior application or approval of such diversion is not required. [TDs 17688, 37340, 37460, 38287 (Q. 34), 48505, 53792, 71-70.]

(b) The district director of Customs at the port to which merchandise is diverted may permit merchandise in transit under bond under any class of transportation entry to be entered at his port for consumption, warehouse, exportation, further transportation in bond, or under any provisions of the tariff laws. [TDs 40351, 46032, 50982, 71-70.]

(c) When merchandise which has been delivered to the district director at the port of original destination or port of diversion under any class of transportation entry is to be forwarded to another port or returned to the port of origin, a new transportation entry shall be required. If the merchandise is moving under cover of a carnet, the carnet may be accepted as a transportation entry. [TDs 39514, 53792, 71-70, 82-116.]

(d) If it is desired to split a shipment at a port of destination and to enter a portion for consumption or warehouse and forward the balance in bond, or to divert the entire shipment or a part thereof to more than one port, the district director at the port where diversion takes place shall complete the original transaction and shall require the filing of a new transportation entry or entries for the portion or portions forwarded. In the case, however, of merchandise being transported under cover of a carnet, splitting up of a shipment shall not be permitted. [TDs 53792, 71-70, 82-116.]

(e) The diversion of shipments in bond which are subject on importation to restriction or prohibition under quarantines and regulations of the Agricultural Research Service of the Department of Agriculture shall be allowed only upon written permission or under regulations issued by the agency concerned. (Secs. 551-553, 46 Stat. 742, as amended; 19 U.S.C. 1551-1553) [TDs 49600, 71-70.]

§ 18.6 Short shipments; shortages; entry and allowance.

(a) When there has been a short shipment and the short-shipped packages are subsequently received, they may be forwarded only under a new transportation entry referenced to the original entry. [TDs 32280, 48505, 71-70.]

(b) When there is a shortage of one or more packages or nondelivery of an entire shipment, and inquiry by the carrier discloses that the merchandise has been delivered directly to the consignee, entry therefore may be accepted if the merchandise can be recovered intact without any of the packages having been opened. In such cases, any shortage from the invoice quantity shall be presumed to have occurred while the merchandise was in the possession of the bonded carrier. [TDs 71-22, 71-70.]

(c) If the merchandise cannot be recovered intact, as above specified, entry shall not be accepted and, except as provided in paragraph (d) of this section, there shall be sent to the initial bonded carrier a demand for liquidated damages on Customs Form 5955-A, in the case of nondelivery of an entire shipment or on Customs Form 5931, in the case of a partial shortage. [TDs 37498, 71-22, 71-70.]

(d) If merchandise covered by a carnet cannot be recovered intact, as specified in paragraph (b) of this section, entry shall not be accepted; there shall be sent to the appropriate guaranteeing association a demand for pecuniary penalties, liquidated damages, duties, and taxes as prescribed in § 18.8(e); and, if appropriate, there shall also be sent to the initial bonded carrier a demand for any excess, as provided in § 114.22(c)(3) of this chapter. Demands shall be made on the forms specified in paragraph (c) of this section. [19 USC 1558. TDs 22465, 47569, 71-70, 82-116.]

(e) An allowance in duty on merchandise reported short at destination, including merchandise found by the appraising officer to be damaged and worthless, and animals and birds found by the discharging officer to be dead on arrival at destination, shall be made in the liquidation of the entry. [TDs 51275, 70-121, 71-70.]

(f) In the case of shipments arriving in the United States by rail or seatrain which are forwarded under Customs in-bond seals under the provisions of Subpart D of Part 123 of this chapter, and § 18.11, or § 18.20, a notation shall be made by the carrier or shipper on the in-bond manifest, Customs Form 7512, to show whether the shipment was transferred to the car designated in the manifest or whether it was laden in the car in the foreign country, which shall be named. (Secs. 551, 552, 553, 46 Stat. 742, as amended; 19 U.S.C. 1551, 1552, 1553) [TD 71-70.]

§ 18.7 Lading for exportation, verification of.

(a) When merchandise covered by an in-bond entry is delivered to the exporting carrier at the port of exportation, the in-bond document and the related Customs Form 7512-C (duplicate) shall be promptly delivered to the district director of Customs. [TDs 53893, 71-70.]

(b) The district director shall require only such supervision of the lading for exportation of merchandise covered by an entry or withdrawal for exportation or for transportation and exportation as is reasonably necessary to satisfy him that the merchandise has been laden on the exporting conveyance.

(c) Whenever the circumstances warrant, and occasionally in any event, district directors shall request the Office of Investigations to check export entries and withdrawals against the records of the exporting carriers. Such check or verification shall include an examination of the carrier's records of claims and settlement of export freight charges and any other records which may relate to the transaction. The exporting carrier shall maintain these records for 5 years from the date of exportation of the merchandise. (Secs. 553, 557, 46 Stat. 742, as amended, 744 as amended, sec. 646, 67 Stat. 520; 19 U.S.C. 1553, 1557, 1646a) [TD 79-159.]

§ 18.8 Liability for shortage, irregular delivery, or nondelivery; penalties.

(a) The initial bonded carrier shall be responsible for shortage, irregular delivery, or nondelivery at destination or port of exit of bonded merchandise, received by it for carriage. When sealing is waived, any loss found to exist at destination shall be presumed to have occurred while the merchandise was in the possession of the carrier, unless conclusive evidence to the contrary is produced. [[CCL 26/56. TDs 48505, 49209 (4), 71-70.]

(b) Penalties imposed as liquidated damages under the carrier's bond for shortage, failure to deliver, or irregular delivery shall be as follows:

(1) In the case of shortage, failure to deliver, or delivery direct to the consignee or other person of any merchandise free of duty, an amount equal to the value of the missing merchandise, not to exceed in any one shipment the sum of $25. [CCL 48/57. TD 55801.]

(2) In the case of shortages or failure to deliver merchandise subject to duty, an amount equal to the duties on the missing merchandise or, if the duties cannot be estimated promptly, an amount equal to 70 per centum of the value shown on the manifest. [TD 52006.]

(3) In the case of unauthorized delivery directly to the consignee or other person of merchandise subject to duty, an amount equal to one and one-quarter times the estimated duty thereon, or, if the duties cannot be estimated promptly, an amount equal to 70 per centum of the value shown on the manifest. [TDs 38266, 52006, 53893.]

(c) In addition to the penalties described in paragraph (b) of this section, the carrier shall pay any internal-revenue taxes or other taxes accruing to the United States on the missing merchandise, together with all costs, charges, and expenses caused by the failure to make the required transportation, report, and delivery. [TD 53399.]

(d) In any case in which liquidated damages imposed in accordance with this section do not aggregate over $50,000 and the district director is satisfied by evidence submitted to him with an application for relief from the payment thereof filed as provided in Part 172 of this chapter that any shortage, irregular delivery, nondelivery, or any failure to obtain Customs supervision was without any intent to evade any law or regulation, the district director may cancel such claim upon the payment of any lesser amount or without the payment of any amount, as he may deem appropriate under the law and in view of the circumstances. [TDs 53919, 54346, 70-249, 71-70, 73-308.]

(e)(1) The domestic guaranteeing association shall be jointly and severally liable with the initial bonded carrier for pecuniary penalties, liquidated damages, duties, and taxes accruing to the United States, and any other charges imposed as the result of any shortage, irregular delivery, or nondelivery at the port of destination or port of exit of merchandise covered by a TIR carnet. Penalties imposed as liquidated damages for any shortage, irregular delivery, or nondelivery shall be computed in accordance with subparagraphs (1), (2), and (3) of paragraph (b) of this section. If a TIR carnet has not been discharged, or has been discharged subject to a reservation, the guaranteeing association shall be notified within 1 year of the date upon which the carnet is taken on charge, except that if the discharge shall have been obtained improperly or fraudulently the period shall be 2 years. No claim for payment under a TIR carnet shall be made against a guaranteeing association more than 3 years after the date when the association was informed that the carnet had not been discharged, or had been discharged subject to a reservation, or that the certificate of discharge had been obtained improperly or fraudulently. However, in cases which become the subject of legal proceedings during the above-mentioned 3-year period, no claim for payment shall be made more than 1 year after the date when the decision of the court becomes enforceable. [TD 71-70.]

(2) Within 3 months from the date demand for payment is made by the district director as provided by § 18.6(d), the guaranteeing association shall pay the amount claimed, except that if the amount claimed exceeds the liability of the guaranteeing association under the carnet (see § 114.22(d) of this chapter), the carrier shall pay the excess. The amount paid shall be refunded if, within a period of 1 year from the date on which the claim for payment was made, it is established to the satisfaction of the Commissioner of Customs that no irregularity occurred. The district director may cancel liquidated damages assessed against the guaranteeing association to the extent authorized by paragraph (d) of this section.

(3) The domestic guaranteeing association shall be jointly and severally liable with the initial bonded carrier for pecuniary penalties, liquidated damages, duties, and taxes accruing to the United States and any other charges imposed as the result of any shortage, irregular delivery, or nondelivery at the port of destination or port of exit of merchandise covered by an A.T.A. carnet. However, the liability of the guaranteeing association shall not exceed the amount of the import duties by more than 10 percent. If an A.T.A. carnet is unconditionally discharged with respect to certain goods, the guaranteeing association will no longer be liable on the carnet with respect to those goods unless it is subsequently discovered that the discharged of the carnet was obtained fraudulently or improperly or that there has been a breach of the conditions of temporary admission or of transit. No claim for payment shall be made more than one year following the date of expiration of the validity of the carnet. The guaranteeing association shall be allowed a period of six months from the date of any claim by the district director in which to furnish proof of the reexportation of the goods or of any other proper discharge of the A.T.A. carnet. If such proof is not furnished within the time specified, the guaranteeing association shall either deposit or provisionally pay the sums. The deposit or payment shall become final three months after the date of the deposit or payment, during which time the guaranteeing association may still furnish proof of the reexportation of the goods to recover the sums deposited or paid. [TD 82-116]

§ 18.9 Examination by inspectors of trunk line associations or agents of the Interstate Commerce Commission.

(a) Upon presentation of proper credentials showing the applicant to be a representative of the Trunk Line Association, the Interstate Commerce Commission, the Joint Rate Inspection Bureau of Chicago, or the Southern Weighing and Inspection Bureau of Atlanta, inspectors of Customs in charge shall permit such applicant to open and examine packages containing in-bond merchandise described in the manifest in general terms for the purpose of ascertaining whether the merchandise is properly classified under the interstate commerce laws. [TDs 33465, 33723, 40493.]

(b) The opening and examination of such packages shall be without expense to the Customs Service or the owner of the goods and shall be done in the presence of a Customs officer. The contents of the cases shall not be removed or disturbed further than is necessary to ascertain the character thereof. The Customs officer shall require the packages to be securely closed, and shall note on the manifest the packages so inspected, the date, and by whom inspected. (Sec. 551, 46 Stat. 742, as amended; 19 U.S.C. 1551)

(4) Entry for transportation and exportation.

(5) Entry for exportation.

(b) The copy of each entry or withdrawal made in any of the classes named in paragraph (a) of this section which is retained in the office of the forwarding district director shall be signed by the party making the entry or withdrawal. In the case of shipments to the Virgin Islands (U.S.) under paragraph (a), (3), (4), or (5) of this section, one additional copy of the entry or withdrawal on Customs Form 7512 shall be filed and shall be mailed by the receiving district director to the district director, Charlotte Amalie, St. Thomas, Virgin Island (U.S.). For this purpose Customs Form 7512 prepared in quadruplicate shall be used as a special manifest. [TD 54544.]

Immediate Transportation Without Appraisement

(a) Entry for immediate transportation without appraisement may be made under section 552, Tariff Act of 1930,[5] (1) for any merchandise, except explosives and prohibited merchandise, upon its arrival at a port of entry, or (2) for merchandise in general-order warehouse at any time within 1 year from the date of importation. [TDs 10850, 21219, 53888, 71–70.]

TDs 20111, 54235, 71–70, 82–116.]

(c) Before a shipment covered by an entry for immediate transportation, including a carnet, or a manifest of baggage shipped in bond (other than baggage to be forwarded in bond to a Customs station—see § 18.13(a)), shall be allowed to be transported directly to a place of deposit outside a port of entry for examination and release as contemplated by section 484(f), Tariff Act of 1930, as amended,[6] the consent of the district director of customs for the port of entry designated in the transportation entry or baggage manifest (or in the event of diversion under § 18.5, for the port of destination of the merchandise or baggage) must first be secured. Before consent may be given, the importer must furnish such district director with a stipulation that, promptly upon the arrival of any part of the merchandise or baggage at the place of deposit, he will file an entry for the shipment at the port of entry designated in the transportation entry or baggage manifest (or in the event of diversion under § 18.5, at the port of destination of the merchandise or baggage) and will comply with the provisions of § 151.9 of this chapter. [CCL 11/54. TDs 53336, 54388, 71–70, 73–175, 82–116.]

(d) Carload shipments of livestock shall not be entered for immediate transportation without appraisement unless they will arrive at destination before it becomes necessary to remove the seals for the purpose of watering and feeding the animals, or unless the route be such that the removal of the seals and the watering, feeding, and reloading of the stock may be done under Customs supervision. [TDs 43577, 43578.]

(e) Entries for immediate transportation without appraisement covering merchandise subject to detention of supervision by any Federal agency shall contain a sufficient description of the merchandise to enable the representative of the agency concerned to determine the contents of the shipment. Such merchandise covered by quarantines and regulations administered by the Bureau of Entomology and Plant Quarantine shall be forwarded under such entries only upon written permission of or under regulations issued by that Bureau.[7] [TDs 38523, 49600.]

(f) One or more entire packages of merchandise covered by an invoice from one consignor to one consignee may be entered for consumption or warehouse at the port of first arrival, and the remainder entered for immediate transportation without appraisement, provided all the merchandise covered by the invoice is entered simultaneously and any carnet which may cover such merchandise is discharged as to that merchandise. [TD 71-70, 82-116.]

[4] Before shipping merchandise in bond to another port for the purpose of warehousing or rewarehousing, the shipper should ascertain whether warehouse facilities are available at the intended port of destination.

[5] "Any merchandise, other than explosives and merchandise the importation of which is prohibited, arriving at a port of entry in the United States may be entered, under such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, for transportation in bond without appraisement to any other port of entry designated by the consignee, or his agent, and by such bonded carrier as he designates, there to be entered in accordance with the provisions of this Act." (Tariff Act of 1930, sec. 552; 19 U.S.C. 1552)

Special provisions concerning the shipment of baggage under this provision of law are contained in § 18.13.

[6] "* * * in the case of articles not subject to a quantitative or tariff-rate quota, entry for the entire quantity covered by an entry for immediate transportation made under section 552 of this Act may be accepted at the port of entry designated by the consignee, or his agent, in such entry after the arrival of any part of such quantity at such designated port or at such other place of deposit as may be authorized in accordance with regulations prescribed by the Secretary of the Treasury." (Tariff Act of 1930, sec. 484(f), as amended; 19 U.S.C. 1484(f))

[7] For procedure as to merchandise subject to quarantine, disinfection, and special inspection, if not forwarded in bond, see Part 12 of this chapter.

(g) Several importations may be consolidated in one immediate transportation without appraisement entry when bills of lading or carrier's certificates name only one consignee at the port of first arrival. However, merchandise moving under cover of a carnet may not be consolidated with other merchandise. [TD 71-70, 82-116.]

(h) Either Customs Form 7512 or a carnet shall be used as a combined transportation entry, invoice, and manifest. If Customs Form 7512 is used, a minimum of three copies shall be required at the port of origin. The district director, however, may require additional copies of Customs Form 7512 or the Goods Manifest of the carnet for use in connection with the delivery of the merchandise to the bonded carrier. In lieu of additional copies of the Goods Manifest, the district director may accept copies of a bill of lading covering the merchandise. The merchandise shall be described in such detail as to enable the district director to estimate the duties and taxes, if any, due. The district director may require evidence to satisfy him of the approximate correctness of the value or quantity stated in the entry. If a TIR carnet is used, and the duties and taxes estimated to be due exceed the maximum liability of the guaranteeing association under the carnet, the provisions of § 114.22(d) of this chapter shall apply. [CCL 48/57. (i) The value stated on the entry at the port of first arrival is not binding on the ultimate consignee making entry at the port of destination and does not relieve the importer of the obligation to show the correct value on entry. (a) Merchandise received under an immediate transportation without appraisement entry may be entered for transportation and exportation or for immediate transportation, or under any other form of entry, and shall be subject to all the conditions pertaining to merchandise entered at a port of first arrival if not more than 1 year has elapsed from the date of original importation. If more than 1 year has elapsed, only an entry for consumption shall be accepted. Such entry shall show the name of the port of first arrival, the transporting carrier, and the number of the immediate transportation entry. (See § 127.2 of this chapter.) [TDs 39514, 48505, 53399, 74-114.]

(c) Articles in transit manifested merely as drugs, medicines, or chemicals, without evidence to satisfy the collector that they are non-narcotic, shall be detained and subjected, at the carrier's risk and expense, to such examination as may be necessary to satisfy the district director whether or not they are of a narcotic character. A properly verified certificate of the shipper, specifying the items in the shipment and stating whether narcotic or not, may be accepted by the district director to establish the character of such a shipment. (Sec. 553, 46 Stat. 742, as amended; 19 U.S.C. 1553) [TD 39308.]

§ 18.22 Procedure at port of exit.

(a) If transfer is necessary, the procedure shall be as prescribed in § 18.3(d). [TDs 37340, 48505.]

(b) Upon the arrival at the port of exit of express shipments of articles shown by the manifest, Customs Form 7512, to be baggage and to be deliverable to the owner on board the exporting vessel, such articles may be transferred by the express company, without a permit from the district director and without the use of a transfer ticket or other Customs formality, from its terminal to the exporting vessel for lading under Customs supervision, if the express company is bonded as a common carrier and is responsible under its bond for the delivery of the articles to the Customs officer in charge of the exporting vessel. Exportation[10] From Customs Custody of Merchandise Unentered or Covered by an Unliquidated Consumption Entry, or Merchandise Denied Admission by the Government

§ 18.25 Direct exportation.

(a) Except as otherwise provided for in Subpart F of Part 145 of this chapter, relating to exportations by mail, when no entry has been made or completed for merchandise in Customs custody, or when the merchandise is covered by an unliquidated consumption entry, or when merchandise which has been entered in good faith is found to be prohibited under any law of the United States, and such merchandise is to be exported directly without transportation to another port, four copies of Customs Form 7512 shall be filed. If a TIR carnet covers the merchandise which is to be exported directly without transportation, the carnet shall be discharged or canceled, as appropriate (see Part 114 of this chapter), and four copies of Form 7512 shall be filed. The district director may require an extra copy or copies of Form 7512 to be furnished for use in connection with delivery of the merchandise to the carrier named in the entry. If an A.T.A. carnet covers the merchandise which is to be exported directly without transportation, the carnet shall be discharged by the certification of the appropriate transportation and reexportation vouchers by Customs officers as necessary. [TDs 46858, 48505, 50648, 52570, 52662, 53098, 53792, 53893, 71-70, 73-135, 82-116.]

(b) An exportation bond on Customs Form 7557, 7559, or other appropriate form shall be required with the entry, provided a consumption entry bond on Customs Form 7551 or 7553 or other appropriate form was not previously given. (See also § 158.45 of this chapter.) [TDs 47555, 52482, 72-258.]

(c) If the merchandise has been landed or is transferred from one vessel to another and has not been entered for consumption or, in the case of goods entered for consumption and rejected, such export declaration as required by § 30.3(a)(2) of the Foreign Trade Statistics Regulations (15 CFR 30.3(a)(2)) shall be filed. [TDs 53399, 68-299.]

(d) If the merchandise is exported in the importing vessel without landing, a representative of the exporting carrier who has knowledge of the facts shall certify that the merchandise entered for exportation was not discharged during the vessel's stay in port. A charge shall be made against the vessel term bond, Customs Form 7569, if on file, or a vessel bond on Customs Form 7567 shall be given as in the case of residue cargo for foreign ports. If the merchandise is covered by a TIR carnet, the carnet shall not be taken on charge (see § 114.22(c)(2) of this chapter). [TDs 47555, 53893, 71-70.]

(e) Gunpowder and other explosive substances, the deposit of which in any public store or bonded warehouse is prohibited by law, may be entered on arrival from a foreign port for immediate exportation in bond by sea, but shall be transferred directly from the importing to the exporting vessel.

§ 18.26 Indirect exportation.

(a) When merchandise of the character enumerated in § 18.25(a) is to be transported in bond to another port for exportation, it may be entered for transportation and exportation in accordance with the procedure in § 18.20. No bond on Customs Form 7557 or 7559 shall be required as the bond of the importing carrier is sufficient to insure the safekeeping of the merchandise pending its exportation. In the case of merchandise prohibited entry by any Government agency, that fact shall be prominently noted on Customs Form 7512 for the information of the district director of Customs at the port of exportation. If the merchandise was imported under cover of a TIR carnet, the carnet shall be discharged or canceled at the port of importation and the merchandise transported under an entry on Customs Form 7512 (see § 18.25). If merchandise has been imported under cover of an A.T.A. carnet to be transported in bond to another port for exportation, the appropriate transit voucher shall be accepted in lieu of Customs Forms 7512. One transit voucher shall be certified by Customs officers at the port of importation and a second transit voucher, together with the reexportation voucher, shall be certified at the port of exportation. [TDs 55801, 71-70, 82-116.]

(b) The merchandise shall be forwarded in accordance with the general provisions for transportation in bond, §§ 18.1–18.8.

(c) If the merchandise is to be transferred after arrival at the selected port of exportation, the procedure prescribed in § 18.3(d) shall be followed. The provisions of §§ 18.23 and 18.24 shall also be followed in applicable cases.

§ 18.27 Port marks.

Port marks may be added by authority of the district director and under the supervision of a Customs officer. The original marks and the port marks shall appear in all papers pertaining to the exportation.

[10] "If any merchandise entered or withdrawn for exportation without payment of the duties thereon, or with intent to obtain a drawback of the duties paid, or of any other allowances given by law on the exportation thereof, is relanded at any place in the United States without entry therefor having been made, the same shall be considered and treated as having been imported into the United States contrary to law, and all persons concerned therein and such merchandise shall be liable to the same penalties as are prescribed by section 593 of this Act." (Tariff Act of 1930, sec. 589; 19 U.S.C. 1589)

The provisions of § § 18.41 through 18.45 apply only to merchandise to be exported under cover of a TIR carnet for the convenience of the U.S. exporter or other party in interest and do not apply to merchandise otherwise required to be transported in bond under the provisions of this chapter. Merchandise to be exported under cover of a TIR carnet for the convenience of the U.S. exporter or other party in interest may be transported with the use of the facilities of either bonded or nonbonded carriers. (80 Stat. 379, R.S. 251, as amended, secs. 551, 624, 46 Stat. 742, as amended; 19 U.S.C. 1551) [TDs 71-70, 71-263.]

§ 18.42 Direct exportation.

At the port of exportation, the container or road vehicle, the merchandise, and the TIR carnet shall be made available to the district director of Customs. Any required export declarations shall be filed in accordance with the applicable regulations of the Bureau of the Census (15 CFR Part 30) and the Office of Export Control (15 CFR Part 386). The district director shall examine the merchandise to the extent he believes necessary to determine that the carnet has been properly completed and shall verify that the container or road vehicle has the necessary certificate of approval or approval plate intact and is in satisfactory condition. After completion of any required examination and supervision of loading, the district director shall cause the container or road vehicle to be sealed with Customs seals and ascertain that the TIR plates are properly affixed and sealed. (See § 18.4a.) In the case of heavy or bulky goods moving under cover of a TIR carnet, the district director shall cause a Customs seal or label, as appropriate, to be affixed. He shall also remove two vouchers from the carnet, execute the appropriate counterfoils, and return the carnet to the carrier or agent to accompany the merchandise. [TD 71-70.]

§ 18.43 Indirect exportation.

(a) When merchandise is to move from one U.S. port to another for actual exportation at the second port, any export declarations required to be validated shall be filed in accordance with the port of origin procedure described in the applicable regulations of the Bureau of the Census and of the Office of Export Control. [TD 71-70.]

(b) The district director shall follow the procedure provided in § 18.42 in respect to examination of the merchandise, supervision of loading, sealing or labeling, and affixing of TIR plates. He shall remove one voucher from the carnet, execute the appropriate counterfoil, and return the carnet to the carrier or agent to accompany the container or road vehicle to the port of actual exportation.

(c) At the port of actual exportation, the carnet and the container (or heavy or bulky goods) or road vehicle shall be presented to the district director who shall verify that seals or labels are intact and that there is no evidence of tampering. After verification, the district director shall remove the appropriate voucher from the carnet, execute the counterfoil, and return the carnet to the carrier or agent.

§ 18.44 Abandonment of exportation.

In the event that exportation is abandoned at any time after merchandise has been placed under cover of a TIR carnet, the carrier or agent shall deliver the carnet to the nearest customs office or to the Customs office at the port of origin for cancellation (see § 114.26(c) of this chapter). When the carnet has been canceled, the carrier or agent may remove Customs seals or labels and unload the container (or heavy or bulky goods) or road vehicle without customs supervision. [TD 71-70.]

§ 18.45 Supervision of exportation.

The provisions of § § 18.41 through 18.44 do not require the district director of Customs at the port of actual exportation to verify that merchandise moving under cover of a TIR carnet is loaded on board the exporting carrier. [TD 71-70.]

All the premises so leased shall be leased on public account and the storage and other charges shall be deposited and accounted for as customs receipts, and the rates therefor shall not be less than the charges for storage and similar services made at such port of entry by commercial concerns for the storage and handling of merchandise. No collector or other officer of the customs shall own, in whole or in part, any bonded warehouse or enter into any contract or agreement for the lease or use of any building to be thereafter erected as a public store or warehouse. § 19.3 Bonded warehouses; alterations; suspensions; discontinuance.

(a) Alterations in bonded warehouses, class 6 or 7, may be made by permission of the district director, unless they constitute a material change in the premises, in which case the approval of Headquarters, U.S. Customs Service is required. All alterations to warehouses of class 2, 3, 4, 5, or 8, or combinations thereof, may be made by permission of the district director without approval of Headquarters, U.S. Customs Service. [TD 52019.]

(b) The use of all or part of a bonded warehouse or bonded floor or space may be temporarily suspended by the district director on written application of the proprietor if there are no bonded goods in the area concerned. If the application is approved by the district director, he shall require all goods in such warehouse upon which the duty has not been paid to be transferred to another bonded warehouse without expense to the Government. The number of warehouses covered by a general bond may be reduced by discontinuance without necessitating a new bond unless the proprietor so desires. [TDs 38652, 52019.]

(d) The bonded status of a warehouse may be discontinued if, within 30 days after the date of receipt of a written demand by the district director, the proprietor fails to submit a written list of the names, addresses, social security numbers, and dates and places of birth of all persons employed by him in the carriage, receiving, storage or delivery of imported merchandise; or if, having furnished such a list, the proprietor fails to advise the district director in writing of the names, addresses, social security numbers, and dates and places of birth of any new personnel employed by him in the carriage, receiving, storage or delivery of imported merchandise within 10 days after such employment. If the employment of any such person is terminated, the proprietor shall promptly advise the district director. For the purpose of this part, a person shall not be deemed to be employed by a warehouse proprietor if he is an officer or employee of an independent contractor engaged by the warehouse proprietor to load, unload, transport, or otherwise handle imported merchandise. [TD 71-39.]

(e) The district director may at any time serve notice in writing upon any proprietor of a bonded warehouse to show cause why his right to continue the bonded status of his warehouse should not be discontinued for failure to comply with the requirements established in accordance with paragraph (d) of this section. Such notice shall advise him of the allegations and shall afford him the right to respond in writing within 10 days. Thereafter, the district director shall consider the allegations and responses made by the said proprietor unless the proprietor in his response requests a hearing. If a hearing is requested, it shall be held before a hearing officer designated by the Secretary of the Treasury or his designee within 30 days following requests therefor. The proprietor may be represented by counsel at such hearing, and all evidence and testimony of witnesses in such proceedings, including substantiation of the allegations and the responses thereto shall be presented, with the right of cross-examination to both parties. A stenographic record of any such proceeding shall be made and a copy thereof shall be delivered to the proprietor of the warehouse. At the conclusion of such proceeding or review of a written response, the hearing officer or the district director, as the case may be, shall forthwith transmit all papers and the stenographic record of the hearing, if held, to the Commissioner of Customs together with his recommendation for final action. The proprietor may submit in writing additional views or arguments to the Commissioner, following a hearing on the basis of the stenographic record, within 10 days after delivery to him of a copy of such record. The Commissioner shall thereafter render his decision in writing, stating his reasons therefor, with respect to the action proposed by the hearing officer or the district director. Such decision shall be served on the proprietor of the warehouse. (Secs. 555, 556, 46 Stat. 743; 19 U.S.C. 1555, 1556) [TD 71-39.]

(f) Upon compliance with the provisions of paragraph (d) of this section, manipulated merchandise may be further manipulated before withdrawal in cases where the district director is satisfied that this will not endanger the revenue or interfere with the efficient conduct of Customs business. The merchandise remaining in the warehouse shall be properly repacked after each manipulation.

(g) Manipulated merchandise may be withdrawn under any form of withdrawal, but no withdrawal shall be accepted for less than an entire repacked package. Each type of withdrawal filed shall contain a summary statement indicating the quantity in the warehouse account after manipulation and immediately before the withdrawal, the quantity withdrawn on the particular withdrawal, and the quantity remaining in the warehouse after the withdrawal. Manufacturing Warehouses

§ 19.13 Requirements for establishment of warehouse.

(a) Buildings or parts of buildings and other enclosures may be designated as bonded manufacturing warehouses if Headquarters, U.S. Customs Service is satisfied that their location, construction, and arrangement afford adequate protection to the revenue.[16] Such warehouses shall be used solely and exclusively for the purpose for which they are bonded. The general provisions pertaining to warehouses for the storage of bonded merchandise shall, so far as relevant, apply to bonded manufacturing warehouses. [TDs 38547, 47195, 52395.]

(b) Application for the establishment of such a warehouse shall be made to the district director for the port where the premises are situated, setting forth the size, construction, and location of the premises, the manufacture proposed to be carried on, and the kinds of materials intended to be stored and used therein.

(c) The procedure outlined in § 19.2 with respect to the application to bond the premises and the execution of the bond shall be followed. [TDs 49365, 53399.]

(d) A list of all articles intended to be manufactured in the warehouse shall be filed in duplicate with the district director, who shall transmit one copy to Headquarters, U.S. Customs Service. Such list shall set forth the specific names under which the articles are to be exported and under which they will be known to the trade, and shall show the names of all the ingredients entering into the manufacture of such articles, with the quantities of such ingredients or materials as may be dutiable or taxable.[17]

(e) Proprietors of such warehouses are required to conform strictly to the formulas filed with the bond, or subsequently, and in no instance shall an article be permitted to be manufactured in or withdrawn from the warehouse which does not contain all the ingredients and in the quantities specified in the formula for the manufacture of such article, or which contains any ingredient not specified in the formula. [TD 18278.]

(f) Manufactured articles shall be marked with the trade name of the goods and may be marked, in addition, with the formulas and with such insignia or name as may be indicated or desired by the purchaser, if such additional marking will in no manner conflict with the requirements of the formula or present or create a false or misleading statement or impression. [TDs 21799, 53336.]

(g) Each bonded manufacturing warehouse shall have a portion separated from the remainder of the premises and secured by Customs locks to be used exclusively for the storage of all imported merchandise, domestic spirits, or other materials subject to internal-revenue tax transferred into such warehouse for manufacture. A like compartment shall be provided to be used exclusively for the storage of products manufactured in the warehouse. The premises shall be so secured as to prevent any person from having access thereto in the absence of the Customs warehouse officer in charge, and the goods stored therein shall be so arranged as to give all practicable convenience to such officer in making the required examination or taking samples for analysis. (Sec. 311, 46 Stat. 691, as amended; 19 U.S.C. 1311)

§ 19.14 Materials for use in manufacturing warehouse.

Such form shall be prepared in 5 copies and shall contain all of the statistical information as provided in § 141.61(e) of this chapter. If the merchandise is not to be taken immediately to the manufacturing warehouse, a warehouse or rewarehouse entry, as the case may be, shall be made and Customs Form 7521 used as a combined withdrawal and entry for manufacturing warehouse. If the merchandise has been imported or entered for warehouse at another port, it may be forwarded to the port at which the manufacturing warehouse is located under an immediate transportation without appraisement entry or warehouse withdrawal for transportation, whichever is applicable. [TDs 18868, 73-312.]

§ 19.17 Application to establish warehouse; bond.

(a) Application for the bonding of a plant of a manufacturer engaged in the smelting or refining, or both, of metal-bearing materials as provided for in section 312, Tariff

Act of 1930, as amended,[22] to reduce the metal content thereof to an unwrought metal, or metal in the form of oxides or other compounds which are obtained directly from the treatment of the dutiable materials provided for in schedule 6, part 1 or 2, Tariff Schedules of the United States, shall be made by the manufacturer, through the district director of the district in which such plant is situated, giving the location of the premises and setting forth the work proposed to be carried on therein, accompanied by the fee prescribed by § 24.12(a)(1)(iii) of this chapter. If two or more plants are to be covered by the smelting and refining bond the application may be filed with any district director of a district in which smelting and refining operations are to be conducted, accompanied by a copy of such application for each district director in whose district the smelting and refining warehouse or warehouses are proposed to be established, and the prescribed fee for each warehouse. On receipt of the original application or a copy thereof, each district director shall make a survey of the premises in his own district and submit his recommendations to Headquarters, U.S. Customs Service. [TDs 41494, 52395, 55974.]

(b) Upon 10 days' notice from the district director, the manufacturer shall be required to renew his bond and if he fails to do so no further permits shall be granted for removals from or transfers to his warehouse.

(c) At the request of the proprietor the bonded status of the warehouse may be discontinued at any time, provided Headquarters, U.S. Customs Service approves such discontinuance and the proprietor complies with directions of the district director with respect to such merchandise as may remain in the warehouse.

(d) Upon the importation at any seaboard or frontier port of the United States of metal-bearing materials in any form intended for a bonded smelting or refining warehouse situated at some other port of entry, they may be forwarded under an immediate transportation without appraisement entry. [TDs 37775, 55974.]

(e) Upon the arrival of imported metal-bearing materials in any form for the purpose of being smelted or refined, or both, in bond at a port where a bonded smelting or refining warehouse is established, they shall be entered for warehouse. A bond on Customs Form 7555 shall be filed with each warehouse entry unless a blanket smelting and refining bond in the form authorized in T.D. 72-244, has been filed. The district director shall thereupon issue a permit to the inspector to send such metal-bearing materials from the importing vessel or vehicle by designated bonded vessels or vehicles to the smelting and refining warehouse named in the entry. [TDs 40651, 53399, 55974, 72-244, 74-227.]

(f) Bonded metal-bearing materials shall be kept separate and distinct from nonbonded material until they have been sampled and weighed. [TD 55974, 74-297.]

(g) Where two or more smelting and refining warehouses are included under one blanket smelting and refining bond, an overall statement shall be filed by the principal of the warehouse with Headquarters, U.S. Customs Service and each district director involved by the 28th of each month, showing the inventory as of the close of the preceding month, of all metals on hand at each plant covered by the blanket bond and the total of bonded charges for all plants. Each district director in whose district a plant or plants are located shall be responsible for the determination as to the correctness of the inventory report insofar as the amounts held at plants under his jurisdiction are concerned. All discrepancies which cannot be reconciled by the district director shall be reported to

[22] "* * * Metal-bearing materials may be entered into a bonded smelting or refining warehouse without the payment of duties thereon and there smelted or refined, or both, together with metal-bearing materials of domestic or foreign origin. Upon arrival of imported metal-bearing materials at the warehouse they shall be sampled according to commercial methods and assayed, both under customs supervision. The bond shall be charged with a sum equal in amount to the duties which would be payable on such metal-bearing material in their condition as imported if entered for consumption, and the bond charge shall be adjusted to reflect changes in the applicable rate of duty occurring while the imported materials are still covered by the bond.

"(b) The several charges against such bond may be canceled in whole or in part—

"(1) upon the exportation from the bonded warehouses which treated the metal-bearing materials, or from any other bonded smelting or refining warehouse, of a quantity of the same kind of metal contained in any product of smelting or refining of metal-bearing materials equal to the dutiable quantity contained in the imported metal-bearing materials less wastage provided for in subsection (c), or

"(2) upon payment of duties on the dutiable quantity of metal contained in the imported metal-bearing materials, or

"(3) upon the transfer of the bond charges to another bonded smelting or refining warehouse by physical shipment of a quantity of the same kind of metal contained in any product of smelting or refining of metal-bearing materials equal to the dutiable quantity contained in the imported metal-bearing materials less wastage provided for in subsection (c), or

"(4) upon the transfer of the bond charges to a bonded customs warehouse other than a bonded smelting or refining warehouse by physical shipment of a quantity of the same kind of metal contained in any product of smelting or refining equal to the dutiable quantity contained in the imported metal-bearing materials less wastage provided for in subsection (c), and upon withdrawal from such other warehouse for exportation or domestic consumption the provisions of this section shall apply, or

"(5) upon the transfer to another bonded smelting or refining warehouse without physical shipment of metal of bond charges representing a quantity of dutiable metal contained in imported metal-bearing materials less wastage provided for in subsection (c) of the plant of initial treatment of such materials provided there is on hand at the warehouse to which the transfer is made sufficient like metal in any form to satisfy the transferred bond charges.

"(c) For purposes of paragraphs (1), (3), (4), and (5) of subsection (b), due allowances shall be made for wastage of metals other than copper, lead, and zinc, as ascertained from time to time by the Secretary of the Treasury.

"(d) Upon the exportation of a product of smelting or refining other than refined metal the bond shall be credited with a quantity of metal equivalent to the quantity of metal contained in the product exported less the proportionate part of the deductions allowed for losses in determination of the bond charge being canceled that would not ordinarily be sustained in production of the specific product exported as ascertained from time to time by the Secretary of the Treasury.

"(e) Two or more smelting or refining warehouses may be included under one general bond and the quantities of each kind of metal subject to duty on hand at all of such warehouses may be aggregated to satisfy the bond obligation.

"(f) For purposes of this section—

"(1) The term 'metal-bearing materials' means metal-bearing ores and other metal-bearing materials provided for in schedule 6, part 1, of the Tariff Schedules of the United States, 'metal waste and scrap' and 'un- wrought metal' to be smelted or refined provided for in schedule 6, part 2, of such schedules, and metal compounds to be processed for the recovery of their metal content;

"(2) the term 'smelting or refining' embraces only pyrometallurgical, hydrometallurgical, and electrometallurgical, chemical, or other processes—

Headquarters, U.S. Customs Service. If Headquarters finds that the aggregate quantity of dutiable metal at the several plants does not equal the quantity charged against the blanket bond, duties shall be collected for the quantity determined to be deficient. § 19.18 Smelting and refining; allowance for wastage; withdrawal for consumption.

(a) Except where absolute deductions have been allowed in the liquidation of the entry for losses on copper, lead, and zinc content of metal-bearing materials, pursuant to schedule 6, part 1, headnote 4(b), Tariff Schedules of the United States (see § 151.55 of this chapter), the actual percentage of losses by weight shall be allowed if more than 90 percent by weight of: (1) The zinc content initially treated at any lead plant, (2) the copper content of the imported materials treated at any zinc plant, or (3) the copper, lead, or zinc content of the imported material initially treated at any plant other than a copper, lead, or zinc plant is lost in processing such materials. Such actual percentage of losses by weight of the metal content shall be that shown by the manufacturer's annual statement. Such losses shall be applied in the liquidation of the entry to materials entered for consumption or for warehouse, during a 12-month period beginning on the first day of the month nearest to 90 days after the close of the manufacturer's fiscal year immediately preceding such 90-day period, provided the importer makes claim therefor in writing at the time the merchandise is entered. No further wastage shall be allowed. The full dutiable contents of such metal-bearing materials, as ascertained by commercial assay made by the Government chemists, lese the wastage allowance (including dutiable metals entirely lost in smelting or refining, or both), shall constitute the quantity of dutiable metal which must be either exported, duty-paid, or transferred to another bonded warehouse in order to secure the cancellation of the charge made against the proprietor's bond as shown by the warehouse or rewarehouse entry account. [TDs 35885, 38367, 41494, 45663, 47404, 52395, 52626, 53336, 53399, 53792, 54933, 55228, 55974, 73–175.]

(b) Upon the withdrawal for consumption of metal so smelted or refined, or both, duty shall be collected thereon without the allowance for wastage, except where the metal was transferred to a bonded Customs warehouse other than a smelting warehouse and withdrawn therefrom for consumption. However, duty-paid warehouse withdrawals for consumption may be filed with regard to metal which will be physically withdrawn in the form of smelted or refined products whether at the time of the filing of the withdrawal papers the dutiable metal covered by the bond charge being cancelled by the withdrawal is in the form of ores, concentrates, crude metals, or intermediate products. If the warehouse withdrawal for consumption covers a product which does not sustain the full wastage allowable (see § 19.22) prior to being physically released from Customs custody, a proportionate part only of such wastage may be allowed. The warehouse withdrawal and delivery permit shall state the estimated amount of the dutiable metal contained in the products, and the warehouse withdrawal shall specify the applicable wastage. A quantity of dutiable metal equivalent to the smelted or refined products covered by each withdrawal for consumption must be actually on hand at the plant or plants covered by the bond at the time of filing the withdrawals; but neither the actual ability to withdraw smelted or refined products from the warehouse nor the actual physical condition described in the withdrawal will be required at the time of filing the withdrawal. (Sec. 312, 46 Stat. 692, as amended; 19 U.S.C. 1312) [TD 55974, 82–89.]

§ 19.19 Manufacturers' records; annual statement.

(a) Every manufacturer engaged in smelting or refining, or both, shall immediately notify the district director of Customs for the district in which the plant is located of any material change in the character of the metal-bearing materials smelted or refined and of any change in the methods of smelting or refining. Each plant for which any of the deductions provided for in schedule 6, part 1, headnote 4, Tariff Schedules of the United States, is to be claimed shall maintain complete smelting and refining records showing the receipts and disposition of each shipment of materials received in the plant. If losses are to be claimed under paragraph (c) of said headnote, a record shall be kept from which the annual statement described in paragraph (b) of this section shall be prepared. These records shall be retained for a period of not less than 5 years. In the case of records forming the basis of such an annual statement, the period for retention shall run from the date of the related annual statement. All such records shall be made available to the district director of Customs for such inspection and verification as he may deem advisable. [TDs 41494, 54442, 54933, 55974, 67–139.]

(b) Every manufacturer engaged in smelting or refining, or both, who pursuant to paragraph (d) of headnote 4, part 1, schedule 6, Tariff Schedules of the United States, elects to make claim for losses under paragraph (c) of that headnote, shall file with the district director of Customs for the district in which the plant is located an annual statement of losses for the fiscal year for the plant involved not later than 60 days after the termiantion of that fiscal year. No specific form is prescribed in which such statement shall be prepared. As basic information, the statement shall show the quantities of metal-bearing materials on hand at the beginning of the period and the dutiable contents thereof;[23] the quantities of metal-bearing materials received during the period and the dutiable contents thereof; the total metal-bearing materials to be accounted for and the dutiable contents thereof; the quantities of metal-bearing materials on hand at the end of the period and the dutiable contents thereof; and the quantities of metal-bearing materials worked during the period and the dutiable contents thereof. The statement of the quantity of metal-bearing materials worked during the period shall show the quantity of foreign material and the quantity of domestic material put in process during the smelting operations. The statement shall contain such further information concerning the quantities and kinds of metals and intermediary products produced at the plant as will show the wastage sustained in the smelting and refining operation.

[23] By "dutiable contents" is meant the quantity of each metal of a kind subject to duty contained in the material treated. (Sec. 312, 46 Stat. 692, as amended; 19 U.S.C. 1312)

§ 19.20 Withdrawal of products from bonded smelting or refining warehouses.

(a) For exportation. The general procedure governing warehouse withdrawals for exportation shall be followed in the case of the withdrawal for exportation of dutiable metal from a bonded smelting or refining warehouse. [TDs 41494, 53792, 55974.]

(b) For transfer to another bonded warehouse. (1) Withdrawal for transfer to another bonded warehouse shall be at the risk and expense of the applicant, and the general regulations governing the transfer of bonded merchandise from one warehouse to another or the transfer of imported materials from a bonded storage warehouse to a bonded manufacturing warehouse shall be followed so far as applicable.

(2) In the case of transportation to another port, the transportation entry shall show the quantity of metal withdrawn the wastage applicable thereto, and the imported material from which such metal was produced, together with any dutiable metal charged on entry. (Sec. 312, 46 Stat. 692, as amended; 19 U.S.C. 1312)

§ 19.21 Smelting and refining in separate establishments.

(a) If the operations of smelting and refining are not carried on in the same establishment, the smelted and unrefined products obtained from the smelting of imported materials in a bonded smelting warehouse may be removed therefrom for shipment to a bonded refining warehouse located at the same or another port under the general procedure for transfer from one bonded warehouse to another. [TDs 41494, 52626.]

(b) When the transfer is to a bonded refining warehouse located at another port, the smelted and unrefined products or bullion obtained from the smelting of the imported material shall be weighed, sampled, and assayed before withdrawal, the sampling to be performed under Government supervision in accordance with the commercial practice in effect at the plant.

(d) The rewarehouse entry covering the smelted and unrefined products at the bonded refining warehouse to which they are transferred shall be made out in accordance with the weights and duties shown on the withdrawal for transportation.

(e) Upon withdrawal of the metal from the bonded refining warehouse for export, the warehouse account of the refining warehouse shall be credited with the amount of metal so withdrawn, plus the refining wastage prescribed for said refining warehouse, plus the smelting wastage prescribed for the bonded smelting warehouse in which the smelted and unrefined products were produced, together with the amount of any dutiable metals entirely lost in the smelting or refining, or both. However, when the metal is withdrawn for consumption, duty shall be collected on an amount of metal-bearing materials in their condition as imported equivalent to that from which such metal would be producible. No allowance for either smelting or refining wastage shall be permitted, except where the metal is withdrawn from a Customs warehouse other than a bonded smelting and refining warehouse. (Sec. 312, 46 Stat. 692, as amended; 19 U.S.C. 1312) [TD 55974.]

Upon withdrawal for exportation of metal from a bonded warehouse engaged in refining, or smelting and refining, part of which metal was obtained from imported crude metal and part from crude metal produced by smelting imported materials, the warehouse account shall be credited with the quantity of metal so withdrawn, plus (a) the refining wastage allowance prescribed for that establishment, and (b) the smelting wastage allowance prescribed for the establishment in which the imported materials were smelted, and (c) any dutiable metals shown on the warehouse entry or the rewarehouse entry filed at the first-mentioned warehouse which have been lost and are attributable to the exported product. However, upon withdrawal of such refined metal for consumption, no allowance shall be made for wastage except where the withdrawal is made from a bonded Customs warehouse other than a bonded smelting and refining warehouse. (Sec. 312, 46 Stat. 692, as amended; 19 U.S.C. 1312) [TDs 41494, 52626, 53399, 55974.]

§ 19.23 Withdrawal for exportation from one port to be credited on warehouse entry account at another port.

On exportation of metal pursuant to the provisions of section 312(b)(1), Tariff Act of 1930, as amended,[24] the general procedure covering warehouse withdrawals for exportation shall be followed. The proprietor of the plant from which the withdrawal is made shall prepare a sufficient number of copies of withdrawals on Customs Form 7512, in addition to any other copies required by the regulations, to enable the district director at the port of withdrawal to forward a copy to the district director for each district where credit is to be applied. Such withdrawals shall designate the plant or plants which are to receive the credit, shall specify the warehouse entry number or numbers to which the credit is to be applied, and shall state the quantity of dutiable metal which is to be applied to each warehouse entry specified, and when any of the credits specified represent the last withdrawal against a particular warehouse entry, the words "final withdrawal" shall be shown on the withdrawal. When two or more plants in a given district are designated to receive credit, sufficient copies of the withdrawals shall be prepared to cover each such plant and entry. If at the time of withdrawal the warehouse proprietor does not know the plants or warehouse entry numbers which are to be credited with the withdrawal, or the metallic content of the dutiable metal being exported, the preparation of the before-mentioned copies of Customs Form 7512 may be postponed for a period of not longer than 30 days from the date of the movement of the dutiable metal from the plant. In such cases, a so-called memorandum withdrawal, in the number of copies provided for in § 144.37 of this chapter, may be used in the first instance for the purpose of obtaining the required Customs record of the exportation of the dutiable metal under Customs supervision. All memorandum withdrawals shall be conspicuously endorsed "Memorandum Withdrawal."

(b) The wastage allowance established for the plant from which the original withdrawal for transportation was made shall be shown on the transfer withdrawal and set up as a part of the charge against the bond at the plant to which the metal was theoretically transferred. Such wastage shall govern and be the basis for allowance when metal is withdrawn from the plant where the theoretical rewarehousing was effect (Sec. 312, 46 Stat. 692, as amended; 19 U.S.C. 1312)

(2) The wastage in effect on the date of entry at the plant of initial treatment of such materials.

(3) The proportion of any other dutiable metals in the importation being credited which were lost at the said plant in the production of a quantity of dutiable metal equal to that exported.

(b) If credit is being applied to a charge set up by a theoretical transfer under § 19.24 at the plant designated in the withdrawal to receive the credit, the wastages to be applied shall be those set up at such plant in connection with the theoretical transfer, irrespective of the date of the withdrawal. [TD 55974.]

(c) On the transfer of dutiable metal to a bonded storage warehouse, credit shall be applied at the plant designated in the withdrawal to receive the credit in the manner provided for in paragraph (a) of this section with respect to withdrawals for exportation. The charge so credited at the plant shall be set up on the warehouse entry account of the storage warehouse to which the dutiable metal has been transferred. In the case of the withdrawal of dutiable metal for transfer to a bonded manufacturing warehouse, credit shall be applied in the same manner at the plant designated in the withdrawal to receive the credit, but the charge set upon the warehouse entry account of the bonded manufacturing warehouse shall be limited to the quantity of dutiable metal transferred to such warehouse. (2) The container station operator refuses or neglects to obey any proper order of a Customs officer or any Customs order, rule, or regulation relative to the operation of a container station;

(3) The container station operator or an officer of a corporation which has been granted the privilege of operating a container station is convicted of a felony, or is convicted of a misdemeanor involving theft, smuggling, or a theft-connected crime;

(b) Notice and appeal. The district director shall suspend or revoke the privilege of operating a container station by serving notice of the proposed action in writing upon the container station operator. The notice shall be in the form of a statement specifically setting forth the grounds for revocation or suspension of the privilege and shall be final and conclusive upon the container station operator unless he shall file with the district director a written notice of appeal. The container station operator may file a written notice of appeal from the revocation or suspension within 10 days following receipt of the notice of revocation or suspension. The notice of appeal shall be filed in duplicate and shall set forth the response of the container station operator to the statement of the district director. The container station operator, in his notice of appeal, may request a hearing.

(c) Hearing on appeal. If a hearing is requested, it shall be held before a hearing officer designated by the Secretary of the Treasury or his designee within 30 days following application therefor. Following a hearing and within 10 calendar days after delivery of a copy of the stenographic record, the container station operator may submit to the Commissioner of Customs, in writing, additional views and arguments on the basis of such record. § 22.1 Drawback allowance.

Drawback of duties shall be allowed as provided for in section 313, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended,[1] on articles manufactured or produced in the United States wholly or in part with the use of imported or substituted merchandise, on meats cured with imported salt, and on vessels and aircraft built and equipped in the United States for foreign account and ownership,[2] subject to compliance with the regulations in this part. [TDs 52417, 52826, 52894, 54231, 54750.]

[1] "(a) Articles made from imported merchandise. Upon the exportation of articles manufactured or produced in the United States with the use of imported merchandise, the full amount of the duties paid upon the merchandise so used shall be refunded as drawback, less 1 per centum of such duties, except that such duties shall not be so refunded upon the exportation of flour or byproducts produced from wheat imported after ninety days after the date of the enactment of this act. * * *

"(b) Substitution for drawback purposes. If imported duty-paid merchandise and duty free or domestic merchandise of the same kind and quality are used in the manufacture or production of articles within a period not to exceed three years from the receipt of such imported merchandise by the manufacturer or producer of such articles, there shall be allowed upon the exportation of any such articles, notwithstanding the fact that none of the imported merchandise may actually have been used in the manufacture or production of the exported articles, an amount of drawback equal to that which would have been allowable had the merchandise used therein been imported; but the total amount of drawback allowed upon the exportation of such articles, together with the total amount of drawback allowed in respect of such imported merchandise under any other provision of law, shall not exceed 99 per centum of the duty paid on such imported merchandise.

§ 22.3 Application for establishment of drawback rate.

(a) General.—Each manufacturer or producer of articles intended for exportation with benefit of drawback (whether a primary, intermediate, or final manufacturer or producer of the articles, and whether or not the articles are of a character covered by a general drawback rate) shall make application for the establishment of a rate of drawback. The application shall be made on Customs Form 4477 or in a substantially similar form and shall be filed with the district director at any port of entry. When it is desired to export articles before an application in such form can be delivered in the regular course of the mails, a telegraphic application will be accepted provided it shows the name of the manufacturer or producer, the name of the merchandise used, the name of the articles being exported, and the location of the factory at which the articles are manufactured or produced, and provided it is followed promptly by an application in the prescribed form. [TDs 45185(2), 46412, 48490, 48524, 49639, 52002, 52037, 52894, 79-65.]

(b) Vessels or aircraft.—In the case of a vessel or aircraft on which drawback is to be claimed under section 313(g), Tariff Act of 1930, the application prescribed in paragraph (a) of this section shall be made by the builder of the vessel or aircraft.

(c) Abandonment of applications.—The manufacturer or producer may abandon his application for the establishment of a rate of drawback by filing a written statement to that effect with the Customs officer with whom the application was filed. An application shall be considered abandoned if supporting drawback statements are not filed within one year of receipt of the application.

(a) Each manufacturer or producer shall keep records which will establish, as to all articles manufactured or produced for exportation with benefit of drawback, the date or inclusive dates of manufacture or production, the quantity and identity of the imported duty-paid merchandise or of articles manufactured or produced under drawback regulations (referred to hereafter in this part as drawback products) used, the quantity and description of the articles manufactured or produced, and the quantity of waste incurred. If claim for waste is waived, the manufacturer or producer shall keep records which will establish the quantity and identity of the imported duty-paid merchandise or drawback products appearing in the articles manufactured or produced, in which case records need not be kept of either the quantity of waste incurred or of the quantity imported duty-paid merchandise or drawback products used, unless such records are necessary to enable the manufacturer or producer to establish the quantity of imported duty-paid merchandise or drawback products appearing in the articles. When the waste has a value and the manufacturer or producer has not limited his claims to the quantity of imported duty-paid merchandise or drawback, products appearing in the articles, the records shall show the factory value of the imported duty-paid merchandise or drawback products used and the factory value of the waste in order that in the liquidation of the drawback entry the quantity of imported duty-paid merchandise or drawback products used may be reduced by the quantity thereof which the value of the waste will replace. The records of the manufacturer or producer shall also show the quantity, if any, of duty-free or domestic merchandise used when such records are necessary to the determination of the quantity of imported duty-paid merchandise or drawback products used in the manufacture or production of the articles or appearing therein. In cases where two or more products result from the manipulation of the imported duty-paid merchandise, records shall be kept which will show the values of such products at the time of separation. An abstract of the records kept by the manufacturer or producer shall be filed with the drawback entry. [TDs 48490, 53268, 79-65.]

[2] Section 313(g), Tariff Act of 1930, applies only to materials used in the original construction and equipment of the vessels or aircraft and not to materials used for alteration or repair. The term "foreign account and ownership" contemplates only vessels or aircraft built and equipped for the account of an owner or owners residing in a foreign country and having a bona fide intention that the vessel or aircraft shall, when completed, be owned and operated under the flag of a foreign country.

* * * * *

"(f) Exportation of meats cured with imported salt. Upon the exportation of meats, whether packed or smoked, which have been cured in the United States with imported salt, there shall be refunded, upon satisfactory proof that such meats have been cured with imported salt, the duties paid on the salt so used in curing such exported meats, in amounts not less than $100.

"(g) Materials for construction and equipment of vessels built for foreigners. The provisions of this section shall apply to materials imported and used in the construction and equipment of vessels built for foreign account and ownership, or for the government of any foreign country, notwithstanding that such vessels may not within the strict meaning of the term be articles exported.

"(h) Time limitation on exportation. No drawback shall be allowed under the provisions of this section unless the completed article is exported within five years after importation of the imported merchandise.

"(i) Regulations. Allowance of the privileges provided for in this section shall be subject to compliance with such rules and regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury shall prescribe, which may include, but need not be limited to, the fixing of a time limit within which drawback entries or entries for refund under any of the provisions of this section or section 309(b) of this Act shall be filed and completed, and the designation of the person to whom any refund or payment of drawback shall be made.

"(j) Source of payment. Any drawback of duties that may be authorized under the provisions of this Act shall be paid from the customs receipts of Puerto Rico, if the duties were originally paid into the Treasury of Puerto Rico." (Tariff Act of 1930, sec. 313, as amended; 19 U.S.C. 1313)

[3] There is no authority of law for the allowance of drawback of customs duty on articles manufactured or produced in the United States and shipped to Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands, American Samoa, Wake Island, Midway Islands, Kingman Reef, the island of Guam, Canton Island, Enderbury Island, Johnston Island, or Palmyra Island. [TD 79-276.]

(b) The imported duty-paid merchandise or drawback products shall be stored in a manner which will enable the manufacturer or producer to determine, in conjunction with his storage records, the import entry, certificate of delivery, or certificate of manufacture and delivery number or numbers under which they were received, and to identify with respect to such import entry, certificate of delivery, or certificate of manufacture and delivery number or numbers the imported duty-paid merchandise or drawback products used in the manufacture or production of the articles, and to establish whether such articles were exported within 5 years after the importation of the duty-paid merchandise. [TDs 52041, 53336.]

(c) The articles manufactured or produced shall be stored or marked in a manner which will preserve the identification established by means of the storage records and the records of manufacture or production.

(d) Each person required by § § 22.15 and 22.16(c) to certify to the delivery of imported merchandise or drawback products shall store such merchandise or products while they are in his possession and keep records which will enable him to show the quantity, identity, and description of such merchandise or products, the date on which they were received by him, the person from whom they were received, the date on which they were delivered by him to other persons, and the persons to whom such deliveries were made. These records shall be the basis of the certificates or endorsements required under § § 22.15 and 22.16(c). [TD 52894.]

(e) Where it appears to the satisfaction of Headquarters, U.S. Customs Service, or of the district director in appropriate cases, that it is impracticable for the manufacturer or producer to keep records of all the information required for the determination of the drawback which may accrue to the products manufactured or produced by him, complementary records covering the information not available to the manufacturer or producer may be kept by the persons in the United States for whose account the products are manufactured or produced, and abstracts of such records shall be filed with the drawback entry. [TDs 52395, 53268, 54155, 55016.]

(f) When identification is made against two or more lots of imported merchandise of different dutiable values or subject to different rates of duty, or against two or more lots of drawback products subject to different allowances of drawback, the drawback shall be based first upon the lot or lots of the lowest dutiable value, rate of duty, or drawback allowance, as the case may be, then upon the lot or lots of the next higher dutiable value, rate of duty, or drawback allowance, and so on from lower to higher until all the lots have been accounted for. The same principle shall apply in cases where the articles are commingled in storage after manufacture or production. If two or more lots of a fungible product are commingled in storage and quantities thereof are withdrawn for domestic consumption as well as for exportation with benefit of drawback, the withdrawals for domestic consumption shall be accounted for in the order in which the several lots of such product were placed in storage, exclusive of any lots in respect of which drawback has been allowed; and, in the case of the withdrawals for exportation, the drawback allowance thereon shall be based on the lot carrying the lowest allowance of drawback of any of the lots shown by the Customs records to be unaccounted for at the time of withdrawal.

(g) The builder of a vessel or aircraft upon which drawback is to be claimed under section 313(g), Tariff Act of 1930, shall keep the records provided for in this section so far as applicable. An abstract of such records shall be filed with the district director at the headquarters port of the district in which the vessel or aircraft is built in ample time prior to the first departure of the vessel or aircraft from the United States to enable that officer to have the abstract verified by examination of the vessel or aircraft and the builder's records pertaining thereto. [TDs 52037, 53268.]

(h) Each manufacturer or producer shall submit to the regional commissioner where his drawback entries will be liquidated a statement in duplicate describing the methods which he will follow and the records which he will keep for the purpose of establishing that the articles upon which drawback will be claimed have been manufactured or produced in the United States with the use of imported duty-paid merchandise within the meaning of section 313(a), Tariff Act of 1930, and that the records of identification, manufacture, or production and storage prescribed in this section have been maintained. In the case of operations under section 313 (b), (d), or (g), Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, and in the case of operations under any combination of section 313(a) with section 313 (b), (d), or (g), the statement in triplicate shall be submitted to the Commissioner of Customs. The statement shall contain an agreement to follow the methods and keep the records described therein with respect to all articles manufactured or produced for exportation with benefit of drawback. Provision for the use of duty-paid merchandise or drawback products, the manufacture or production of articles not specified in the application for the rate, or the use of factories not named therein may be included in the statement prepared as a result of such application. [TDs 53268, 54155, 55016, 56288, 71-143, 75-44.]

(i) If drawback entries are to be liquidated at more than one regional office, two additional copies of the statement shall be required for each additional office. The procedure outlined in this and the preceding paragraph shall be followed, so far as applicable, when applications for amendments of drawback rates, or supplemental statements, schedules, or supplemental advisory schedules are filed in accordance with paragraph (o), (p), or (q) of this section. [TDs 53268, 71-143.]

(j) If the statement shows that the methods and records described therein enable the manufacturer or producer to comply with the law and regulations, the regional commissioner in a case under section 313(a), Tariff Act of 1930, or Headquarters, U.S. Customs Service in a case under section 313 (b), (d), or (g), Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, and in the case of any combination of section 313(a) with section 313 (b), (d), or (g), will issue the rate of drawback on the articles described in the statement. In cases under § 22.6, the procedure in paragraphs (a) and (b) of that section shall be followed. When the statement in a case under section 313(a), Tariff Act of 1930, shows that entries are to be filed with more than one regional commissioner, the regional commissioner at the place first listed shall issue the rate, if that action is warranted. [TDs 52395, 53268, 54155, 55016, 71-143.]

(k) Each person who keeps complementary records as provided for in paragraph (e) of this section shall file a statement describing such records in accordance with the procedure prescribed for manufacturers and producers in paragraph (h) of this section. Such statement shall be subject to the provisions of paragraphs (i) and (j) of this section. [TD 53268.]

(l) Drawback entries may be filed covering articles exported on or after the date on which the application for establishment of the drawback rate was received by the district director, but such entries shall not be liquidated until the rate has been established or in cases under § 22.6 the statement has been approved. [TDs 52002, 54155.]

(m) When the rate has been established or the statement approved under § 22.6, drawback may be allowed on articles manufactured or produced in accordance therewith and exported on or after the effective date named therein provided all pertinent regulations have been complied with. [TD 54155.]

(n) [Reserved.] [TDs 52002, 53268, 54155, 79-65]

(o)(1) Amendment of rates.—When a manufacturer or producer having a drawback rate desires to have the rate amended under section 313(a), Tariff Act of 1930, or to change a drawback statement filed under § 22.6, he shall submit a revised drawback statement to the regional commissioner who issued the rate. If warranted, the regional commissioner shall issue an amended rate and revoke the superseded rate in the same action. This procedure also shall apply to amendments of the other rates set forth in paragraph (h) of this section. The revised drawback statement shall be submitted to Headquarters, U.S. Customs Service, except as provided in paragraph (o)(2). [TDs 52002, 52395, 54155, 54554, 55016, 56288, 71-143, 79-65.]

(2) A revised drawback statement requesting an amendment under section 313 (b), (d), or (g), Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, shall be submitted to the regional commissioner for action in accordance with paragraph (o)(1), provided the changes covered by the amendment are limited to—

(i) A change in location of the factory of the manufacturer or producer;

(ii) An additional factory at which the methods followed and the records maintained are the same as those at another factory operating under an existing drawback rate of the manufacturer or producer;

(iii) A change in name of the manufacturer or producer;

(iv) The succession of a sole proprietorship, partnership, or corporation to the operations of the manufacturer or producer; or

(v) Any combination of the foregoing changes.

(p) When a rate of drawback provides that the drawback allowance shall be determined on the basis of a schedule filed by the manufacturer or producer showing the quantity of imported material used or appearing in each unit of finished articles, and the rate authorizes the filing of supplemental schedules showing changes in the quantity of imported materials used or appearing in each unit, or different styles or capacities of containers, such supplemental schedules shall be filed with the regional commissioner, district director, or port director of Customs. Drawback may be allowed on the articles covered by a supplemental schedule after it has been approved by the regional commissioner. [TDs 52377, 52490, 53268, 71-143.]

(q) In cases where the drawback allowance is determined on a quantity-used or appearing-in basis, regional commissioners of Customs may request, for the information of liquidating officers in addition to the information required to be filed with the drawback entry, a supplemental advisory schedule showing the quantity of imported merchandise used or appearing in each unit of finished articles. Such schedules shall be filed with the regional commissioner, district director, or port director of Customs. Drawback may be allowed on articles covered by a supplemental advisory schedule after it has been approved by the regional commissioner. [TDs 52377, 52490, 53268, 71-143.]

(r) Expiration, revocation, renewal, or amendment of rates.—(1) Unless renewed by the rate holder in accordance with paragraph (r)(3), drawback rates issued under this section, or contained in statements approved under section 22.6, shall expire 15 years from the date of issuance or approval, or from the date of approval of any amendment, as applicable, provided such date is on or after [effective date of this rule].

(2) If the dates of issuance or approval are before [effective date of this rule], an appropriate Customs officer shall notify the rate holder in writing of the provisions of this paragraph. Unless renewed by the rate holder in accordance with paragraph (r)(3), such rate shall expire the later of:

(i) 15 years from the date of issuance or approval, as applicable, or

(ii) 90 days from the date of the notice to the rate holder.

(3) A rate holder may renew its rate by submitting a request in writing, prior to the expiration of the rate, to each regional commissioner where drawback entries filed under the rate have been liquidated. The rate shall be renewed for a succeeding 15-year period upon receipt of the request.

(4) A rate will be revoked if the rate holder specifically requests revocation in writing to an appropriate Customs officer. [TD 79-65.]

(c) Duty-paid merchandise or articles manufactured or produced under drawback regulations which have been used at one plant of a manufacturer or producer within 3 years after the date on which such material was received by such manufacturer or producer may be designated as the basis for the allowance of drawback on articles manufactured or produced in accordance with the regulations in this part at other plants of the same manufacturer or producer. [TDs 53336, 54231, 54750.]

(d) Drawback shall be allowed although the exported articles are not of the same kind and quality as the articles which were manufactured or produced with the use of the designated merchandise, provided such exported articles were manufactured or produced with the use of merchandise of the same kind and quality as the designated merchandise. [TDs 54231, 54750.]

(e) For purposes of compliance with paragraph (a)(2) of this section, the use of domestic crude petroleum taken in exchange for imported crude petroleum in conformity with Presidential Proclamation No. 3279 of March 10, 1959 (3 CFR, 1959 Supp.) and the Oil Import Regulations issued thereunder (32A CFR Ch. XI), shall constitute use of the imported crude petroleum, provided no certificate of delivery on Customs Form 7543 is issued covering such imported crude petroleum. [TD 55839.]

§ 22.6 General drawback rates in effect; approval of drawback statements by Headquarters, U.S. Customs Service and by regional commissioners.

(a) Drawback statements, filing and approval by one regional commissioner.—Each manufacturer or producer of articles covered by a drawback rate in this section, except under paragraph (g-1), shall submit to the regional commissioner where drawback entries will be filed a drawback statement, in duplicate, describing the methods used in the manufacturer or production of the products involved. The statement also shall set forth the records it agrees to keep for the purpose of complying with the drawback law and regulations and for providing all the data required for the proper liquidation of entries. If the statement provides for compliance with the rate, the regional commissioner shall approve the drawback statement and promptly notify the applicant in writing of the action. Drawback statements, in triplicate, relating to products covered by paragraph (g-1) shall be forwarded to Headquarters, U.S. Customs Service for approval. [TDs 54155, 56288, 56487, 68-203, 71-143, 75-44, 79-65.]

(b) Drawback statements; filing and approval at more than one place. If drawback entries are to be liquidated at more than one regional office, two additional copies of the statement shall be required for each additional office. In such case, the regional commissioner at the place first listed in the drawback statement shall approve the statement, if that action is warranted, and promptly notify the applicant, in writing of such action. [TD 54155, 56288, 71-143.]

(c) Drawback statements; revised.—Revised drawback statements covering changes in drawback statements filed under this section shall be handled in accordance with the provisions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section. [TD 54155, 79-65]

(d) Applicability of other drawback provisions to general rates. The allowance of drawback on articles covered by a drawback rate in this section shall be subject to compliance with the applicable provisions of this part. [TD 54155.]

(e) Bags and meat wrappers. Drawback may be allowed on the exportation of bags or meat wrappers manufactured with the use of imported burlap or other textile material, subject to the following special regulations: [TDs 39415, 40422-V, 49639.]

(1) Each lot of imported material received by a manufacturer shall be given a lot number and kept separate from other lots until used. The records of the manufacturer shall show, as to each manufacturing lot or period of manufacture, the quantity of material used from each import lot and the number of each kind and size of bags or meat wrappers obtained. A certificate of manufacture shall be filed covering each manufacturing lot or period of manufacture.

(2) All bags or meat wrappers manufactured for the account of the same exporter during a specified period may be designated as one manufacturing lot and covered by one certificate of manufacture and delivery. All exported bags or meat wrappers shall be identified by the exporter with the certificate of manufacture covering their manufacture.

(3) The drawback allowance shall not exceed 99 percent of the duty paid on the imported material appearing in the exported bags or meat wrappers, unless the manufacturer desires an allowance for waste and so specifies in his statement. In such cases the records of the manufacturer shall show, in addition to the above requirements, the value of the imported material, the quantity of waste incurred in the manufacture of each lot of bags or meat wrappers, or during each period of manufacture, and the value of such waste, if any; and in liquidation the quantity of imported material which may be used as the basis for the allowance of drawback shall be reduced by the quantity of imported material which the value of the waste will replace. [TD 53268.]

(f) Sugar and sirups; substitution. Drawback may be allowed under the provisions of section 313(b), Tariff Act of 1930, upon the exportation of hard or soft refined sugars and sirups manufactured from raw sugar, subject to the following special regulations: [TDs 39424, 40605, 40903, 44291, 44673, 49639, 52041, 54155.]

(1) The drawback allowance shall not exceed 99 percent of the duty paid on a quantity of raw sugar designated by the refiner which contains a quantity of sucrose not in excess of the quantity required to manufacture the exported sugar or sirup, ascertained in the manner hereinafter set forth.

(2) The refined sugars and sirups shall have been manufactured with use of duty-paid, duty-free, or domestic sugar, or combinations thereof, within 3 years after the date on which the designated sugar was received by the refiner, and shall have been exported within 5 years from the date of importation of the designated sugar. [TD 53336.]

(3) All granulated sugar testing by the polariscope 99.5° and over shall be deemed hard refined sugar. All refined sugar testing by the polariscope less than 99.5° shall be deemed soft refined sugar. All "blackstrap," "unfiltered sirup," and "final molasses" shall be deemed sirup. [TD 53399.]

(4) The imported duty-paid sugar selected by the refiner as the basis for the drawback claim (designated sugar) shall be of the same kind and quality as that used in the manufacture of the exported refined sugar or sirup and shall have been used within 3 years after the date or which it was received by the refiner. Duty-paid sugar which has been used at a plant of a refiner within 3 years after the date on which it was received by such refiner may be designated as the basis for the allowance of drawback on refined sugars or sirups manufactured at another plant of the same refiner. [TD 53336.]

(5) For the purpose of distributing the drawback in accordance with the provisions of section 313, Tariff Act of 1930, relative values shall be established between hard refined (granulated) sugar, soft refined (various grades) sugar, and sirups at the time of separation. The entire period covered by an abstract shall be deemed the time of separation of the sugars and sirups covered by such abstract.

(6) The sucrose allowance per pound on hard refined (granulated) sugar established by the liquidation of an abstract shall be applied to hard refined sugar commercially known as loaf, cut loaf, cube, pressed, crushed, or powdered sugar manufactured from the granulated sugar covered by the abstract.

(7) The sucrose allowance per gallon on sirup established by the liquidation of an abstract shall be applied to sirup further advanced in value by filtration or otherwise, unless such sirup is the subject of a special drawback rate.

(8) As to each lot of imported or domestic sugar used in the manufacture of refined sugar or sirup on which drawback is to be claimed, the raw stock records shall show the refiner's raw lot number, the number and character of the packages, the settlement weight in pounds, and the settlement polarization. Such records covering imported sugar shall show, in addition to the foregoing, the import entry number, date of importation, name of importing carrier, country of origin, the Government weight, and the Government polarization.

(9) The melt records shall show the date of melting, the number of pounds of each lot of raw sugar melted, and the full analysis at melting.

(10) There shall be kept a daily record of final products boiled showing the date of the melt, the date of boiling, the magma filling serial number, the number of the vacuum pan or crystallizer filling, the date worked off, and the sirup filling serial number.

(11) The sirup manufacture records shall show the date of boiling, the period of the melt, the sirup filling serial number, the number of barrels in the filling, the magma filling serial number, the quantity of sirup, its disposition in tanks or barrels, and the refinery serial manufacture number.

(12) The refined sugar stock records shall show the refinery serial manufacture number, the period of the melt, the date of manufacture, the grade of sugar produced, its polarization, the number and kind of packages, and the net weight. When soft sugars are manufactured, the com-

(13) Each lot of hard or soft refined sugar and each lot of sirup manufactured, regardless of the character of the containers or vessels in which it is packed or stored, shall be marked immediately with the date of manufacture and the refinery manufacture number applied to it in the refinery records hereinbefore provided for and shown in the abstract from such records filed in the customhouse. If all the sugar or sirup contained in any lot manufactured is not intended for exportation, only such of the packages as are intended for exportation need be marked as prescribed above, provided there is filed with the district director immediately after such marking a statement showing the date of manufacture, the refinery manufacture number, the number of packages marked, and the quantity of sugar or sirup contained therein. No drawback shall be allowed in such case on any sugar or sirup in excess of the quantity shown on the statement as having been marked. If any packages of sugar or sirup so marked are repacked into other containers, the new containers shall be marked with the marks which appeared on the original containers and a supplemental statement covering such repacking and remarking shall be filed with the district director. If sirups from more than one lot are stored in the same tank, the refinery records shall show the refinery manufacture number and the quantity of sirup from each lot contained in such tank.

(14) An abstract from the foregoing records covering manufacturing periods of not less than 1 month nor more than 3 months, unless a different period shall have been authorized, shall be filed when drawback is to be claimed on any part of the refined sugar or sirup manufactured during such period. Such abstract shall be filed by each refiner with the district director at New York, except as to refineries located in California, Louisiana, Puerto Rico, or Hawaii, for which the abstracts shall be filed respectively with the district directors at San Francisco, New Orleans, San Juan, or Honolulu. The district directors at the ports mentioned shall liquidate the abstracts filed with them and shall keep full and complete records of the kinds and quantities of refined sugars and sirups entitled to drawback on exportation and, upon proper request, shall issue extracts therefrom for use at other ports where drawback entries are filed covering exportations made of such refined sugars and sirups, and shall debit such records with the quantities covered by such extracts. The abstracts filled by each refinery shall be consecutively numbered by the refiner, shall be signed by the head refiner or superintendent or his first assistant, and shall be in the following form: [TDs 52395, 53268, 54155, 68-239.]

(g) Linseed oil, linseed oil cake, and linseed oil meal. Drawback may be allowed under the provisions of section 313(a), Tariff Act of 1930, upon the exportation of linseed oil, linseed oil cake, and linseed oil meal, manufactured with the use of imported flaxseed, subject to the following special regulations: [TDs 48149, 49639, 54155.]

(1) The mill zones hereinafter referred to embrace:

Buffalo Mill Zone; Buffalo, N.Y., Pittsburgh, Pa., West Virginia, Ohio, Indiana, Michigan, and Kentucky.

(2) Except as provided for in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph, the manufacturing period (hereinafter referred to as the abstract period) of each crusher shall be coextensive with the withdrawal of one or more entire lots or cargoes of imported flaxseed, from the storage tanks and the manufacture into oil and cake of the flaxseed so withdrawn. A cut-off shall be made at the storage tanks after the withdrawal of one or more complete lots or cargoes, and all the seed from such lots or cargoes in process or contained in bins, screens, conveyors, cookers, presses, expellers, etc., shall be manufactured during the abstract period in order that there may be no overlapping of seed and product from one abstract period to another. If any seed withdrawn from the storage tanks during any abstract period is disposed of without being manufactured into the products specified in this paragraph, it shall be reported on the certificate of manufacture provided for in subparagraph (4) of this paragraph. The quantity of seed so withdrawn shall be stated according to its condition as imported. [TD 54155.]

(3) Should it become necessary for a crusher to terminate an abstract period before the complete withdrawal from the storage tanks of any lot or cargo of imported flaxseed contained therein, a cut-off shall be made at the storage tanks and the quantity of imported flaxseed remaining in the tanks after the cut-off shall be determined by weighing, gauging, or measuring under the supervision of a Customs officer. Upon application to the district director in whose district the plant of the crusher is located, a Customs officer shall be assigned for this purpose. All flaxseed withdrawn from storage before the cut-off shall be manufactured into oil and cake or otherwise disposed of before a new abstract period is begun.

(5) Such certificate shall show the inclusive dates of manufacture; the quantity, identity, and value (if valuable wastes occur) of the imported flaxseed or screenings, scalpings, chaff, or scourings used; the quantity by actual weight and value, if any, of the material removed from the foregoing by screening prior to crushing; the quantity and kind of domestic merchandise added, if any; the quantity by actual weight or gauge and value of the oil, cake, and meal obtained; and the quantity and value, if any, of the waste incurred. The quantity of imported flaxseed, screenings, scalpings, chaff, or scourings used or of material removed shall not be estimated nor computed on the basis of the quantity of finished products, obtained, but shall be determined by actually weighing the said flaxseed, screenings, scalpings, chaff, scourings, or other material; or, at the option of the crusher, the quantities of imported materials used may be determined from customs weights, as shown by the import entry covering such imported materials, and the Government weight certificate and certificate of analysis issued at the time of entry. The entire period covered by an abstract shall be deemed the time of separation of the oil and cake covered thereby.

(7) The drawback allowance shall be distributed to the oil and cake in accordance with their relative values at the time of separation, and the drawback allowance on the processed oil and on the oil meal shall be the drawback accruing to the raw oil and to the cake from which the processed oil and the meal, respectively, were produced.

(8) In order that the relative values may be determined for use as the bases for the distribution of the drawback to the several products as prescribed in section 313(a), Tariff Act of 1930, each crusher operating under the provisions of this paragraph shall file with the district director, New York, N.Y., within 10 days after the 1st and the 15th days of each month a statement in duplicate showing the quantity of oil in barrels of 375 pounds each and the quantity of cake or meal in tons of 2,000 pounds delivered each day from the mill during the preceding period (that is, 1st to 15th or 16th to the last day of the month) to points in the zone in which the mill is located. The total daily quantity and value of such products delivered with drawback not reserved by the crusher and the total daily quantity of such products delivered with drawback reserved by the crusher shall be stated separately. The value of oil shall be shown on the carload raw basis in barreled condition, that is, if the oil was processed, the processing differential shall be deducted, or, if it was delivered in tank wagons or tank cars, the barreling differential shall be added. The values of cake and meal shall be shown on the carload basis in bags. The values of oil cake, and meal, as outlined above, shall be reported on the basis of the invoices of sale, without deduction for the cost of containers and other charges. [TD 53268.]

(i) The total quantity of oil delivered on a certain day by all crushers in a given mill zone to points within that zone, with drawback not reserved by the crushers, divided into the amount of money received by the crushers for such oil (the quotient to be extended to 6 decimal places), less the amount deducted for the cost of packing and other charges incurred after separation shall be the daily average value of such oil.

(ii) The total quantity of cake delivered on a certain day by all crushers in a given mill zone to points within that zone, with drawback not reserved by the crushers, divided into the amount of money received by the crushers for such cake (the quotient to be extended to 6 decimal places), less the amount deducted for the cost of packing and other charges incurred after separation, shall be the daily average value of such cake

(iii) The total quantity of meal delivered on a certain day by all crushers in a given mill zone to points within that zone, with drawback not reserved by the crushers, divided into the amount of money received by the crushers for such meal (the quotient to be extended to 6 decimal places), less the amount deducted for the cost of packing, grinding, and other charges necessary to reduce such meal to a cake basis, shall be the daily average value of the cake from which such meal was ground.

(iv) The weighted average of the two values determined in accordance with subdivisions (ii) and (iii) of this subparagraph shall be the daily average value of the cake concerned.

(v) If no deliveries of oil, cake or meal are made to a point in the mill zone on a certain day, the last daily average value established by the district director at New York for that product shall be used as the value thereof for the day on which no deliveries were made.

(vi) The amount to be deducted from the delivered value of oil cake, or meal by the district director at New York to make relative value at the point of separation shall be an average amount for each zone obtained by averaging the cost of packing and other charges of all crushers within the zone concerned. In order that this deduction may be made, each crusher shall furnish the district director at New York, from time to time as the collector may request, a statement showing such costs and charges.

(12) Upon the application of any crusher operating under this paragraph, the district director at any of the above-mentioned ports is authorized to advise such crusher of the daily average values of cake and oil established by the district director at New York for the zone in which the crusher is located, and of the relative values of such products as determined for the period covered by an abstract filed by such crusher with the district director to whom application has been made.

(14) If the records of the manufacturer do not show the quantity of oil cake used in the manufacture of the exported oil meal and the quantity of oil meal obtained, the net weight of the oil meal exported shall be regarded in liquidation as the weight of the oil cake used in the manufacture thereof.

(15) If various tanks are used for the storage of imported flaxseed, the mill records shall show by a definite designation the tank or tanks in which each lot or cargo is stored.

(16) If raw or processed oil manufactured during different periods of manufacture is intermixed in storage, a record shall be maintained showing the quantity, identity, and kind of oil so intermixed. Identification shall be made in accordance with § 22.4(f). If oil so intermixed is delivered to manufacturers whe the oil in the manufacture of articles to be exported, the certificate of delivery shall show the certificates of manufacture from which such oil may have originated.

(17) If linseed cake or meal is placed in storage, it shall be segregated by abstract periods or marked to show the period in which it was manufactured.

(g-1) Crude petroleum and petroleum derivatives; substitution. Drawback may be allowed under the provisions of section 313(b), Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, upon the exportation of petroleum products manufactured from crude petroleum or petroleum derivatives, subject to the following regulations: [TD 56487.]

(1) The drawback allowance shall not exceed 99 per centum of the duty paid on the quantity of crude petroleum or petroleum derivatives designated by the refiner in accordance with the law and regulations from which the exported products could have been produced in the exported quantities, in conjunction with the related products, producible by ordinary manufacturing techniques, as determined in the manner hereinafter set forth.

(2) The petroleum products shall have been manufactured with the use of duty-paid, duty-free, or domestic crude petroleum or petroleum derivatives or combinations thereof, within 3 years after the date on which the designated crude petroleum or petroleum derivatives were received by the refiner, and shall have been exported within 5 years from the date of importation of the designated crude petroleum or petroleum derivatives.

(3) The imported duty-paid crude petroleum or petroleum derivatives designated by the refiner as the basis for the drawback claim shall be of the same kind and quality (class) as that used in the manufacture of the exported petroleum products and shall have been used within 3 years after the date on which it was received by the refiner. Duty-paid crude petroleum or petroleum derivatives used at a plant of a refiner within 3 years after the date it was received may be designated as the basis for the allowance of drawback on petroleum products manufactured at another plant of the same refiner.

(4) For purposes of substitution, crude petroleum and petroleum derivatives (hereinafter called raw material) will be divided into the following classes: Class I, 0-11.9° API gravity; Class II, 12°-24.9° API gravity; Class III, 25°-44.9° API gravity; and, Class IV, 45°-up API gravity. Any crude petroleum included in any class shall be considered for the purposes of these regulations as being of the same kind and quality as any other crude petroleum included in the same class; similarly, any named derivative in any class shall be considered as being the same kind and quality as the same named derivative in the same class.

(5) The amount of any one type and class of raw material which may be designated as the basis for the allowance of drawback on the exported products produced at a given refinery and covered by a drawback entry shall not exceed the quantity of such raw material used at the refinery during the abstract period or periods from which the exported products were produced. The quantity of raw material to be designated as the basis for the allowance of drawback on exported products must be at least as great as the quantity of raw material of the same type and class which would be required to produce the exported products in the quantities exported.

(6) For the purpose of distributing the drawback to the several products in accordance with section 313, Tariff Act of 1930, relative values shall be established at the time of separation between all products manufactured. The entire period covered by an abstract shall be deemed the time of separation of the products, and the value per unit of each product shall be the average market value for the abstract period.

(7) The refiner's manufacturing records shall consist of daily gauge reports on all raw material storage tanks, or if no storage tanks are maintained, daily meter records of raw material received. They will also show daily quantities and description of all materials introduced into the manufacturing process, and the quantity and description of each product manufactured.

(8) An abstract from the aforementioned records shall be filed with the district director covering manufacturing periods of not less than 28 days and not more than 31 days, unless a different period shall have been authorized.

Item (6) Products shall be shown on the abstract in the net quantities realized in the refining process and shall not include non-petroleum additives.

Item (9) Quantity of crude (sum of all classes and derivatives) allowable per barrel of product.

A separate abstract will be prepared by each refiner for each refinery from which an export shipment may be made. The abstract filed for each refinery, in the following form, shall be signed by an officer of the company or by an employee with Customs power of attorney having knowledge of the facts.

(9) The refiner will file an inventory control sheet showing for each product, in barrels, the opening inventory, the production, exports, drawback deliveries, domestic shipments, and closing inventory, as well as the drawback factor applicable thereto, as per the following form:

(10) Opening inventory from previous period's closing inventory.
(11) From production period under consideration.
(12) From lowest on hand (inventory or production). Totals from drawback entry or entries recapitulated.
(14) From earliest on hand after items (12) and (13) are deducted.
(15) Balance on hand.

(10) The refiner shall file a combination drawback entry and certificate of manufacture showing the products exported in the quantities established by the notices of lading and other evidence of exportation. Inasmuch as exported products, as described on the notices of lading and other evidence of exportation may include quantities of nonpetroleum additives, a recapitulation shall be made showing quantities exported and the quantity of each product (less additives) in terms of the abstract. [TD 72-310.]

(11) The total quantity of raw material on which drawback may be based, subject to limitations hereinafter specified, shall be computed by multiplying the quantity (in the terms of the abstract) of each product exported by the drawback factor for that product. See "Inventory Control Sheet" for method of accounting.

(12) The amount of drawback determined in accordance with these regulations shall be limited by the quantity of imported duty-paid raw material of the same kind and quality as that used in the manufacture of the exported products in a quantity sufficient to produce such products, with due regard to the products producible concurrently with the exported products and shall not exceed 99 per centum of the duty paid on the imported merchandise against which drawback is claimed.

Item 16 should list only products exported.

Item 17 should be in condition as shown on the notices of exportation and notices of lading.

Item 18 should be in condition as shown on the abstract (i.e., less additives if any).

Item 19 is the lowest drawback factor (inventory or production) shown on the Inventory Control Sheet.

Item 20 is the result of multiplying item 18 by item 19.

(13) The exportation of a given quantity of a product affords a proper basis for the allowance of drawback only to the extent that the product could have been produced in that quantity (together with the quantities of related products concurrently producible) from the imported duty-paid material. The test is whether the conversion is practicably possible by ordinary manufacturing techniques, not laboratory techniques, and is not whether the conversion was actually made.

(14) Industry Standards of Potential Production on a Practical Operating Basis shall be submitted by the industry for each type and class of raw material. Upon verification and adoption by Headquarters, U.S. Customs Service, the standards may be used to establish that the exported products in the quantity exported could have been produced from the quantity of imported duty-paid raw materials designated by the refiner as the basis for the allowance of drawback on the exported products.

(15) While the drawback factors for the products exported will be established on the basis of the volume and values covering the actual production during the refining period of the given refiner, as shown on the abstract filed by that refiner, it is not necessary that the refiner export products in the same percentages as they appear on the abstract, nor need he export products in the exact percentages shown on the applicable standard of potential production. He may limit his exportations to one product and disregard the related products provided that, (i) the drawback allowance shall not exceed 99 per centum of the duty paid on the raw material allowable for designation, and (ii) sufficient duty-paid raw materials (of the required kind and quality) to produce the exported product (together with the quantities of the related products concurrently producible) are available to constitute a proper basis for the allowance of drawback on the exported products.

(16) Whether the exported product or products could have been produced on a practical operating basis from the quantity of duty-paid raw material designated in the drawback entry as the basis for the allowance of drawback on the exported product or products may be established by reference to the standard or standards of potential production for each type and class of raw material identified by the claimant in his drawback entry.

(17) No claim for drawback against imported raw materials shall be allowed unless the refiner in connection with each such claim shall certify that all of the products exported for which draw-back has been or are being claimed could be produced concurrently on a practical operating basis from the imported raw materials against which drawback is claimed.

(h) Piece goods. Drawback may be allowed under the provisions of section 313(a), Tariff Act of 1930, upon the exportation of bleached, mercerized, printed, dyed, or redyed piece goods manufactured or produced by any one or a combination of the foregoing processes with the use of imported or drawback woven piece goods, subject to the following special regulations:

(1) The records of the manufacturer or producer shall show, as to each lot of piece goods manufactured or produced for exportation with benefit of drawback, the lot number and the date or inclusive dates of manufacture or production, the quantity, identity, and value of the imported or drawback piece goods used, the condition in which imported or received (whether in the gray, bleached, dyed, or mercerized), the working allowance specified in the contract under which they are received, the process or processes applied thereto, and the quantity and description of the piece goods obtained.

(2) The records also shall show the yardage lost by shrinkage or gained by stretching during manufacture, and the quantity of remnants resulting and of spoilage incurred.

(3) Further, the records shall show the quantity of rag waste incurred and its value. In instances where it is impracticable to account for the actual quantity of rag waste incurred, it shall be assumed in liquidation that such rag waste constituted 2 percent of the piece goods put into process.

(4) The piece goods manufactured or produced hereunder may also be subjected to one or more finishing processes.

(5) An abstract of the manufacturing or production records shall be filed with the drawback entry.

(6) The quality of piece goods upon which drawback may be allowed shall be computed as follows: Deduct from the quantity of piece goods received the quantity of remnants and spoilage, if any, incurred, the proper allowance to be made for shrinkage or stretch, of any, occurring during manufacture or production. Reduce the remaining quantity by the quantity thereof which the value of the rag waste will replace. When necessary for the purposes of liquidation, the value of the imported or drawback piece goods used shall be furnished by the owner.

(7) The drawback allowance shall not exceed the duty paid, less 1 per centum thereof, on the net quantity of finished piece goods exported, determined as above, as shown by the abstract of the manufacturing or production records; or, in the case of piece goods manufactured or produced hereunder with the use of drawback piece goods, the drawback accruing to such net quantity, as established by the abstract of the manufacturing or production records and the certificates of manufacture and delivery covering the drawback piece goods concerned.

(8) Drawback shall not be allowed hereunder when the process performed results only in the restoration of the articles to their condition at the time of importation.

(i) Fur skins and fur skin articles. Drawback may be allowed under the provisions of section 313(a), Tariff Act of 1930, upon the exportation of dressed, redressed, dyed, redyed, bleached, blended, or striped fur skins or fur skin articles manufactured or produced by any one or a combination of the foregoing processes with the use of fur skins or fur skin articles, such as plates, mats, sacs, strips, and crosses, imported in a raw, dressed, or dyed condition, subject to the following special regulations:

(1) The records of the manufacturer or producer shall show, as to each lot of fur skins and fur skin articles manufactured or produced for exportation with benefit of drawback, the lot number and the date or inclusive dates of manufacture or production, the quantity, identity, and description of the imported merchandise used, the condition in which imported, the process or processes applied thereto, the quantity and description of the finished articles obtained, and the quantity of imported pieces rejected, if any, or spoiled in manufacture or production.

(2) An abstract of the manufacturing or production records shall be filed with the drawback entry.

(3) The drawback allowance shall not exceed the duty paid, less 1 per centum thereof, on the quantity of imported merchandise used in the manufacture or production of the exported articles, as shown by the abstract of the manufacturing or production records. The quantity of imported merchandise used shall be determined by deducting from the quantity of fur skins or fur skin articles put into manufacture or production the quantity of rejects and spoilage incurred, if any.

(4) Drawback shall not be allowed hereunder when the process performed results only in the restoration of the articles to their condition at the time of importation.

§ 22.7 Evidence of exportation.

(a) Optional procedures. Exportation of articles covered by a drawback claim shall be established by compliance with the provisions of one of the following procedures: [TDs 52894, 72-310, 73-5.]

(1) Certified Notice of Exportation described in paragraph (b) of this section;

(2) Uncertified Notice of Exportation described in paragraph (c) of this section;

(3) Exporter's Summary described in paragraph (d) of this section.

(b) Certified Notice of Exportation procedure. (1) A notice of exportation, in triplicate, on Customs Form 7511 for each shipment of merchandise on which drawback is to be claimed under this procedure shall be filed by the exporter or his agent with the district director of Customs at the port at which the shipment is to be exported from the United States. Such notice shall show the name of the exporting vessel or other carrier, the number and kind of packages and their marks and numbers, the description of the merchandise and its weight (gross and net), gage, measure, or number, the name of the exporter, and the name of the port where the drawback entry is to be filed. If the merchandise is to be exported in railroad cars, a notice of exportation shall be filed for each car. [TDs 53025, 54435, 72-310.]

(2) Except as provided for in § § 22.8 and 22.9, the notice of exportation shall be filed with the shipper's export declaration, or, if filed subsequently, it shall be filed within 3 years after exportation and shall state the number, if any, and date of the shipper's export declaration. One shipper's export declaration may cover several notices of exportation. A notice of exportation not filed in the time and manner herein specified shall not be accepted unless its acceptance is specifically authorized by Headquarters, U.S. Customs Service.

(3) Upon receipt of the notice of exportation, the district director shall assign a number thereto which shall be stamped or endorsed on the original and each copy of the notice. If a number has been assigned to the corresponding shipper's export declaration, the same number shall be assigned to the notice of exportation. If a shipper's export declaration covers more than one notice of exportation, each of the notices shall be assigned the same number as that assigned to the shipper's export declaration, but each notice shall be further identified by the addition of an alphabetic designation beginning with the letter "A." However, if no number has been assigned to the shipper's export declaration, each notice of exportation shall be separately numbered. On one of the copies of the notice, the district director shall certify (i) as to the exportation of the merchandise as shown by the records of his office, and (ii) as to the name of the exporter as shown by the shipper's export declaration covering the merchandise. The district director shall return such copy and one uncertified copy to the person designated by the exporter, for subsequent filing with the drawback entry. Whenever the district director is unable to certify to the exportation of the merchandise covered by the notice of exportation, he shall return two copies of the notice to the exporter or to the person designated by the exporter, with a statement of the facts in the case.

(4) When drawback is to be claimed under section 313(a), (b), or (g), Tariff Act of 1930, with the use of this procedure, on an aircraft departing under its own power from the United States, or on merchandise exported by aircraft, the notice of exportation shall be filed in the manner prescribed herein at the port where the shipper's export declaration is filed.

(5) When merchandise is laden on a vessel for transshipment at a domestic port outside the continental United States, the notice of exportation shall be filed with the district director of Customs at the port where the merchandise was last transshipped for its foreign destination (the place where the shipper's export declaration is filed).

(6) Drawback claims on articles exported by mail must be supported by certified notices of exportation. See § 22.8 herein.

(c) Uncertified notice of exportation procedure. (1) The claimant may support the drawback entry with an uncertified notice of exportation on Customs Form 7511 for each shipment of merchandise covered by the claim. The notice of exportation shall show the name of the exporting vessel or other carrier, the number and kind of packages and their marks and numbers, the description of the merchandise and its weight (gross and net), gage, measure, or number, and the name of the exporter. An uncertified notice of exportation shall be supported by documentary evidence of exportation, such as the bill of lading, air waybill, freight waybill, Canadian Customs manifest, cargo manifest, or certified copies thereof, issued by the exporting carrier, and any additional evidence required by Customs officers to fully establish the time and fact of exportation. [TDs 54435, 72-310.]

(2) Prior to filing an uncertified notice of exportation with the drawback entry, the claimant shall assign a number thereto which shall be stamped or endorsed on the original and each copy of the notice. The number assigned shall correspond to that of the supporting document, such as the bill of lading, air waybill, or cargo manifest which is filed with the notice of exportation. If the supporting document covers more than one notice of exportation, each of the notices shall be assigned the same number, but each notice shall be further identified by the addition of an alphabetic designation beginning with the letter "A." However, if no number has been assigned to the supporting document, each notice of exportation shall be separately numbered.

(d) Exporter's summary procedure. (1) A procedure consolidating claims for drawback on a periodic basis shall be available when such procedure will substantially reduce the paperwork involved. Under this procedure the drawback entry shall be supported by a chronological summary of the exports and any additional evidence required by Customs officers to fully establish the fact of exportation and shall be permitted only when complete and accurate information is available from the records of the exporter-claimant. [TD 72-310.]

(2) Application to use this procedure shall be made to the regional commissioner of Customs with whom drawback claims will be filed. Permission to use the procedure may be granted if, in the regional commissioner's discretion, he shall conclude that the circumstances so warrant and provided that the following conditions are met:

(i) Prior to filing the drawback claim the claimant's export volume is found sufficient to justify the proposed usage of the exporter's summary procedure by the regional commissioner of Customs in whose region the claims are to be filed;

(ii) A bond is furnished by the exporter-claimant in an amount determined by the district director of Customs, subject to approval of the regional commissioner, to protect the revenue against erroneous payment of drawback due to the incorrect description of (a) the exported articles, (b) the party entitled to drawback, or (c) the facts of exportation;

(iii) For a period of 3 years from the date of payment of the drawback, evidence of exportation, that must include the identity and location of the ultimate consignee of the exported goods, shall be retained by the exporter-claimant for examination by authorized Government officials.

(3) The chronological summary of the exports shall be in a format acceptable to the regional commissioner of Customs with whom drawback claims are filed and shall contain substantially the data provided for in the sample format which follows:

Chronological Summary of Exports

§ 22.9 Evidence of exportation; Government shipments.

(a) Procedure. In the case of a shipment by a department, branch, or agency of the U.S. Government, the exportation may be established as provided by any one of the procedures set forth under § 22.7 when the drawback is to be claimed by such department, branch, or agency. The supplier of the merchandise may establish exportation under § 22.7 (b) or (c) only. No bond shall be required when the U.S. Government claims drawback under the provisions of § 22.7(d). [TDs 52894, 72-310.]

(b) Certification. When the certified notice of exportation procedure (§ 22.7(b)) is to be used: [TD 72-310.]

(1) Three copies of the notice of exportation shall be filed by the exporter or his agent with the Government officer in charge of transportation at the port of exportation. Such notice of exportation shall be numbered by the exporter in accordance with § 22.10. [TD 52894.]

(2) The notice of exportation shall bear an endorsement in the following form, to be placed thereon by the exporter, for execution by the Government transportation officer at the port of exportation:

(3) The Government transportation officer at the port of exportation will certify exportation on the notice of exportation, mark "Copy" on the copies and return the original and one copy to the person who presented the notice. One copy of the notice of exportation will be retained by the Government transportation officer as his record of the transaction.

Notices of exportation covering government shipments or shipments by mail shall be given, for identification purposes, a number by the exporter in a series beginning with No. 1 for each 12-month period commencing on July 1 of each year. One series of numbers shall be used by each exporter to cover both types of shipments made by him.

§ 22.11 Amendment of notices of exportation.

At any time within the 3-year period prescribed for the completion of the drawback claim, any certified or uncertified notice of exportation or exporter's summary may be amended if the regional commissioner is satisfied as to the correctness of the amendment. Every application for amendment and its supporting evidence shall be in writing and submitted to the regional commissioner of Customs for the region supervising the port where the drawback entry is filed. [TDs 52894, 53025, 72-310.]

§ 22.12 Examination of merchandise.

The district director may examine any merchandise being exported with benefit of drawback if he is not satisfied as to the bona fides of the shipment. [TD 52894.]

§ 22.13 Completion of drawback claims.

(a) A drawback entry and certificate of manufacture shall be filed within 3 years after the date the articles are exported. Such entry and certificate shall be filed on Customs Form 7575 except in cases covered by paragraph (c) or (e) of this section. If any entry and certificate is filed on Customs Form 7575, such form shall be filed in duplicate; and, if the entry is filed on Customs Form 7573, only one copy (the original) need be filed, provided that an additional copy of either form may be required by the district director of Customs if he deems such additional copy necessary for administrative use in his office. When the entry covers exports under § 22.7(b), the copy of the notice of exportation certified by the district director of Customs shall be filed with the entry. When the entry covers exports under § 22.7(c), one copy of the uncertified notice of exportation, together with the original or a certified copy of the supporting document shall be filed. The certified or uncertified notice of exportation shall show that the merchandise was shipped by the person making the drawback entry, or shall bear an endorsement of the person in whose name the merchandise was shipped, showing that the person making entry is authorized to make it and to receive the drawback. One entry may cover several shipments. With respect to exportations under the provisions of § 22.7(d), one copy of the chronological summary of exports, shall be filed with the entry. All documents necessary to the liquidation of the entry, including those issued by one Customs officer to another, shall be filed or applied for, as the case may require within the 3-year period prescribed above, except that any required landing certificate shall be filed within the time prescribed in § 22.17(c). Claims not completed within the 3-year period prescribed above shall be treated as abandoned and no extension will be granted, unless it is established that failure to complete the claim within 3 years was occasioned by the action of a responsible Customs officer. [TDs 43822, 51024, 52395, 52894, 53025, 53399, 54029, 72-310.]

(b) A statement in duplicate of the papers filed, showing the dates on which official documents were applied for, may be presented with the drawback entry, When such statement has been verified as to the papers filed, one copy shall be receipted and returned to the claimant and the other copy attached to the drawback entry. When a landing certificate is required, it shall be furnished prior to the liquidation of the entry.

(c) If certificates of manufacture are filed prior to the filing of the entry, they shall be referred to in the entry by the official number in lieu of the particulars of importation and manufacture. In such cases the entry shall be on Customs Form 7573.

(d) If the drawback entry is filed at a port other than that at which the certificate of manufacture is on file, the district director at the port where the certificate is on file, after liquidation and at the request of the person filing the certificate or the person to whom such merchandise was delivered, as shown by said certificate, shall issue an extract therefrom on Customs Form 4537 for use at the port where the entry is filed. Such extract shall be transmitted to the district director at the latter port and, for the purpose of identification, reference may be made thereto as in the case of an original certificate.

(e) When completely manufactured articles are purchased for exportation and the drawback is to be paid to the purchaser, the entry shall be on Customs Forms 7573 and be accompanied by a certificate of manufacture and delivery on Customs Form 7577, if such a certificate is not already on file.

(f) In the case of a vessel, or aircraft upon which drawback is to be claimed under section 313(g), Tariff Act of 1930, there shall be filed with the drawback entry a copy of the contract under which the vessel or aircraft was built or the pertinent part thereof showing that it was built for foreign account and ownership. In the case of a vessel, except a warship, there shall also be filed a certificate of clearance for the foreign port, if the vessel is cleared from a port other than that at which the entry is filed, and a certified copy of the registry certificate or, in lieu thereof, a certificate of the consul of the foreign nation to which the vessel belongs, showing that the said vessel has been documented under the flag of that country. In the case of warships, the certificates of clearance and foreign documentation shall not be required. [TDs 52037, 52342, 53268.]

(g) A drawback entry may be corrected, or a timely supplemental entry filed, only when permission is granted by the district director. Corrections or amendments permitted must be certified by the appropriate parties. [TD 53268, 54029.]

(a) When the merchandise used in the manufacture of the exported articles was not imported by the manufacturer of the articles, no drawback shall be allowed until there has been filed with the district director at the port where the drawback entry is filed a certificate of delivery in duplicate on Customs Form 7543 or official evidence of the existence of such a certificate filed at another port, fully describing the merchandise delivered and tracing it from the custody of the manufacturer. Reference may be made to this certificate by the manufacturer in his certificate of manufacture in lieu of the particulars of importation, provided the certificate covers but one importation. [TDs 39150, 50780, (3), 52894, 53268.]

(b) If the merchandise was not delivered directly from the importer to the manufacturer, each intermediate transfer shall be shown on the certificate of delivery by a certificate of the person through whose possession the merchandise passed. [TD 53268.]

(c) When the imported merchandise is covered by a consumption entry and the consignee named therein has declared another person to be the actual owner, such consignee shall be considered the importer for drawback purposes irrespective of whether an owner's declaration was filed in accordance with section 485(d), Tariff Act of 1930, and a certificate of delivery from such consignee to the person to whom delivery was made shall be required.

§ 22.16 Certificates of manufacture and delivery; manufactured or partly manufactured articles.

(a) When the imported merchandise used has passed through some process of manufacture before delivery and the wholly or partly manufactured article is used in the manufacture of some other article for exportation, or when completely manufactured articles are purchased for exportation without further manipulation, a certificate of manufacture and delivery shall be filed on Customs Form 7577. Such certificate shall be required whether the drawback is claimed by the exporter or has been reserved by the manufacturer. [TD 52894.]

(b) In drawback entries covering the exported articles, reference may be made to such certificates in lieu of stating the particulars of importation and manufacture, except when the article or merchandise has been further manipulated before exportation, in which event such additional manufacturing steps shall be covered by a proper certificate of manufacture.

(c) Any intermediate transfer of such manufactured articles shall be certified on the certificate of manufacture and delivery.

(d) If the drawback entry is filed at a port other than that at which the certificate of manufacture and delivery is on file, an extract may be issued on Customs Form 4537.

§ 22.17 Landing certificates.

(a) A landing certificate shall be required (1) whenever the district director of Customs at the port of exportation or at the port where the drawback entry is filed or the regional commissioner for the region where the drawback claim is liquidated shall have reason to believe that the shipment is not a bona fide exportation, (2) when Headquarters, U.S. Customs Service specifically directs that a landing certificate shall be produced, (3) when a landing certificate is otherwise required by law or regulation, and (4) for every aircraft which departs from the United States under its own power if drawback is claimed on the aircraft or any part thereof. Landing certificates for aircraft shall show the exact time of landing of the aircraft in the foreign country and describe the aircraft or parts thereof, on which drawback is claimed in sufficient detail to enable Customs officers to identify them with the bill of landing, air waybill, cargo manifest or notice of exportation. [TDs 39609, 52395, 52894, 53268, 72-310.]

(b) Whenever a landing certificate is required, it shall be signed by a revenue officer of the foreign country to which the merchandise is exported, unless it is shown that such country has no Customs administration, in which case the certificate may be signed by the consignee or by the vessel's agent at the place of unlading.

(c) When a landing certificate is specifically required by the district director or Headquarters, U.S. Customs Service, but not otherwise, reasonable notice in writing of such requirement shall be given by the district director to the exporter or his agent. The landing certificate shall be filed within 1 year from the date of the notice unless an extension of such period is specifically authorized by Headquarters.

(d) When a landing certificate is required by the district director, other satisfactory evidence of the foreign landing may be accepted in lieu of the landing certificate.

(e) When a landing certificate is required and cannot be produced, an application for its waiver may be made to the regional commissioner through the district director within the time required for filing the certificate, accompanied by such evidence of exportation and landing abroad as may be available. The application shall be granted if the regional commissioner is satisfied by the evidence submitted that the merchandise has been exported. If the regional commissioner is not so satisfied, he shall transmit the application and its accompanying evidence to Headquarters, U.S. Customs Service for final determination. [TD 77-242.]

§ 22.18 Supplies for certain vessels and aircraft.

(a) Drawback of duties and taxes shall be allowed on articles laden on certain vessels or aircraft as supplies or for use as equipment or in the maintenance or repair of certain foreign vessels or aircraft, as provided for in section 309, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended,[6] subject to the requirements of this section. [TDs 46522, 49456, 49658, 50501, 53336, 55653, 78-99.]

(b) The procedure prescribed in this part as to the filing of an application for a rate of drawback and other required documents shall be followed, so far as applicable, in filing claims for drawback under this section, except that notices of lading on Customs Form 7514 shall be filed in lieu of notices of exportation on Customs Form 7511.

(c) A notice of lading on Customs Form 7514 shall be filed in quadruplicate with the district director at the port of lading. Such notice shall show the name of the vessel or identity of the aircraft on which the articles were, or are to be, laden, the number and kind of packages and their marks and numbers, the description of the articles and their weight (net), gauge, measure, or number, the name of the exporter, and the name of the port where the drawback entry is to be filed. The notice of the lading may be filed before or after lading of the articles but, if filed after lading, it shall be filed within 3 years after exportation and shall show the date of clearance or departure of the vessel or aircraft. The district director shall assign a number to each notice of lading. After numbering, one copy of the notice shall be returned to the exporter for delivery to the master or an authorized officer of the vessel or aircraft, or to a representative of the owner or operator of the vessel or aircraft having knowledge of the facts and holding a Customs power of attorney, for certification thereon as to the receipt of the articles and the quantity laden. This copy shall be filed by the claimant with the drawback entry, except that, in cases where the notice of lading was filed after the lading of the articles, a separate receipt of the master or authorized officer of the vessel or aircraft, or of a representative of the owner or operator of the vessel or aircraft having knowledge of the facts and holding a Customs power of attorney, may be filed with the drawback entry. [TDs 52894, 52966, 53497, 55749, 55929, 78-99.]

(d) After the vessel has cleared or obtained a permit to proceed, the district director at the port of lading shall execute his certification on one of the copies of the notice of lading and return it, with one uncertified copy, to the exporter, for subsequent filing with the drawback entry. If the vessel is not required to clear or obtain a permit to proceed to another port, the district director shall return two copies of the notice to the exporter, or to the person designated by the exporter, with a statement of the facts in the case for subsequent filing with the drawback entry. In such cases, the district director at the port where the drawback entry is filed shall require the claimant to furnish an itinerary of the vessel for the immediate voyage to determine whether the vessel is engaged in a class of business or trade which warrants the allowance of drawback.

(e) Paragraphs (g) and (h) of this section, insofar as applicable, shall apply with respect to aircraft registered in the United States and actually engaged in foreign trade or trade between the United States and any of its possessions, or between Hawaii and any other part of the United States or between Alaska and any other part of the United States, and aircraft registered in any foreign country and actually engaged in foreign trade or trade between the United States and any of its possessions, or between Hawaii and any other part of the United States or between Alaska and any other part of the United States, where such trade by foreign aircraft is permitted. [TDs 51567, 52894, 53497, 55374, 55653.]

(f) [Reserved]

(g) In any case in which it is desired to land in the United States articles covered by a notice of lading, the master shall make application for a permit to land such articles under Customs supervision. Except when transfer is made under the original notice of lading to another vessel entitled to the drawback privilege, the articles landed shall be treated as imported merchandise under section 309(c), Tariff Act of 1930, as amended. [TDs 50957, 52894, 53399.]

§ 22.19 Meats cured with imported salt.

(a) All provisions of the regulations in this part relating to the allowance of drawback on articles manufactured with the use of imported merchandise, including the application for a rate of drawback and the filing of a statement, shall apply to the refund of duty on salt used in curing meats, except that the duty to be refunded is not subject to the retention of 1 percent and that no refund shall be made in an amount less than $100. Claims amounting to less than $100 shall be permitted to accumulate until the sum due reaches that amount. [TDs 52894, 33268.]

(b) The prescribed forms shall be modified to show that the claim is being made for refund of duties paid on salt used in curing meats.

§ 22.20 Liquidation of drawback entries.

(a) Proper drawback claims may be liquidated (1) after the deposit of estimated duties on the imported merchandise and before liquidation of the import entry or (2) after liquidation of the import entry becomes final. [TDs 26001, 52894, 68-203.]

(b) Payment of drawback may be based on estimated duties if the import entry has not yet been liquidated and the drawback claimant and the party responsible for the payment of liquidated import duties (if different from the claimant) each files a written request relating to each drawback entry requesting payment on this basis and waiving any right to payment or refund except in accordance with the provisions of this section. A drawback entry, once liquidated on the basis of estimated duties shall not thereafter be adjusted by reason of the subsequent liquidation of an import entry. However, if final liquidation of the import entry discloses that the total amount of import duty is different from the total estimated duties deposited, the party responsible for the payment of liquidated duties (1) shall be liable for 1 percent of all increased duties found to be due on that portion of the merchandise transferred to the drawback entry or (2) shall be entitled to a refund of 1 percent of all excess duties found to have been paid on that portion of the merchandise transferred to the drawback entry. [TD 68-203.]

(c) After the import entry has been liquidated, the liquidated duties have been paid, and such liquidation has been made final by operation of law or by acceptance of the liquidation in writing by the importer, payment of drawback shall be based on the final liquidated duties paid. [TD 68-203.]

(d) When the drawback claim has been completed by the filing of the entry, notices of exportation, and other documents required by the regulations in this part, the landing certificate has been produced where required, and clearance of the exporting conveyance has been established by the record of clearance in the case of direct exportation or by certificate in the case of exportation at another port, the regional commissioner shall ascertain the drawback due by reference to the records of importation and the drawback rate under which the drawback claimed is allowable. [CAD 114, TD 68-203.]

(e) The values to be used in computing the distribution of drawback where two or more products result from the manipulation of the imported merchandise, pursuant to section 313(a), Tariff Act of 1930,[8] shall be market values unless the special regulations under which drawback is claimed provide otherwise. [TD 68-203.]

(f) The amount of drawback due having been ascertained, the regional commissioner shall certify such amount for payment to the person making the entry or to the person to whom the maker on the face of the entry directs that such payment be made. [TD 68-203.]

A claimant for drawback whom the regional commissioner of Customs determines not delinquent or otherwise remiss in transactions with Customs, is eligible for accelerated payment of drawback claims which are properly prepared and fully completed as provided in § 22.13. A claimant, requesting accelerated payment of a claim, shall submit with the claim a computation of the amount due thereon and shall also file with Customs, for approval by the regional commissioner, a bond on either Customs Form 7609 or 7611, guaranteeing the refund of any excess payment. In lieu of filing Customs Form 7609 or 7611, a claimant may provide appropriate coverage by executing and attaching an approved rider to a General Term Bond for Entry of Merchandise, Customs Form 7595, at the time of filing Customs Form 7595. When a rider is to be attached to Customs Form 7595, the amount of the bond shall be increased by the estimated amount of accelerated drawback to be claimed during the term of the bond. If actual accelerated drawback claims exceed the estimated amount of accelerated drawback, additional bond coverage shall be required. If the regional commissioner, after receiving a claim, determines that the conditions for accelerated payment are met and that the claim appears reasonable in amount, he shall, within 3 weeks after the claim is filed, certify it for payment. After liquidation, any amount found to be due will be paid or a demand for refund of any excess payment paid will be made. The right to receive accelerated payments shall be denied claimants repeatedly computing claims erroneously, thereby necessitating demands for refund. [TDs 73-3, 75-78, 78-140]

§ 22.21 To whom payable.

(a) The person named as exporter in (1) the district director's certificate on the notice of exportation, or in (2) the bill of lading, air waybill, freight waybill, Canadian Customs manifest, cargo manifest, or certified copies thereof, when other than the Certified Notice of Exportation procedure is used, shall be held to be the exporter and entitled to the drawback, unless the manufacturer or producer, on the sale or consignment of such articles, shall have reserved to himself the right to claim the drawback, in which case such manufacturer or producer may make entry for such drawback and it shall be paid to him upon the production of satisfactory evidence that such reservation was made with the knowledge and consent of the exporter. [TDs 10186, 42841; 52894, 72-310.]

(b) The drawback may alternatively be paid to the agent of the manufacturer, producer, or exporter, as the case may be, or to the person to whom such manufacturer, producer, exporter, or agent shall direct in writing that such drawback be paid.

(b) Each drawback entry covering merchandise not conforming to sample or specifications or shipped without the consent of the consignee shall be executed in the name of the importer of record, unless another person has been named in the import entry as the actual owner and the declaration of such owner has been timely filed, in which case the drawback entry may be filed in the name of either such owner or the importer of record. If the goods are claimed to be not in accordance with sample or specifications, the drawback entry shall be accompanied by a copy of the order for the merchandise, copies of any preliminary correspondence, and the samples or specifications on which the merchandise was ordered, together with a certificate of the actual owner that the sample or specifications submitted are those on which the merchandise was ordered, showing in detail in what manner the merchandise does not conform to sample or specifications. If no written order was placed and no sample or specifications are available, a certificate of the actual owner setting forth the specifications of his order and the method by which they were communicated to the seller may be accepted. If the merchandise was shipped to the importer without his consent, a clear statement of that fact shall be submitted, together with all information in the possession of the importer as to the reason for the shipment. In doubtful cases the district director may decline to allow the claim unless there is produced corroboration by the shipper of the specifications or circumstances, or other evidence sufficient in the opinion of the district director to establish the claim. [TDs 55114, 55958, 68-203.]

§ 22.33 Return of merchandise to Customs custody.

(a) Upon receipt of the drawback entry, the district director shall assign a number thereto, by appropriate notation on all copies, approve the place of deposit of the merchandise specified by the person making the entry or designate another place if that one is not deemed suitable, and return the original to the entrant for presentation with the merchandise to the Customs officer at the place of deposit. The merchandise shall be delivered into Customs custody at such place within 90 days after the date on which it was originally released from Customs custody unless, either before or after the return of the merchandise, a longer time is specially authorized by Headquarters, U.S. Customs Service, or by the district director under the authority of this paragraph. The district director, upon written application, may extend the period in those cases where he is satisfied that the importer has been or will be prevented by circumstances beyond his control from returning the merchandise within the 90-day period, and that the importer proposes to return, or has returned, the merchandise within a reasonable time. Applications for extension of time shall be filed with, and acted upon by, the district director at the port where the drawback entry will be filed. If the merchandise is to be exported otherwise than by mail, one copy of the entry shall be returned to the entrant, for resubmission to the district director in accordance with paragraph (e) of this section. A receipt showing the fact and date of such delivery shall be furnished to the applicant if he requests it. If the report of the receiving officer shows that the merchandise was not returned to Customs custody within the time required by law, the drawback shall be denied. [TDs 44369, 52626, 52894, 53336, 53399, 54009, 54454, 55114.]

The parcel in which the merchandise is packed shall be properly wrapped, stamped, and addressed for mailing to the foreign destination, and shall be enclosed in a wrapper addressed to the district director of Customs at the port where such merchandise was originally entered. A waiver of the right to withdraw the merchandise from the mails, signed by the exporter, shall be affixed, stamped, or written on both the inner and outer wrappers. The outside wrapper shall bear an appropriate notation to the effect that the contents are intended for examination and exportation under section 313(c), Tariff Act of 1930, as amended. If the parcel is to be insured or registered to cover the transportation from the port of original entry to the foreign destination, the exporter shall deposit with the district director of Customs at such port the necessary funds to cover the charges for insurance or registry. [TDs 48496, 70-89.]

(c) The drawback entry, fully executed in duplicate on Customs Form 7539, shall accompany or be mailed simultaneously with the parcel, unless such form is not available to the exporter, or unless the information necessary to complete the entry is not available at the time of mailing, in either of which cases the merchandise may be submitted without the entry to the postmaster for delivery to the district director. When the returned merchandise is received by the district director without the related drawback entry, he shall immediately furnish the exporter with the proper number of copies of Form 7539 for prompt execution and return. The dates of the delivery of the merchandise from the post office on importation and the return thereto for exportation shall be considered the dates of release from and return to Customs custody, respectively, within the meaning of section 313 (c), Tariff Act of 1930, as amended. Drawback shall be refused if the merchandise was not returned to custody within 90 days after its release therefrom, or within a longer period authorized by Headquarters, U.S. Customs Service or by the district director pursuant to authority in paragraph (a) of this section. [TDs 48496, 52464, 53336, 53399, 54009, 54029.]

(e) The entrant shall be advised of the approval of his entry and mailing of the merchandise or of the disapproval of his entry. If the entry has been approved and the merchandise is to be exported otherwise than by mail, the importer or whoever shall have been designated by the importer in writing shall file with the district director, at least 6 hours before lading of the merchandise, a copy of the entry with the name of the exporting carrier and the place of lading shown thereon and the exporter's declaration thereon fully executed. The export procedure and liquidation of the entry shall be the same, so far as applicable, as in the case of an exportation of merchandise from continuous Customs custody with benefit of drawback. If the drawback is denied, the entrant shall advise the district director as to the disposition to be made of the merchandise. [TDs 52464, 53399.]

(f) In order to complete the drawback entry, a bill of lading and a landing certificate, when required under § 22.17(a), shall be filed in the manner and within the time prescribed in § 22.29 in the case of merchandise exported from continuous Customs custody. [TDs 51827, 52894.]

Merchandise returned to Customs custody under section 313(c), Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, shall be accepted only at the risk and expense of the party in interest. If the merchandise is not exported within 90 days from the date of notification of approval of the drawback entry, it shall be treated as unclaimed, except that the 90-day period may be extended for not more than 90 days by the district director upon written request by the original applicant. [TDs 44369, 52464, 52894, 53399.]

With the exception of the drawback entry, the above provisions relative to proof of non-conformity to sample or specifications, or of shipment without the consent of the consignee, may be waived in whole or in part if the duty on the merchandise to be exported is less than $50 and the district director is otherwise satisfied that the claim is well founded. [TDs 44369, 52894, 53399, 55114.]

§ 24.2 Persons authorized to receive Customs collections.

District directors in charge of ports of entry, Customs cashiers, Customs inspectors, Customs dock tellers, and such other officers and employees as the district director shall designate shall receive Customs collections.

§ 24.3 Bills and accounts; receipts.

(a) Any bill or account for money due the United States shall be rendered by an authorized Customs officer or employee on an official form.

§ 24.4 Optional method for payment of estimated import taxes on alcoholic beverages upon entry, or withdrawal from warehouse, for consumption.

(a) Application to defer. An importer, including a transferee of alcoholic beverages in a Customs bonded warehouse who wishes to pay on a semi-monthly basis the estimated import taxes on alcoholic beverages entered, or withdrawn from warehouse, for consumption by him during such a period may apply by letter to the district director of each district in which he wishes to defer payment. If the importer desires the additional privilege of depositing estimated tax payments on an extended deferred basis, it must be specifically requested. The application must identify the ports at which the importer wishes to use the tax deferral procedure. An importer who receives approval from a district director to defer such payments may, however, continue to pay the estimated import taxes due at the time of entry, or withdrawal from warehouse, for consumption. [TDs 55568, 56510.]

(b) Deferred payment periods. A period shall commence on October 24 and run through October 31, 1965; thereafter the periods shall run from the 1st day of each month through the 15th day of that month, and from the 16th day of each month through the last day of that month. An importer may begin the deferral of payments of estimated tax in a Customs district in the first deferral period beginning after the date of the written approval by the district director of such district. An importer may in such district use the deferred payment system until the district director advises such importer that he is no longer eligible to defer the payment of such taxes. [TD 55568, 56510.]

(c) Content of application and supporting documents. (1) An importer must state his estimate of the largest amount of taxes to be deferred in any semimonthly period based on the largest amount of import taxes on alcoholic beverages deposited in that district in such a period during the year preceding his application. He must also identify any existing bond or bonds that he has on file in the district and the port or ports for which filed and shall submit in support of his application the approval of the surety on his bond or bonds to the use of the procedure and to the increase of such bond or bonds to such larger amount or amounts as may be found necessary by the district director. He must identify in his application all ports in the district where he intends to file entries or withdrawals from warehouse for consumption for which taxes are to be deferred. [TD 55568.]

(2) Each application must include a declaration in substantially the following language:

> I declare that I am not presently barred by a district director in any other district from using the deferred payment procedure for payment of estimated taxes upon imports of alcoholic beverages, and that if I am notified by a district director to such effect I shall advise the district director of all other districts where approval has been given to me to use such procedure.

(d) Use of deferred payment method.

(1) The district director will notify the importer, or his authorized agent if requested, of approval and will at the same time notify all ports in his district at which the procedure will be used according to the importer's application. [TD 55568.]

(2) An importer who has received approval to make deferred payments retains the option of deferring or depositing the estimated tax on imported alcoholic beverages until the entry or withdrawal is presented to the cashier for payment of estimated duties. At the time the importer presents his entry or withdrawal for consumption to the cashier together with the estimated duty, he must either pay the estimated tax or indicate on the entry or withdrawal that he elects to defer the tax payment. [TD 67-33.]

(e) Tax deferment procedure. If the importer elects to defer the tax payments, he shall enter on each copy of the entry or withdrawal the words "Tax Payment Deferred," adjacent to the amount shown on the documents as estimated taxes, before presentation to the cashier. [TDs 55568, 67-33.]

(f) Payment procedure—(1) Billing. Each importer who has deferred tax payments on imported alcoholic beverages will be billed on Customs Form 6084, United States Customs Service Bill, at the end of each tax deferred period for all taxes deferred during the period. Each bill will identify each tax amount deferred and the related entry numbers. These bills must be paid in fully by the last day of the next succeeding deferral period. [TDs 55568, 56510, 67-33, 72-53, 75-278.]

(2) Interest on overdue accounts. When any bill for deferred taxes is not paid within the period specified in subparagraph (f)(1) of this section, interest thereon from the date following the end of the specified period to the date of payment of the bill shall be assessed, collected, and paid in the same manner as the basic tax. The rate of interest to be assessed shall be 7 percent per annum or such other rate as is established by the Secretary of the Treasury or his delegate in accordance with 26 U.S.C. 6621(b). [TD 76-258.]

(g) Restrictions on deferring tax deposits. An importer may not on one entry, or withdrawal from warehouse for consumption, deposit part of the estimated tax and defer the balance of the tax. The estimated tax on each entry or withdrawal must be either fully paid or deferred. [TDs 56510, 55568, 67-33.]

(h) Termination of deferred payment privilege. (1) When any bill on Customs Form 6084 for deferred taxes is not paid within the period specified in paragraph (f) of this section, a demand for payment shall be made to the surety on the importer's bond. If in the opinion of the customs officer concerned such failure to make timely payment of estimated deferred taxes warrants the withdrawal of the tax deferral privilege, he will advise the importer of the withdrawal of such privilege. In all instances of failure to pay timely the deferred taxes on alcoholic beverages withdrawn from warehouse for consumption, further withdrawals from the warehouse entry on which the tax is delinquent will be refused until payment is made of the amount delinquent. [TDs 55568, 67-33, 75-278.]

(2) The termination in any district of the tax deferral privilege for failure to pay timely any deferred estimated tax shall be at the discretion of the Customs officer concerned. Termination of the privilege for any other reason shall be subject to the approval of the Commissioner of Customs. Notice of termination of the tax deferral privilege in any district will be disseminated to all other Customs districts. [TD 67-33.]

(3) Renewal of the tax deferral privilege after it has been withdrawn in any district may be made only upon approval of the Commissioner of Customs. [TD 67-33.]

(i) Renewal of importer's bond. At the time of each renewal of a Customs bond to which has been added a stipulation as to deferred tax payment, concurred in by the surety, the parties shall indicate in writing their agreement to the continuation of the stipulation for the term of the renewal. [TD 55568.]

(j) Entries for consumption or warehouse after an importer is delinquent. An importer who is delinquent in paying deferred taxes may make entries for consumption or for warehousing, or withdrawals for consumption from warehouse entries on which no delinquency exists, upon deposit of all estimated duties or taxes. [TD 55568.]

(k) Rate of tax. The estimated taxes must be paid on the basis of the rates in effect upon entry, or withdrawal from warehouse, for consumption, unless in accordance with section 315 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, another date is applicable and not on the basis of the rates of tax in effect on the date deferred payment is made. (R.S. 251, as amended, sec. 623, 624, 46 Stat. 759, as amended (19 U.S.C. 66, 1623, 1624); sec. 201, 72 Stat. 1322, 1334, 1335, 68A Stat. 917; 26 U.S.C. 5007, 5054, 5061, 7805) [TDs 55568, 72-53.]

§ 24.5 Filing identification number.

(a) Generally. Each person, business firm, Government agency, or other organization shall file Customs Form 5106, Notification of Importer's Number or Application for Importer's Number, or Notice of Change of Name or Address, with the first formal entry which is submitted or the first request for services that will result in the issuance of a bill or a refund check upon adjustment of a cash collection. A Customs Form 5106 shall also be filed for the ultimate consignee for which such entry is being made. Customs Form 5106 may be obtained from any Customs Office. [TDs 67-33, 67-71, 72-106, 72-150, 74-72, 78-7.]

(b) Preparation of Customs Form 5106. (1) The identification number to be used when filing Customs Form 5106 shall be:

(i) The Internal Revenue Service employer identification number, or

(ii) If no Internal Revenue Service employer identification number has been assigned, the Social Security number.

(2) If neither an Internal Revenue Service employer identification number nor a Social Security number has been assigned, the word "None" shall be written on the line provided for each of these numbers on Customs Form 5106 and the form shall be filed in duplicate.

(c) Assignment of importer identification number. Upon receipt of a Customs Form 5106 without an Internal Revenue Service employer identification number or a Social Security number, an importer identification number shall be assigned and entered on the Customs Form 5106 by the Customs office where the entry or request for services is received. The duplicate copy of the form shall be returned to the filing party. This identification number shall be used in all future Customs transactions when an importer number is required. If an Internal Revenue Service employer identification number, a Social Security number, or both, are obtained after an importer number has been assigned by Customs, a new Customs Form 5106 shall not be filed unless requested by Customs.

(d) Optional additional identification. Customs Form 5106 contains blocks for a two-digit suffix code which may be written in as an addition to the Internal Revenue Service employer identification number to provide optional additional identification. The two-digit suffix code may be used by a business firm having branch office operations to permit the firm to identify transactions originating in its branch offices, or by vessel owners to permit them to identify transactions associated with particular vessels. A separate Customs Form 5106 shall be required to report the specific suffix code and the name and address for each branch office or vessel to be identified. Transactions may be associated with a specific branch office or vessel by reporting the appropriate identification number, including the two-digit suffix code, on the Entry Record, Customs Form 5101, or the request for services. Suffix codes may be either numeric, alphabetic, or a combination of both numeric and alphabetic, except that the letters O, Z, and I may not be used. The blocks may be left blank if the firm or vessel owner has no use for them and a "00" suffix will be automatically assigned.

(e) Retention of importer identification number. An importer identification number shall remain on file until 1 year from the date on which it is last used on Customs Form 5101 or a request for services. If not used for 1 year and there is no outstanding transaction to which it must be associated, the importer identification number will be removed from Customs files. To engage in future transactions described in paragraph (a) of this section, the person, business firm, Government agency, or other organization, previously covered by an importer identification number, must file another Customs Form 5106.

§ 24.11 Increased or additional duties or taxes; notice to importer.

(a) Any increased or additional duties or taxes found due upon liquidation shall be billed to the importer of record or to the actual owner when there shall have been filed: [TDs 37919, (55), 45951, 52403, 67-33.]

(1) A declaration of the actual owner on Customs Form 3347 in accordance with section 485(d), Tariff Act of 1930, and the regulations in this part; and

(2) The superseding bond of the actual owner on Customs Form 7601, as provided for in §§ 141.20 and 113.14(u) of this chapter. [TDs 53399, 54021, 73-175, 74-227.]

(b) In any case in which a timely owner's declaration, but not a timely superseding bond, has been filed, and the district director is of the opinion that because of special circumstances the collection of the increased or additional duties should be effected under the timely owner's declaration, he shall report the facts to Headquarters, U.S. Customs Service and await instructions. (Secs. 483, 485(d), 46 Stat. 721, 724; 19 U.S.C. 1483, 1485(d))

§ 24.12 Customs fees; charges for storage.

(1) A Customs fee in the amount indicated shall be collected for each application for the following actions whether the action requested is granted or denied: [TDs 55801, 56107, 56393, 73-140, 74-200.]

(2) Unless otherwise prescribed by law, a fee of 20 cents shall be collected for each official certification.

As to an examination package covered by an application for an entry by appraisement, storage shall be charged for any period it remains in the appraiser's store after 2 full working days following the day of issuance to the importer of oral or written notice of the amount of duties or taxes required to be deposited or that the package is ready for delivery. If the district director finds that circumstances make it impractical to remove examination packages from the appraiser's store within the 2-day period, he may extend the period for not to exceed 3 additional working days, without storage charges. In computing the 2 working days, and any authorized extension, (1) the day on which the permit to release or transfer is issued, or the day on which the notice is issued of the amount of duties or taxes that shall be deposited or that the package is ready for delivery, whichever is applicable, (2) Saturdays, (3) Sundays, and (4) National holidays, shall be excluded. § 24.13a Car, compartment, and package seals; and fastenings; standards; acceptance by Customs.

(a) General standards. The seals and fastenings, together, shall

(1) Be strong and durable;

(2) Be capable of being affixed easily and quickly;

(3) Be capable of being checked readily and identified by unique marks (such as a logotype) and numbers;

(4) Not permit removal or undoing without breaking, or tampering without leaving traces;

(5) Not permit use more than once; and

(6) Be made as difficult as possible to copy or counterfeit.

(b) Seal specifications. (1) The shape and size of the seal shall be such that any identifying marks are readily legible.

(2) Each eyelet in a seal shall be of a size corresponding to that of the fastening used, and shall be positioned so that the fastening will be held firmly in place when the seal is closed.

(3) The material used shall be sufficiently strong to prevent accidental breakage, early deterioration (due to weather conditions, chemical action, etc.) or undetectable tampering under normal usage.

(4) The material used shall be selected with reference to the sealing system used.

(c) Fastening specifications. (1) The fastening shall be strong and durable and resistant to weather and corrosion.

(2) The length of the fastening used shall not enable a sealed aperture to be opened or partly opened without the seal or fastening being broken or otherwise showing obvious damage.

(3) The material used shall be selected with reference to the sealing system used.

(d) Identification marks. (1) If the seal is to be purchased and used by U.S. Customs, the seal or fastening, as appropriate, shall be marked to show that it is a U.S. Customs seal by application of the words "U.S. Customs" and a unique identification number on the seal.

(2) If the seal is to be used by private industry (i.e., a shipper, manufacturer, or carrier), it must be clearly and legibly marked with a unique company name (or logotype) and identification number.

(e) Customs acceptance. Seals will be considered as acceptable for use and/or purchase by U.S. Customs as soon as the manufacturer attests that the seals have been tested and meet or exceed the standards provided in paragraphs (a) through (d) of this section, and will continue to be considered acceptable until such time as it is demonstrated that they do not meet the standards. A manufacturer may attest to the qualification of a specific seal, or to an entire product line of seals as of a certain date. Any addition of a seal to a group of seals attested to as a group would require specific acceptance of the seal by Customs.

(f) Testing. All testing of seals deemed necessary before Customs acceptance will be done by the manufacturer or by a private laboratory, and not by Customs. However, Customs reserves the right to test, or to have tested, seals that have been accepted by Customs.

(g) Records. The manufacturer's attestation that a seal meets or exceeds the standards specified in this section and, if deemed necessary by Customs, the seal test record shall be sent to the Director, Office of Inspection, Cargo Processing Division, Headquarters, U.S. Customs Service, 1301 Constitution Avenue, NW., Washington D.C. 20229. [TD 68-136, 81-185.]

§ 24.14 Salable Customs forms.

Customs forms which are designated as salable shall meet the following conditions: (1) The form is distributed to private parties for use in completing customs transactions; (2) the quantity used nationwide annually is sufficient to justify the administrative costs involved in selling the form and accounting for the collections involved therein, or the form is primarily for the use of a special group; (3) distribution is or can generally be made in lots of 100 or more; (4) the form is normally distributed to commercial concerns (customhouse brokers, freight forwarders, vessel agents, carriers, regular commercial importers, etc.) rather than to or for the use of individuals or others (tourists, churches, schools, occasional importers, etc.) for noncommercial purposes. [TDs 44695, 52732, 54198, 55238, 75-132.]

(b) The price of each salable Customs form shall be established by the Commissioner of Customs, or his delegate, and shall be adjusted periodically as the varying costs of printing and distribution require. A list of salable customs forms showing the price at which each is sold shall be prominently posted in each customhouse in a location accessible to the general public. [TD 75-132.]

(c) Customs forms for sale to the general public, except unusually large or otherwise unsuitable forms, shall normally be prepared in units containing 100 copies. If a completely prepared bill or receipt is presented by the purchaser at the time of the purchase, the district director's paid stamp shall be impressed thereon; otherwise, no receipt shall be given. (Sec. 1, 37 Stat. 434; 19 U.S.C. 1)

§ 24.16 Overtime services; overtime compensation; rate of compensation.

(a) General. Customs services for which overtime compensation is provided for by section 5 of the Act of February 13, 1911, as amended (19 U.S.C. 267),[3] or section 451, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended[4] (19 U.S.C. 1451), shall be furnished only upon compliance with the requirements of those statutes for applying for such services and giving security for reimbursement of the overtime compensation, unless the compensation is nonreimbursable under the said section 451, or section 53 of the Airport and Airway Development Act of 1970, as amended (49 U.S.C. 1741). Reimbursements of overtime compensation shall be collected by the district director from the applicants for the services. Customs employees shall not receive overtime compensation for services performed on regular tours of duty at night, but no regular tour of duty shall embrace any part of a Sunday or holiday if the services performed are such that extra compensation would be payable if performed at the request of a private interest. Reimbursable overtime services shall not be furnished to an applicant who fails to cooperate with the Customs Service by filing a timely application therefor during regular hours of business when the need for the services can reasonably by foreseen, nor in any case until the maximum probable reimbursement is adequately secured. [257 US 506; TDs 36290, 39331, 49117, 49658, 53626; 51149, 77-35.]

[3] "The Secretary of the Treasury shall fix a reasonable rate of extra compensation for overtime services of inspectors, storekeepers, weighers, and other customs officers and employees who may be required to remain on duty between the hours of five o'clock postmeridian and eight o'clock antemeridian, or on Sundays or holidays, to perform services in connection with the lading or unlading of cargo, or the lading of cargo or merchandise for transportation in bond or for exportation in bond or for exportation with benefit of drawback, or in connection with the receiving or delivery of cargo on or from the wharf, or in connection with the unlading, receiving, or examination of passengers' baggage, such rates to be fixed on the basis of one-half day's additional pay for each two hours or fraction thereof of at least one hour that the overtime extends beyond five o'clock postmeridian (but not to exceed two and one-half days' pay for the full period from five o'clock postmeridian to eight o'clock antemeridian), and two additional days' pay for Sunday or holiday duty. The said extra compensation shall be paid by the master, owner, agent, or consignee of such vessel or other conveyance whenever such special license or permit for immediate lading or unlading or for lading or unlading at night or on Sundays or holidays shall be granted to the collector of customs, who shall pay the same to the several customs officers and employees entitled thereto according to the rates fixed therefor by the Secretary of the Treasury. Such extra compensation shall be paid if such officers or employees have been ordered to report for duty and have so reported, whether the actual lading, unlading, receiving, delivery, or examination takes place or not. In those ports where customary working hours are other than those hereinabove mentioned, the collector of customs is vested with authority to regulate the hours of customs employees so as to agree with prevailing working hours in said ports, but nothing contained in this section shall be construed in any manner to affect or alter the length of a working day for customs employees or the overtime pay herein fixed." (19 U.S.C. 267)

[4] "Before any such special license to unlade shall be granted, the master, owner, or agent of such vessel or vehicle, or the person in charge of such vehicle, shall be required to deposit sufficient money to pay, or to give a bond in an amount to be fixed by the Secretary conditioned to pay, the compensation and expenses of the customs officers and employees assigned to duty in connection with such unlading at night or on Sunday or a holiday, in accordance with the provisions of section 5 of the Act of February 13, 1911, as amended (U.S.C., 1952 edition, title 19, sec. 267). In lieu of such deposit or bond the owner or agent of any vessel or vehicle or line of vessels or vehicles may execute a bond in an amount to be fixed by the Secretary of the Treasury to cover and include the issuance of special licenses for the unlading of such vessels or vehicles for a period not to exceed one year. Upon a request made by the owner, master, or person in charge of a vessel or vehicle, or by or on behalf of a common carrier or by or on behalf of the owner or consignee of any merchandise or baggage, for overtime services of customs officers or employees at night or on a Sunday or holiday, the collector shall assign sufficient customs officers or employees if available to perform any such services which may lawfully be performed by them during regular hours of business, but only if the person requesting such services deposits sufficient money to pay, or gives a bond in an amount to be fixed by the collector, conditioned to pay the compensation and expenses of such customs officers and employees, who shall be entitled to rates of compensation fixed on the same basis and payable in the same manner and upon the same terms and conditions as in the case of customs officers and employees assigned to duty in connection with lading or unlading at night or on Sunday or a holiday. Nothing in this section shall be construed to impair the existing authority of the Treasury Department to assign customs officers or employees to regular tours of duty at nights or on Sundays or holidays when such assignments are in the public interest: Provided, That the provisions of this section, sections 450 and 452 of this Act, and the provisions of section 5 of the Act of February 13, 1911, as amended (U.S.C., title 19, sec. 267), insofar as such section 5 requires payment of compensation by the master, owner, agent, or consignee of a vessel or conveyance, shall not apply to the owner, operator, or agent of a highway vehicle, bridge, tunnel, or ferry, between the United States and Canada or between the United States and Mexico, nor to the lading or unlading of merchandise, baggage, or persons arriving in or departing from the United States by motor vehicle, trolley car, on foot, or by other means of highway travel upon, over, or through any highway, bridge, tunnel, or ferry. At ports of entry and customs stations where any merchandise, baggage, or persons shall arrive in or depart from the United States by motor vehicle, trolley car, on foot, or by other means of highway travel upon, over, or through any highway, bridge, tunnel, or ferry, between the United States and Canada or between the United States and Mexico, the collector, under such regulations as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe, shall assign customs officers and employees to duty at such times during the twenty-four hours of each day, including Sundays and holidays, as the Secretary of the Treasury in his discretion may determine to be necessary to facilitate the inspection and passage of such merchandise, baggage, or persons. Officers and employees assigned to such duty at night or on Sunday or a holiday shall be paid compensation in accordance with existing law as interpreted by the United States Supreme Court in the case of the United States v. Howard C. Myers (320 U.S.C. 561); but all compensation payable to such customs officers and employees shall be paid by the United States without requiring any license, bond, obligation, financial undertaking, or payment in connection therewith on the part of any owner, operator, or agent of any such highway vehicle, bridge, tunnel, or ferry, or other person. As used in this section, the term "ferry" shall mean a passenger service operated with the use of vessels which arrive in the United States on regular schedules at intervals of at least once each hour during any period in which customs service is to be furnished without reimbursement as above provided." (Tariff Act of 1930, sec. 451, as amended; 19 U.S.C. 1451)

(b) Night, Sunday, and holiday defined. For the purposes of this section the word "night" shall mean the time between 5 p.m. of any day and 8 a.m. of the following day, or between the corresponding hours at ports or stations where regular hours for the transaction of the general class of Customs business involved other than those from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. have been established to agree with local prevailing working hours, but shall not include any such time within the 24 hours of a Sunday or holiday. The night hours at the end of the regular workday immediately preceding a Sunday or holiday and the night hours at the beginning of the next regular workday shall be considered for the purposes of this section as parts of a single night. For such purpose the term "holiday" shall include only days on which Customs employees generally are not required to work and which are usually observed as national holidays.[5] The time accounted for as overtime shall be computed on the basis of the regular hours for the performance of the particular work of the assignment, even though such hours differ from the regular working hours of the employee assigned,[5a] but no extra compen-

[5] The days usually observed as national holidays are: January 1, February 22, May 30, July 4, the first Monday in September, November 11, Thanksgiving Day, and December 25.

[5a] For example: At a port where the regular hours of business have been fixed at 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. for the inside force and 7 a.m. to 4 p.m. for the outside force, a clerk whose regular working hours are 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. is not entitled to reimbursable extra compensation if assigned to inspectional work from 7 a.m. to 8 a.m. on a week day, since he works within the regular hours for the service to which he is assigned.

sation shall be paid pursuant to this section for any services performed by an employee at his regular post or elsewhere during a regular tour of duty of such employee. [TD 51330.]

(c) Application and bond. (1) Except as provided for in subparagraphs (2) and (4) of this paragraph, an application for services of Customs employees at night or on a Sunday or holiday, Customs Form 3171, supported by the required cash deposit or bond, shall be filed in the office of the district director of Customs before the assignment of such employees for reimbursable overtime services. The cash deposit to secure reimbursement shall be fixed by the district director or his authorized representative in an amount sufficient to pay the maximum probable compensation and expenses of the Customs employees, or the maximum amount which may be charged by law, whichever is less, in connection with the particular services requested. The bond to secure reimbursement shall be on Customs Form 7597 or 7599 and in an amount to be fixed by the district director, unless another bond containing a provisions to secure reimbursement is on file. A bond given on Customs Form 7597 to secure the payment of overtime services rendered private aircraft and private vessels shall be taken without surety or cash deposit in lieu of surety, and the bond shall be modified to so indicate. [TDs 51740, 53626, 55386, 68-247, 70-201, 77-35.]

(2) Prior to the expected arrival of a pleasure vessel or private aircraft the district director of Customs may designate a Customs employee to proceed to the place of expected arrival to receive an application for night, Sunday, or holiday services in connection with the arrival of such vessel or aircraft, together with the required cash deposit or bond. In each such case the assignment to perform services shall be conditional upon the receipt of the appropriate application and security. Where the security is a cash deposit, the receipt may be properly inscribed to make it serve as a combined receipt for cash deposit in lieu of bond and request for overtime services, in lieu of filing a request for overtime services on Customs Form 3171. [TDs 56106, 67-33, 68-247.]

Request for Overtime Services

Permit Number______________________________

I hereby request overtime services on ——————, 19—, at —— a.m., p.m., in connection with the entry of my aircraft (vessel).

(Pilot, Owner, or Person in Charge)

(3) An application on Customs Form 3171 for overtime services of Customs employees, when supported by the required cash deposit or bond on Customs Form 7599, may be granted for a period not longer than for 1 year nor longer than the period of the supporting bond. In such a case, the application must show the exact times when the overtime services will be needed, unless arrangements are made so that the proper Customs officer will be timely notified during official hours in advance of the services requested as to the exact times that the services will be needed. [TDs 68-247, 77-35.]

(4) Inspectional services will be provided to owners or operators of aircraft without charge for overtime on Sundays and holidays between the hours of 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m. Applications for inspectional services for aircraft during those hours shall be filed as set forth in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, but without cash deposit or bond. [TD 77-35.]

(d) Assignment. Customs employees may be ordered to report for any overtime duty sufficiently in advance of the time specified by the applicant to avoid unnecessary delay, but in no case more than 1 hour in advance of the time so specified unless the specified time is subject to change without reasonable notice as in the case of some aircraft arrivals. If no time can be specified for the services to begin, the employees required and available shall be assigned to the overtime duty as soon as practicable. Customs employees shall not be deemed available to perform reimbursable overtime services at night unless the total time of service, including waiting time, will be at least one hour, but nothing in this section shall prohibit the district director or other administrative officer from requiring an employee to perform, before he leaves his duty status and without extra compensation under the act of February 13, 1911, as amended, any work which is pending at the beginning of the night and can be completed in less than 1 hour. No Customs employee shall be assigned on a weekday, or for more than an aggregate of 8 hours on a Sunday or holiday, to any overtime service for which nonreimbursable extra compensation is payable, except under special authorization from the Commissioner of Customs.

(e) Nonperformance of requested services. If services which have been requested and for which employees have reported are not performed by reason of circumstances beyond the control of the employees concerned, extra compensation shall be paid and collected on the same basis as though the services had actually been performed during the period between the time the employees were ordered to report for duty and did so report and the time they were notified that their services would not be required, and in any case as though actual performance had continued for at least 1 hour.

(f) Broken periods. When overtime services at night or on a Sunday or holiday are rendered in broken periods, the actual time each assignment began and ended shall be reported. Overtime services rendered in such broken periods shall be treated as though the services had been continuous except when the total of the compensation computed separately for each such period in accordance with the provisions of paragraphs (g) and (h) of this section is less than when computed as though the services had been considered continuous. For purposes of computing compensation, each time an employee is assigned and reports for overtime duty on a weekday or on a Sunday or holiday constitutes a separate broken period even though no services, or services of less than 1 hour, are actually rendered on such assignment. In no case shall any employee be entitled to receive more than 2 1/2 days' pay by reason of the fact that he is given two or more assignments during one night. [TD 70-253.]

(g) Rate for night service. The reasonable rate of extra compensation for authorized overtime services performed by Customs employees at night on any weekday is hereby fixed at one-half of the gross daily rate of the regular pay of the employee who performs the service for each 2 hours of compensable time, any fraction of 2 hours amounting to at least 1 hour to be counted as 2 hours. The compensable time shall be the period between the beginning of the night and the conclusion of the services if the employee is assigned and reports for duty before the expiration of the first 4 hours of the night; the period between the time the employee is assigned and reports for duty and the conclusion of the services, plus 4 hours, if the time of assignment is after the expiration of the first 4 and before the beginning of the last 2 hours of the night; or 2 hours if the employee is assigned and reports for duty 2 hours or less before the end of the night. However, if an employee performs Sunday or holiday services which are in continuation of an assignment to overtime services begun during the last 2 night hours at the end of the regular workday preceding such Sunday or holiday, the compensable time for the overtime services preceding the Sunday or holiday shall be 2 hours; or if an employee performs overtime services during the night hours at the beginning of the next regular workday following a Sunday or holiday which overtime services are in continuation of an assignment begun on the Sunday or holiday immediately preceding such regular workday, the compensable time for the overtime services following such Sunday or holiday shall be the period between midnight of such Sunday or holiday and the conclusion of the overtime services. The compensable time for overtime service performed by a customs employee assigned to a regular tour of duty covering any part of a night shall be computed in accordance with this night rate as though the beginning of the regular tour of duty of such employee marked the end of a night period and the close of such tour marked the beginning of another night period, but extra compensation is not payable in accordance with this section for overtime services performed by any Customs employee on a regular workday during other than the night hours of the port or station. The total extra compensation paid pursuant to this section to a Customs employee for overtime services performed during one night shall not exceed 2 1/2 times the gross daily rate of his regular pay. [TD 52903.]

(h) Rate for Sunday or holiday service. The reasonable rate of extra compensation for Sunday or holiday services is hereby fixed at twice the gross daily rate of regular pay of the employee who performs the service for any and all services totaling an aggregate of not more than 8 hours during the 24 hours from midnight to midnight of the Sunday or holiday, including actual waiting time and time required for travel between posts of duty but not including any periods for meals or other time not spent at the post of duty. This rate shall apply regardless of the length of time served within the aggregate of 8 hours, whether it is served continuously or in broken periods, and whether it is served for one or more applicants. Services in excess of an aggregate of 8 hours performed during the 24 hours of a Sunday or holiday shall be compensated on the same basis as overtime services performed at night on a weekday, the time between the completion of the aggregate of 8 hours and midnight being considered as the hours of a night.

(i) Part-time employees. The extra compensation for overtime services performed by a permanent part-time employee at night or on a Sunday or holiday shall be computed on the basis of the gross daily rate of regular pay the part-time employee would receive for full-time service in the position held by him. Customs employees who are paid on a per-diem-when-employed basis shall be paid the overtime rate but not the per-diem rate when assigned to perform overtime services on a Sunday or holiday.

(j) Proration of charges—(1) General. If services are performed for two or more applicants during one continuous tour of overtime duty, the charge for the extra compensation earned shall be prorated equitably according to the time attributed to the services performed for each applicant. For the purpose of this paragraph the Government shall be considered the applicant for nonreimbursable overtime services. [TD 67-166.]

(2) Aircraft. When any services performed by Customs employees for two or more applicants during the 24-hour period of a Sunday or holiday or during the night hours of 5 p.m. of any day to 8 a.m. of the following day cannot be readily attributed on a time basis to specific aircraft in the judgment of the district director having Customs supervision of the airport, the total charge of the overtime compensation for such services during the entire period of the Sunday, holiday, or night hours shall be prorated to the aircraft receiving such services during each such period on the following basis:

(i) Five percent of such total Customs overtime charge for the period shall be distributed equally among the operators of the aircraft.

(ii) Ten percent of such total Customs overtime charge for the period shall be distributed among the operators of the aircraft proportionally as the number of entrances and clearances made by each aircraft operator requiring Customs service bears to the total number of entrances and clearances serviced during the period.

(iii) Eighty-five percent of such total Customs overtime charge for the period shall be distributed among the operators of the aircraft proportionally as the number of passengers and/or crew serviced for each aircraft operator bears to the total number of passengers and/or crew serviced during the period.

This proration formula shall apply only to overtime services rendered aircraft carrying cargo and/or passengers for hire and in no case shall the prorated charge to an aircraft operator be more than the charge would have been had the services been rendered as a separate assignment for the aircraft operator.

(k) Participation in overtime work. In general, services for which extra compensation is payable in accordance with this section, or for which reimbursement is require in accordance with § 24.17, shall be performed by employees who are regularly assigned to perform the same class of work during their regular tours of duty, but when the district director or other administrative field officer concerned finds that the needs of the service so require he is hereby authorized to assign any other available and competent employee to perform such services and such employees while so assigned shall be deemed acting inspectors, acting Customs warehouse officers, etc., as the case may be. (Sec. 5, 36 Stat. 901, as amended, secs. 450, 451, 452, 46 Stat. 715, as amended, secs. 6, 623, 49 Stat. 1385, as amended; 19 U.S.C. 261, 267, 1450, 1451, 1452, 1623, 46 U.S.C. 382b)

§ 24.17 Other services of officers; reimbursable.

(a) Amounts of compensation and expenses chargeable to parties-in-interest in connection with services rendered by Customs officers or employees during regular hours of duty or on Customs overtime assignments (19 U.S.C. 267, 1451), under one or more of the following circumstances shall be collected from such parties-in-interest and deposited by district directors as repayments to the appropriation from which paid. [TDs 49658, 51334, 52563, 52979, 53399, 54318, 54662, 54876, 55196, 56209.]

(1) When a Customs officer or employee is assigned on board a vessel or vehicle under authority of section 457, Tariff Act of 1930, to protect the revenue, the owner or master of such vessel or vehicle shall be charged the full compensation and authorized travel and subsistence expenses of such officer or employee from the time he leaves his official station until he returns thereto.

(2) When a Customs officer or employee is assigned on board a vessel under authority of section 458, Tariff Act of 1930, to supervise the unlading of such vessel, the master or owner of such vessel shall be charged the full compensation of such officer or employee for every day consumed in unlading after the expiration of 25 days after the date of the vessel's entry.

(3) When a Customs officer or employee is assigned under authority of section 304, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, to supervise the exportation, destruction, or marking to exempt articles from the duty provided for in such section, the importer of such merchandise shall be charged the full compensation and authorized travel and subsistence expenses of such officer or employee from the time he leaves his official station until he returns thereto.

(c) The charge for any service enumerated in this section for which expenses are required to be reimbursed shall include actual transportation expenses of a Customs employee within the port limits and any authorized travel expenses of a Customs employee, including per diem, when the services are performed outside the port limits irrespective of whether the services are performed during a regular tour of duty or during a Customs overtime assignment. § 24.18 Preclearance of air travelers in a foreign country; reimbursable cost.

(a) Preclearance is the tentative examination and inspection of air travelers and their baggage at foreign places where U.S. Customs personnel are stationed for that purpose. [TD 70-34.]

(b) At the request of an airline, travelers on a direct flight to the United States from a foreign place described in paragraph (a) of this section may be precleared prior to departure from such place. A charge based on the excess cost to Customs of providing preclearance services as defined in paragraph (c) of this section shall be made to the airline.

(c) The reimbursable excess cost is the difference between (1) the cost of examining and inspecting air travelers and their baggage upon arrival in the United States assuming no preclearance was provided, and (2) the cost of providing preclearance for air travelers at the place of departure. Such excess cost shall include all items attributable to the preclearance operation. This does not include the salary of personnel regularly assigned to a preclearance station other than approved salary differentials related to the foreign assignment and the salary of relief details made necessary by reason of the nature of the operation. In addition, such cost shall include the following allowances and expenses:

(1) Housing allowances;

(2) Post of duty allowances;

(3) Education allowances;

(4) Transportation cost incident to the assignment to the foreign station and return, including transportation of family and household effects;

(5) Home leave and associated transportation costs; and

(6) Equipment, supplies and administrative costs including costs of supervising the preclearance installation.

(d) The reimbursable excess cost described in paragraph (c) of this section shall be determined for each preclearance installation. On the basis of the excess cost figure for each installation, the excess cost of providing preclearance service for a biweekly pay period shall be determined. The initial schedule of biweekly excess cost will be based on the actual excess cost for fiscal year 1969. Thereafter, a quarterly (ending with the pay period closely corresponding to June 30, September 30, December 31, and March 31) cost analysis will be conducted and the schedule of biweekly excess costs will be adjusted so that the current biweekly excess cost schedule will reflect the actual excess costs of the previous quarter. Such schedules of biweekly costs for each installation shall be published in the Federal Register. The biweekly excess cost in effect at an installation at the time the charge is made shall be used in calculating the prorated charge for preclearance service for each airline in accordance with paragraph (e) of this section.

(e) The charge to each airline for preclearance service shall be its prorated share of the applicable excess cost prorated to the aircraft receiving such services during the billing period on the following basis:

(1) Five percent shall be distributed equally among the airlines serviced.

(2) Ten percent shall be distributed proportionately as the number of clearances serviced bears to the total number of clearances.

(3) Eighty-five percent shall be distributed proportionately as the number of passengers and/or crew serviced for each airline bears to the total number of passengers and/or crew serviced.

(f) Customs services for which overtime compensation is provided for by section 5 of the Act of February 13, 1911, as amended (19 U.S.C. 267), and the expenses recovered thereunder are governed by § 24.15 and are in no way affected by this section. (63 Stat. 290; 31 U.S.C. 483a) (80 Stat. 379; 5 U.S.C. 301)

§ 24.32 Claims; unpaid compensation of deceased employees and death benefits.

(a) A claim made by a designated beneficiary or a surviving spouse for unpaid compensation due an officer or employee at the time of his death shall be executed on standard Form 1153, Claim of Designated Beneficiary and/or Surviving Spouse for Unpaid Compensation of Deceased Civilian Employee. A claim made by anyone other than a designated beneficiary or surviving spouse for unpaid compensation due an officer or employee at the time of his death shall be executed on standard Form 1155, Claim for Unpaid Compensation of Deceased Civilian Employee. The claims shall be forwarded to the Customs office where the deceased was employed. [TDs 48599, 52717, Gen. Reg. 42 (4 Comp. Gen. 1096); Sup. 1 (7 Comp. Gen. 848); Sup. 3 (12 Comp. Gen. 673).]

(b) Claims for death benefits, either in the form of an annuity or lump-sum payment of the amount to the credit of the deceased officer or employee in the Retirement and Disability Fund shall be executed on standard Form 100, Application for Death Benefit, and forwarded together with a certified copy of the public record of death directly to the Civil Service Commission, Washington, D.C. 20415. (Secs. 1, 3, 64 Stat. 395, 396, sec. 11, 41 Stat. 619, as amended; 5 U.S.C. 61f, 61h, 724)

(a) Vouchers or invoices for transportation and related services which are intended for payment from official funds shall contain the following certification signed by the claimant: [TDs 52752, 54355; Gen. Regs. No. 134]

> I certify that the above bill is correct and just and that payment has not been received.

Vouchers, vendors' bills of sale, or invoices for purchases or services other than personal do not require the foregoing certification.

(b) Every voucher shall be in the name of the person or persons furnishing the service or supplies, except in the case of a service or supplies paid for in an emergency by a Customs officer or employee, in which case the voucher may be in the name of the officer or employee who made the payment.

(c) The signature of a claimant made by a mark shall be attested in each case by a disinterested witness.

(d) The dates appearing on vouchers and on receipts filed in support thereof shall always be the actual dates of the transactions recorded or action taken thereon. As many copies in memorandum form, duly authenticated if desired, may be prepared as administrative or other requirements demand.

(e) When an erasure, interlineation, or change of any kind is made in a voucher after it has been certified by the claimant, such correction or change shall be initialed and dated by the claimant.

(f) (1) Vouchers for passenger transportation furnished Customs officers or employees on Government transportation requests, standard Form 1169, and vouchers for transportation of freight and express furnished on Government bills of lading, standard Form 1103, issued by Customs officers or employees shall be rendered on Public Voucher for Transportation Charges, standard Form 1171 or 1113, respectively, to the Customs office to be billed as indicated on the transportation request or bill of lading. [TDs 52752, 54355; Gen. Reg. 97—Revised (25 Comp. Gen. 924); Gen. Regs. No. 123 (34 Comp. Gen. 782).]

(2) Charges for freight or express must not be included on the same vouchers with charges for passenger transportation. The words "Passenger," "Freight," or "Express," as the case may be, should be printed or otherwise placed by the carrier immediately above the title of the voucher form. Original Government bills of lading, standard Form 1103, or transportation requests, standard Form 1169, or certificates in lieu thereof, standard Forms 1108 or 1172, respectively, shall be attached to these vouchers. (Sec. 22, 28 Stat. 210, as amended; 41 U.S.C. 21)

(a) When it is found on liquidation or reliquidation of an entry that a refund of excessive duties or taxes, or both, is due, a refund shall be prepared in the name of the person to whom the refund is due, as determined by paragraphs (b) and (c) of this section. If an authority to mail checks to someone other than the payee, Customs Form 4811, is on file, the address of the payee shall be shown as in care of the address of the authorized persons. If a power of attorney is on file, the address of the payee may be shown as in care of the address of such attorney, if requested. A Form 4811 received by Customs will not be effective if a Customs transaction requiring the use of the owner's importer number has not been made within 3 years from the date the Form 4811 was filed or if there is no unliquidated entry on file to which such number is to be associated. [TDs 45951, 47052, 48599, 49645, 53370, 55389, 67-33.]

(b) Refunds of excessive duties or taxes shall be certified for payment to the importer of record unless a transferee of the right to withdraw merchandise from bonded warehouse is entitled to receive the refund under section 557(b), Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, or an owner's declaration has been filed in accordance with section 485(d), Tariff Act of 1930, or a surety submits evidence of payment to Customs, upon default of the principal, of amounts previously determined to be due on the same entry or transaction. The certification of a refund for payment to a nominal consignee may be made prior to the expiration of the 90-day period within which an owner's declaration may be filed as prescribed in section 485(d) of the Tariff Act, provided the nominal consignee waives in writing his right to file such declaration. If an owner's declaration has been duly filed, the refund shall be certified for payment to the actual owner who executed the declaration, except that, irrespective of whether an owner's declaration has been filed, refunds shall be certified for payment to a transferee provided for in section 557(b), Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, if the moneys with respect to which the refund was allowed were paid by such transferee. If a surety submits evidence of payment to Customs, upon default of the principal, for an amount previously determined to be due on an entry or transaction the refund shall be certified to that surety up to the amount paid by it or shall be applied to other obligations of the surety. [CIEs 612/41; 694/41; TDs 45951, 53336, 53399, 71-289.]

(c) If the nominal consignee has become bankrupt, refunds of duties or internal revenue taxes on merchandise entered in the name of such nominal consignee for the account of the actual owner shall be withheld from payment pending the receipt of a claim therefor and the establishment of rights thereto, unless the declaration of the actual owner has been filed with the district director under section 485(d), Tariff Act of 1930. [TD 53370.]

(d) The authority of district directors to make refunds pursuant to paragraphs (a), (b), and (c) of this section of excessive deposits of alcohol or tobacco taxes, as defined in section 6423(e)(1), Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (26 U.S.C. 6423(e)(1)),[7] is confined to cases of the types which are excepted from the application of section 6423, Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (26 U.S.C. 6423). The excepted types of cases and, therefore, the types in which the district director is authorized to make refunds of such taxes are those in which: [TD 54896.]

[6] (a) The Secretary of the Treasury is hereby authorized to refund duties or other receipts in the following cases:

"(1) Excess deposits. Whenever it is ascertained on liquidation or reliquidation of an entry that more money has been deposited or paid as duties than was required by law to be so deposited or paid;

"(2) Fees, charges, and exactions. Whenever it is determined in the manner required by law that any fees, charges, or exactions, other than duties and taxes, have been erroneously or excessively collected; and

"(3) Fines, penalties, and forfeitures. Whenever money has been deposited in the Treasury on account of a fine, penalty, or forfeiture which did not accrue, or which is finally determined to have accrued in an amount less than that so deposited, or which is mitigated to an amount less than that so deposited or is remitted." (Tariff Act of 1930, sec. 520(a), as amended; 19 U.S.C. 1520(a)).

The refunding of moneys in compliance with any ruling or decision of the Customs Court is the function of the Secretary of the Treasury, and there is no foundation for a suit against the collector of customs to restrain him from disposal of such moneys.

Payment of costs and interest upon refunds in customs cases is not allowed.

[7] "(e) Meaning of terms. For purposes of this section—

(1) Alcohol or Tobacco Tax. The term 'alcohol or tobacco tax' means—

(B) In the case of any commodity of a kind subject to a tax described in subparagraph (A), any tax equal to any such tax, any additional tax, or any floor stocks tax." (26 U.S.C. 6423(e)(1))

(2) The refund is made pursuant to provisions of laws and regulations for drawback;

(3) The tax was paid or collected on an imported article withdrawn from the market, returned to bond, or lost or destroyed, when any law expressly provides for refund in such case;

(4) The tax was paid or collected on an imported article which has been lost, where a suit or proceeding was instituted before June 15, 1957;

(5) The refund of tax is pursuant to a claim based solely on errors of computation of the quantity of the imported article, or on mathematical errors in computation of the tax due;

(6) The tax was paid or collected on an imported article seized and forfeited, or destroyed, as contraband;

(7) The tax was paid or collected on an imported article refused admission to Customs territory and exported or destroyed in accordance with section 558, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended;

(8) The refund of tax is pursuant to a reliquidation of an entry under section 520(c)(1), Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, and does not involve a rate of tax applicable to an imported article; or

(9) The tax was paid or collected on a greater quantity of imported articles than that actually imported and the fact of the deficiency is established to the district directors' satisfaction before liquidation of the entry becomes final.

(e) In any instance in which a refund of an alcohol or tobacco tax is not of a type covered by paragraph (d) of this section the following procedure shall apply: [TDs 54896, 55472.]

(1) The district director shall issue a notice of refund for duty only and shall place the following statement on the notice of refund issued for duty: "Claim or refund of any overpayment of internal revenue tax on this entry must be executed and filed with the assistant regional commissioner (alcohol, tobacco and firearms) of the internal revenue region in which the claimant is located, in accordance with internal revenue regulations (Title 26 of the Code of Federal Regulations)." On request of the claimant, the district director shall issue a certified statement on Customs letterhead identifying the entry, showing the amount of internal revenue tax deposited with respect to each entry for which a claim on internal revenue Form 843 is to be made, and showing the date of issuance of the notice of refund of duty.

(2) The claim shall be executed on internal revenue Form 843 (original only) which may be procured from offices of the Internal Revenue Service and shall be filed with the assistant regional commissioner (alcohol, tobacco and firearms) of the internal revenue region in which the claimant is located. The certified statement shall be attached to and filed in support of such claim which may include refunds under more than one entry but shall be limited to refunds under entries filed in the same Customs district and the same internal revenue region. The data to be shown on the claim shall be as prescribed in internal revenue regulations, with the exception that any data on the certified statement also required to be shown in the claim need not be restated in the claim.

(3) The date of allowance of refund or credit in respect of such tax for the purposes of section 6407, Internal Revenue Code of 1954 (26 U.S.C. 6407) shall be that date on which a claim is perfected and the refund is authorized for scheduling under the applicable internal revenue regulations. (72 Stat. 9; 26 U.S.C. 6423) [TD 54896.]

§ 24.70 Claims; deceased or incompetent public creditors.

(a) Claims for amounts due individual deceased public creditors of the United States (except civilian officers and employees subject to the provisions of section 61f–61k, title 5, United States Code), should be made on standard Form No. 1055—Revised. Such claims include claims for payments due deceased contractors for articles furnished or services performed, and claims for payments due deceased importers or owners of merchandise on account of refunds of excessive duties, or taxes, or for payment of drawback, etc. Claims for payment of Government checks drawn on the Treasurer of the United States or other authorized Government depositary to the order of such public creditors, which cannot be paid because of the death of the payee, should be stated on standard Form 1055—Revised. Information should be furnished regarding the disposition of these checks in case they are not in possession of the claimant, otherwise they should accompany the claim. [TDs 52793, 53399.]

(b) No form is prescribed for use of a guardian or committee of an estate of an incompetent in making claim for sums due from the United States. Such guardian or committee may submit in letter form, over his address and signature, an application for amounts due an estate of an incompetent, setting forth the incompetent's connection with the United States Customs Service. This application should be supported by a short certificate of the court showing the appointment and qualification of the claimant as guardian or committee. In case the total amount due the estate of the incompetent is small, and no guardian or committee of the estate has been or will be appointed, the application may be submitted by the person or persons having care or custody of the incompetent, or by close relatives who will hold any amount found due for the use and benefit of the incompetent. Applications for recurring payments need not be accompanied by an additional certificate of the court, but should be supported by a statement that the appointment is still in full force and effect. All Government checks drawn on the Treasurer of the United States or other authorized Government depository to the order of individuals which cannot be paid because of incompetency of the payee should accompany the claim, otherwise an explanation should be given as to the disposition of the check.

(c) Claims for payments due deceased or incompetent contractors should be submitted to the Customs field officer at whose order the articles were furnished or services performed. Claims for refunds of excessive duties, or taxes, or for payment of drawback and other similar claims due deceased or incompetent public creditors shall be submitted to the appropriate regional commissioner of Customs. The Customs field officer may grant necessary assistance to claimants to insure proper execution of standard Form 1055—Revised in the case of deceased public creditors, and in the case of incompetent public creditors to insure submission of the application in proper form. The regional commissioner shall settle the claim unless there is a doubtful question of fact or law, in which case the claim shall be forwarded to the Assistant Director (Accounting), Division of Financial Management, United States Customs Service, with originals or certified copies of any necessary documents and with an appropriate report and recommendation. [TD 68-142.]

§ 24.71 Claims for personal injury or damages to or loss of privately owned property.

Procedures for the settlement of claims arising from actions of Treasury Department employees are published in 31 CFR Part 3. [TD 51684.]

§ 24.72 Claims; set-off.

When an importer of record or other party has a judgment or other claim allowed by legal authority against the United States, and he is indebted to the United States, either as principal or surety, for an amount which is legally fixed and undisputed, the district director shall set off so much of the judgment or other claim as will equal the amount of the debt due the Government. [TD 56388.]

§ 24.73 Miscellaneous claims.

Every claim of whatever nature arising under the Customs laws which is not otherwise provided for shall be forwarded directly to Headquarters, U.S. Customs Service, together with all supporting documents and information available.

Metal Articles Imported To Be Used in Remanufacture of Melting, or To Be Processed by Shredding, Shearing, Compacting, or Similar Processing Which Renders Them Fit Only for the Recovery of the Metal Content

§ 54.5 Scope of exemptions; nondeposit of estimated duty.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in this section, articles in chief value of metal to be used in remanufacture by melting, or to be processed by shredding, shearing, compacting, or similar processing which renders them fit only for the recovery of the metal content, and actually so used, shall be entitled to free entry upon compliance with section 54.6, if entered , or withdrawn from warehouse for consumption, during the effective period of items 911.11 and 911.12, Tariff Schedules of the United States (TSUS) (19 U.S.C. 1202). This provision does not apply to

(1) articles in chief value of lead, zinc, or tungsten;

(2) metal-bearing materials provided for in Schedule 4, TSUS, or Part 1, Schedule 6, TSUS; or

(3) unwrought metal provided for in Part 2, Schedule 6, TSUS. [TDs 54700, 55978.]

(b) No deposit of estimated duty shall be required upon the entry, or withdrawal, from warehouse for consumption of the articles described in paragraph (a) of this section if the district director is satisfied at the time of entry or withdrawal by written declaration of the importer that the merchandise was imported to be used in remanufacture by melting, or to be processed by shredding, shearing, compacting, or similar processing which renders it fit only for the recovery of the metal content.

Articles in chief value of metal, described in § 54.5(a) shall be admitted free of duty upon compliance with the following conditions:

(a) There shall be filed in connection with the entry[1] a statement of the importer that the articles are to be used in remanufacture by melting, or to be processed by shredding, shearing, compacting, or similar processing which renders them fit only for the recovery of the metal content.

(b) If the articles are entered for consumption, there also be filed in connection with the entry a bond on Customs Form 7551 or 7553. If the articles are entered for warehouse, the regular warehouse bond, Customs Form 7555, shall be given, and withdrawals shall be made on Customs Form 7506. The liquidation of the consumption or warehouse entry shall be suspended pending proof of use or other disposition of the articles within the time prescribed in paragraph (c) of this section.

(c) Within 3 years from the date of entry, or withdrawal from warehouse for consumption, the importer shall submit to the district director at the port of entry, a statement from the superintendent or manager of the plant at which the articles were used in remanufacture by melting, or were processed by shredding, shearing, compacting, or similar processing which rendered them fit only for the recovery of the metal content, showing:

(1) The name and location of the plant;

(2) The entry number, date, and port of entry (if the person making the statement is not in possession of this information, a reference to invoices, purchase orders, or other documents which will identify the shipment with the entry may be substituted);

(3) The date or inclusive dates of the remanufacture or processing of the articles; and

(4) A description of the remanufacture or processing in sufficient detail to enable the district director to determine whether it constituted a use in remanufacture by melting, or processing by shredding, shearing, compacting, or similar processing which rendered the articles fit only for the recovery of the metal content. In appropriate cases, the remanufacture or processing of the articles covered by more than one entry may be included in one statement. The statement shall be based on adequate and carefully kept plant and import records which shall be available during normal business hours to any Customs officer. The importer and plant manager shall maintain the import and plant records for 5 years from the date of the related entry of the merchandise. The burden shall be on the importer or plant manager to keep these records so that the claim actual use can be established readily. [TD 79-159.]

(d) If satisfactory proof of use of the articles in remanufacture by melting, or in processing by shredding, shearing, compacting, or similiar processing which rendered them fit only for the recovery of the metal content, is furnished within the prescribed time, the entry shall be liquidated without the assessment of duty on the articles covered by such proof. If proof is not filed within 3 years from the date of entry, or withdrawal from warehouse for consumption, or the use does not warrant the classification claimed, the entry shall be liquidated without any exemption from duty under item 911.11 or 911.11, Tariff Schedules of the United States.

This part sets forth general regulations governing the authority of Customs officers, and the location of Customs regions, districts, and ports of entry, and of Customs stations. It further sets forth regulations concerning the entry and clearance of vessels at Customs stations and a listing of Customs preclearance offices in foreign countries. In addition, this part contains provisions concerning the hours of business of Customs offices, the Customs seal, and the identification cards issued to Customs officers and employees. [TD 77-241.]

§ 101.1 Definitions.

As used in this chapter, the following terms shall have the meanings indicated unless either the context in which they are used requires a different meaning or a different definition is prescribed for a particular part or portion thereof:

(a) Area. "Area" refers to any of the three administrative areas created in the Customs district of New York City, New York, which is coextensive with Customs Region II, New York City, New York, and identified as Kennedy Airport Area, Newark Area, and New York Seaport Area, each of which is under the jurisdiction of an area director of Customs.

(c) Customs region. A "Customs region" is the geographical area under the jurisdiction of a regional commissioner of Customs.

(d) Customs station. A "Customs station" is any place, other than a port of entry, at which Customs officers or employees are stationed, under the authority contained in article IX of the President's Message of March 3, 1913 (T.D. 33249), to enter and clear vessels, accept entries of merchandise, collect duties, and enforce the various provisions of the Customs and navigation laws of the United States.

(e) Customs territory of the United States. "Customs territory of the United States" includes only the States, the District of Columbia, and Puerto Rico.

(f) Date of entry. The "date of entry" or "time of entry" of imported merchandise shall be the effective time of entry of such merchandise, as defined in § 141.68 of this chapter.

(g) Date of exportation. "Date of exportation" or "time of exportation" shall be as defined in § 152.1(c) of this chapter.

(h) Date of importation. "Date of importation" means, in the case of merchandise imported otherwise than by vessel, the date on which the merchandise arrives within the Customs territory of the United States. In the case of merchandise imported by vessel, "date of importation" means the date on which the vessel arrives within the limits of a port in the United States with intent then and there to unlade such merchandise.

(i) Duties. "Duties" means Customs duties and any internal revenue taxes which attach upon importation.

(j) Entry or withdrawal for consumption. "Entry or withdrawal for consumption" means entry for consumption or withdrawal from warehouse for consumption.

(k) Importer. "Importer" means the person primarily liable for the payment of any duties on the merchandise, or an authorized agent acting on his behalf. The importer may be:

(1) The consignee, or

(2) The importer of record, or

(3) The actual owner of the merchandise, if an actual owner's declaration and superseding bond has been filed in accordance with § 141.20 of this chapter, or

(4) The transferee of the merchandise, if the right to withdraw merchandise in a bonded warehouse has been transferred in accordance with subpart C of part 144 of this chapter.

(l) Port and port of entry. The terms "port" and "port of entry" refer to any place designated by Executive order of the President, by order of the Secretary of the Treasury, or by Act of Congress, at which a Customs officer is authorized to accept entries of merchandise to collect duties, and to enforce the various provisions of the Customs and navigation laws. The terms "port" and "port of entry" incorporate the geographical area under the jurisdiction of a port director when such port is one other than a district headquarters port. (The Customs District of the Virgin Islands, although under the jurisdiction of the Secretary of the Treasury, has its own Customs laws (48 U.S.C. 1406(i)). This district, therefore, is outside the Customs territory of the United States and the ports thereof are not "ports of entry" within the meaning of these regulations.)

(m) Principal field officer. A "principal field officer" is an officer in the field service whose immediate supervisor is located at Customs Service Headquarters.

§ 101.2 Authority of Customs officers.

(a) Supremacy of delegated authority. Action taken by any person pursuant to authority delegated to him by the Secretary of the Treasury, whether directly or by subdelegation, shall be valid despite the existence of any statute or regulation, including any provision of this chapter, which provides that such action shall be taken by some other person. Any person acting under such delegated authority shall be deemed to have complied with any statute or regulation which provides or indicates that it shall be the duty of some other person to perform such action.

(b) Consolidation of functions. Any reorganization of the Customs Service or consolidation of the functions of two or more persons into one office which results in the failure of a designated Customs officer to perform an action required by statute or regulation, shall not invalidate the performance of that action by any other Customs officer.

§ 101.3 Customs regions, districts and ports.

(a) Redesignation of Customs districts and ports of entry. The Under Secretary of the Treasury, pursuant to authority delegated by the Secretary of the Treasury, is authorized from time to time, as the needs of the Customs Service may require, to rearrange or consolidate the Customs districts, to discontinue ports of entry by abolishing them and establishing others in their place, and to change the location of the headquarters in any Customs district as the needs of the Customs Service may require.

(b) Customs regions, districts and ports of entry listed. The following is a list of Customs regions and districts, with a list of the ports in each district. (The Customs region of New York City, New York, is coextensive with the Customs district of New York City, New York.) The first-named port in each district, listed in capital letters, is the headquarters port. Many of the ports listed were created by the President's message of March 3, 1913, concerning a reorganization of the Customs Service pursuant to the Act of August 24, 1912 (37 Stat. 434; 19 U.S.C. 1). Subsequent orders of the President or of the Secretary of the Treasury which affected these ports, or which created (or subsequently affected) additional ports, are cited following the name of the ports. [TD 78-99, 79-169, 79-201, 79-232, 79-254.]

(a) Saturdays, Sundays and national holidays. In addition to Saturdays, Sundays, and any other calendar day designated as a holiday by Federal statute or Executive order, Customs offices shall be closed on the following national holidays:

(1) The first day of January.

(2) The third Monday of February.

(3) The last Monday of May.

(4) The fourth day of July.

(5) The first Monday of September.

(6) The second Monday of October.

(7) The fourth Monday of October.

(8) The fourth Thursday of November.

(9) The twenty-fifth day of December.

If a holiday falls on Saturday, the day immediately preceding such Saturday will be observed. If a holiday falls on Sunday, the day immediately following such Sunday will be observed. (5 U.S.C. 6103(b)(1)); (E.O. No. 11582, January 1, 1971; 34 FR 2957; 3 CFR Ch. 11)

(b) Local conditions requiring different hours. If, because of local conditions, different but equivalent hours are required to maintain adequate service, such hours shall be observed provided the Commissioner of Customs approves them and provided further that a notice of business hours is prominently displayed at the principal entrance and in each public room of the Customs office.

(c) Fixing of hours. At each port or station where there is no full-time Customs employee, the appropriate district director shall, with the approval of the regional commissioner of Customs, fix the hours during which the Customs office will be open for the transaction of general Customs business. Notice of such hours shall be prominently displayed at the principal entrance of the office.

(d) State and local holidays. Each Customs office shall be open for the transaction of business on all state and local holidays occurring on days other than Saturdays, Sundays, and national holidays listed in paragraph (a) of this section. The regional commissioner of Customs shall, from time to time, and upon reasonable advance notice to the principal local officer concerned, issue instructions for the furnishing of such services on Saturdays.

(f) Customs services not within prescribed hours. Where there is a regularly recurring need for Customs services outside the hours prescribed in paragraphs (a)-(e) of this section and the volume and duration of the required services are uniformly such as to require, of themselves or in immediately consecutive combination with other essential Customs activities of the port, the full time of one or more Customs employees, the necessary number of regular tours of duty to furnish such services on all days of the year except Sundays and national holidays established with the approval of the Commissioner of Customs.

(g) Customs services furnished private interests. Other than as specified in this section. Customs services shall be furnished private interests only in accordance with the provisions of section 24.16 of this chapter.

(b) Use of the Customs seal. The Customs seal currently in official use, including the dies, rolls, plates, and like devices now in the possession of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing, shall continue to be equally effective as the official seal of the United States Customs Service and shall continue to be so used by each Customs officer and employee having possession of the seal until that particular device requires replacing and is replaced. Use of the United States Customs seal shall be restricted in the following manner:

(1) The Customs seal of the United States shall be impressed upon all official documents requiring the impress of a seal. It shall be impressed upon all marine documents and landing certificates, certificates of weight, gauge, or measure, and similar classes of documents for outside interests.

§ 103.0 Scope.

This part contains regulations implementing the public information provisions of the Freedom of Information Act, as amended (5 U.S.C. 552). For the purpose of this part the Office of the Chief Counsel is considered to be a part of the United States Customs Service. The regulations supplement the regulations of the Department of the Treasury concerning public access to records, which are found in 31 CFR Part 1 and which are applicable to all constituent units of the Department, including the United States Customs Service. In the event of any inconsistency between these regulations and those of the Department of the Treasury, the Department of the Treasury regulations shall govern. Included in this part are the procedures by which the public may obtain access to records maintained by the United States Customs Service. The regulations provide a uniform schedule of fees for the search and duplication of Customs opinions and rulings, orders made in the adjudication of cases, and other Customs records and documents. In addition, the part includes provisions governing the release of certain information to the press and the giving of testimony or the production of Customs documents in court proceedings. Persons seeking information or records may find it useful to consult with either the Chief, Disclosure Law Branch, United States Customs Service, Washington, D.C. 20229, the Public Information Division at Headquarters, the appropriate regional commissioner of Customs, or the public information officer in the appropriate Customs regional office, before invoking the formal procedures set forth in this part. [T.D. 70-134]

§ 103.2 Information available to the public.

(a) General. The Freedom of Information Act, as amended (5 U.S.C. 552), provides for access to information and records developed or maintained by Federal agencies. Subject only to the exemptions set forth in § 103.12, the public generally or any individual member is entitled to information or records which are described in paragraph (b) of this section and which are in the possession of the United States Customs Service. Access to that information is governed by the regulations in this part.

(b) Three categories of information available. Generally, 5 U.S.C. 552 divides agency information into three major categories and provides methods by which each category is available to the public. The three major categories, for which the disclosure requirements of the United States Customs Service are set forth in this part, are as follows:

(1) Information required to be published in the Federal Register (see § 103.3).

(2) Information required to be made available for public inspection and copying or, in the alternative, to be published and offered for sale (see § 103.4).

(3) Information required to be made available to any member of the public upon specific request (see § 103.5).

§ 103.3 Publication of information in the Federal Register.

(a) Requirements. Subject to the application of the exemptions described in § 103.12 and subject to the limitations provided in paragraph (b) of this section, the United States Customs Service is required, by 5 U.S.C. 552(a)(1), to separately state, publish and keep current in the Federal Register for the guidance of the public the following information:

(1) Descriptions of its central and field organization and the established places at which, the persons from whom, and the methods whereby, the public may obtain information, make submittals or requests, or obtain decisions.

(2) A statement of the general course and method by which its functions are channeled and determined, including the nature and requirements of all formal and informal procedures available.

(3) Rules of procedure, descriptions of forms available and the places at which forms may be obtained, and instructions as to the scope and contents of all papers, reports, or examinations.

(4) Substantive rules of general applicability adopted as authorized by law, and statements of general policy or interpretations of general applicability formulated and adopted by it.

(5) Each amendment, revision, or repeal of matters referred to in subparagraphs (1) through (4) of this paragraph.

(b) Limitations.—(1) Incorporation by reference in the Federal Register. Matter reasonably available to an affected class of persons, whether published by a private organization or an agency of the United States, is published in the Federal Register for purposes of paragraph (a) of this section when it is incorporated by reference in the Federal Register with the approval of the Director of the Federal Register. Any matter which is incorporated by reference must be set forth in the privately- or publicly-printed document substantially in its entirely and not merely summarized or printed as a synopsis. There can be no incorporation by reference in the Federal Register of any matter where only a few persons having a special working knowledge of the activities of the United States Customs Service are familiar with its location and scope. The provisions of 5 U.S.C. 552(a)(1) and 1 CFR Part 20 control any incorporation of matter by reference.

(2) Effect of failure to publish. Except to the extent that a person has actual and timely notice of the terms of any matter referred to in paragraph (a) of this section which is required to be published in the Federal Register, that person is not required in any manner to resort to, or be adversely affected by, that matter if it is not published or incorporated by reference. That is, any matter which imposes an obligation and which is not published or incorporated by reference can not adversely change or affect a person's rights.

§ 103.4 Public inspection and copying.

(a) In general. Subject to the application of the exemptions described in § 103.12, the United States Customs Service is required, by 5 U.S.C. 552(a)(2) and §§ 174.32 and 177.10 of this chapter, to make available for public inspection and copying or, in the alternative, promptly publish and offer for sale, the following information:

(1) Final opinions and orders, including concurring or dissenting opinions, made in the adjudication of cases:

(2) Within 120 days of issuance, any precedential decision (including any ruling letter, internal advice memorandum, or protest review decision) issued under the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended, with respect to any Customs transaction;

(3) Those statements of policy and interpretations which have been adopted by the United States Customs Service but are not published in the Federal Register; and

(4) Administrative staff manuals and instructions to staff that affect a member of the public.

(b) Indexes. The United States Customs Service is required by 5 U.S.C. 552(a)(2) to maintain and make available for public inspection and copying those current indexes which identify any item described in paragraphs (a)(1) through (3) of this section that is issued, adopted, or promulgated after July 4, 1967, and that is required to be made available for public inspection or published. Unless the Commissioner determines by an order published in the Federal Register that publication is unnecessary and impracticable, these indexes are published on a quarterly or more frequent basis and are available for purchase at each of the public reading rooms listed in § 103.1, at a cost not to exceed the direct cost of duplication.

(c) Effect of failure to publish or make available. No matter, described in paragraphs (a)(1) through (3) of this section which is required by this section to be made available for public inspection or published, may be relied upon, used, or cited as precedent by the United States Customs Service against a party, other than an agency, unless that party has actual and timely notice of such matter or unless the matter has been indexed and either made available for inspection or published, as provided by this section. This paragraph applies only to matters which have precedential significance and does not apply to matters which have been made available pursuant to § 103.3.

(d) Deletion of identifying details. To prevent an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, in accordance with 5 U.S.C. 552(a)(2), identifying details contained in any matter described in paragraphs (a)(1) through (3) of this section are deleted before making that matter available for inspection or publication. However, in every case where identifying details are deleted, the basis for the deletion is explained in writing, giving specific reasons for the deletion and citing the applicable provision of 5 U.S.C. 552 and § 103.12, in an attachment to the document from which the identifying details have been deleted.

(e) Public reading rooms. The United States Customs Service has available for inspection and copying, in a reading room or otherwise, the matters described in paragraphs (a)(1) through (3) of this section which are required by paragraph (a) to be made available for public inspection or published in the current indexes. Facilities are provided whereby a person may inspect and obtain copies of the material. There is no fee for access to materials, but a fee is charged in accordance with § 103.10 for a copy of any material provided.

§ 103.5 Specific request for records.

(a) In general. Except with respect to the records made available under § § 103.3 and 103.4, but subject to the application of the exemptions described in § 103.12, the United States Customs Service is required, by 5 U.S.C. 552(a)(3), upon a request for reasonably-described records that conforms in every respect to the rules and procedures of this part, to make the requested records promptly available to the requester. A request or an appeal from the initial denial of a request which does not comply with the requirements set forth in this part is not subject to the time limits of § § 103.6, 103.7, and 103.8 until amended so as to comply. Nevertheless, every reasonable effort will be made to answer each request within the applicable time limits or, if necessary, to promptly advise the requester in what respect the request or appeal is deficient so that it may be resubmitted or amended for consideration in accordance with this part. This section applies only to existing records which are in the possession or control of the United States Customs Service. There is no requirement that records be created or data be processed in other than the existing format in order to answer a request for records.

(b) Requests for records not in control of the United States Customs Service—(1) Referral of request. Where the request is for a record in the possession of, under the control of, or created by a constituent unit of the Department of the Treasury other than the United States Customs Service, the appropriate Customs officer shall transfer the request to the appropriate constituent unit and notify the requester of that transfer. Forwarding a request to another constitutent unit is not a denial of access within the meaning of these regulations. If the United States Customs Service receives a request forwarded from another constituent unit of the Department of the Treasury, the time limits for response set forth in § § 103.6(b) and 103.8(a) commence upon receipt of the request by the Disclosure Law Branch, U.S. Customs Service. If the United States Customs Service receives a request for a record that is not in the possession or control of any constituent unit of the Department of the Treasury, the appropriate Customs officer shall return the request to the sender with an explanation of that fact.

(2) Request for advice. If the Customs Service has a copy of a requested unclassified record that was created by a Department or agency other than a constituent unit of the Department of the Treasury, the appropriate Customs officer shall ask that Department or agency for its advice on the release of the record. The appropriate Customs officer shall advise the other Department or agency that, in the absence of timely guidance from it, the United States Customs Service will proceed to make its own determination in accordance with this part. If it becomes necessary to respond to a requester because of the time limits set forth in § § 103.6(b) and 103.8(a) without the advice of the other Department or agency, the appropriate Customs officer shall make the determination in accordance with this part and advise the requester accordingly. If the appropriate Customs officer denies access to the record under one of the exemptions set forth in § 103.12, that officer shall advise the requester of the right to appeal the denial and of the possibility of sending a request for the record directly to the originating Department or agency. If a requester appeals from a denial to the United States Customs Service, the appropriate Customs officer shall ask the originating Department or agency for timely advice on whether to release the records. Nevertheless, the ultimate decision on the appeal from a denial of access to a record rests with the Director, Office of Regulations and Rulings, as set forth in § 103.7.

(3) Classified records. If the Customs Service has a copy of a requested record created by a Department or agency other than a constituent unit of the Department of the Treasury, and that record is classified or contains both classified and unclassified material, the request shall be referred to the originating Department or agency for a direct response. The requester shall be notified immediately of the referral. Such referral shall not constitute a denial of the request and no appeal rights accrue to the requester.

(c) Form of request. Although no standard form is prescribed for a request, in order to be subject to the provisions of this section and § § 103.6 through 103.9, a request for records must—

(1) Be made in writing and signed by the person making that request;

(2) State that it is made pursuant to the Freedom of Information Act, as amended (5 U.S.C. 552), or these regulations, and have conspicuously printed on the face of the envelope the words "Freedom of Information Act Request" or "FOIA Request";

(3) Be addressed to the appropriate office or officer of the United States Customs Service, as set forth in paragraph (d) of this section;

(4) Reasonably describe the records in accordance with paragraph (e) of this section.

(5) Set forth the address where the person making the request desires to be notified of the determination as to whether the request will be granted;

(6) State whether the requester wishes to inspect the records or desires to have a copy made and furnished without first inspecting them; and

(7) State the firm agreement of the requester to pay the fees for search and duplication ultimately determined in accordance with § 103.10, or request that such fees be reduced or waived and state the justification for such request (see § 103.10(d)).

Where the initial request, rather than stating a firm agreement to pay the fee ultimately determined in accordance with § 103.10, places an upper limit on the amount the requester agrees to pay and that upper limit is likely to be lower than the estimated fee, or where the requester asks for an estimate of the fees to be charged, or if the fees are expected to exceed $50, the appropriate Customs officer shall promptly advise the requester of the estimated fee due and ask the requester to agree to pay that amount. Where the initial request includes a request for reduction or waiver of fees, the appropriate Customs officer shall determine whether to grant the request for reduction or waiver in accordance with § 103.10(d) and notify the requester of the decision. If the officer decides to charge the requester for all or part of the fees normally due, the officer shall ask the requester to agree to pay the amount so determined. The requirements of this paragraph are not met until the requester agrees, in writing, to pay the fees applicable to the request for records, if any, or has made payment in advance of the fees estimated to be due.

(d) To whom requests for records should be addressed—(1) Headquarters. Requests made by mail for records maintained at the Headquarters of the United States Customs Service should be addressed to "Freedom of Information Act Request," U.S. Customs Service, 1301 Constitution Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20229. Requests may be delivered personally to the Disclosure Law Branch, U.S. Customs Service, 1301 Constitution Avenue, NW., Washington, D.C.

(2) Regional offices. A person shall request records or information maintained in a field office of the United States Customs Service by either mailing or personally delivering the request to the regional commissioner of Customs of the region in which the field office is located. The addresses of the regional commissioners are listed in § 103.1.

(e) Reasonable description of records. A request for records must describe the records in reasonably sufficient detail to enable a Customs officer who is familiar with the subject area of the request to locate the records without placing an unreasonable burden upon the United States Customs Service. While no specific formula for a reasonable description of a record can be established, the requirement is usually satisfied if the requester gives the name, subject matter, and, if known, the date and location of the requested record. However, a requester should furnish any additional information which will more clearly identify the requested records. If a request does not reasonably describe the records being sought, the appropriate Customs officer shall ask the requester to refine the request. If necessary a requester may be granted a conference with knowledgeable Customs personnel. The requirement for a reasonable description is not a device for improperly withholding records from the public.

(f) Date of receipt of request. A request for records is considered to have been received for purposes of this part on the later of the dates on which—

(1) The requirements of paragraph (c) of this section have been satisfied; and, where applicable,

(2) The requester has agreed in writing, by executing a separate contract or otherwise, to pay the fees for search and duplication determined to be due in accordance with § 103.10; or

(3) The fees have been waived in accordance with § 103.10(d); or

(4) Payment in advance has been received from the requester.

A Customs officer or employee who receives a request for records and a separate agreement to pay, or a letter transmitting prepayment, or who issues a final notification of waiver of fees, shall stamp the date of receipt or dispatch by the responsible office on the material. The latest of those dates is the date of receipt of the request. As soon as the date of receipt has been established, the appropriate Customs officer shall acknowledge receipt and inform the requester of the title of the Customs officer who is responsible for acting on the request.

(g) Search for record requested. Upon the receipt of a request, the appropriate Customs officer shall attempt to identify and locate the requested records. With respect to records maintained in computerized form, a search for a record includes services functionally analogous to searches for records which are maintained in a conventional form. However, Customs personnel are not required to tabulate or compile information for the purpose of creating a record. Only records in existence at the time of the receipt of the request will be treated as falling within the scope of the request and no request for the continuing production of documents created after receipt of the request will be honored.

(h) "Request for record" defined. For purposes of uniformity in recordkeeping a "request for a record" is defined as a written request for a record of the U.S. Customs Service which has not been published in the Federal Register, the Customs Bulletin, by press release, or otherwise, or made available in a public reading room, or which has not previously been customarily furnished to requesters, whether or not the request makes reference to the Freedom of Information Act, as amended (5 U.S.C. 552).

§ 103.6 Grant or denial of initial request.

(1) Regional offices. The appropriate regional commissioner of Customs shall make any initial determination on a request for a record which is maintained in that region.

(2) Headquarters. For records located at Customs Service Headquarters, the initial determination to grant or deny a request shall be made by the appropriate Division Director at Customs Service Headquarters having custody of or functional jurisdiction over the subject matter of the requested records. In the event the request relates to records which are maintained in an office which is not within a division, the initial determination shall be made by the individual designated for that purpose by the Assistant Commissioner or Comptroller, as appropriate, having responsibility for that office.

(b) Time limit for initial determinations. The time limit for making an initial determination to grant or deny a request for records, including the time for notifying the requester of that determination, is 10 days (excepting Saturdays, Sundays, and legal public holidays) after the date of receipt of the request (see § 103.5(f)), unless the designated officer invokes an extension pursuant to § 103.8(a) or the requester otherwise agrees to an extension.

(c) Grant of request. If the appropriate Customs officer grants a request, and if the requester wants a copy of the requested records, that officer shall mail a copy of those records to the requester together with a statement of the fees for search and duplication at the time of the determination or promptly thereafter. If a requester wants to inspect the record, the appropriate Customs officer who grants the request shall send written notice to the requester stating the time and place of inspection and the amount of any fee involved in the request. In such a case, the appropriate Customs officer shall make the record available for inspection at the time and place stated, but in a manner so as not to interfere with its use by the United States Customs Service or to exclude other persons from making an inspection. In addition, reasonable limitations may be placed on the number of records which may be inspected by a person on any given date. The requester is not allowed to remove a record from the inspection room. If, after making inspection, the requester wants a copy of all or a portion of the requested record, the appropriate Customs officer shall supply the desired copy upon payment of the established fee prescribed in § 103.10.

(d) Denial of request. The Customs officer who denies a request for records (whether in whole or in part) shall mail written notice of the denial to the requester. The letter of notification shall contain (1) the physical location of the requested records, (2) the applicable exemption(s) and reason for not granting the request, (3) the name and title or position of the Customs officer who denied the request, (4) advice on the right to administrative appeal in accordance with § 103.7, and (5) the title and address of the Customs officer who is to decide any appeal.

(e) Inability to locate records within time limits. If a requested record cannot be located and evaluated within the initial 10-day period or the extension period allowed under § 103.8(a), the Customs officer who is responsible for the initial determination shall continue to search for the records. However, that officer shall also notify the requester of the facts and inform the requester that he or she may consider the notification to be a denial of access within the meaning of paragraph (d) of this section, and provide the requester with the address for the submission of an administrative appeal. The requester may also be invited, in the alternative, to agree to a voluntary extension of time in which to locate and evaluate the records. A voluntary extension of time does not waive a requester's right to appeal any ultimate denial of access or to appeal a failure to locate the records within the voluntary extension period.

§ 103.7 Administrative appeal of initial determination.

(a) To whom appeals should be submitted. A requester may submit an administrative appeal to the Director, Office of Regulations and Rulings, within 35 days after the date of notification described in § 103.6 or the date of the letter transmitting the last records released, whichever is later. A requester shall mail or personally deliver an appeal to the United States Customs Service, 1301 Constitution Avenue, NW., Washington, D.C. 20229.

(b) Form of appeal. The Administrative appeal shall—

(1) Be in writing and signed by the requester,

(2) Have conspicuously printed on the face of the envelope the words "Freedom of Information Act Appeal";

(3) Reasonably describe, in accordance with § 103.5(e), the records to which the appeal relates;

(4) Set forth the address where the requester desires to be notified of the determination on appeal;

(5) Specify the date of the initial request and the date and control number of the letter denying the initial request; and

(6) Petition the Director, Office of Regulations and Rulings, to grant the request for records and state any arguments in support thereof.

(c) Disposition of appeal. The Customs officer or employee who receives an appeal shall stamp the date of receipt on the appeal and the stamped date is the date of receipt for purposes of the appeal. The Director, Office of Regulations and Rulings, shall acknowledge and advise the appellant of the date of receipt and of the date that a response is due under this paragraph. The Director shall affirm the initial denial (in whole or in part) or grant the request for records and notify the appellant of that determination by letter mailed within 20 days (exclusive of Saturdays, Sunday, and legal public holidays) after the date of receipt of the appeal, unless extended pursuant to § 103.8(a). The purpose of the letter of denial is to inform the appellant of the reason for the denial and the right to judicial review of that denial under 5 U.S.C. 552(a)(4)(B). If the Director is unable to act on an appeal within the 20-day period (or any extension thereof pursuant to § 103.8(a)), the Director shall send written notice of that fact to the appellant. In those circumstances, an appellant is entitled to commence an action in a district court as provided in § 103.9 despite any continuation in the processing of an appeal. However, the appellant may also be invited, in the alternative, to agree to a voluntary extension of time in which to decide the appeal. A voluntary extension does not waive the right of the appellant to ultimately commence an action in a United States district court on the appellant's request.

§ 103.8 Time extensions.

(a) Ten-day extension. In unusual circumstances, the Customs officer who is responsible for deciding an initial request or an appeal may extend the time limitations set in §§ 103.6 and 103.7 after written notice to the requester or appellant. This notice must state the reason for the extension and the date on which the determination is expected to be dispatched. Any extension or extensions of time are limited to a cumulative total of not more than 10 additional working days. (For example, if an extension pursuant to this paragraph is invoked in connection with an initial determination, any unused days of the extension period may be invoked in connection with the determination on administrative appeal by written notice from the Director, Office of Regulations and Rulings, who is to make the appellate determination. If no extension is sought for the initial determination, an extension of 10 days may be added to the ordinary 20-day period for appellant review.) Generally, extensions will be invoked only to the extent reasonably necessary to properly respond to a request. As used in this paragraph, "unusual circumstances" means at least one of the following:

(1) The need to search for and collect the requested records from field facilities or other establishments in buildings other than the building in which the office of the Customs officer to whom the request is made is located.

(2) The need to search for, collect, and appropriately examine a voluminous amount of separate and distinct records which are demanded in a single request.

(3) The need for consultation, which shall be conducted with all practicable speed, with another Department or agency having a substantial interest in the determination of the request, among two or more constituent units within the Department of the Treasury, or within offices of the United States Customs Service (other than the legal staff or Public Affairs Division) having substantial subject-matter interest therein. Consultations with personnel of the Department of Justice concerned with requests for records under the Freedom of Information Act, as amended (5 U.S.C. 552), do not constitute a basis for an extension under this subparagraph.

(b) Extension by judicial review. If the United States Customs Service fails to comply with the time limitations specified in §§ 103.6 and 103.7 and the requester commences an action under § 103.9, the court in which the suit was initiated may retain jurisdiction and allow the United States Customs Service additional time to review its records, if the Customs Service shows the existence of exceptional circumstances and the exercise of due diligence in responding to the request.

§ 103.9 Judicial review.

(a) Failure to comply with time limitations. If the United States Customs Service fails to comply with the time limitations specified in § § 103.6, 103.7 or 103.8, a requester is considered to have exhausted the administrative remedies with respect to the request.

(b) Procedure of initiating judicial review. If a request for records is denied upon appeal pursuant to § 103.7, or if no determination is made within the 10-day or 20-day periods specified in § § 103.6 and 103.7, respectively, together with an extension pursuant to § 103.8(a) or by agreement of the requester, the requester may commence an action under 5 U.S.C. 552(a)(4)(B) in a United States district court in the district (1) in which the requester resides, (2) in which the requester's principal place of business is located, (3) in which the records are situated, or (4) in the District of Columbia. Service of process in that action is governed by the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure (28 U.S.C. App.) applicable to actions against an agency of the United States. The Chief Counsel, United States Customs Service, 1301 Constitution Avenue, NW., Washington, D.C. 20229 is the officer designated to receive any service of process.

(c) Proceeding against officer or employee. Under 5 U.S.C. 552(a)(4)(F), the Special Counsel, Merit Systems Protection Board, has authority, upon the issuance of a written finding by a court that the Customs officer or employee who was primarily responsible for withholding a record may have acted arbitrarily or capriciously, to initiate a proceeding to determine whether disciplinary action is warranted against that officer or employee. The Special Counsel, after investigation and consideration of the evidence submitted, submits its findings and recommendations to the Commissioner of Customs and the Secretary of the Treasury. The Special Counsel also sends copies of the findings and recommendations to the officer or employee or the representative of that officer or employee.

§ 103.10 Fees for services.

(a) In general. (1) The fees prescribed in this section are for search and duplication and under no circumstances is there a fee for determining whether an exemption can or should be asserted, for deleting exempt matter being withheld from records to be furnished, or for monitoring a requester's inspection of records made available in this manner.

(2) Customs publications which are available for sale through the Government Printing Office are on the shelves of the reading rooms and similar public inspection facilities, but those publications are not available for sale at those facilities. Those publications may be purchased from the Superintendent of Documents, U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington, D.C. 20402.
However, pages from those publications may be copied at the public inspection facilities in accordance with the schedule of fees set forth in paragraph (g) of this section.

(b) When charged. Unless charges are inapplicable, or are waived or reduced in accordance with paragraph (c) or (d) of this section, fees are charged in accordance with the schedule contained in paragraph (g) of this section for services rendered in responding to requests for records.

(c) Services performed without charge—(1) Certain classes of records. The Commissioner of Customs or any of the Commissioners designees may deterimine, under the rulemaking procedures of 5 U.S.C. 553, which classes of records under their control may be provided to the public without charge, or at a reduced charge.

(2) Records provided to government units. Normally, in accordance with paragraph (d)(2)(ii) of this section, no charge is made for providing records to Federal, State, or foreign governments, international governmental organizations, or local governmental agencies or offices.

(d) Waiver or reduction of fees—(1) Records unavailable or exempt. Fees may be waived or reduced at the discretion of the Customs officer who determines the availability of records, if the record is not found or is exempt from disclosure.

(2) Request for waiver or reduction of fees. Fees may be waived or reduced on a case by case basis in accordance with this paragraph by the Customs officer who determines whether to release the record. A request for a waiver or reduction of fees must be in writing. The appropriate Customs officer shall waive or reduce a fee if the officer determines either that—

(i) The records are being requested by, or on behalf of, an individual who in writing, under penalty or perjury, demonstrates indigency to the satisfaction of the officer and that compliance with the request does not constitute an unreasonable burden on the United States Customs Service; or

(ii) A waiver or reduction of the fees is in the public interest because furnishing the information primarily benefits the general public.

(3) Appeal from denial of request. An appeal from a denial of a request for waiver or reduction of fees is decided under the criteria set forth in subparagraph (2) of this paragraph by the Director, Office of Regulations and Rulings. An appeal shall be in writing and mailed to the Director within 35 days of the denial of the initial request for waiver or reduction. An appeal under this paragraph is entitled to a prompt decision.

(e) Avoidance of unexpected fees. In order to protect a requester from unexpected fees, a requester is required to state in the request an agreement to pay the fees determined in accordance with paragraph (g) of this section or to state an acceptable upper limit on the cost of processing the request. If the fee for processing the request is estimated to exceed that limit, or if the requester has failed to state a limit and the cost is estimated to exceed $50 and there is no decision to waive or reduce the fees, the appropriate Customs officer shall—

(1) Inform the requestor of the estimated costs;

(2) Extend an offer to the requester to confer with Customs personnel in an attempt to reformulate the request in a manner which will reduce the fee and still meet the needs of the requester, and

(3) Inform the requester that the running of the time period within which a determination on the request must be made is suspended until the request is reformulated in manner to reduce the cost or until the requester pays or agrees to pay the estimated cost.

(f) Form of payment. (1) A requester shall pay by a check or money order that is payable to the order of the United States Customs Service.

(2) If the estimated cost exceeds $50, the requester may be required to enter into a contract for the payment of actual costs, as determined in accordance with paragraph (g) of this section, which contract may provide for prepayment of the estimated costs in whole or in part.

(g) Amount to be charged for specified services. A fee for a service performed is imposed and collected as set forth in this paragraph. The Commissioner of Customs or the Commissioner's designee may set an appropriate fee for any service not described below. These extraordinary fees are imposed and collected pursuant to 31 U.S.C. 483a, subject to the constraints imposed by 5 U.S.C. 552(a)(4)(A).

(1) Duplication. (i) The charge for photocopies per page up to 81/2″ × 14″ is at the rate of $0.10 each, except that no charge is imposed for copying 10 pages or less when less than one hour is spent in locating the records requested.

(ii) The charge for photographs, films and other materials is their actual cost. The United States Customs Service may furnish the records to be released to a private contractor for copying and charge the person requesting the records the actual cost of duplication charged by the private contractor. No fee is charged where the requester furnishes the supplies and equipment and makes the copies at the Government location.

(2) Unpriced printed materials. The charge for unpriced printed material, which is available at the location where requested and which does not require duplication for copies to be furnished, is at the rate of $0.25 for each twenty-five pages or fraction thereof.

(3) Search services. The charge for services of personnel involved in locating records is $5 for each hour or fraction thereof, except that no charge is imposed for a search of less than one hour. Where a computer search is required because of the nature of the records sought and the manner in which such records are stored, the fee is $5 for each hour or fraction thereof of personnel time associated with the search plus the actual cost of extracting the stored information in the format in which it is normally produced. This actual cost of extracting information is based on computer time and supplies necessary to comply with the request.

(4) Searches requiring travel or transportation. The charge for transporting a record from one location to another, of for transporting a Customs officer or employee to the site of requested records when it is necessary to locate rather than examine the records, is the actual cost of the transportation.

§ 103.11 Specific Customs Service records subject to disclosure.

(a) Administrative staff manuals and instructions. Except as exempted by § 103.12, all administrative staff manuals and instructions to staff that affect any member of the public, and indexes thereto, are available for public inspection and copying in the United States Customs Service public reference facilities (see § 103.1), including the following: [TD 80-160]

§ 103.12 Exemptions.

Pursuant to 5 U.S.C. 552(b), the disclosure requirements of 5 U.S.C. 552(a) are not applicable to U.S. Customs Service records which relate to the following:

(a) Matters kept secret pursuant to Executive Order. Matters specifically authorized under criteria established by an Executive Order to be kept secret in the interest of national defense or foreign policy and which are, in fact, properly classified pursuant to such Executive Order (see 31 CFR Part 2).

(b) Certain internal rules and procedures. Information relating solely to the internal personnel rules and practices of an agency.

(c) Matters exempt from disclosure by statute. Information specifically exempted from disclosure by statute (other than 5 U.S.C. 552b), if the statute (1) requires that the matters be withheld from the public in such a manner as to leave no discretion on the issue, or (2) establishes particular criteria for withholding or refers to particular types of matters to be withheld.

(d) Privileged or confidential information. Trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from any person which is privileged or confidential. [TDs 76-165, 76-198.]

(e) Certain inter-agency or intra-agency correspondence. Inter-agency or intra-agency memoranda or letters which would not be available by law to a private party in litigation with the agency.

(f) Material involving personal privacy. Personnel and medical files and similar files the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.

(g) Certain investigatory records. Investigatory records compiled for law enforcement purposes, but only to the extent that the production of such records would—

(1) Interfere with enforcement proceedings;

(2) Deprive a person of a right to a fair trial or an impartial adjudication;

(3) Constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy;

(4) Disclose the identity of a confidential source and, in the case of a record compiled by a criminal law enforcement authority in the course of a criminal investigation, or by an agency conducting a lawful national security intelligence investigation, confidential information furnished only by the confidential source;

(5) Disclose investigative techniques and procedures; or

(6) Endanger the life or physical security of law enforcement personnel.

§ 103.13 Segregability of records.

(a) Reasonably segregable portions. Where the record requested contains information which is exempt from disclosure under 5 U.S.C. 552(b) and § 103.12, the reasonably segregable portions of the record shall be made available to the requester. For purposes of this section, the term "reasonably segregable portions" means those portions of the record: (1) which are not exempt from disclosure by 5 U.S.C. 552(b) and § 103.12; (2) which, after deletion of the exempt material, still convey meaningful and nonmisleading information; and (3) from which it can reasonably be assumed that a skillful and knowledgeable person could not reconstruct the exempt portions.

(b) Petitions by American manufacturers, producers, or wholesalers. Identifying data is not to be deleted from petitions filed by American manufacturers, producers, and wholesalers pursuant to section 516, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1516). See Part 175 of this chapter.

§ 103.14 Information on vessel manifests and summary statistical reports.

(a) Disclosure to members of the press. Although the following classes of information are exempt from the requirement of disclosure under the provisions of § 103.12, accredited representatives of the press, including newspaper, commercial magazines, trade journals, and similar publications may be permitted to examine vessel manifests and summary statistical reports of imports and exports and to copy therefrom for publication information and data not of a confidential nature, subject to the following rules:

(1) Of the information and data appearing on outward manifests, only the name and address of the shipper, general character of the cargo, number of packages and gross weight, name of vessel or carrier, port of exit, port of destination, and country of destination may be copied and published. However, if the Secretary of the Treasury makes an affirmative finding on a shipment-by-shipment basis that disclosure of the above information is likely to pose a threat of personal injury or property damage, that information shall not be disclosed to the public.

(2) Commercial or financial information, such as the names of the consignees, and marks and numbers shall not be copied from outward manifests or any other papers.

(3) On the information shown on inward manifests, only the name of the consignee, the general character of the commodity, the quantity (or value), name of vessel, and the country of dispatch shall be copied and published. When an inward manifest shows both quantity and value of the commodity, either may be copied and published, but not both in any instance.

(b) Review of data. All copies and notations from inward or outward manifests shall be submitted for examination by a Customs officer designated for that purpose.

(c) Disclosure to the public. Members of the public shall be permitted to obtain information from, but not examine, vessel manifests, subject to the rules set forth in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section. However, importers and exporters or their duly authorized brokers, attorneys, or agents may be permitted to examine manifests with respect to any consignment of goods in which they have a proper and legal interest as principal or agent, but shall not be permitted to make any general examination of manifests or make any copies or notations from them except with reference to the particular importation or exportation in which they have a proper and legal interest.

(d) Suspension of disclosure. (1) Inward manifest. Except as provided in § 103.17, upon written application of a consignee or importer, access to the name of such consignee or importer, on an inward manifest will thereafter be refused.

(2) Outward manifest. If a shipper wishes to request confidential treatment by Customs of the shipper's name and address contained in an outward manifest, the following procedure shall be followed:

(i) A shipper, or authorized employee or official of the shipper, must submit a certification claiming confidential treatment of the shipper's name and address. The certification shall include the shipper's Internal Revenue Service Employer Number, if available.

(ii) There is no prescribed format for a certification.

(iii) The certification must be submitted to the Regional Commissioner for the Region in which the port of exportation is located.

(iv) Each certification will be valid for a period of two (2) years from the date of its submission to Customs.

(3) If any individual shall abuse the privilege granted him of examining inward and outward manifests or shall make any improper use of any information or data obtained from such manifests or other papers filed in the customhouse, both he and the party or publication which he represents shall thereafter be denied access to such papers. [TD81-19]

§ 103.15 Sanctions for improper actions by Customs officers or employees.

(a) The improper disclosure of the confidential information contained in Customs documents, or the disclosure of information relative to the business of one importer or exporter that is acquired by a Customs officer or employee in an official capacity to any person not authorized by law or regulations to receive this information is a ground for dismissal from the United States Customs Service, suspension, or other disciplinary action, and if done for a valuable consideration subjects that person to criminal prosecution.

(b) Sanctions for improper denials of information by Customs officers or employees are set forth in § 103.9(c).

§ 103.16 Information concerning fines, penalties, and forfeiture cases.

Except as otherwise provided in these regulations or in other directives (including those published as Treasury Decisions), district directors of Customs and other Customs officers shall refrain from disclosing facts concerning seizures, investigations, and other pending cases until customs action is completed. After the penalty proceeding is closed by payment of the claim amount, payment of a mitigated amount, or judicial action, the identity of the violater, the section of the law violated, the amount of penalty assessed, loss of revenue, mitigated amount (if applicable), and the amount of money paid may be disclosed to the public by the appropriate district director of Customs. Public disclosure of any other item of information concerning such cases, whether open or closed, shall only be made in conformance with the procedures provided in § 103.5.

§ 103.17 Testimony or the production of documents in court.

(a) General. In answer to a legal process or demand from a court issued on behalf of the United States or an officer thereof, Customs officers or employees shall produce in court, and may testify with respect to, any official Customs papers or documents demanded which are in Customs custody. When the process or demand is issued on behalf of a party other than the United States, Customs officers or employees shall produce in court, and may testify with respect to, those papers and documents, but only to the extent that the party on whose behalf the papers or documents are demanded is permitted under these regulations to inspect or copy those papers or documents. An exception to the above two rules may be made only on the written order of the Commissioner of Customs or the Commissioner's designee. When requested, copies may be authenticated pursuant to the provisions of section 1733, title 28, United States Code.

(b) Request of Customs Court. Except as stated in § 103.12, nothing in this part precludes Customs officers or employees from producing in the United States Customs Court, and Customs papers or documents, in Customs custody, or from testifying or otherwise rendering all proper assistance to the court in proceedings before it when request therefor is made by the court; nor from furnishing to counsel for the United States information in, and permitting inspection of, Customs papers and documents requested by such counsel, nor from testifying on behalf of the United States or otherwise assisting such counsel in the performance of official duties.

(c) Subpoena or subpoena duces tecum. Upon being served with a subpoena or subpoena duces tecum from a court or court officer calling for testimony or the production of papers or documents in cases not covered by paragraph (a) or (b) of this section, or in cases where the testimony or documents desired would disclose matters the disclosure of which would be contrary to these regulations, the Customs officer involved shall refer the matter to Headquarters for instructions, with a report that specifically describes the testimony or documents desired. The Customs officer involved shall include in the report his or her opinion on whether the giving of the testimony or the furnishing of the documents would disclose information not permitted to be disclosed under these regulations. That officer also shall state in what particulars, if any, the disclosure of the information and work incidental to that disclosure would interfere with the orderly conduct of Customs business. If instructions are not received prior to the date set or appearance or production of documents, or if the Commissioner of Customs or the Commissioner's designee declines to permit their production or the disclosure of the information contained therein or otherwise within the knowledge of the Customs officer or employee whose testimony is requested, the Customs officer or employee shall appear in court or before the officer concerned in answer to the subpoena and respectfully decline to produce the documents called for or to testify, except to the extent specifically authorized elsewhere in this section, citing this regulation as authority for the refusal. If the matter has not already been referred to Headquarters for instructions, the Customs officer or employee shall advise the court or officer that it will be so referred.

(d) In camera inspection of records. Nothing in this section authorizes Customs officers or employees to withhold records from a court, pursuant to its order, for in camera inspection to determine the property of claimed exemptions to disclosure.

This part sets forth regulations providing for the licensing of persons desiring to transact business as customhouse brokers, the qualifications required of applicants, and the procedure for applying for licenses. This part also prescribes the duties and responsibilities of customhouse brokers, the grounds for revocation or suspension of licenses, and the procedures for such revocation or suspension.

Subpart A—General Provisions

§ 111.1 Definitions.

When used in this part, the following terms shall have the meanings indicated:

(a) Person. "Person" includes individuals, partnerships, associations, and corporations.

(b) Customhouse broker. "Customhouse broker" means a person who is licensed under this part to transact Customs business on behalf of others.

(c) Broker. "Broker" means "customhouse broker."

(d) Treasury Department or any representative thereof. "Treasury Department or any representative thereof" includes any office, officer, or employee of the Treasury Department, wherever located.

(e) Books and papers. "Books and papers" include all books, accounts, records, papers, documents, powers of attorney, data processing materials (other than cards, magnetic tapes and discs, and incidental intermediate forms temporary in nature), and correspondence of a broker relating to his Customs business.

(f) Freight forwarder. "Freight forwarder" means a person engaged in the business of dispatching shipments on behalf of other persons for a consideration in foreign commerce between the United States, its territories or possessions, and foreign countries, and of handling the formalities incident to such shipments.

(g) Officer of an association or corporation. "Officer of an association or corporation" means a person who has been elected, appointed, or designated as an officer of an association or corporation in accordance with statute, the articles of incorporation, articles of agreement, charter, or bylaws of the association or corporation.

§ 111.2 License required.

A person shall obtain the license provided for in this part in order to transact the business of a broker. A separate license is required for each Customs district.

§ 111.3 Transactions for which license is not required.

A license is not required to engage in the following transactions with the Treasury Department or any representative thereof:

(a) For one's own account. An importer or exporter transacting Customs business solely on his own account and in no sense on behalf of another is not required to be licensed, nor are his authorized regular employees or officers who act only for him in the transaction of such business.

(b) As employee of brokers. An employee of a broker, acting solely for his employer, is not required to be licensed where:

(1) Authorized to sign Customs documents. The broker has authorized the employee to sign Customs documents on his behalf, and has filed a power of attorney for that purpose with the district director and at each port within the district where the broker wishes the employee to sign Customs documents. Only employees who are residents of the United States may be authorized to sign Customs documents. Or,

(2) Authorized to transact other business. The broker has filed with the district director a statement identifying the employee as authorized to transact business on his behalf. Such statement shall also be filed at each port within the district where the broker wishes the employee to act for him.

Where the employee is given authority under either (1) or (2) of this paragraph, the broker must promptly give notice of the withdrawal of authority of any such employee and must exercise such supervision of his employees as will insure proper conduct on the part of the employees in the transaction of Customs business. Each broker will be held strictly responsible for the acts or omissions of his employees within the scope of their employment, and for acts or omissions of such employees which, in the exercise of reasonable care and diligence, the broker should have foreseen.

(c) Marine transactions. A person transacting business in connection with entry or clearance of vessels or other regulation of vessels under the navigation laws is not required to be licensed as a broker.

(d) Transportation in bond. Any carrier bringing merchandise to the port of arrival or any bonded carrier transporting merchandise for another may make entry for such merchandise for transportation in bond without being licensed as a broker. [TD 78-99.]

§ 111.4 Representation before Government agencies.

(a) Agencies within the Treasury Department. A broker who represents a client in the importation or exportation of merchandise may represent the client before the Treasury Department or any representative thereof on any matter concerning such merchandise except that he shall not represent the client before Customs officers in a Customs district in which he is not licensed.

(b) Agencies not within the Treasury Department. In order to represent a client before any agency not within the Treasury Department, a broker shall comply with any regulations of such agency governing the appearance of representatives before it.

§ 111.5 Prior licenses.

Licenses issued prior to the effective date of the regulations in this part shall continue in force and effect, subject to cancellation, suspension or revocation as provided in Subpart D of this part.

The application shall be under oath and executed on Customs Form 3124. The application shall be accompanied by the fee prescribed in paragraph (a)(2) of this section and one copy of the attachment required by the application form (Articles of Agreement or an affidavit signed by all partners, Articles of Agreement of the association, or the Articles of Incorporation). If the applicant proposes to operate under a trade or fictitious name in one or more States within the district, evidence of the applicant's authority to use the name in each such State must accompany the application. An application for an individual license must be submitted not later than 30 days before the scheduled examination which the applicant wishes to take. [TDs 74-200, 78-99.]

(2) Fee. The fee to accompany the application for a broker's license shall be $200, except that a refund of $100 will be made to an applicant failing either to appear for or to pass the examination required by § 111.11(a)(4) (see paragraphs (d) and (e) of § 111.13). A check or money order shall be made payable to the United States Customs Service.

(b) Posting notice of application. Upon receipt of the application the district director shall post a notice that the application has been filed. The notice shall be posted conspicuously for at least 2 weeks in the customhouse at the headquarters port and at the subports where the applicant proposes to maintain an office. The notice shall give the name and address of the applicant and, if the applicant is a partnership, association, or corporation, the names of the members or officers thereof who are licensed as brokers. The notice shall invite written comments or information regarding the issuance of the license.

(c) Withdrawal of application. If the applicant advises before the date of an examination that he wishes to withdraw his application, the application shall be treated as withdrawn and the district director shall refund the application fee to the applicant.

§ 111.13 Examination of applicant for individual license.

(a) Examination. The written examination shall be designated to determine the applicant's knowledge of Customs and related laws, regulations, and procedures and his fitness to render valuable service to importers and exporters. The examination will be prepared and graded in Headquarters, U.S. Customs Service. [TD 76-329.]

(b) Date and place of examination. Examinations will be given at each district office on the first Monday in April and October. The district director shall give the applicant notice of the exact time and place where the examination will be given.

(c) Special examination. The Commissioner may authorize a special examination for an applicant when a partnership, association, or corporation has less than two licensed members or officers. He may also authorize a special examination for one who will be authorized to continue the business of an individual broker. Application and a statement of the reasons for the necessity of a special examination shall be filed with the district director in accordance with § 111.12(a).

(d) Failure to appear for examination. If the applicant fails to appear for a scheduled examination without notification in advance or explanation of the circumstances which made it impossible or impracticable to give such notification, the district director shall notify him that the application is denied because of failure to appear for examination to establish his qualifications for a license. The district director shall refund to the applicant one-half of the application fee.

(e) Failure to pass examination. If the applicant does not obtain a grade of at least 75 percent, the Commissioner will notify him and the district director that the application for a license is denied because of failure to pass the examination. The district director shall refund to the applicant one-half of the application fee.

(f) Passing grade on examination. If the applicant obtains a passing grade, the Commissioner will return the application to the district director for further processing of the application.

§ 111.14 Investigation of the applicant.

(a) Individual license—(1) Applicant passing examination. If the applicant passes the examination, the district director shall refer the application to the special agent in charge for an investigation and report.

(2) Applicant licensed in one district. If the applicant has a license in one district, the district director shall immediately refer the application to the special agent in charge for an investigation and report.

(b) Partnership, association, or corporation license. The district director shall immediately refer an application for a partnership, association, or corporation license to the special agent in charge for investigation and report.

(c) Scope of investigation. The investigation shall ascertain facts relevant to the question whether the applicant is qualified and shall cover, but need not be limited to:

(1) The accuracy of the statements made in the application;

(2) The business integrity of the applicant; and

(3) When the applicant is an individual (including a member of a partnership or an officer of an association or corporation), the character and reputation of the applicant.

(d) Report and return of the application. The special agent in charge shall return the application with his report and recommendation to the district director who requested the investigation. The district director shall forward the originals of the application and the agent's report to the Commissioner. The district director shall also submit his recommendation for action on the application.

(e) Additional investigation or examination. The Commissioner may require further investigation to be conducted if additional facts are deemed necessary to pass upon the application. The Commissioner may also require the applicant (or in the case of a partnership, association, or corporation, one or more of its members or officers) to appear in person before him or before one or more representatives of the Commissioner for the purpose of undergoing additional written or oral examination into the applicant's qualifications for a license.

§ 111.15 Issuance of license.

If the Commissioner finds that the applicant is qualified, he will issue a license. A license for an individual who is a member of a partnership or an officer of an association or corporation will be issued in the name of the individual licensee and not in his capacity as a member or officer of the organization with which he is connected. The license shall be forwarded to the district director, who shall deliver it to the licensee. The district director shall maintain an alphabetical list of brokers licensed in his district which list shall be available to the public.

§ 111.16 Denial of license.

(a) Notice of denial. If the Commissioner determines that the application for a license should be denied for any reason, notice of denial shall be given by him to the applicant and to the director of the district in which the application was filed. The notice of denial shall state the reasons why the license was not issued.

(b) Grounds for denial. The causes sufficient to justify denial of an application for a license shall include, but need not be limited to:

(1) Any cause which would justify suspension or revocation of the license of a broker under the provisions of § 111.53;

(2) The failure to meet any requirement set forth in § 111.11;

(3) A failure to establish the business integrity and good character of the applicant;

(4) Any willful misstatement of pertinent facts in the application;

(5) Any conduct which would be deemed unfair in commercial transactions by accepted standards;

(6) A reputation imputing to the applicant criminal, dishonest, or unethical conduct, or a record of such conduct.

§ 111.17 Review of the denial of a license.

(a) By the Commissioner. Upon the denial of an application for a license, the applicant may file with the Commissioner of Customs, in writing, a request that further opportunity be given for the presentation of information or arguments in support of the application by personal appearance, or in writing, or both. This request must be received by the Commissioner within 60 days of the denial. [TD 74-272.]

(b) By the Secretary. Upon the decision of the Commissioner affirming the denial of an application for a license, the applicant may file with the Secretary of the Treasury, in writing, a request for such additional review as the Secretary shall deem appropriate. This request must be received by the Secretary within 60 days of the Commissioner's affirmation of the denial of an application for a license. [TD 74-272.]

§ 111.18 Reapplication for license.

An applicant who has been denied a license may reapply at any time by complying with the provisions of § 111.12 of this part.

§ 111.19 Licenses for additional districts.

A license authorizes the transaction of Customs business only in the district for which issued. Licenses for additional districts may be obtained by:

(a) Filing with the district director of the district for which a license is desired the application prescribed in § 111.12(a). Upon receipt of the application, the district director shall follow the procedure set forth in § § 111.12(b) and 111.14;

(b) Submitting the fee of $200 with the application; and

(c) Establishing upon investigation that the applicant is prepared and qualified to render efficient service in the additional district. This includes a showing that the licensed members of a partnership or the licensed officers of an association or corporation will exercise responsible supervision and control of the proposed office. The licensed members of a partnership and the licensed officers of an association or corporation are not required to be licensed as individuals in the district for which the partnership, association or corporation is applying for an additional license. An individual licensed as a broker in one district may or may not, at the discretion of the Commissioner, be required to take another examination when applying for an additional license. (a) Additional requirement. In addition to the regular records of account required by section 111.21, each broker shall keep current a record of all his Customs transactions in the format set forth in paragraph (d) of this section, unless an exemption has been granted under the authority of paragraph (b) of this section. If a transaction has been handled only in part by the broker, he shall supply only the information required by this section which relates to his transaction. [TDs 72-253, 78-138.]

(b) Exemption. If the information required in paragraph (a) is disclosed in other books and records regularly kept and maintained by a broker and if such information is in a systematic, convenient, and readily available form, the district director may in writing exempt the broker from the requirements of paragraph (a) of this section. A written request for exemption shall be addressed to the district director and shall include:

(1) A statement of facts as to the records kept; and

(2) An agreement that, if the exemption is granted, no change in the system of books and records or the manner of keeping and maintaining them will be made without prior written approval of the district director. [TD 82-33.]

(c) Withdrawal of exemption. Whenever an audit by a Customs regulatory auditor indicates that a broker to whom an exemption has been granted as provided for in paragraph (b) of this section is not keeping and maintaining records in conformity with the requirements of the paragraph, the exemption of such broker shall be withdrawn by notice in writing from the district director, and such broker shall thereafter keep and maintain records as required by paragraph (a) of this section.

§ 111.27 Audit or inspection of books and papers.

The Regional Director, Regulatory Audit, shall make such audit or inspection of the books and papers required by this subpart to be kept and maintained by a broker as may be necessary to enable the district director and other proper officials of the Treasury Department to determine whether or not the broker is complying with the requirements of this part. Furthermore, the Regional Director, Regulatory Audit, and/or the special agent in charge, may inspect such books and papers to obtain information regarding specific Customs transactions for the purpose of protecting importers or the revenue of the United States. Having furnished such a list, each licensed customhouse broker shall, within 10 days after the employment of any new personnel, advise the district director of the names, addresses, social security numbers, and dates and places of birth of any such employees. If the employment of any such person is terminated, the customhouse broker shall promptly advise the district director. [TD 71-39.]

§ 111.29 Diligence in correspondence and paying monies.

A report received during the month of February will be considered filed timely. The report shall be filed with the Commissioner of Customs, U.S. Customs Service, Attention: Entry, Licensing and Restricted Merchandise Branch, Washington, D.C. 20229. A copy also shall be filed with the District Director of Customs in each district where the broker is licensed to transact Customs business. No form or particular format is required. § 111.36 Relations with unlicensed persons.

(a) Service to others not to benefit unlicensed person. A broker shall not enter into any agreement with an unlicensed person to transact Customs business for others in such manner that the fees or other benefits resulting from the services rendered for others inure to the benefit of the unlicensed person except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section. When a broker is employed for transaction of Customs business by an unlicensed person who is not the actual importer, the broker must transmit to the actual importer a copy of his bill for services rendered, unless the merchandise was purchased for delivery on an all-free basis (duty and brokerage charges paid by the unlicensed person).

(b) Employment by a freight forwarder. A broker may compensate a freight forwarder for services rendered in obtaining brokerage business, providing:

(1) The importer is notified in advance by the forwarder or broker of the name of the broker selected by the forwarder for the handling of his Customs transactions;

(2) The broker transmits directly to the importer:

(i) A true copy of his brokerage charges if the fees and charges are to be collected by or through the forwarder, or

§ 111.37 Misuse of license.

A broker shall not permit his license or his name to be used by or for any unlicensed person, other than his own employees authorized to act for him, or by or for any broker whose license is under suspension in the solicitation, promotion or performance of any Customs business or transaction. [TD 77-218.]

(d) Share fees with any such person, or

(e) Permit any such person directly or indirectly to participate, whether through ownership or otherwise, in the promotion, control, or direction of the business of the broker. Nothing herein shall be deemed to prohibit any broker from acting as a broker for any bona fide importer or exporter, notwithstanding such importer or exporter may have had his license as a customhouse broker revoked or suspended, or may be notoriously disreputable.

§ 111.43 Display of license.

Each broker shall display his license in the principal office within the district so that it may be seen by anyone transacting business in the office. Photocopies of the license shall likewise be posted in each branch office within the district.

Further, no broker shall enter into a contract which purports to so limit his liability. [TD 72-193.]

Subpart D—Cancellation, Suspension, or Revocation of License

§ 111.51 Cancellation of license.

(a) Without prejudice. The Commissioner may cancel a broker's license "without prejudice" upon written application by the broker if the Commissioner determines that the application for cancellation was not made in order to avoid proceedings for the suspension or revocation of the license. If he determines that the application for cancellation was made in order to avoid such proceedings, the Commissioner may cancel the license "without prejudice" if authorized by the Secretary of the Treasury.

(b) With prejudice. The Commissioner may cancel a broker's license "with prejudice" when specifically requested to do so by the broker. The effect of a cancellation "with prejudice" is in all respects the same as if the license had been revoked for cause by the Secretary.

§ 111.52 Revocation by operations of law.

A license granted to a partnership, association, or corporation shall be deemed revoked by operation of law, in accordance with the provisions of section 641(a), Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1641(a)), if for any continuous period of more than 60 days there are not at least two members of such partnership or two officers of such association or corporation who are licensed to transact business as a customhouse broker. When a license is revoked by operation of law, the Commissioner will notify the partnership, association, or corporation of the revocation. A copy of such notice will be sent to the district director.

§ 111.53 Grounds for suspension or revocation.

Failure or refusal to comply with the duties, responsibilities, or requirements specified in Subpart C or elsewhere in this part relating to brokers may be deemed grounds for suspension or revocation of the license of a broker. Such duties, responsibilities, or requirements are not to be considered as exclusive. Conduct not within the purview of any specification of this part may be deemed to be conduct warranting the suspension or revocation of a license under the authority of section 641(b), Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1641(b)).

§ 111.54 Appropriate officer of the Customs.

Unless otherwise indicated in this part, the district director shall be the appropriate officer of the Customs within the scope of section 641(b) of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1641(b)). In the case of sickness or absence of the district director, the assistant district director designated by the district director shall be the appropriate officer of the Customs. If the office of district director is vacant or the district director is unable to designate an assistant district director as appropriate officer of the Customs, the Commissioner shall designate one of the assistant district directors to be the appropriate officer of the Customs. [TD 75-58.]

§ 111.55 Investigation of complaints.

Every complaint or charge against a broker which may be the basis for disciplinary action shall be forwarded for investigation to the special agent in charge of the area in which the broker is located. The special agent in charge shall submit a report on the investigation to the director of the appropriate district and send a copy of it to the Commissioner.

§ 111.56 Review of report on investigation.

The district director shall review the report of investigation to determine if there is sufficient basis to recommend that charges be preferred against the broker. He shall then submit his recommendation with supporting reasons to the Commissioner for final determination together with a proposed statement of charges when recommending that charges be preferred.

§ 111.57 Determination by Commissioner.

(a) Determination not to prefer charges. If the Commissioner determines that charges will not be preferred, he shall notify the district director of his decision.

(b) Determination to prefer charges. If the Commissioner determines that charges will be preferred, he may also determine that the complaint or charge, supported by the agent's report of investigation, is of so serious a nature that formal proceedings for suspension or revocation of the license shall be instituted immediately without following the preliminary proceedings prescribed in § 111.59. The Commissioner shall notify the district director of his determinations and instruct him to prepare a proposed statement of charges for review by the Commissioner if not previously submitted.

§ 111.58 Content of statement of charges.

The statement of charges shall give a plain and concise, but not necessarily detailed, description of the facts claimed to constitute grounds for suspension or revocation of the license. A statement of charges which fairly informs the accused of the charges against him so that he is able to prepare his defense shall be deemed sufficient. Different means by which a purpose might have been accomplished or different intents with which acts might have been done so as to constitute grounds for suspension or revocation of license may be alleged in the statement of charges in a single count in the alternative. If the Commissioner has determined that the preliminary proceedings prescribed in § 111.59 shall not be followed, the statement of charges shall recite the Commissioner's determination.

§ 111.59 Preliminary proceedings.

(a) Opportunity to participate. Unless the Commissioner, under § 111.57, has determined that the preliminary proceedings shall not be followed, the district director shall advise the broker of his opportunity to participate in preliminary proceedings with an opportunity to avoid formal proceedings against his license.

(b) Notice of preliminary proceedings. The district director shall serve upon the broker, as set forth in § 111.63, a notice in writing that:

(1) Transmits a copy of the proposed statement of charges;

(2) Informs him that 5 U.S.C. 554 and 558 will be applicable if formal proceedings are necessary;

(3) Invites him to show cause, if he so desires, why the formal proceedings should not be instituted;

(4) Informs him that he may make submissions and demonstrations of the character contemplated by the cited statutory provisions;

(5) Invites any negotiation for settlement of the complaint or charge that the broker deems it desirable to enter into;

(6) Advises him of his right to be represented by counsel; and

(7) Specifies the place where and a reasonable time within which the broker may respond in writing and/or orally.

§ 111.60 Request for additional information.

If, in order to prepare his defense, the broker desires additional information as to the time and place of the alleged misconduct, or the means by which it was committed, or any other more specific information concerning the alleged misconduct, he may request such information in writing. He shall set forth in his request in what respect the proposed statement of charges leaves him in doubt and describe the particular language of the proposed statement of charges as to which additional information is needed. If in the opinion of the district director such information is reasonably necessary to enable the broker to prepare his defense, he shall furnish the broker with such information.

§ 111.61 Decision on preliminary proceedings.

The district director shall prepare a summary of any oral presentations made by the broker or his attorney and forward it to the Commissioner together with a copy of each paper filed by the broker. The district director shall also give to the Commissioner his recommendation on action to be taken as a result of the preliminary proceedings. If the Commissioner determines that the broker has satisfactorily responded to the proposed charges, and that further proceedings are not warranted he shall so inform the district director who shall notify the broker. If the Commissioner determines that the broker has not satisfactorily responded to the proposed charges, he shall so advise the district director and instruct him to prepare, sign, and serve a notice of charges and the statement of charges. If one or more of the charges in the proposed statement of charges was satisfactorily answered by the broker, the Commissioner shall instruct the district director to omit those charges from the statement of charges.

§ 111.62 Contents of notice of charges.

The notice of charges shall inform the broker that:

(a) Sections 554 and 558, title 5, United States Code, are applicable to the formal proceedings;

(b) He may be represented by counsel;

(c) He will have the right to cross-examine witnesses;

(d) He will be notified within 10 days after service of this notice of the time and place of a hearing on the charges; and

(e) Prior to the hearing on the charges, he may file, in duplicate with the district director, a verified answer to the charges.

§ 111.63 Service of notice and statement of charges.

(a) Individual licensee. The district director shall serve the notice of charges and the statement of charges against an individual licensee as follows:

(1) By delivery to the broker personally;

(2) By certified mail, with demand for a return card signed solely by the addressee;

(3) By any other means which the broker may have authorized in a written communication to the district director; or

(4) If attempts to serve the broker by the above methods are unsuccessful, the district director may serve the notice and statement by leaving them with the person in charge of the broker's office.

(b) Partnership, association or corporation. The district director shall serve the notices of charges and the statement of charges against a partnership, association, or corporation as follows:

(1) By delivery to any member of the partnership personally or to any officer of the association or corporation personally;

(2) By certified mail addressed to any such member or officer with demand for a return card signed by the addressee;

(3) By any other means which the broker may have authorized in a written communication to the district director; or

(4) If attempts to serve the broker by the above methods are unsuccessful, the district director may serve the notice and statement by leaving them with the person in charge of the broker's office.

(c) Certified mail; evidence of service. When the service is by certified mail, the receipt of the return card duly signed shall be satisfactory evidence of service.

§ 111.64 Service of notice of hearing and other papers.

(a) Notice of hearing. Within 10 days after service of the notice and statement of charges, the district director shall serve upon the broker or his attorney, by one of the methods enumerated in § 111.63 or by ordinary mail, a written notice of the time and place of the hearing. The hearing shall be scheduled to take place within 5 days after service of the notice of hearing.

(b) Other papers. Other papers relating to the hearing may be served by ordinary mail or by one of the methods set forth in § 111.63 or upon the broker's attorney.

§ 111.65 Extension of time for hearing.

If the broker or his attorney requests in writing a delay in the hearing on the ground that additional time is necessary to prepare a defense, the hearing officer designated pursuant to § 111.67(a) may reschedule the hearing, notifying the broker or his attorney in writing of the extension and the new time for which the hearing has been scheduled. [TD 75-58.]

§ 111.66 Failure to appear.

When an accused broker or his attorney fails to appear for a scheduled hearing, the hearing officer designated pursuant to § 111.67(a) shall proceed with the hearing as scheduled, and shall hear evidence submitted on behalf of the Government. The regulations of this part shall apply as though the broker were present, and the Secretary of the Treasury may issue an order of suspension or revocation if he finds it to be in order. [TD 75-58.]

§ 111.67 Hearing.

(a) Government representatives. The Commissioner shall designate as hearing officer an appropriate officer of the Customs other than a Customs officer of the district for which the license was issued. The hearing officer shall provide a competent reporter to make a record of the hearing. The Commissioner shall designate one or more persons to represent the Government at the hearing. The hearing officer may designate one or more persons to assist in the proceedings. [TD 75-58.]

(b) Rights of the accused. The broker or his attorney shall have the right to examine all exhibits offered at the hearing and shall have the right to cross-examine witnesses and to present witnesses who shall be subject to cross-examination by the Government representatives.

(c) Interrogatories. Upon the written request of either party, the hearing officer may permit deposition upon oral or written interrogatories to be taken before any officer duly authorized to administer oaths for general purposes or in Customs matters. The other party to the hearing shall be given a reasonable time in which to prepare cross-interrogatories and, if the deposition is oral, shall be permitted to cross-examine the witness. § 111.78 Reprimands.

This part sets forth the general requirements applicable to bonds. It contains the general authority and powers of the Commissioner of Customs in requiring bonds, the classes of bonds and their approval and execution, general and special bond requirements, the requirements which must be met to be either a principal or a surety, the requirements concerning the production of documents, and the authority and manner of assessing damages and of cancelling the bond or charges against a bond. [TD 74-227.]

Subpart A—General Provisions

§ 113.1 Authority to require execution of bond or security.

Where a bond or other security is not specifically required by law, the Commissioner of Customs, pursuant to Treasury Department Order No. 165 Revised, as amended (T.D. 53654, 19 FR 7241), may by regulation or specific instruction require, or authorize the district director to require, such bonds or other security considered necessary for the protection of the revenue or to assure compliance with any pertinent law, regulation, or instruction.

§ 113.2 Powers of Commissioner of Customs relating to bonds.

Whenever a bond is required or authorized by law, regulations, or instructions, the Commissioner of Customs may:

(a) Prescribe the conditions and form of such bond, and fix the amount of penalty, whether for the payment of liquidated damages, or of a penal sum, except as otherwise specifically provided for by law.

(b) Provide for the approval of the sureties on the bond, without regard to any general provision of law.

(c) Authorize the execution of a term bond the conditions of which shall extend to and cover similar cases of importations over a period of time, not to exceed one year or such longer period as he may fix when in his opinion special circumstances existing in a particular instance require such longer period.

Such a consolidated bond shall have the same force and effect as the separate bonds in lieu of which it was taken. The Commissioner of Customs may fix the penalty of a consolidated bond without regard to any other provision of law, regulation, or instruction.

However, when the charter or governing statute of a corporation requires its acts to be evidenced by its corporate seal, such seal is required.

§ 113.25 Termination date for term bonds.

The termination date of every term bond shall be the last day of the period and not the first day of a succeeding period; for example, January 1, 19—, to and including December 31 of that same year, and not January 1, 19—, to January 1 of the next year.

Each corporation shall limit its liability to a definite specified amount, in terms, upon the face of the bond by attaching the following:

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS:

That we, ——————, of —————— as principal, and —————, a corporation existing under the laws of the State of ————, and —————, a corporation existing under the laws of the State of —————, as sureties, are held and firmly bound unto the United States of America, in the sum of ——— thousand dollars ($———), jointly and severally with each surety as hereinafter specified, and the said ————— jointly and severally with said principal in the sum of —————— thousand dollars ($———) of said penal sum and no more; and the said —————— jointly and severally with said principal in the sum of ——— thousand dollars ($———) of said penal sum and no more; for the payment of which respective sums we bind ourselves, our heirs, executors, and administrators, successors and assigns, in the manner and in the respective sums hereinbefore set forth, firmly by these presents. The obligors herein expressly agree that for the purpose of allowing a joint action against any or all of them, and for that purpose only, this bond shall be treated as the joint and several as well as the several obligation of each of the obligors.

Sealed with our seals, and dated this ——— day of ———, in the year one thousand nine hundred and ———.

(f) Power of attorney for the agent or attorney of the surety. Corporations may execute powers of attorney to act in their behalf in the following manner:

(1) Execution and contents. The corporate surety power of attorney shall be executed on Customs Form 5297, and shall contain the following information:

(i) Corporate surety name and number,

(ii) Name and address of agent or attorney, and his social security number,

(iii) Districts in which the agent or attorney is authorized to act,

(iv) Date of the power of attorney,

(v) Seal of the corporate surety, and

(vi) Attestation of any two principal officers.

(2) Extent of authorization. Authorization must be by Customs districts and may not be limited to a single port. A separate Customs Form 5297 shall be submitted for each district, except when the authorization for the agent or attorney to act is for all districts. If the power of attorney covers all districts, the word "All" shall be entered in the appropriate space on the power of attorney.

(3) Filing. Corporate surety powers of attorney executed on Customs Form 5297 shall be filed in duplicate (original and copy) at any Customs port of entry. The separate powers of attorney providing authority for an agent or attorney in any number of districts may be filed at one time at the same port. The original of the power of attorney shall be sent by the port to the Customs Data Center. The Customs Data Center shall periodically issue computer printouts reflecting all corporate powers of attorney, which shall be sent to all applicable ports of entry. The copy of the power of attorney shall be retained at the port where the power was filed for use in connection with bonds executed at the port for the surety company by the person covered by the power of attorney, until the first computer printout reflecting the power of attorney has been received.

(4) Use at port where power not filed before receipt of computer printout. If the grantee desires to use his power of attorney at a port covered by the power, but other than the one where his power was filed, before the first computer printout reflecting this power of attorney is received, he shall file Customs Form 5297 in triplicate (original and two copies), rather than duplicate. The second copy shall be validated by Customs and returned to the grantee. The grantee, at the time of filing a bond at a port other than the port where the power of attorney was filed, shall exhibit this validated copy of the power of attorney as proof of his grant of authority. The validity of this copy of the power shall expire when the first computer printout reflecting this power of attorney is received.

(5) Term and revocation. Corporate surety powers of attorney shall continue in force and effect until revoked. Any surety desiring that a designated agent or attorney be divested of his power of attorney must execute a revocation on Customs Form 5297.

(6) Change on the power of attorney. No change, including a change due to typographical error, or change of address, shall be made on the Customs Form 5297 after it has been approved by Customs. To correct the power of attorney two separate Customs Forms 5297 shall be submitted, one revoking the previous power of attorney, and one containing a new grant of authority.

§ 113.38 Delinquent sureties.

(a) Acceptance as surety when in default as principal on another Customs bond. No person shall be accepted as surety on any Customs bond while he is in default as principal on any other Customs bond.

(b) Acceptance as surety when in default as surety on another Customs bond. A surety on a Customs bond which is in default may be accepted as surety on other Customs bonds only to the extent that his assets are unencumbered by such default.

§ 113.39 Acceptance of cash deposits or obligations of the United States in lieu of sureties on bonds.

(a) General provision. In lieu of sureties on any bond required or authorized by any law, regulation, or instruction which the Secretary of the Treasury or the Commissioner of Customs is authorized to enforce, the district director is authorized to accept United States money, United States bonds (except for savings bonds), United States certificates of indebtedness, Treasury notes, or Treasury bills in an amount equal to the amount of the bond.

(b) Authority to sell United States obligations on default. At the time of deposit of any obligation of the United States, other than United States money, with the district director, the obligor shall deliver a duly executed power of attorney and agreement in a form similar to that prescribed in Treasury Department Circular 154, dated October 31, 1969, as amended, authorizing the district director, in case of any default in the performance of any of the conditions or stipulations of the bond, to sell such obligation so deposited and to apply the proceeds of such sale, in whole or in part, to the satisfaction of any damages, demands, or deficiency arising by reason of such default. The format of the power of attorney and agreement, when the obligor is a corporation, is set forth below, and shall be modified as appropriate when the obligor is either an individual or a partnership:

Note.—Securities must be described by title, date of maturity, rate of interest, denomination, serial number, and whether coupon or registered. Failure to give complete description will warrant rejection of this power of attorney.

(c) Application of United States money on default. If cash is deposited in lieu of sureties on the bond, the district director is authorized to apply such cash, in whole or in part, to the satisfaction of any damages, demands, or deficiency arising by reason of a default under the bond.

Subpart E—Production of Documents

When entry is made prior to the production of a required document, a card memorandum on Customs Form 5101 shall be prepared by the importer and presented with the entry, whether the importer gives bond on Customs Form 7551 or 7553, or other appropriate form, or stipulates to produce such document.

§ 113.42 Time period for production of documents.

Except when another period is fixed by law or regulations, any document for the production of which a bond or stipulation is given shall be delivered to the district director within 6 months from the date of the transaction in connection with which the bond or stipulation was given, or within any extension of such time which may be granted pursuant to § 113.43(a). If the period ends on a Saturday, Sunday, or holiday, delivery on the next business day shall be accepted as timely.

(a) Application received within time period. If a document (other than an invoice or document which must be produced within 2 months, as provided in § 141.61(e) of this chapter) referred to in § 113.42 is not produced within 6 months from the date of the transaction in connection with which the bond or stipulation was given, the district director, in his discretion, upon written application of the importer, may extend the period for one further period of 2 months.

(b) Late application. No application for the extension of the period of any bond or stipulation given to assure the production of a missing document shall be allowed by the district director if such application is received later than 2 months after the expiration of the period of the bond or stipulation, and any such extension shall not be allowed by the district director for a period of more than 2 months from the date of expiration of the period.

(c) Acceptance of a free-entry or reduced-duty document prior to liquidation. When a bond or stipulation is given for the production of any free-entry or reduced-duty document and a satisfactory document is produced prior to liquidation of the entry or within the period during which a valid reliquidation may be completed, provided the failure to file was not due to willful negligence or fraudulent intent, it shall be accepted as satisfying the requirement that it be filed in connection with the entry, and the bond charge for its production shall be cancelled.

(a) Extension prescribed by law or regulations. The assent of the sureties to any extension of the period prescribed in a bond is not necessary when the extension is authorized by law or regulations.

(b) Other extension. The assent of the sureties shall be obtained before any extension of the period prescribed in a bond, other than an extension authorized by law or regulation, is allowed.

When a charge for the production of a missing document is made against a term bond, the charge shall be in the amount of the single entry bond that would have been taken had the transaction been covered by a single entry bond.

Subpart F—Assessment of Damages and Cancellation or Termination of Bond

The Commissioner of Customs may authorize the cancellation of any bond provided for in this part or any charge that may have been made against such bond, in the event of a breach of any condition of the bond, upon payment of such lesser amount or penalty or upon such other terms and conditions as he may deem sufficient. [TD 76-324.]

If any Customs bond, except one given only for the production of free-entry or reduced-duty documents (see §§ 113.43(c) and 172.22(c) of this chapter), is unsatisfied upon the expiration of 90 days after liability has accrued thereunder, the matter shall be reported to the United States attorney for prosecution unless measures have been taken to file an application for relief in accordance with the provisions of Part 172 of this chapter or to effect a satisfactory settlement.

§ 113.53 Waiver of Customs requirement supported by a bond.

(a) Waiver by the Commissioner of Customs. When a Customs requirement supported by a bond is waived by the Commissioner of Customs, the waiver may be:

(1) Unconditional, in which case the importer is relieved from the payment of liquidated damages;

(2) Conditioned upon prior settlement of the bond obligation by payment of liquidated damages; or

(3) Conditioned upon such other terms and conditions as the Commissioner may deem sufficient.

(b) Waiver by the district director. When a Customs requirement supported by a bond is waived by the district director pursuant to the authority conferred upon him in these regulations, the waiver shall be unconditional.

§ 113.54 Cancellation of erroneous charges.

(a) Bonds. Section 172.31 of this chapter sets forth the cancellation of erroneous charges against the bond when it is determined that liquidated damages assessed or paid under a bond did not in fact accrue.

(a) Definition of exportation. An exportation is a severance of goods from the mass of things belonging to this country with the intention of uniting them to the mass of things belonging to some foreign country. The shipment of merchandise abroad with the intention of returning it to the United States with a design to circumvent provisions of restriction or limitation in the tariff laws or to secure a benefit accruing to imported merchandise is not an exportation. Merchandise of foreign origin returned from abroad under these circumstances is dutiable according to its nature, weight, and value at the time of its original arrival in this country.

(b) Manner of cancellation. A bond to assure the exportation of merchandise may be cancelled:

(1) Upon exportation. Upon the specification of such merchandise on the outward manifest or outward bill of lading, the inspector's certificate of lading, the record of clearance of the vessel or of the departure of the vehicle, and the production of a foreign landing certificate if such certificate is required by the district director.

(2) Upon payment of liquidated damages. Upon the payment of liquidated damages in accordance with the provisions of § 10.39 of this chapter, if exportation or destruction is not timely in the case of articles entered under schedule 8, part 5C, Tariff Schedules of the United States (19 U.S.C. 1202).

(c) Cancellation of vessel, vehicle, or aircraft bond. The requirement of the vessel, vehicle, or aircraft bond, Customs Form 7567 or 7569, may be considered as having been complied with upon the production of the applicable documents mentioned in paragraph (b)(1) of this section.

(d) Foreign landing certificate. A foreign landing certificate, when required, shall be produced within six months from the date of exportation and shall be signed by a revenue officer of the foreign country to which the merchandise is exported, unless it is shown that the country has no Customs administration, in which case the certificate may be signed by the consignee or by the vessel's agent at the place of lading. Landing certificates are required in the following cases:

(1) Mandatory. A landing certificate shall be required in every case to establish the exportation of narcotic drugs or any equipment, stores (except such articles as are placed on board vessels or aircraft under the provisions of section 309 or 317, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1309 and 1317)), or machinery for vessels.

(2) Optional with the district director. A landing certificate may be required by the district director for merchandise exported from the United States, or residue cargo, when he deems such a certificate necessary for the protection of the revenue.

(3) Waiver. Except as provided for in § 4.88 of this chapter, in cases where landing certificates are required and they cannot be produced, an application for waiver thereof may be made to the Commissioner of Customs through the district director, accompanied by such proofs of exportation and landing abroad as may be available.

(e) Articles less than $10. In the case of articles for which the ordinary Customs duty estimated at the time of entry did not exceed $10 and which are exported within the period of the bond (including any lawful extension) but without Customs supervision, the bond may be cancelled upon production of evidence of a bona fide exportation satisfactory to the district director.

§ 113.56 Termination of bond of Customs cartman or lighterman.

(a) Termination by cartman or lighterman. A customhouse cartman or lighterman may terminate the Bond of Customs Cartman or Lighterman, Customs Form 3855, by filing with the district director by whose office the bond was approved a request for termination. The termination shall take effect on the date requested if the date is subsequent to the date of receipt of the request. If no termination date is requested or the termination date requested is prior to the date of receipt of the request, the termination shall take effect on the date of receipt of the request by the district director. If a new bond with good and sufficient sureties is not furnished by the cartman or lighterman prior to the effective date of the termination of the previous bond, the customhouse cartman's or lighterman's license will terminate concurrently with the bond. [TD 76-324.]

(b) Termination by surety. A surety may, with or without the consent of the principal, terminate the Bond of Customs Cartman or Lighterman, Customs Form 3855, on which it is obligated. The surety shall provide reasonable notice to both the district director by whose office the bond was approved and the principal of his intent to terminate. Such notice shall contain the date on which the termination shall be effective and shall be sent by certified mail, with a return receipt requested. If a new bond with good and sufficient sureties is not furnished by the cartman or lighterman prior to the effective date of the termination of the previous bond, the customhouse cartman's or lighterman's license will terminate concurrently with the bond. (R.S. 251, as amended, secs. 551, 565, 623, 624, 46 Stat. 742, as amended, 747, as amended, 759, as amended (19 U.S.C. 66, 1551, 1565, 1623, 1624).)

(a) Bond not authorization for carriage of bonded merchandise. Approval of a Consolidated Aircraft Bond, Customs Form 7605, will not authorize an airline to act as a carrier for the transportation of bonded merchandise unless and until the airline filing the bond is qualified as a carrier for such transportation, in accordance with § 112.12 of this chapter.

(b) Discontinuance of ordinary carrier's bond. When an airline has filed a bond on Customs Form 7605, and obtained Customs approval of the bond, it may obtain discontinuance of its bond on Customs Form 3587 by request to the district director at the port where the latter bond was approved.

§ 113.62 General Term Bond for Entry of Merchandise.

(a) Application required. A principal desiring to execute the General Term Bond for Entry of Merchandise, Customs Form 7595, shall file with the district director an application for permission to file the bond.

(b) Form of the application. The application for the General Term Bond For Entry of Merchandise, Customs Form 7595, shall show:

(1) The general character of the merchandise to be entered; and

(2) The total amount of ordinary Customs duties (including any taxes required by law to be treated as duties) accruing on all merchandise imported by the principal during the calendar year preceding the date of the application, plus the estimated amount of any other tax or taxes on the merchandise collectible by the district director. The district director may notify the master, person in charge, owner, agent, or any person directly or indirectly responsible for the discrepancy by furnishing a copy of Customs Form 5931 to that person, or by any other appropriate written means. Use of Customs Form 5931 shall not preclude assessment of any penalty or liability to forfeiture otherwise incurred.

(c) Statement on report of discrepancy required. The overage report or shortage declaration shall bear the following statement signed by the master of the vessel, the person in charge of the vehicle, the owner of the vessel or vehicle, an authorized agent, or the person directly or indirectly responsible for the discrepancy:

I declare to the best of my knowledge and belief that the discrepancy described herein occurred for the reasons stated. I also certify that evidence to support a claim of nonimportation or proper disposition of merchandise will be retained in the carrier's files for a period of at least one year from the date of this report of discrepancy and will be made available to Customs upon demand.

(d) Action on the discrepancy report. (1) In accordance with the proviso to 19 U.S.C. 1584, no penalty shall be incurred under that section if—

(i) The manifest discrepancy relates only to a shortage;

(ii) There is timely filing of the discrepancy report;

(iii) There has been no loss of revenue;

(iv) The district director is satisfied that the discrepancy resulted from clerical error or other mistake; and

(v) In the case of a discrepancy not reported initially by the master, person in charge, owner, agent, or the person directly or indirectly responsible, the district director is satisfied that there is a valid reason for failure to file the discrepancy report.

(2) If the criteria in paragraph (d)(1) are not met, applicable penalties under 19 U.S.C. 1460 or 19 U.S.C. 1584 shall be assessed, and the vessel or vehicle shall be liable to forfeiture under 19 U.S.C. 1460 (see § 162.31 of this chapter).

(3) Any penalty or liability to forfeiture incurred under 19 U.S.C. 1460 or 19 U.S.C. 1584 may be mitigated or remitted under section 618, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1618).

(e) Penalty assessment. For the purpose of assessing penalties under 19 U.S.C. 1460 or 19 U.S.C. 1584, the value of the merchandise shall be determined as described in section 162.43 of this chapter.

(f) Lack of knowledge does not relieve liability. The fact that the master of the vessel, the person in charge of the vehicle, or the owner of the vessel or vehicle had no knowledge of a discrepancy shall not relieve the master, the person in charge, or the owner from a penalty, or the vessel or vehicle from liability to forfeiture, incurred under 19 U.S.C. 1460 or 1584.

(g) Clerical error or other mistake defined. For the purpose of this section, the term "clerical error or other mistake" is defined as a non-negligent, inadvertent, or typographical mistake in the preparation, assembly, or submission of manifests. However, repeated similar manifest discrepancies by the same persons may be considered the result of negligence and not clerical error or other mistake. [TD 80-236.]

Subpart B—International Traffic

§ 123.11 Supplies on international trains.

(a) Articles acquired abroad. Articles subject to internal revenue tax and other merchandise acquired abroad constituting supplies arriving on international trains crossing and recrossing the boundary line, for which the train crew elects not to file an inventory as provided for in paragraph (b) of this section, shall be subject to duty and tax unless locked or sealed in a separate compartment or locker upon arrival, and the lock or seal remains unbroken until the train departs from the United States at the final port of exit.

(b) Inventory procedure. Supplies acquired abroad for which internal revenue stamps are not required may be used in the United States under the following procedure:

(1) Port of arrival. An inventory executed in duplicate consisting of an itemized list showing the kind and quantity of each class of supplies on hand in the car with space for a parallel column in which to show at the port of exit the quantity used, shall be certified by the person in charge of the car and furnished to the Customs officer upon arrival. The Customs officer shall certify the correctness of both copies of the inventory, return the original to the person in charge of the car and retain the duplicate, or forward it to the port of exit if this differs from the port of arrival.

(2) Port of exit. Upon arrival at the port of exit, the inventory returned at the port of arrival to the person in charge of the car shall be submitted to the Customs officer after completion by showing the quantity of each item used in the United States, and being certified by the person in charge of the car. Entries must be filed and applicable duties and taxes paid at the port of exit on the quantity of supplies consumed in the United States.

(c) Supplies purchased in the United States. Supplies purchased in the United States shall be passed free of duty without inventory or entry. (Sec. 465, 46 Stat. 718; 19 U.S.C. 1465)

§ 123.12 Entry of foreign locomotives and equipment in international traffic.

(a) Use on a continuous route. Foreign locomotives or other foreign railroad equipment in use on a continuous route crossing the boundary into the United States shall be admitted without formal entry or the payment of duty to proceed to and return from the end of the run, in accordance with the following:

(1) On inward trip. Unless formally entered and cleared through Customs into the United States, a foreign locomotive shall be used on the inward trip only in connection with taking the inbound train to the last place in a continuous haul, including the switching of cars which it has hauled into the United States. Other foreign railroad equipment may proceed to the place of complete unloading for any merchandise imported therein.

(2) On outward trip. Foreign locomotives may be used on the outward trip only in connection with through trains crossing the boundary, including switching to make up such trains. Other foreign railroad equipment may be used in such trains or for such local traffic as is reasonably incidental to its economical and prompt return to the country from which it entered the United States.

(b) Admission of empty equipment. Empty foreign railroad equipment shall be admitted to the United States without formal entry and payment of duty only if the passengers or goods to be loaded are to be transported directly to or through the country from which the equipment entered the United States.

(c) Penalty for improper use. The use of any foreign locomotive and other foreign railroad equipment in violation of this section may result in liabilities being incurred under section 592, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1592). [TD 79-160.]

(d) Domestic and foreign locomotives and other railroad equipment defined. For the purpose of this section and section 123.13, locomotives or other railroad equipment manufactured in, or regularly imported into, the United States, shall be considered "domestic" if not subsequently formally entered and cleared through foreign customs into another country, nor used in foreign local traffic otherwise than as an incident of the return of the equipment to the United States. Other locomotives and railroad equipment shall be considered "foreign". (Sec. 14, 67 Stat. 516; 19 U.S.C. 1322) [TD 73-73.]

A report of the first arrival in the United States of a domestic locomotive or other railroad equipment after repairs have been made in a foreign country other than those required to restore it to the condition in which it last left the United States ("running repairs"), shall be made promptly, in writing, to the Customs officer at the port of re-entry. The report shall state the time and place of arrival, and the nature and value of the repairs. Each such locomotive or other piece of railroad equipment when withdrawn from international traffic shall be subject to duty upon the value of the repairs (other than "running repairs"), made abroad at the rate at which the repaired article would be dutiable if imported. For the appropriate determination as to whether the locomotive or other railroad equipment should be considered "domestic" or "foreign", see § 123.12(d). (Sec. 14, 67 Stat. 516, 77A Stat. 14; 19 U.S.C. 1202, (Gen. Hdnte. 11), 1322) [TD 73-73.]

(a) Admission without entry or payment of duty. Trucks, busses, and taxicabs, however owned, which have their principal base of operations in a foreign country and which are engaged in international traffic, arriving with merchandise or passengers destined to points in the United States, or arriving empty or loaded for the purpose of taking out merchandise or passengers, may be admitted without formal entry or the payment of duty. Such vehicles shall not engage in local traffic except as provided in paragraph (c) of this section.

(b) Deposit of registration by vehicle not on regular trip. In any case in which a foreign-based truck, bus, or taxicab admitted under this section is not in use on a regularly scheduled trip, the district director may require that the registration card for the vehicle be deposited pending the return of the vehicle for departure to the country from which it arrived, or the district director may take other appropriate measures to assure the proper use and departure of the vehicle.

(c) Use in local traffic. Foreign-based trucks, busses, and taxicabs admitted under this section shall not engage in local traffic in the United States unless the vehicle comes within one of the following exceptions:

(1) The vehicle may carry merchandise or passengers between points in the United States while in use on a regularly scheduled trip if such carriage is directly incidental to the international schedule.

(2) A foreign-based truck trailer may carry merchandise between points in the United States on the return trip to the country from which it entered the United States under the same conditions as are prescribed for "other equipment" in § 123.12(a)(2).

(d) Penalty for improper use. The use of any vehicle referred to in this section in violation of this section may result in liabilities being incurred under section 592, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1592). (Sec. 14, 67 Stat. 516; 19 U.S.C. 1322) [TD 79-160]

Vehicles of foreign origin which are used for commercial purposes between adjoining or neighboring communities of the United States and Canada or Mexico, such as delivery, peddlers', and service trucks, or wagons, are subject to duty on first arrival, but may thereafter be admitted without formal entry or the payment of duty so long as they are continuously employed in such service. (b) Use in local traffic. Trucks, busses, and taxicabs in use on regularly scheduled trips in international traffic, which may include the incidental carrying of merchandise or passengers for hire between points in a foreign country, or between points in this country, shall be admitted under this section. However, such vehicles taken abroad for commercial use between points in a foreign country, otherwise than in the course of a regularly scheduled trip in international traffic shall be considered to have been exported and must be regularly entered on return. (Sec. 14, 67 Stat. 516; 19 U.S.C. 1322)

(a) Domestic trucks, busses, and taxicabs and their equipment defined. For the purpose of this section, trucks, busses, and taxicabs and their equipment manufactured in, or regularly imported into the United States, shall be considered "domestic" if not subsequently formally entered and cleared through foreign customs into another country, nor used in foreign local traffic otherwise than as an incident of their return to the United States.

(b) Report of arrival and payment of duty on repairs. A report of the first arrival in the United States of domestic trucks, busses, and taxicabs and their equipment after repairs have been made in a foreign country, other than those required to restore such vehicle or equipment to the condition in which it last left the United States ("running repairs"), shall be made by the driver or person in charge of the vehicle promptly, in writing, to the Customs officer at the port of reentry. The report shall state the time and place of arrival and the nature and value of the repairs. Each such vehicle or its equipment when withdrawn from international traffic shall be subject to duty upon the value of the repairs (other than "running repairs") made abroad at the rate at which the repaired article would be dutiable if imported. (Sec. 14, 67 Stat. 516, 77A Stat. 14; 19 U.S.C. 1202 (Gen. Hdnote 11), 1322)

(a) Admission of equipment and materials. Equipment for use in construction of bridges or tunnels between the United States and Canada or Mexico shall be admitted without entry or the payment of duty. Materials for such use shall be admitted without entry or payment of duty only for installation in the bridge or tunnel proper, and not in the approaches on land at the United States end of such bridge or tunnel.

(b) Customs supervision. All articles admitted under paragraph (a) of this section shall be subject to Customs supervision at the expense of the builder until installed, entered, or exported. (Sec. 14, 67 Stat. 516; 19 U.S.C. 1322)

Subpart C—Shipments in Transit Through Canada or Mexico

§ 123.21 Merchandise in transit.

(a) Status. Merchandise may be transported from one port to another in the United States through Canada or Mexico in accordance with the regulations in this subpart of Subparts E for trucks transiting Canada, F for commercial traveler's samples, or G for baggage. Merchandise so transported is not subject to treatment as an importation when returned to the United States, and no inward foreign manifest is required for merchandise returned under an in-transit manifest. In-transit merchandise returned to the United States shall be treated as an importation as are shipments made from Canada or Mexico if:

(1) An in-transit manifest is not furnished for the merchandise upon its return to the United States;

(2) The merchandise has been transshipped in foreign territory without Customs supervision when the transshipment required the breaking of Customs seals; or

(3) The Customs inspector finds any of the Customs seals applied to the conveyance or compartment unlocked or missing.

(b) Use of certain vessels prohibited. Merchandise shall not be transported from port to port in the United States through Canada or Mexico by vessel in violation of the provisions of section 27, Merchant Marine Act of 1920, as amended (46 U.S.C. 883), or section 588, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1588). (See § 4.80 of this chapter.)

(c) Regulations applicable. The provisions of this subpart shall govern all merchandise transported from one port to another in the United States through Canada or Mexico under in-transit procedures, except as otherwise provided in this subpart or in Subpart E. for truck shipments transiting Canada, Subpart F for commercial traveler's samples transiting Canada, and Subpart G for baggage transiting Canada or Mexico. (Sec. 554, 46 Stat. 743; 19 U.S.C. 1554)

§ 123.22 In-transit manifest.

(a) Manifest required. A manifest in duplicate covering the in-transit merchandise which is to proceed under the provisions of this subpart shall be presented by the carrier to the Customs officer at each port of lading of a vessel, or at the port of exit of a vehicle. Where the merchandise is transported under Customs red in-bond seals and is accompanied by a transportation in-bond manifest, a separate in-transit manifest is not required.

(b) Additional copies. In the following cases additional copies of the manifest shall be presented:

(1) When the merchandise is to be transshipped in foreign territory under Customs supervision, a copy of the manifest for each place of transshipment shall be presented.

(2) When a Customs officer requests an extra copy of the manifest as a record of the transaction.

(c) Manifest forms to be used. The in-transit manifest forms to be used are:

(1) For trucks, railroad cars or other overland carriers transiting Mexico a manifest on Customs Form 7533-B shall be presented.

(2) For vessels of less than 5 net tons departing and arriving otherwise than by sea, a manifest on Customs Form 7533-B shall be presented. All other vessels are subject to the manifesting requirements contained in § 4.82 of this chapter.

(3) For rail cars transiting Canada, a manifest on Customs Form 7533-C (Canada A4-1/2) shall be presented. For trains which will remain intact while transiting Canadian territory, a consolidated train manifest containing all the information included in the individual car manifests and the train sheet required by § 123.23 may be used in lieu of individual car manifests. For a number of cars which will transit Canada as a group, a consolidated manifest may be used, but a train sheet shall also be presented.

(4) In all other cases where no in-transit manifest form is specified in this subpart, or in Subpart E relating to truck shipments on the Canadian border, Subpart F relating to commercial traveler's samples, and Subpart G relating to baggage, Customs Form 7533-B shall be presented.

(d) Contents of in-transit manifest. The information contained in the manifest shall correspond to the information contained in the waybill accompanying the shipment, except that:

(1) The conveyance shall be identified in a suitable manner in the place provided for such identification.

(2) The description of ladings made up of several shipments which are to go forward in a conveyance or compartment sealed with Customs seals shall be "miscellaneous shipments."

(3) When an in-transit rail shipment will enter and reenter Canada in a continuing movement en route to a final destination in the United States, only the final United States port of reentry shall be shown on the manifest. (Sec. 554, 46 Stat. 743; 19 U.S.C. 1554)

Before an in-transit train proceeding under the provisions of this subpart departs from the United States, the carrier shall furnish to the customs officer at the port of exit a train sheet, sometimes called a consist, bridge sheet or trip sheet, listing each car of the train and specifically identifying the in-transit cars, unless a consolidated manifest containing this information has been presented for a train which will remain intact. (Sec. 554, 46 Stat. 743; 19 U.S.C. 1554)

§ 123.24 Sealing of conveyances or compartments.

(a) Sealing required. Merchandise in transit proceeding under the provisions of this subpart shall be transported in sealed conveyances or compartments, except that:

(1) Less than load or compartment lots may be forwarded in unsealed conveyances or compartments, without cording and sealing;

(2) The Commissioner of Customs may authorize treatment of full loads or lots in the same manner as less than load or compartment lots;

(3) Live animals identifiable by specific description in the manifest may be transported in the care of an attendant or customs inspector at the expense of the parties in interest, in unsealed conveyances or compartments.

(b) Seals to be affixed. The carrier shall affix blue in-transit seals to all openings of conveyances and compartments containing in-transit merchandise except that:

(1) Sealable carload shipments on the Canadian border shall be sealed with yellow in-transit seals.

(2) Conveyances or compartments sealed with U.S. Customs red in-bound seals may go forward without additional seals.

(c) Carrier relieved of responsibility. The district director of Customs may relieve the carrier of the responsibility of affixing in-transit seals by notification in writing that Customs inspectors will assume it. (Sec. 554, 46 Stat. 743; 19 U.S.C. 1551)

§ 123.25 Certification and disposition of manifests.

(a) Certification. Conveyances proceeding under the provisions of this subpart shall not proceed until the Customs inspector has certified the in-transit manifest or verified its certification by the carrier. The district director may require the carrier to execute the certificate as an alternative to certification by the Customs officer. When the carrier is to execute the certificate, and the merchandise will be forwarded without being under Customs seals, the agent of the carrier shall carefully examine the packages covered by the manifests to satisfy himself that the merchandise agrees with the manifest as to quantity and description.

(b) Disposition of manifest. The original manifest, after certification, shall accompany the merchandise. Additional copies required when the merchandise is to be transshipped in Canada or Mexico under Customs supervision shall be given to the person in charge of the conveyance for delivery to the Customs officers who will supervise transshipment. (Sec. 554, 46 Stat. 743; 19 U.S.C. 1554)

§ 123.26 Transshipment of merchandise moving through Canada or Mexico.

(a) General. Merchandise in transit proceeding under the provisions of this subpart may be transshipped from one conveyance to another in foreign territory. When transshipment requires the breaking of Customs seals, the breaking of the seals, transshipment and sealing of the conveyance or compartment to which the merchandise is transshipped shall be under the supervision of a Customs officer. He shall note his action on both the additional copy of the manifest presented to him, in accordance with § 123.25(b), and on the original copy, which shall be returned to the person in charge of the conveyance to accompany the merchandise. Merchandise transshipped in foreign territory without customs supervision when Customs seals were broken shall be treated upon return to the United States as imported merchandise.

(b) Storage awaiting transshipment. Merchandise moving under in-transit manifests and Customs seals which is to be stored in foreign territory awaiting transshipment shall be checked into a storehouse by the Customs officer at the place of transshipment. It shall remain under Customs locks and seals until transshipment is completed under Customs supervision.

(c) Manifests where contents broken up. When transshipment involves the breaking up of the in-transit contents of a conveyance or compartment, in such a manner as to require separate manifests for articles previously covered by a single manifest, the Customs officer supervising the transshipment shall take up the carrier's copy of the manifest and require the carrier to prepare a new manifest, in duplicate, for each conveyance to which the merchandise is transshipped. If there is to be further transshipment, an additional copy of each new manifest shall be presented by the carrier, and shall be returned to the person in charge of the carrier for delivery to the Customs officer at the point of further transshipment in accordance with § 123.25(b). After the transshipment and sealing of the conveyances and compartments has been supervised and the new manifests certified the originals of the new manifests shall be returned to the carrier to accompany the merchandise to the point of reentry into the United States. (Sec. 554, 46 Stat. 743; 19 U.S.C. 1554)

If animals in sealed conveyances or compartments cannot be fed and watered in Canada without breaking customs seals, the seals shall be broken and the animals fed and watered under the supervision of a United States or Canadian Customs officer. The supervising officer shall reseal the conveyance or compartment, and make notation as to the resealing on the manifest. (Sec. 554, 46 Stat. 743; 19 U.S.C. 1554)

§ 123.28 Merchandise remaining in or exported to Canada or Mexico.

(a) In-transit status abandoned. When the in-transit status of merchandise transiting Canada or Mexico is abandoned and the merchandise is entered for consumption or other disposition in Canada or Mexico, the carrier shall send the in-transit seals and manifests to the port where the manifests were first filed with U.S. Customs, or in the case of trucks under Subpart E, the port of exit, with an endorsement by the carrier's agent on each manifest showing that the merchandise was so entered. The carriers shall comply with the export control regulations, 15 CFR Part 370.

(b) In-transit merchandise exported to Canada or Mexico. Merchandise to be exported to Canada or Mexico after moving in-transit through a contiguous country shall be treated as exported when it has passed through the last port of exit from the United States. This paragraph shall control whether or not the merchandise to be exported is domestic or foreign and whether or not it is exported with benefit of drawback. The manifest, shipper's export declaration, and the notice of exportation, if any, shall be filed at the last port of exit from the United States. (Sec. 554, 46 Stat. 743; 19 U.S.C. 1554)

§ 123.29 Procedure on arrival at port of reentry.

(a) Presentation of documents. At the first port in the United States after transportation through Canada or Mexico under the provisions of this subpart, the carrier shall present to Customs the in-transit manifest or manifests for each loaded conveyance. For mixed ladings, that is, ladings made up of several shipments, the waybills shall be available at the port of return or discharge for use by Customs officers. For a railroad train for which a consolidated manifest was not used the conductor shall also present a train sheet showing the car numbers and initials.

(b) Vessels and rail shipments continuing in-transit movement—(1) Vessels. In the case of a vessel carrying in-transit merchandise, the master's copies of the in-transit or in-bond manifest covering the merchandise given final Customs release at that port shall be retained by Customs at that port and the manifests covering merchandise to be discharged at subsequent ports of arrival shall be returned to the master of the vessel for presentation to Customs at the next port.

(2) Rail shipments. An in-transit rail shipment arriving at an intermediate port of reentry or exit intended for further in-transit movement through Canada may be permitted to go forward under the accompanying in-transit manifest after verification by Customs that the manifest satisfactorily identifies the shipment.

(c) Checking and breaking of seals—(1) Checking seals. The Customs officer at the port of arrival shall check customs seals applied to the conveyance or compartment for unlocked or missing seals. Where the seals are unlocked or missing, the merchandise shall be treated as having been imported from the transited country.

(2) Breaking seals. In-bond seals shall be broken only by a Customs officer or by a person acting under the direction of a Customs officer. In-transit seals may be broken by any carrier's employee, or by a consignee at any time or place after the merchandise under such seals has been released by Customs.

(d) Proper manifest. In-transit merchandise shall not be released until proper in-transit manifests are received except that it may be treated as imported merchandise.

(e) Substitution of merchandise. Any instance of substitution of merchandise shall be reported to the Commissioner of Customs, and the merchandise shall be detained. (Sec. 554, 46 Stat. 743; 19 U.S.C. 1554)

Subpart D—Shipments in Transit Through the United States

§ 123.31 Merchandise in transit.

(a) From one contiguous country to another. Merchandise may be transported in transit across the United States between Canada and Mexico under the procedures set forth in Part 18 of this chapter for merchandise entered for transportation and exportation.

(b) From one point in a contiguous country to another through the United States. Merchandise may be transported from point to point in Canada or in Mexico through the United States in bond in accordance with the procedures set forth in § § 18.20 to 18.24 of this chapter except where those procedures are modified by this subpart or Subparts E for trucks transiting the United States, F for commercial traveler's samples, or G for baggage. (Sec. 553, 46 Stat. 742, as amended; 19 U.S.C. 1553)

(a) Form and number of copies required. Three copies of the transportation entry and manifest on Customs Form 7512 shall be presented upon arrival of merchandise which is to proceed under the provisions of this subpart.

(b) Consolidated train manifest. When the route is such that a train will remain intact while proceeding through the United States, a consolidated train manifest containing the same information as is required on individual manifests may be used.

(c) Disposition of manifest form. One copy of the manifest shall be delivered to the person in charge of the carrier to accompany the conveyance and be delivered to the Customs officer at the final port of exit. (Sec. 553, 46 Stat. 742, as amended; 19 U.S.C. 1553)

No seals other than the green in-transit seals placed on cars prior to departure from Canada shall be required for sealable carload shipments arriving at frontier ports for in-bond movement through the United States and return to Canada if:

(a) The sealing has been verified by Canadian Customs officers, and

(b) The seals are found to be properly attached and locked. (Sec. 553, 46 Stat. 742, as amended; 19 U.S.C. 1553)

§ 123.34 Certain vehicle and vessel shipments.

In the following circumstances, the copy of Customs Form 7512 to be retained at the port of first arrival may be adapted for use as a combined inward foreign manifest and in-bond transportation or direct exportation entry:

(a) When all the merchandise arriving on one vehicle (except on trucks on the Canadian border) is to move in bond in the importing vehicle in a continuing movement through the United States; or

(b) When all the merchandise arriving on one vessel or on one vehicle (except on trucks on the Canadian border) is entered immediately upon arrival either under a single immediate transportation entry or a single transportation and exportation or direct exportation entry.

When Customs Form 7512 is to be used in this manner, the foreign port of lading and the name of the shipper shall be shown in every case, and a certificate in the following form shall be legibly stamped on the manifest or on a separate paper securely fastened thereto and executed by the master of the vessel or the person in charge of the vehicle:

> This entry correctly covers all the merchandise on the vessel or vehicle, of which I am the master or person in charge, when it first arrived in the United States. If an error in the quantity, kind of article, or other details is discovered, I will immediately report the correct information to the district director of Customs. (Sec. 553, 46 Stat. 742, as amended; 19 U.S.C. 1553)

Subpart E—United States and Canada In-Transit Truck Procedures

§ 123.41 Truck shipments transiting Canada.

(a) Manifest required. Trucks with merchandise transiting Canada from point to point in the United States will be manifested on United States-Canada Transit Manifest, Customs Form 7512-B, Canada 8 1/2. The driver shall present the manifest in four copies to U.S. Customs at the United States port of departure for review and validation.

(b) Procedure at United States port of departure. The Customs officer receiving the manifest shall validate it by stamping each copy in the lower right hand corner to show the port name and date and by initialing each copy. All copies of the validated manifest then will be returned to the driver for presentation to Canadian Customs at the Canadian port of entry.

(c) Procedure at Canadian ports of arrival and exit. Truck shipments transiting Canada shall comply with Canadian Customs regulations. These procedures generally are as follows:

(1) Canadian port of arrival. The driver shall present a validated United States-Canada Transit Manifest Customs Form 7512-B Canada 8 1/2, in four copies to the Canadian Customs officer, who shall review the manifest for accuracy and verify its validation by U.S. Customs. If the manifest is found not to be properly validated, the truck shall be required to be returned to the United States port of departure so that the manifest may be validated. If the manifest is validated properly and no irregularity is found, the truck will be sealed unless sealing is waived by Canadian Customs. The original manifest will be retained by Canadian Customs at the port of arrival, and the three copies will be returned to the driver for presentation to Canadian Customs at the Canadian port of exit.

(2) Canadian port of exit. The driver shall present the three copies of the validated manifest to the Canadian Customs officer at the Canadian port of exit for certification. That officer shall verify that the seals are intact if the vehicle has been sealed or, if sealing has been waived, that there are no irregularities. After verification and certification of the manifest, two certified copies will be returned to the driver (one to be presented to U.S. Customs at the United States port of reentry, the other for the carrier's records), and the truck will be allowed to proceed to the United States.

(d) Procedure at the United States port of reentry. The driver of a truck reentering the United States after transiting Canada shall present a certified copy of the United States-Canada Transit Manifest, Customs Form 7512-B, Canada 8 1/2, to the U.S. Customs officer. If this copy of the manifest does not bear the certification of a Canadian Customs officer at the Canadian port of exit, the driver will be allowed to return to that port to have it certified. The driver will be allowed to break any seals affixed by Canadian Customs upon presentation of a certified manifest. If sealing has been waived, the U.S. Customs officer shall satisfy himself that the truck contains only that merchandise covered by the manifest which moved on the truck from the United States through Canada.

§ 123.42 Truck shipments transiting the United States.

(a) Manifest required. Trucks with merchandise transiting the United States from point to point in Canada will be manifested on United States-Canada Transit Manifest, Customs Form 7512-B, Canada 8 1/2. The driver, in accordance with Canadian Customs regulations, shall present the manifest in four copies to Canadian Customs at the Canadian port of departure for review and validation.

(b) Procedure at Canadian port of departure. The Customs officer receiving the manifest shall validate it by stamping each copy in the lower right hand corner to show the port name and date and by initialing each copy. All copies of the validated manifest then will be returned to the driver for presentation to U.S. Customs at the United States port of entry.

(c) Procedure at United States port of arrival—(1) Presentation of manifest. The driver shall present a validated United States-Canada Transit Manifest, Customs Form 7512-B Canada 8 1/2, in four copies to the U.S. Customs officer, who shall review the manifest for accuracy and verify its validation by Canadian Customs. If the manifest is found not to be validated properly, the truck will be required to be returned to the Canadian port of departure so that the manifest may be validated in accordance with Canadian Customs regulations. If the manifest is validated properly and no irregularity is found the truck will be sealed unless sealing is waived by U.S. Customs. The U.S. Customs officer shall note on the manifest over his initials the seal numbers or the waiver of sealing, retain the original, and return three copies of the manifest with the related Customs Form 7512-C (duplicate) to the driver for presentation to U.S. Customs at the United States port of exit.

(2) Sealing or waiver of sealing. Trucks transiting the United States will be sealed with red in-bond seals at the United States port of arrival unless sealing is waived in accordance with § 18.4 of this chapter. If a truck cannot be sealed effectively and sealing is deemed necessary to protect the revenue or to prevent violation of the Customs laws or regulations, the truck will not be permitted to transit the United States under bond.

(d) Procedure at United States port of exit. The driver shall present the three validated copies of the manifest and the related Customs Form 7512-C (duplicate) to the U.S. Customs officer at the U.S. port of exit. The Customs officer shall check the numbers and condition of the seals and record and certify his findings on all copies of the manifest, returning two certified copies to the driver (one to be presented to Canadian Customs at the Canadian port of reentry, the other for the carrier's records), and the truck will be allowed to proceed to Canada. The check of the seals shall be made as follows:

(1) If the seals are intact, they will be left unbroken unless there is indication that the contents should be verified.

(2) If the seals have been broken, or there is other indication that the contents should be verified, all merchandise will be required to be unladen and a detailed inventory made against the waybills.

...If sealing has been waived, the Customs officer shall verify the goods against the accompanying waybills in sufficient detail to detect any irregularity.

(e) Procedure at Canadian port of reentry. The driver of a truck reentering Canada after transiting the United States shall present a certified copy of the United States-Canada Transit Manifest, Customs Forms 7512-B Canada 8 1/2, to the Canadian Customs officer. If this copy of the manifest does not bear the certification of a U.S. Customs officer at the United States port of exit, the driver shall be allowed to return to that port to have it certified.

(f) Proof of exportation from United States. The certified copy of the manifest returned to the driver by the U.S. Customs officer at the U.S. port of exit will serve as proof of exportation of the shipment from the U.S. (Sec. 553, 46 Stat. 742, as amended; 19 U.S.C. 1553) [TD 81-85.]

When the traveler arrives at Customs with lists already prepared, the form may be inscribed "as per list attached."

(c) Checking, cording, and sealing by U.S. Customs officers. The Customs office shall check the list with the articles and satisfy himself that the values shown are approximately correct. The Customs officer will cord and seal the containers with yellow in-transit seals. The traveler may be required to assist the Customs officer in the cording and sealing. The original of the list, signed by the Customs officer over his title and showing that the articles on the list have been checked by the officer against those in the containers shall be returned to the traveler for submission by him to Canadian customs upon his arrival in Canada.

(d) In-transit manifest. The traveler shall execute and file Customs Form 7533-B, in the original only, at the U.S. port of departure, as an in-transit manifest covering the movement of the samples to the U.S. port through which the traveler will return. (a) General provisions. A commercial traveler arriving from Canada may be permitted to transport effectively corded and sealed samples in his automobile without further sealing in the United States, upon compliance with this section and subject to the conditions of § 18.20(b), since Customs bonded carriers as described in § 18.1 of this chapter are not considered to be reasonably available. Samples having a total value of not more than $200 may be carried by a nonresident commercial traveler through the United States without cording and sealing and without an in-transit manifest in accordance with § 148.41 of this chapter. [TD 73-27.]

Cording and sealing may be waived with the concurrence of the United States and Canadian Customs officers.

(d) Treatment at U.S. port of arrival. The list of samples properly authenticated shall be submitted upon arrival to the U.S. Customs officer at the port of arrival. Descriptions, quantities, and values may be shown thereon by noting "Commercial Samples," the number of corded and sealed containers, and the approximate total value of the samples. When cording and sealing has been waived with the concurrence of a Canadian Customs officer, samples must be identified on the manifest by suitable itemized descriptions and approximate values, or by attaching to the manifest a copy of the list of samples which has been initialed by the Customs officer.

(f) Presentation of samples and manifest at U.S. port of exit. The manifest on Customs Form 7520 shall be presented to the Customs officer at the U.S. port of exit, together with the samples covered. If the joint in-transit baggage card is found to be improperly prepared or attached upon arrival of the baggage in the United States for movement in bond, the carrier may be required to furnish the baggage card described in § 18.14 of this chapter for attachment to the baggage before being allowed to proceed. At the port of exit from the United States the joint in-transit baggage card shall be allowed to remain on the baggage. (Sec. 553, 46 Stat. 742, as amended; 19 U.S.C. 1553)

This merchandise may be entered within 1 year from date of importation for immediate transportation to any port of entry designated by the consignee.

(b) After expiration of 1 year from date of importation. Entry for immediate transportation shall be permitted after the expiration of the 1-year period only for the purpose of filing an entry for consumption at the port of destination.

(c) Withdrawal of less than single general order lot. The withdrawal from general order of less than a single general order lot shall not be permitted except as provided for in § 141.52 of this chapter. (Sec. 490, 46 Stat. 726, as amended; (19 U.S.C. 1490))

Subpart C—Sale of Unclaimed and Abandoned Merchandise

§ 127.21 Time of sale.

All unclaimed and abandoned merchandise shall be sold at the first regular sale held after the merchandise becomes subject to sale, unless a deferment of its sale is authorized by the Commissioner of Customs. Regular sales shall be made once every year or more often at the discretion of the district director. (Secs. 491, 559, 46 Stat. 726, as amended, 744, as amended, sec. 4, 73 Stat. 18; (19 U.S.C. 1491, 1559, 1753)

§ 127.22 Place of sale.

All merchandise at a port other than a headquarters port which becomes subject to sale, including explosives, perishable articles and articles liable to depreciation, shall be promptly reported to the headquarters port for disposition. The district director, in his discretion, may sell such merchandise as well as merchandise at the headquarters port which is subject to sale, at the headquarters port or any other port within the district. (Secs. 491, 559, 46 Stat. 726, as amended, 744, as amended, sec. 4, 73 Stat. 18; (19 U.S.C. 1491, 1559, 1753))

§ 127.23 Appraisement of merchandise.

Before unclaimed and abandoned merchandise is offered for sale, it shall be appraised in accordance with sections 402 and 402a, Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1401a, 1402). Such merchandise shall also be appraised at its actual domestic value in its condition at the time and place of examination, whether or not it has depreciated or appreciated in value since the date of exportation. The quantity of merchandise in each lot shall be reported. (Secs. 491, 559, 46 Stat. 726, as amended, 744, as amended; (19 U.S.C. 1491, 1559))

§ 127.24 Notice of sale.

Notice of sale shall be sent to Customs Form 5251, 30 days prior to the date of sale, or 30 days prior to the transfer of merchandise to the place of sale, to the following:

(a) Importer, if known; or

(b) Consignee, if name and address can be ascertained; or

(c) Shipper, his representative or agent, if merchandise is consigned to order or consignee cannot be ascertained; or

(d) Warehouse transferee; or

(e) Lienholder. (Secs. 491, 559, 46 Stat. 726, as amended 744, as amended; (19 U.S.C. 1491, 1559))

§ 127.25 Advertisement of sale.

(a) Regular advertising. Except as prescribed in sections 127.28(c), (d), and (h), and in paragraph (b) of this section, a brief notice of the time and place of sale shall be given for three successive weeks, immediately preceding the sale, in one newspaper of extensive circulation published at the port where the sale is to be held. The newspaper is to be selected by the district director and publication of the notice shall be authorized on the standard form provided for that purpose. The notice shall designate the place where catalogs may be obtained and a reasonable opportunity to inspect the merchandise shall be afforded prospective purchasers.

(b) Where proceeds are insufficient to pay expenses and duties. If the district director is satisfied that the proceeds of the sale will not be sufficient to pay the expenses and duties, a written or printed notice of the sale in lieu of the advertisement shall be conspicuously posted in the customhouse, and, if deemed necessary, at some other proper place for the time specified in paragraph (a) of this section. (Secs. 491, 559, 46 Stat. 726, as amended 744, as amended; (19 U.S.C. 1491, 1559)

Catalogs, if used shall specify the description of packages, the description and quantities of their contents, the appraised value thereof, and also the domestic value at the time and place of the examination of the merchandise. They shall be distributed at the sale and announcement made that the Government does not guarantee quality or value and that no allowance will be made for any deficiency found after sale. (Secs, 491, 559, 46 Stat. 726, as amended 744, as amended; (19 U.S.C. 1491, 1559))

§ 127.27 Conduct of sale.

Sales may be conducted by the district director, any employee designated by him or by a public auctioneer. (Secs, 491, 559, 46 Stat. 726, as amended 744, as amended; (19 U.S.C. 1491, 1559))

§ 127.28 Special merchandise.

(a) Drugs, seeds, plants, nursery stock, and other articles required to be inspected by Department of Agriculture. Before drugs, seeds, plants, nursery stock, and other articles required to be inspected by the Department of Agriculture are advertised, they shall be inspected by a representative of the Department of Agriculture to ascertain whether they comply with the requirements of the law and regulations of that Department. If found not to comply with such requirements, they shall be immediately destroyed.

(b) Pesticides and devices. Pesticides and devices intended for trapping, destroying, repelling or mitigating any pest or any other form of plant or animal life (other than man or other than bacteria, virus, or other microorganism on or in living man or other living animals) shall be inspected by a representative of the Environmental Protection Agency to ascertain whether they comply with the requirements of the law and regulations of that agency. If found not to comply with such requirements, they shall be immediately destroyed.

(c) Explosives, dangerous articles, fruit, and perishables. Unclaimed explosives and other dangerous articles, and fruit and other perishable articles shall be sold after 3-days' public notice. When it is probable that entry will be made at an early date for unclaimed perishable merchandise, the district director may hold the merchandise for a reasonable time in a bonded cold-storage warehouse if one is available.

(d) Articles liable to depreciation. Other unclaimed merchandise shall be sold at public auction upon public notice of not less than 6 or more than 10 days, as the district director may determine, if in his opinion such merchandise will depreciate and sell for an amount insufficient to pay the duties, storage, and other charges if allowed to remain in general order for 1 year.

(e) Tobacco and tobacco products. Tobacco articles and tobacco materials as defined in 26 U.S.C. 5702(j) and (k), may be sold for domestic consumption only if they will bring an amount sufficient to pay the expenses of sale as well as the internal revenue tax. If these articles cannot be sold for domestic consumption in accordance with the foregoing conditions, they shall be destroyed unless they can be advantageously sold for export from continuous Customs custody or unless the Commissioner of Customs has authorized other disposition to be made under the law. These articles may be sold for domestic consumption even though the proceeds of sale will not cover the duties due.

(f) Distilled spirits, wines, and malt beverages. All unclaimed and abandoned distilled spirits, wines, and malt beverages may be sold for domestic consumption if they will bring an amount sufficient to pay the internal revenue tax. If they cannot be sold for domestic consumption in accordance with the foregoing condition, they shall be destroyed unless they can be advantageously sold for export from continuous Customs custody or unless the Commissioner of Customs has authorized other disposition to be made under the law. The sale must be conducted in accordance with the alcoholic beverage laws of the state in which the sale is held.

(g) Other merchandise subject to internal revenue taxes. All other unclaimed and abandoned merchandise subject to internal revenue taxes may be sold for domestic consumption if it will bring an amount sufficient to pay the internal revenue tax. If, in the opinion of the district director, it is insufficient in value to justify its sale, the merchandise shall be destroyed, unless it can be advantageously sold for export from continuous Customs custody or unless the Commissioner of Customs has authorized other disposition to be made under the law. These articles may be sold for domestic consumption even though the proceeds of sale will not cover the duties due.

(h) Unclaimed merchandise remaining on dock. Unclaimed merchandise remaining on the dock which, in the opinion of the district director, will not sell for enough to pay the cost of cartage and storage shall be sold at public auction upon public notice of not less than 6 or more than 10 days. (Secs. 491, 492, 46 Stat. 726, as amended, 727, as amended, sec. 201, 72 Stat. 1412, 68A Stat. 716, as amended, 86 Stat. 995; (19 U.S.C. 1491, 1942, 26 U.S.C. 5688, 5753))

§ 127.29 Unsold merchandise.

Merchandise offered for sale but not sold shall be included in the next regular sale of unclaimed and abandoned merchandise. If the district director is satisfied that such merchandise is unsalable or of no commercial value, it shall be destroyed. (Secs. 491, 559, 46 Stat. 726, as amended, 744, as amended; (19 U.S.C. 1491, 1559))

Subpart D—Proceeds of Sale

§ 127.31 Disposition of proceeds.

From the proceeds of sale of merchandise remaining in public stores or in bonded warehouse beyond the time fixed by law, the following charges shall be paid in the order named:

(a) Internal revenue taxes.

(b) Expenses of advertising and sale.

(c) Expenses of cartage, storage and labor. When the proceeds are insufficient to pay such charges fully, they shall be paid pro rata. (For merchandise entered for warehousing, see § 127.32 of this subpart.)

(d) Duties.

(e) Any other charges due the United States in connection with the merchandise.

(f) Any sum due to satisfy a lien for freight, charges, or contributions in general average, of which due notice shall have been given in the manner prescribed by law. (Secs. 491, 493, 559, 46 Stat. 726, as amended, 727, as amended, 744, as amended, sec. 4, 73 Stat. 18; (19 U.S.C. 1491, 1493, 1559, 1753))

§ 127.32 Expenses of cartage, storage, and labor.

The expenses of cartage, storage, and labor for merchandise entered for warehousing shall be paid in the following order:

(a) When such merchandise was warehoused in public stores, expenses of storage and labor shall be paid after expenses of sale (pro-rated when proceeds are insufficient to pay them fully) and any cartage charges shall be paid last.

(b) When such merchandise was warehoused in a bonded warehouse, expenses of storage, cartage, and labor shall be paid last (pro-rated when proceeds are insufficient to pay them fully). (Secs. 491, 493, 559, 46 Stat. 726, as amended, 727, as amended, 744, as amended; (19 U.S.C. 1491, 1493, 1559))

§ 127.33 Chargeable duties.

The duties chargeable on any merchandise within the purview of this subpart shall be assessed on the appraised dutiable value at the rate of duty chargeable at the time the merchandise became subject to sale. Household and personal effects of the character provided for in schedule 8, part 2A, Tariff Schedules of the United States (19 U.S.C. 1202), which belong to persons who have not arrived in this country before the effects become subject to sale, are dutiable at the rates in effect when the effects become subject to sale, even though such persons arrive and make entry for the effects before they are sold. (Secs. 491, 493, 559, 46 Stat. 726, as amended, 727, as amended, 744, as amended; (19 U.S.C. 1491, 1493, 1559))

§ 127.34 Auctioneer's commissions.

The duties of the auctioneer shall be confined to selling the merchandise and his charge for such service shall in no case exceed the commissions usual at the port. Such commissions shall be based on the amount of the successful bid. (Secs. 491, 493, 559, 46 Stat. 726, as amended, 727, as amended, 744, as amended; (19 U.S.C. 1491, 1493, 1559))

§ 127.35 Presentation of accounts.

Accounts for the auctioneer's charges and all other expenses of sale which may be properly chargeable on the merchandise shall be presented to the district director for payment within 10 days from the date of sale. Such expenses shall be apportioned pro rata on the amounts received for different lots sold. (Secs. 491, 493, 559, 46 Stat. 726, as amended, 727, as amended, 744, as amended; (19 U.S.C. 1491, 1493, 1559))

§ 127.36 Claim for surplus proceeds of sale.

(a) Filing of claim. Claims for the surplus proceeds of the sale of unclaimed or abandoned merchandise shall be filed with the district director at whose direction the merchandise was sold. The following shall be used in filing a claim:

(1) Unclaimed merchandise. Claims for surplus proceeds of the sale of unclaimed merchandise which has become abandoned and sold under section 491 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1491), shall be supported by the original bill of lading. If only part of a shipment is involved, either a photostatic or certified copy of the original bill of lading may be submitted in lieu of the original bill of lading.

(2) Involuntarily abandoned merchandise— (i) Warehouse goods deemed abandoned. Claims for surplus proceeds of sale of warehouse goods deemed involuntarily abandoned sold under section 559 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1559), shall be established by reference to the warehouse entry, or, if the right to withdraw the merchandise from warehouse has been transferred, by reference to the documents by which the transfer was made.

(ii) Trade fair articles deemed abandoned. Claims for surplus proceeds of sale of trade fair articles deemed involuntarily (mandatorily) abandoned under section 4 of the Trade Fair Act of 1959 (19 U.S.C. 1753(c)), shall be supported by the original bill of lading. If only part of a shipment is involved, either a photostatic copy or certified copy of the original bill of lading may be submitted in lieu of the original bill of lading. (See § 147.47 of this chapter.)

(b) Payment of claim. If a claim of the owner or consignee of unclaimed or abandoned merchandise for the surplus proceeds of sale is properly established as provided in this section, such proceeds of sale shall be paid to him pursuant to section 493 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1493).

(c) Doubtful claims. Any doubtful claims for the proceeds of sale along with all pertinent documents and information available to the district director shall be forwarded to the Commissioner of Customs for instructions or for referral to the General Accounting Office for direct settlement. (Secs. 491, 493, 559, 46 Stat. 726, as amended, 727, as amended, 744, as amended, sec. 4, 73 Stat. 18 (19 U.S.C. 1491, 1493, 1559, 1753))

§ 127.37 Insufficient proceeds.

(a) Warehouse merchandise deemed involuntarily abandoned. If the proceeds of sale of warehouse merchandise deemed involuntarily abandoned are insufficient to pay the duties after payment of all charges having priority, the deficiency shall be collected under the warehouse entry bond.

(b) Unclaimed merchandise and trade fair articles involuntarily abandoned. If the proceeds of sale of unclaimed merchandise or trade fair articles involuntarily abandoned are insufficient to pay the charges and duties, the consignee shall be liable for the deficiency unless the merchandise was shipped to him without his consent. If no entry for the merchandise has been filed, and no other attempt to control the merchandise has been made, the merchandise shall be regarded as shipped to the consignee without his consent and no effort shall be made to collect any deficiency of duties or charges from such consignee. (Secs. 491, 492, 493, 559, 46 Stat. 726, as amended, 727, as amended, 744, as amended, sec. 4, 73 Stat. 18 (19 U.S.C. 1491, 1492, 1493, 1559, 1753))

This part sets forth rules and procedures applicable to quotas administered by Headquarters, U.S. Customs Service. [TD 73-203.]

Subpart A—General Provisions

§ 132.1 Definitions.

(a) Absolute (or quantitative) quotas. "Absolute (or quantitative) quotas" are those which permit a limited number of units of specified merchandise to be entered or withdrawn for consumption during specified periods. Once the quantity permitted under the quota is filled, no further entries or withdrawals for consumption of merchandise subject to quota are permitted. Some absolute quotas limit the entry or withdrawal of merchandise from particular countries (geographic quotas) while others are global quotas and limit the entry or withdrawal of merchandise not by source but by total quantity.

(b) Tariff-rate quotas. "Tariff-rate quotas" permit a specified quantity of merchandise to be entered or withdrawn for consumption at a reduced duty rate during a specified period.

(d) Presentation. Presentation is the delivery in proper form to the appropriate Customs officer of:

(1) An entry summary for consumption, which shall serve as both the entry and the entry summary, with estimated duties attached (see sec. 141.0a(b)), or

(e) Quota-class merchandise. "Quota-class merchandise" is any imported merchandise subject to limitations under an absolute or a tariff-rate quota.

(f) Quota priority. "Quota priority" is the precedence granted to one entry or withdrawal for consumption of quota-class merchandise over other entries or withdrawals of merchandise subject to the same quota.

(g) Quota status. "Quota status" is the standing which entitles quota-class merchandise to admission under an absolute quota, or to a reduced rate of duty under a tariff-rate quota, or to any other quota benefit.

§ 132.2 Enactment and administration of quotas.

(a) Enactment. Tariff-rate quotas and absolute quotas are established by Presidential proclamations, Executive orders, and legislative enactments. These documents are published in the Customs Bulletin.

(b) Administration. Quotas vary by the type of commodity involved, the country of exportation, the period or periods the quota is open and the type of quota. Quotas are divided into two categories: Quotas administered directly by Headquarters, U.S. Customs Service, and quotas administered by other agencies which are enforced by Headquarters, U.S. Customs Service, and which may require special procedures or special documentation in accordance with the regulations and directives of the particular agency involved.

(c) Strict construction employed. The terms of a Presidential proclamation, Executive order, or legislative enactment establishing a quota, and the regulations implementing the quota, must be strictly complied with.

An entry summary for consumption or a withdrawal for consumption for quota-class merchandise shall be presented only during official office hours, except as provided in sections 132.12 and 141.62(b) of this chapter. For purposes of administering quotas, "official office hours" shall mean 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. in all time zones. [TD 79-221.]

(a) Absolute quota merchandise. Absolute quota merchandise imported in excess of the quantity admissible under the applicable quota must be disposed of in accordance with paragraph (c) of this section.

(b) Tariff-rate quota merchandise. Merchandise imported in excess of the quantity admissible at the reduced quota rate under a tariff-rate quota is permitted entry at the higher duty rate. However, it may be disposed of in accordance with paragraph (c) of this section.

(c) Disposition of excess merchandise. Merchandise imported in excess of either an absolute or a tariff-rate quota may be held for the opening of the next quota period by placing it in a foreign-trade zone or by entering it for warehouse, or it may be exported or destroyed under Customs supervision.

§ 132.6 Exception to reduced rates.

Reduced or modified duty rates under tariff-rate quotas established pursuant to section 350 of the Tariff Act of 1930, as amended and extended (19 U.S.C. 1351), are not applicable to products imported directly or indirectly from the countries or areas listed under General Headnote 3(e), Tariff Schedules of the United States, as amended (19 U.S.C. 1202).

Subpart B—Administration of Quotas

§ 132.11 Quota priority and status.

(a) Determination of quota priority and status.—Quota priority and status are determined as of the time of presentation of the entry summary for consumption, or withdrawal for consumption, in proper form in accordance with section 132.1(d).

(b) Documentation and deposit of duties in proper form required. Merchandise covered by an entry summary for consumption which serves as both the entry and the entry summary, or by a withdrawal for consumption, which is not in proper form, or for which duties have not been attached or deposited in proper form, shall not be regarded as entered for purposes of quota priority and shall not acquire quota status. See sections 141.4, 141.63, 141.68, 141.69, and 141.101 of this chapter. [TD 79-221.]

(c) Informal entries. Mail entries or informal entries shall be regarded as presented for purposes of quota priority when all requirements have been met for the preparation of such an entry.

(d) Premature presentation of entry or withdrawal. Quota status will not attach to merchandise in a quota period by reason of the presentation of an entry or withdrawal for consumption at any time prior to the opening of that period.

§ 132.11a Time of presentation.

(a) General Rule.—Except as provided in paragraph (b) of this section, the time of presentation of an entry for quota purposes shall be the time of delivery in proper form of:

(1) An entry summary for consumption, which serves as both the entry and the entry summary, with estimated duties attached, or

(2) A withdrawal for consumption, with estimated duties attached.

(b) Before arrival of merchandise.—The entry summary for consumption, without estimated duties attached, may be submitted for preliminary review before the merchandise arrives within the limits of the port where entry is to be made. In that case, the time of presentation of the entry summary for consumption shall be the time estimated duties are deposited after the importing carrier arrives within the port limits. [TD 79-221.]

§ 132.12 Procedure on opening of potentially filled quotas.

(a) Preliminary review before opening.—When it is anticipated that a quota will be filled at the opening of the quota period, entry summaries for consumption, or withdrawals for consumption, with estimated duties attached, shall not be presented before 12 noon eastern standard time in all time zones. However, an entry summary for consumption, or withdrawal for consumption, for merchandise which has arrived within the Customs territory of the United States may be submitted for preliminary review without deposit of estimated duties within a time period before the opening approved by the district director. Submission of these documents before opening will not accord the merchandise quota priority or status.

(b) Simultaneous presentation.—Special arrangements shall be made so that all entry summaries for consumption, or withdrawals for consumption, for quota merchandise may be presented at the exact moment of the opening of the quota in all time zones. All importers prepared to present entry summaries for consumption, or withdrawals for consumption, when the quota opens shall be given equal opportunity to do so. All entry summaries for consumption, or withdrawals for consumption, presented in proper form (including those submitted for review before opening of the quota period if accompanied by the deposit of estimated duties) shall be considered to have been presented simultaneously.

(c) Proration of quantities.—The quantities on all entry summaries for consumption, or withdrawals for consumption, submitted simultaneously shall be prorated by headquarters against the quota quantity admissible to determine the percentage to be allocated to each importer under the quota. Merchandise in excess of the quota shall be disposed of in accordance with section 132.5.

(2) In the event a quota is prorated, entry summaries for consumption, or withdrawals for consumption, with estimated duties attached, shall be returned to the importer for adjustment. The time of presentation for quota purposes, in that event, shall be the exact moment of the opening of the quota provided—

(i) An adjusted entry summary for consumption, or withdrawal for consumption, with estimated duties attached, is deposited within 5 working days after headquarters authorizes release of the merchandise, and

(ii) The importer takes delivery of the merchandise within 15 working days after release is authorized. [TD 79-221.]

§ 132.13 Quotas after opening.

(a) Procedure when nearing fulfillment.—To secure for each importer the rightful quota priority and status for his quota-class merchandise, and to close the quota simultaneously at all ports of entry—

(1) For release of merchandise.

(i) Tariff-rate.—When instructed by headquarters, the district director shall require an importer to present an entry summary for consumption, with estimated duties attached, at the over-quota rate of duty until headquarters has determined the quantity, if any, of the merchandise entitled to the quota rate. If any of the merchandise entered at the over-quota rate is entitled to the quota rate, Customs shall amend the entry summary and refund to the importer any excess duties paid. This section does not prohibit an importer from obtaining release of the merchandise under the immediate delivery procedure. If an importer desires to enter only that quantity entitled to the quota rate, he may request that the merchandise not be released from Customs custody until headquarters has determined the quantity entitled to the quota rate.

(ii) Absolute.—Except as provided for in § 142.21 (e)(2) and (g) of this chapter, absolute quota merchandise shall not be released under the immediate delivery procedure.

An entry summary for consumption, with estimated duties attached, setting forth the quantity desired to be entered, shall be presented. However, the merchandise shall not be released until Customs has determined the quantity entitled to absolute quota status and priority.

(iii) *Quota Proration.*When it is determined that entry summaries for consumption or withdrawals for consumption must be amended to permit only the quantity of tariff-rate and absolute quota merchandise determined to be within the quota, the entry summaries for consumption or withdrawals for consumption must be returned to the importer for adjustment. The time of presentation for quota purposes in that event shall be the same as the time of the initial presentation of the entry summaries for consumption or withdrawals for consumption provided—

(A) An adjusted entry summary for consumption, or withdrawals for consumption, with estimated duties attached, is deposited within 5 working days after Headquarters authorizes release of the merchandise, and

(B) The importer takes delivery of the merchandise within 15 working days after release is authorized. [TD 81-260.]

(2) Notation on entry papers.—The appropriate Customs officer shall note the exact date, hour, and minute of presentation on each entry summary for consumption, or withdrawal for consumption, and shall report these facts to Headquarters. [TD 79-221.]

(b) Closing of the quota. Except as provided by § 132.12, at the closing of a quota all entries or withdrawals for consumption which have acquired quota status due to priority of presentation shall be entitled to quota benefits. All other entries or withdrawals are without quota status and are not entitled to any quota benefits. All the latter shall be disposed of in accordance with § 132.5.

(1) Requirements for release.—Quota-class merchandise shall not be released upon filing entry documentation before the presentation of an entry summary for consumption, or a withdrawal for consumption, with estimated duties attached. However, quota-class merchandise may be released under a special permit for immediate delivery in accordance with section 142.21(e) of this chapter.

(2) Effect of release under immediate delivery.—Release of quota-class merchandise under a special permit for immediate delivery before presentation of an entry summary for consumption, or a withdrawal for consumption, with estimated duties attached, shall not accord merchandise any quota priority or status or entitle it to any other quota benefit.

(3) Effect of inadvertent release.—Inadvertent release under a special permit for immediate delivery, or upon filing entry documentation, before presentation of an entry summary for consumption, or a withdrawal for consumption, with estimated duties attached, shall not accord the merchandise any quota priority or status or entitle it to any other quota benefit.

(4) Procedures following inadvertent release.

(i) Quota nearing fulfillment.—If quota-class merchandise is released inadvertently under a special permit for immediate delivery, or under entry documentation, before the presentation of an entry summary for consumption, or a withdrawal for consumption, with estimated duties attached, and the quota is nearing fulfillment, the district director—

(A) May demand the return to Customs custody of the released merchandise in accordance with section 141.113 of this chapter,

(B) Shall require the timely presentation of the entry summary for consumption, or a withdrawal for consumption, with the estimated duties attached, and

(C) May assess liquidated damages under the entry bond in an amount equal to the value of the merchandise, plus estimated duties (computed at the over-quota rate for tariff-rate quota merchandise), if the merchandise is (1) released before presentation of an entry summary for consumption or a withdrawal for consumption, with estimated duties attached; (2) the merchandise is not returned to Customs custody within 30 days from the date of demand for redelivery; or (3) the entry summary for consumption, or the withdrawal for consumption, with estimated duties attached, is not presented timely.

(D) The district director may cancel the claim for liquidated damages if he is satisfied by the evidence that release was due to causes wholly beyond the control of the importer, that no act or omission on the part of the importer formed the basis for the release, and that there was no intent on the part of the importer to evade any law or regulation. The district director also may cancel the claim for liquidated damages if the merchandise is redelivered to Customs custody within 30 days from the date of the demand, or if the entry summary for consumption, or withdrawal for consumption, with estimated duties attached, is presented timely.

(ii) Quota not nearing fulfillment.—If quota-class merchandise is released inadvertently under a special permit for immediate delivery, or under entry documentation, before the presentation of an entry summary for consumption, or a withdrawal for consumption, with estimated duties attached, and the quota is not nearing fulfillment, the district director—

(A) Shall require the timely presentation of the entry summary for consumption, or a withdrawal for consumption, with estimated duties attached, and

(B) May assess liquidated damages under the entry bond in an amount equal to the value of the merchandise, plus estimated duties (computed at the over-quota rate for tariff-rate quota merchandise), if the merchandise is (1) released before presentation of an entry summary for consumption, or a withdrawal for consumption, with estimated duties attached; or (2) if the entry summary for consumption, or the withdrawal for consumption with estimated duties attached, is not presented timely.

(C) The district director may cancel the claim for liquidated damages if he is satisfied by the evidence that the release was due to causes wholly beyond the control of the importer, that no act or omission on the part of the importer formed the basis for release, and that there was no intent on the part of the importer to evade any law or regulation. The district director also may cancel the claim for liquidated damages if the entry summary for consumption, or withdrawal for consumption, with estimated duties attached, is presented timely.

(b) Permit of delivery.—(1) Effect of filing.—The issuance of a permit of delivery shall not accord the merchandise any quota priority or status nor entitle it to any other quota benefit.

(2) Time of issuance.—(i) Absolute quota merchandise.—A permit of delivery for merchandise subject to an absolute quota shall not be issued before a determination of the quota status of the merchandise.

(ii) Tariff-rate quota merchandise.—A permit delivery for merchandise subject to a tariff-rate quota shall not be issued before a determination of the quota status of the merchandise unless estimated duties are deposited at the over-quota rate of duty. [TD 79-221.]

Merchandise entered for warehouse for which a withdrawal for consumption has been made in the manner prescribed in § 141.68(c) of this chapter prior to the opening of any quota period, may not be accorded any quota benefit which may become effective after the time of presentation of such withdrawal, even though the permit of delivery for the withdrawn merchandise is not delivered to the Customs warehouse officer until after the effective date of the quota benefit. [TD 79-221.]

Subpart C—Mail Importation of Absolute Quota Merchandise

§ 132.21 Regulations applicable.

In addition to the regulations applicable to all mail importations (see Part 145 of this chapter), the regulations in this subpart shall apply to mail importations of absolute quota merchandise.

§ 132.22 When quota is filled.

Any packages containing merchandise subject to an absolute quota which is filled shall be returned to the postmaster for return to the sender immediately as undeliverable mail. The addressee will be notified on Customs Form 3509 or in any other appropriate manner that entry has been denied because the quota is filled.

§ 132.23 Partial release procedure.

(a) Notification of quota restrictions. If because of quota restrictions, a mail importation cannot be released, the district director at the port of destination shall notify the addressee on Customs Form 3509 of the procedure required by paragraph (b) of this section, and shall inform the addressee that upon return of the Acknowledgement of Delivery by Postal Service, the packages admissible under the absolute quota will be forwarded to him and the restricted packages will be returned to the sender as inadmissible. The district director may at his discretion hold packages if it appears that the absolute quota will reopen in less than 30 days.

(b) Acknowledgement of delivery. An Acknowledgement of Delivery by Postal Service shall be sent to the addressee. He shall be advised that if he desires to secure release of less than the total number of packages of the merchandise, the Acknowledgement of Delivery by Postal Service must be signed by him and returned to the district director. Such Acknowledgment of Delivery by Postal Service shall be in the following form:

Acknowledgment of Delivery by Postal Service

In consideration of the fact that certain articles in a mail importation consisting of ———————————— (state number) packages mailed to me by ———————————————— (name of sender) of ——————————————— (address) on —————————— (date of mailing), are subject to quota restrictions under which only a portion of such articles may be admitted to entry at one time, and the Postal Service permits no division of the importation before delivery thereof, and since I am desirous of receiving the packages of such importation which are admissible to entry under the quota administered by the United States Customs, I hereby agree and acknowledge that delivery of the package or packages to the United States Customs shall be regarded as delivery by the Postal Service to me.

(Signature of addressee)

(c) Agreement to less than full delivery. If, in any case, the sender of a mail package has indicated his agreement to the delivery of less than the entire importation at one time, an Acknowledgment of Delivery by Postal Service need not be secured from the addressee.

(d) Deposit required. If a portion of a mail shipment may be released, the district director may require a deposit of an amount sufficient to defray the expenses of repacking merchandise for shipment by mail to the addressee. The shipment shall be under Government frank without new postage.

§ 132.24 Entry.

Unless a formal entry or entry by appraisement is required, a mail entry on Customs Form 3419 shall be issued and forwarded with the package to the postmaster for delivery to the addressee and collection of any duties in the same manner as for any other mail package subject to Customs treatment.

§ 132.25 Undeliverable shipment.

If within a reasonable time, but not to exceed 30 days, the addressee fails to indicate to the district director an intention to receive delivery of the packages or a portion thereof in accordance with the notice on Customs Form 3509 which was sent to him by the district director, the importation shall be treated in the same manner as other undeliverable mail.

Subpart A—Recordation of Trademarks

§ 133.1 Recordation of trademarks.

(a) Eligible trademarks. Trademarks registered by the U.S. Patent Office under the Trademark Act of March 3, 1881, the Trademark Act of February 20, 1905, or the Trademark Act of 1946 (15 U.S.C. 1051 et seq.) except those registered on the supplemental register under the 1946 Act (15 U.S.C. 1096), may be recorded with the U.S. Customs Service if the registration is current.

(b) Fee. The application shall be accompanied by a fee of $190 for each trademark to be recorded. However, if the trademark is registered for more than one class of goods (based on the class, or classes, first stated on the certificate of registration, without consideration of any class, or classes, also stated in parentheses) the fee for recordation shall be $190 for each class for which the applicant desires to record the trademark with the United States Customs Service. For example, to secure recordation of a trademark registered for three classes of goods, a fee of $570 is payable. A check or money order shall be made payable to the United States Customs Service. (Sec. 42, 60 Stat. 440, sec. 501, 65 Stat. 290; 15 U.S.C. 1124, 31 U.S.C. 483a) [TD 75-160.]

If there is a change in ownership of a recorded trademark and the new owner wishes to continue the recordation with the United States Customs Service, he shall apply therefor by:

(2) A statement describing any change of ownership or in the name of owner, in compliance with §§ 133.5 and 133.6 of this part, and any change of addresses of owners or places of manufacture; and

(3) A fee of $80 for each renewal of a trademark recordation. Where the trademark covers several classes, a fee of $80 is required for each class. A check or money order shall be made payable to the United States Customs Service. [TD 75-160.]

The request shall be in writing, addressed to the Commissioner of Customs, and shall set forth the circumstances due to which application is delayed.

(c) Untimely application. Failure of the trademark owner to submit a renewal application within the 3-month grace period afforded in accordance with paragraph (a) of this section or within an extension of time granted in accordance with paragraph (b) of this section, shall deprive the trademark owner of the renewal process. A delinquent applicant will be required to apply anew to record the renewed trademark in accordance with the procedures and requirements of §§ 133.2 and 133.3. (Sec. 42, 60 Stat. 440, sec. 501, 65 Stat. 290; 15 U.S.C. 1124, 31 U.S.C. 483a)

§ 133.15 Term of Customs trade name recordation.

Protection for a recorded trade name shall remain in force as long as the trade name is used. The recordation shall be canceled upon request of the recordant or upon evidence of disuse. From time to time, the Commissioner of Customs may request the trade name owner to advise whether the name is still in use. The failure of a trade name owner to respond to such a request shall be regarded as evidence of disuse. (Sec. 42, 60 Stat. 440; 15 U.S.C. 1124)

Subpart C—Importations Bearing Recorded Trademarks or Trade Names

(a) Copying or simulating marks or names. Articles of foreign or domestic manufacture bearing a mark or name copying or simulating a recorded trademark or trade name shall be denied entry and are subject to forfeiture as prohibited importations. A "copying or simulating" mark or name is an actual counterfeit of the recorded mark or name or is one which so resembles it as to be likely to cause the public to associate the copying or simulating mark with the recorded mark or name.

(b) Identical trademark. Foreign-made articles bearing a trademark identical with one owned and recorded by a citizen of the United States or a corporation or association created or organized within the United States are subject to seizure and forfeiture as prohibited importations.

(c) Restrictions not applicable. The restrictions set forth in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section do not apply to imported articles when:

(1) Both the foreign and the U.S. trademark or trade name are owned by the same person or business entity;

(2) The foreign and domestic trademark or trade name owners are parent and subsidiary companies or are otherwise subject to common ownership or control (see §§ 133.2(d) and 133.12(d));

(3) The articles of foreign manufacture bear a recorded trademark or trade name applied under authorization of the U.S. owner;

(4) The objectionable mark is removed or obliterated prior to importation in such a manner as to be illegible and incapable of being reconstituted, for example by:

(i) Grinding off imprinted trademarks wherever they appear;

(ii) Removing and disposing of plates bearing a trademark or trade name;

(5) The merchandise is imported by the recordant of the trademark or trade name or his designate;

(6) The recordant gives written consent to an importation of articles otherwise subject to the restrictions set forth in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, and such consent is furnished to appropriate Customs officials; or

(7) The articles of foreign manufacture bear a recorded trademark and the personal exemption is claimed and allowed under § 148.55 of this chapter. [TD 79-159.]

§ 133.22 Detention of articles subject to restrictions.

(a) In general. Articles subject to the restrictions of § 133.21 shall be detained for 30 days from the date of notice to the importer that such restrictions apply to permit the importer to establish that any of the circumstances described in § 133.21(c) are applicable.

(b) Notice of detention. Notice of detention of articles found subject to the restrictions of § 133.21 shall be given the importer in writing, except that for articles accompanying the importer or arriving by mail, notice of detention shall be given in the following manner:

(1) Articles accompanying importer. When the articles are carried as accompanying baggage or on the person of persons arriving in the United States, the Customs inspector shall orally advise the importer that the articles are subject to detention.

(2) Mail importations. When the articles arrive by mail in noncommercial shipments, or in commercial shipments valued at $250 or less, notice of the detention shall be given on Customs Form 8.

(c) Failure to obtain release in 30 days. If the importer has not obtained release of detained articles within the 30-day period of detention, the merchandise shall be seized and forfeiture proceedings instituted. The importer shall be promptly notified of the seizure and liability to forfeiture and his right to petition for relief in accordance with the provisions of Part 171 of this chapter.

§ 133.23 Release of detained articles.

(a) General. Articles detained in accordance with § 133.22 may be released to the importer during the 30-day period of detention if any of the circumstances allowing exemption from trademark or trade name restriction set forth in § 133.21(c) are established.
